SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES

H. E. Phelps has and Does Sell

A better class of goods, to patrons of limited means, than any other house in the city. He believes in giving the hard working person the benefit of his money in every sense of the word.

He has a splendid assortment of ladies', misses', and children's real beaver cloaks, which he will sell from $8 to $15 each, and warrant every one. It is certainly a good opportunity to get a good article for a small price. These are facts known by one who well understands business and the quality of goods.

If the writer of the above special notice will call around I will make him a present of a lady's nice, beaver coat. H. E. PHELPS

To the Public

We will continue to sell our goods at the low closing out prices until the 24th inst., when we will cease selling at retail, and prepare the balance then on hand for the final closing out Auction Trade sales, December 28 and 30. The stock will be put up in job lots and sold without limit or reserve.

THERE is REASON in all THINGS.

It is reasonable to conclude, that Benson's Capcine Plasters, having received the highest and only award at the Centennial Exposition, over all other plasters, having received the universal praise of the highest medical authority in the world, must possess unusual merit. Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster was invented to overcome the slow action of the ordinary porous plasters, the only objection ever found to this otherwise popular remedy. They relieve pain at once, and cure quickly, for which other plasters will not even relieve. They strengthen weak back, cure rheumatism, spinal and kidney affections, sciatica, lumbago, neuralgia, pains in the back, side and sides. Persons easily affected by changes of weather should wear these comfortably during the winter season, as they are a sure preventive of colds. Sold everywhere. Price, 25 cts.

LAME BACK. Immediate relief by use of Benson's Capcine Plaster.

FRAUD—BEWARE! THERE ARE FRAUDULENT and Worthless imitations of Benson's Capcine Porous Plaster in the market. Some of them contain dangerous mineral poisons. Each genuine Benson's Capcine Plaster has the word Capcine cut through it. Take no other.

Christmas presents for sale at the Old Constitution Building. Single and Double Shawls, Dress Flannels and Linseys, Cloth for Ladies' and Gentlemen's Coats, Trunks, Children's Brooms and Bureaus, Balmoral Skirts, Overshirts, Blankets, Bed-spreads, etc.
JOHN C. CUTLER, Agent.

Fifteen Hundred

MASON & HAMLIN ORGANS, sold in this Territory, speak loudly of their superior excellency and great durability. All the leading musicians in the Territory have so decided, by preferring them, over all others, for their own use. The demand for them is greater than ever.

The Best Organs.

The Judges of musical instruments at all the WORLD'S FAIRS, have decided that the MASON & HAMLIN Organs are the very best made, and at the Centennial Exhibition, and the Paris World's Fair, this year, the CLOUGH & WARREN Organs took the second prize. David O. Calder is the General Agent for them.

Solid Merit will Tell.

For all the bitter opposition of jealous rivals, no better illustration could be had of this fact than the immense sale already attained by the great Throat and Lung Remedy, Dr. Aug. Kaiser's German Elixir. For the cure of Coughs and Bronchial Affections, it is truly wonderful, even those suffering from Consumption in advanced stages find great relief, and numbers of patients have found, to their delight, not only relief but cure. It being perfectly harmless, makes it at once popular with mothers, who of all others have felt the necessity of such a medicine. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. A trial size may be had for 25 cents.

PERFECT PURITY is restored to the circulation when contaminated if Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup is taken. Scrofulous, syphilitic and mercurial disorders are completely vanquished by it, persistence in the use of the remedy being alone required to accomplish a cure. Eruptions of all kinds, sores, chronic rheumatism, gout, liver complaint and piles yield to its remedial influence if it not only purifies the blood, but vitalizes the system. Sold by all druggists.

Go where You will,

You'll find SOZODONT in vogue. People have thrown away their tooth-powders and washes, and placed this odoriferous preservative of the teeth on the toilet table in their place. It keeps the teeth in splendid order, and spices the breath.

"Don't Give Up the Ship."

