SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE For CATARRH

INSTANTLY relieves and permanently cures this loathsome disease in all its varying stages. Possesses peculiar healing and purifying properties of a specific character, which, being combined with herbs and barks in their essential form, free from every drop of poisonous ingredient, and in this respect differs from every other Catarrh remedy. In consequence, it has found its way from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast, and wherever known has become the standard remedy for the treatment of Catarrh. The proprietors have been waited upon by gentlemen of national reputation who have been cured by this remedy, and who have, at considerable expense and personal trouble, spread the good news throughout the circles in which they move. When you hear a wealthy gentleman of intelligence and refinement say, "I owe my life to Sanford's Radical Cure," you may be certain that it is an article of great value, and worthy to be classed among the standard medical specifics of the day.

THE benefit I derive from its daily use is to me incalculable.
HENRY WELLS, of WELLS, FARGO & Co.

IT has cured me after twelve years of undisputed suffering.
GEO. W. HOUGHTON, WALTHAM, MASS.

I FOLLOWED the directions to the letter and am happy to say I have had a permanent cure.
D. W. OLIVER, Cor. Madison & Green Sts., N. Y.

I HAVE recommended it to quite a number of my friends, all of whom have written me that their high estimate of its value was fully attained with them.
WM. BOWEN, 113 PINE ST., ST. LOUIS.

AFTER using two bottles I find myself perfectly cured. I have since recommended it to over one hundred bottles with the greatest success.
WM. WOOD, 119 HARRISON AVE., BOSTON.

WE have sold SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE for nearly one year and can say candidly that we never sold a similar preparation that gave such universal satisfaction. We have yet to learn of the first complaint.
S. D. BALDWIN & CO., WASHINGTON, IND.

THE cure effected in my case by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE was so remarkable that it seemed to those who had been witnesses to my relief from any of the usual remedies that it could not be generally made available to the benefit of humanity. Thousands of my friends, after seeing the effect upon me, procured it for themselves, and I have yet to hear of the first one who has not been benefited.
GEORGE F. BLAKMORE, Druggist, Boston.

Each package of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE contains Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube, and full directions for its use in all cases. Price, $1.00. For sale by all wholesale and retail Druggists and dealers throughout the United States and Canadas. WEEKS & POTTER, General Agents and Wholesale Druggists, Boston, Mass.

COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER

An "Electro-Galvanic Battery combined with a highly Medicated Strengthening Plaster, forming the best Plaster for pains and aches in the World of Medicine.

A MORBID SWELLING.

Gentlemen,—I sent for one of COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTERS, and it has been of great benefit in reducing a swelling in my left side that two physicians had pronounced a morbid growth of the Spleen, and one pronounced it an Ovarian Tumor.
CENTRALIA, ILL., March 20, 1877. A. HINTER.

THEY ARE THE BEST.

Gentlemen,—Enclosed you will find stamps, for which send me two more Collins' Voltaic Plasters. You will see by the inclosed that I am something of a cripple. Your Plasters do me more good than all the doctors and medicine I have taken for my lameness. I have spoken to many persons who had given up the use of plasters from good for nothing, and now they wish that they had taken them before they gave up. I have got along this winter better than I have before in three years. Wished I could have heard of your plasters sooner.
Yours, &c., LORETTA M. CROSS.
HALLSTON SPA, N. Y., March 21, 1877.

Price, 25 Cents.

Be careful to ask for COLLINS' VOLTAIC PLASTER lest you get some worthless imitation. Sold by all Wholesale and Retail Druggists throughout the United States and Canadas, and by WEEKS & POTTER, Proprietors, Boston, Mass.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

The Ben. Holladay Mansion.

NEW YORK, 29.—The World says: It is said that the trustees of the Roman Catholic College, at Manhattanville, have purchased Ben. Holladay's mansion on the Ophir farm and about forty acres of land surrounding it, with the intention of removing the college there.

Butler's Defeat Predicted.

The Times' Boston special says: The greenback craze has reached its acme, and is now waning. Even greenbackers predict the defeat of Butler.

A Scandal Sensation.

A Times' New Orleans special of the 28th says: The death of Harry Smith, last evening, brought Hon. J. H. Ackleu again into unpleasant prominence. About three years ago scandal was rife in Bayou Teche, in which Ackleu and a young woman connected with the Palfrey family, one of the oldest in the State, were implicated. It was publicly stated that Ackleu seduced her and then married her to this hostler, to cover up his crime. It is certain the hostler married her, brought her to this city, and then deserted her. Not long after a child was born. The affair was generally discussed and Ackleu severely censured. He, however, produced certain affidavits from the girl and her mother setting forth that the alleged outrage was a fabrication. The matter then dropped. About three months ago Ackleu and Smith had some trouble about the publication bearing upon the Washington scandal. Shortly afterwards, Smith heard of the presence in town of the girl above alluded to and sought her out. She was in an impoverished condition, and Smith offered her shelter in his house. Shortly after, she contracted fever and died. Before she died, however, according to Smith's statement, she gave him an affidavit duly sworn to before a justice of the peace to the effect that Ackleu had drugged her with wine and seduced her. Last Sunday evening Smith told the Times correspondent, in presence of witnesses, that he not only had that affidavit but others clearly proving Ackleu's guilt. These documents he said he would produce before the democratic State central committee and make Ackleu retire from the ticket. On Tuesday, Smith contracted fever, but was doing well up to Friday morning, at that time a member of the democratic State central committee called upon him, bearing the affidavits that Ackleu had obtained for his defense and asked Smith for proofs of his charge. Smith became greatly excited, relapsed and died within a few hours. Before his death, however, a justice of the peace, at his own request, it is said, put all his effects under seal, in which condition they will remain until examined by an administrator. Ackleu averred to your correspondent that the affair was an attempt at blackmail. There has been considerable talk in the city over the affair, and the examination of Smith's effects is waited for with intense interest. Smith claimed that the affidavits in Ackleu's possession were partly forgeries, and partly obtained by hush-money. The affair is decidedly the sensation of the city at present. An attempt was made, last night, to get the child of the dead girl away from her colored nurse, at Smith's house, but it was frusterated.

