DESERET CARRIAGE AND FURNITURE DEPOT.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—J. C. LITTLE would respectfully announce to his numerous friends and the REST OF MANKIND, that he has completed his large and commodious work shop, situated at his residence in the 13th ward, 1 block east of Social Hall, and having formed a connection in business with A. Monteeth, of Boston, a first rate practical carriage builder, and Wm. Bell, recently from London, the best and most experienced cabinet maker and upholster in the Territory, would inform the citizens generally, that they will carry on the above named business under the name and style of
J. C. LITTLE & CO.,
and will be ready to furnish any article in our line upon the most reasonable terms, of the first style and durability.
Strict attention will be paid to have our lumber well seasoned, and manufactured with care so that we shall be able to furnish those of our friends who shall favor us with their orders, with articles both useful and ornamental, which must insure a large share of patronage. We are on hand to beautify and furnish the mountain homes of the saints—to gratify and please the hearts of the saints at home, and to make light and fashionable carriages for them to go abroad, and to make coffins for them when they have departed this life.
All kinds of carriages and sleighs made to order.

FURNITURE:

Such as secretaries, book-cases, bureaus, bedsteds of every description and style, dining tables, centre tables, card tables, and ladies' work tables, and com. tables; chairs, from $2 50 to $20 each, sofas, couches, lounges, side boards, and every article in the cabinet line.
All orders will be executed and completed strictly according to promise.
Coffins furnished in six hours' notice.