When these words were spoken by our lamented Lawrence, it must have been a solemn time for those on board, and probably not a dry eye among them, seeing their commander mortally wounded, and still giving orders like the above; but not more solemn than when the family physician informs you that some one of your family has an affection of the lungs which, if neglected, will eventually terminate in consumption. But reader, don't be frightened or "give up the ship," for Dr. Hale, a physician of Europe, discovered a remedy for all Coughs, Colds, Hoarseness, Difficult Breathing, and all affections of the Throat, Bronchial Tubes and Lungs leading to Consumption, and C. N. Crittenton, one of our leading medicine dealers, of No. 7 Sixth Avenue, New York, believing the market required an article which was certain, safe and sure to do the work, and yet within the reach of all as regards price, etc., has purchased the original receipt from Dr. Hale, and we understand is selling very large quantities of the same, and, as far as we hear, it gives entire satisfaction. It is now sold by all druggists in New York, Brooklyn, Jersey City, Newark, N. J., Hoboken, and, in fact, all through the country, at 50 cents and $1. Great saving by purchasing large size. Depot, Crittenton's, 7 Sixth Avenue, New York City.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Thermometer.—To-day, 1 o'clock p. m., the thermometer noted 41 degrees F. in the shade. Clear.

Squibs.—Look out for sleighing when the snow flies.—Junction.

Don't understand. We look out for a slaying when there are flies.

In Town.—We had a pleasant call this morning, from Mr. S. A. Kenner, the efficient editor of the Ogden Junction. He came down last evening, and will probably return to day.

Skating.—Skating is again in vogue. The Hot Spring Lake is a good place to break a neck, because the water is so shallow that one cannot drown. Yesterday, some deemed it a good place to break the Sabbath.

Convalescent.—The friends of Sister M. I. Horne will be pleased to learn that she is up and around again. She has had quite a siege of sickness, but to-day, was out riding for the first time since her recent illness.

Tabernacle Benefit.—Those who design attending the entertainment in the Theatre, to-morrow night, should procure tickets at once. It is an interesting programme, and with the worthy object of its performance, should draw a crowded house.

Crowded Streets.—The appearance of the streets to-day, might indicate to some that "our country cousins" had mistaken Monday for Saturday, did not the counter reflection suggest that our friends are in town for the purpose of making their holiday purchases. They know how to enjoy Christmas, and where to find Santa Claus.

Returning Home.—Miss Carrie Driggs, cousin of Mr. R. W. Driggs, of Pleasant Grove, left for her home, Little Sioux, Iowa, by this morning's train. The lady came to Utah last May, to visit relatives and friends. She returns, after a pleasant sojourn, with a high appreciation of our Territory and its people.

Sunday Liquor.—We are informed by a gentleman who resides in the southern suburbs of the city, that as he was on his way home last evening, he found an elderly man lying in the ditch at the side of the road, in a helpless and insensible state of intoxication. Fearing that the inebriate would be frozen to death, the gentleman assisted him to a neighboring house, where he was provided with lodging for the night. In the morning it was ascertained that he had procured the liquor from one of the saloons on the State Road. He seemed to be quite a gentleman in language and address, and was very much confused and ashamed when told of the plight in which he had been found the night before. The county officers should find out those who are in the habit of violating the law and the Sabbath, by selling liquor on that day, and have them properly punished.

Sunday Services.—President John Taylor, as per announcement, delivered a discourse, yesterday afternoon, in the Seventeenth Ward, to a large and interested audience.

The speaker began by drawing the contrast in the general condition of the world now, and a generation ago. The revelations and triumphs in the world of science were dwelt upon to some length, in which the benefits to the human family of such discoveries as steam, electricity, etc., and the great modern inventions were described. He then showed how the restoration of the gospel in this age was one of the great events in keeping with the progress and spirit of the times, and dilated upon the preeminent benefits to be secured from yielding obedience to its requirements, and appreciating it in the light of which it was worthy.

The discourse closed with a series of remarks by way of counsel and instruction, to those who had embraced the gospel, and professed to be Latter-day Saints. It occupied about an hour and a quarter, and was a kind, fatherly discourse much appreciated by all who were present.