The Australian Cricketers.

The gentlemen composing the celebrated team of Australian cricket players arrived on the steamer City of Richmond.

Arrival of the Fenian Prisoners.

The released Fenian prisoners Edward O'Meagher, Condon and Patrick Melody, arrived, to-day, on board the steamer Mosel. The reception committee, among whom where Col. Richard S. Burke, Gen. Burke, O'Donovan Rossa and Caph Ahr, and many others, assembled on board the revenue cutter Sherman, which was given them for the occasion by the government and proceeded down the bay to meet the released patriots. They took them on board at the quarantine station, and a scene of the most striking character took place. The exiles were warmly embraced by their fellow-countrymen, who had assembled to welcome them to America. Both Condon and Melody looked wonderfully strong and healthy considering their recent release, after an imprisonment of eleven long years. They were delighted beyond measure at the cordial reception which was granted them. They were soon landed at the Battery, and thence conveyed in carriages to Sweeny's Hotel. The news of their arrival quickly spread, and throughout the day the hotel was thronged with persons desirous of grasping the hands of the exiles. The committee of Nationalists, through Michael Davitt, presented them with a long address of welcome.

Both Mr. Condon and Mr. Melody made a brief address and returned their cordial and heartfelt thanks. No public demonstration or parade will be given, but a substantial purse is being made up for the parties.

Arrest of a Forger.

Detective Reeves, of Cleveland, Ohio, arrived at the central police office at noon, to-day, with Norman U. Marlin, alias Geo. Warren, who was arrested at Youngstown last Saturday on suspicion of being one of the forgers who obtained the $68,000 from the Union Trust Co., last January, by forging the names of the president and vice-president of the New York Life Insurance Company.

Examination of Internal Revenue Officers' Books, Etc.

WASHINGTON, 29.—A circular just issued by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, has for its object the perfection of the system of examination of internal revenue officers books and accounts throughout the country by agents of the revenue bureau, and hereafter the department will change the examining agent in each district, once in every three months. New forms are being prepared for the examining of collectors, deputies, storekeepers, and other officers of that branch of the service, and full instructions will be given in regard to the examination of distilleries, breweries, and tobacco manufactories, it having been found that the service is greatly benefitted by frequent examinations.

Russell Errett, a member of the present House of Representatives from Pittsburg, is urged for the position of chief of the bureau of engraving and printing, by Senator Don Cameron and others.

Supplies for the Needy.

Ex-Governor Shepherd and John T. Mitchell, Esq., who left here, last night, for St. Louis, took with them 60 packages of various goods and $1,500 in cash, with which to begin a cargo of supplies for the suffering people along the line of the Mississippi River, who are cut off from railroad communications and in great need of assistance. It is hoped that a full steamboat load can be shipped by Thursday of this week, through the co-operation of the St. Louis committees and other bodies that have agreed to contribute.

A Fight with the Indians.

CHICAGO, 29.—Gen. Sheridan has a dispatch from Gen. Pope, stating that a detachment of the 4th cavalry, under command of Capt. Mauck, had an engagement with the Indians on the 28th, in the cañons of the Famished Woman's Fork, near Fort Wallace, Kansas. Lieut. Col. W. H. Lewis, of the 19th Infantry, and three men were wounded. Only one Indian was killed. Col. Lewis died of his wounds on the 29th, while en route to Fort Wallace. He was a graduate of the military academy in 1849, a native of Alabama, and about 50 years of age.

The Indian Commissioners.

ST. LOUIS, 28.—Before the Indian commission, to-day, Gen. Bussey, of New Orleans, gave his experience with the Indians while in command at Fort Smith, during the war. He favored the transfer of the Indian bureau to the War Department.

Col. Robert Campbell, of this city, ex-Indian commissioner, also favored the transfer.

Capt. A. E. Woodston, of the Fifth United States Cavalry, gave a long account of his experience with the Indians, and was decidedly of the opinion that the transfer to the War Department would be more economical and give more satisfaction to the Indians.

Yellow Fever Reports.

NEW ORLEANS, 29.—The weather is clear and pleasant. The deaths for the 24 hours ending noon were 52; cases reported, 264; total cases to date, 9,285; deaths, 1,816. Only 108 occurred since September 25; 143 cases dating from Sept. 7th to 8th, were reported by one physician, of which only 35 were dated since the 26th. Dr. J. Theus Taylor, lately of New York, died at three this p.m. of yellow fever.

FOREIGN.

AUSTRIA.

Furloughing Troops, Etc.

VIENNA, 29.—Gen. Philippovich, replying to an inquiry from the war department, states that three divisions can be recalled from Bosnia by the end of October. The reserve force of the corps of observation will also be furloughed, and a number of horses sent home.

Albanians Concentrating.

A dispatch from Belgrade says the Albanians are concentrating on the Mitrovitza and Talonica railway, and are moving slowly, but apparently with a definite purpose, towards the Bosnian frontier.

Insurgent Surrender.

General Jovanovich telegraphs that on Saturday, after five days violent bombardment, Klobuk, the last refuge of the Herzegovian insurgents, surrendered, having made a brave defence. The destruction of the fortified rock was immediately commenced. The Austrian loss was trifling.
