St. Johns, Arizona, Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the St Johns Stake of Zion convened at St. Johns on the 5th and 6th of March.

Present on the stand were the Presidency of the Stake, High Counselors and Bishops of wards. Also Bishop John Hunt of Snowflake.

The reports of the Bishops show progress temporally and spiritually. At present the outlook for crops the coming season is better than ever before. A more settled feeling prevades our settlements, and a spirit for mind improvement is manifest.

The principal subjects dwelt upon by the speakers were faith, the power and authority of the Priesthood, and the proper education and training of the young.

The Church School, under the efficient management of Brother J. W. Brown, is becoming a power for good. Good public schools are also running in all our wards in Arizona.

The statistical report was read and the general and Stake authorities were unanimously sustained by the conference.

The societies and associations of the various wards are all in good running order.

A good spirit prevailed in the conference, much valuable instruction was received, and the Saints seem to return to their homes with renewed energy and hope increased.

The proceeds will be used in retiring the grade, buying equipment and for improvements.

THE IDEAL GIRL.

SHE CANNOT HELP BEING A LIFE HAPPINESS TO THE WORLD.

The ideal girl is God's sweet promise of a perfected womanhood. We all know her. There may be clouds without and tempests raging, but her bright face looks in at the door it is like sunshine after a summer rain. In some strange, sweet way she seems to bring with her the perfume of the meadows, flowers and the robin's song of welcome to the returning sun. She sets us dreaming of the days when life's heaviest burden was the finding of pleasures to beguile the long midsummer days. Again we sit by the brook in which, fugitive of maternal warnings, we undertake with the sleepy-eyed violets and the wee, funny people of the brook. Again flowers and birds have sole and we understand their language—all because the ideal girl, whose every word and look is instinct with the soul of nature, has come into our room and brought with her the childhood and the childhood's happy faith that between it and every living thing there is a subtle bond of sisterhood.

Going down Washington Street the other day, says a writer in the Chicago Tribune, I saw the ideal girl. An old colored woman, bent with suffering and poverty, was walking painfully along the crowded sidewalk and suddenly lost her footing, and her basket and parcels were scattered beneath the feet of the hurrying crowds. Some men whose neckties were whiter than their hearts laughed as they stepped gingerly over the scattered parcels. But just then there came along one of my ideal girls, so young and beautiful that the white-cravated men impudently turned around to look after her.

She stopped beside the prostrate woman, helped her to her feet and gathered up her scattered parcels, and all so quietly and quickly that the women stood looking after her in wonder as if she were an apparition. The old colored woman may have crossed out to her what she looked—"God bless you!" and if it may be even in this Christian city she had never heard the name of God, we may be sure that with her was left and darkness a ray of divine radiance, a little light and love that warmed and quickened whatever germ of good were latent in her heart.

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurst, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with a bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated in consumption. My doctor gave up my case, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at A. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store. Regular size, 50c. and $1.00. 4

A Good Looking Face

We like to see. Yet Erysipelas disfigures the features, and the disease is so dangerous as it is repulsive. It is sometimes called "St. Anthony's Fire," and often ends in sudden death. R. H. Farquar, Grandville, N. Y., had it in both legs and was cured by Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy of Rondout, N. Y. This medicine excels all others for the blood. 4

Empoyz.

This is what you ought to have, in fact, you must have it to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, if used according to directions, and the use persisted in, will bring good digestion and cast the demon Dyspepsia and insteil instead Eupepsy. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50c. and $1.00 per bottle, by A. C. Smith & Co's Drug Store. 4