Elizabeth.—Saturday evening, we had the pleasure of listening to the reading of "Elizabeth," a new historical play from the pen of Edward W. Tullidge. The entire forty four year's reign of the "Good queen Bess" is comprehended in the drama, which is divided into five acts or epochs, each terminating with a dramatic picture, and representing an important period in the career of this extraordinary woman, from her coronation to her death.

The second ends with the execution of the Earl of Norfolk; the third with the signing of the death warrant of Mary Stuart, the fourth, with the defeat of the Armada, and the fifth, as said, with the close of the heroine's career. The language and style of the play is of the Elizabethan or Shakspearian age, noble and impressive, generally, and at all times, clear and concise, redundancy having been carefully avoided, and a "stage drag," in a rhetorical sense, rendered unlikely, if not impossible. The character of the drama is essentially Protestant. Elizabeth is defended, instead of maligned, her virtues, which so many authors have hidden with reproach, brought out to the light of recognition, and the errors of her life linked with historical precision to the peculiar circumstances by which she was surrounded. In the hands of a company of players, capable of doing it justice, the success of "Elizabeth" might be considered "a foregone conclusion."

Insane and Violent.—On Friday evening, C. F. Tweedle, a whip maker, resident of the 21st Ward, was brought, in an insane condition, to the City Hall, by the police, and placed in confinement. For years he has been subject to temporary fits of insanity, and on last Friday evening, taking a violent turn, he went home and began breaking the windows and gathering up articles of furniture and other things and throwing them into the stove; His family endeavoring to prevent him, he assaulted and beat some of them. The alarm was given, and he was arrested by the officers, as stated.

In his normal condition, he is a kind hearted man, of intelligence and education, being master of seven languages; is a workman of ingenuity in his profession, and of highly moral character. He will probably be placed in the asylum.

Panther Not Bear.—It is now the reported belief that the young man, Abraham Powell, an account of whose death death by a grizzly bear was published in this paper of the 6th inst., was the victim of a panther or mountain lion, instead of a bear. The marks left on the young man's body, and the characteristics of the animal, supposed to have made the attack, going to sustain the change of opinion.

Will Lecture.—Professor T. B. Lewis will deliver a lecture before the Mutual Improvement Association of the Fourteenth Ward, at 7 o'clock, on Wednesday evening, the 18th inst. The subject upon which he will dilate is entitled "Change," and since none is required for admittance, just for a change we recommend all who are without it to go and get as much as possible, Wednesday night.

Died To-Day.—We learn by telegram, from Beaver, that Sister Almira L. Murdock, wife of President John R. Murdock, of the Beaver Stake, died at half-past six this morning. For years she had been an invalid, confined almost entirely to the house, and death has finally put an end to her sufferings. She was an estimable lady, and her loss will be felt by a host of friends. We deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

Woman's Exponent.—Another copy of this valuable paper makes its punctual appearance to-day. An excellent article on "Polygamy," "A leaf from an Autobiography," and an editorial appropriate to the holiday season, entitled "A Merry Christmas," are among the prose subjects treated upon, while lines "To Susa," answering her poem, "By the Brook," and a "Cradle Song," are the poetical contributions.

The Academy Concert.—We have received an invitation to attend a literary and musical entertainment in the Brigham Young Academy, Provo, on Friday evening, the 20th inst. The concert will be under the direction of Prof. K. G. Maeser and his assistants, and the exercises are to be rendered by the students of that worthy institution. We shall try to be there.

The Hearing in Chambers.—The hearing in the Townsend vs. Jennings contempt and injunction cases, came up in chambers, before Judge Schaeffer, this morning. Up to the time of going to press, the hearing on contempt was still in progress, no decision having been given.

Relief Society Conference.—The quarterly conference of the ladies' relief societies of this Stake will convene on Friday, the 20th inst., at 10 a.m., and will continue two days. The meetings will be held in the Council House, instead of the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms, as heretofore announced.

Police Court.—Three men, for drunkenness, were fined $5 each. One of these, for the indecent exposure of his person, paid an extra fine of $10.
