SENATOR FROM WEST VA.

Stephen Benton Elkins Will Visit Salt Lake.

The Man Whose Efforts Contributed Mainly to the Prosperity of Utah's Sister Territory Passes Over.

Senator Stephen B. Elkins, who is to represent West Virginia in the next congress in the place of the national Democrat in the old Bay State, and who is a resident of California, is expected in Salt Lake in a few days, to remain a short time on his way to the eastern states. Inquiries regarding the contemplated visit of the Senator to Utah, are being received by his friends in this city, and it is anticipated by his many friends in Salt Lake that he will accept the invitation to Washington in February and be made a guest of the Utah delegation during the proceedings. The Deseret News hopes, and many others join in the hope, that Senator Elkins will arrive in Salt Lake City before he leaves the west.

When in the Utah Mr. Elkins is always in politics, and it was his influence in affairs that helped Utah to obtain statehood. When he was in the senate for the second time, a few days ago, Mr. Elkins was mentioned in the newspapers as a possible candidate for a seat in the cabinet of President Cleveland. He is a man of great ability, and, if he should be called upon to take a place in the cabinet, he would be valuable to Republican interests in the Rocky Mountain states. But Senator Elkins has a wonderful faculty for making himself popular with his colleagues, and he would be a great loss to the senate if he should be called to the cabinet. He is taking a leading part in tariff and is working something about the money and trust question.

Mr. Elkins's claim to fame is not so much as a maker of laws, for he has called with him the faculty of making present things to the people he represents. In Mexico, and more lately in Utah, he has saw pushing the country, by doing the same thing. He comes to California, and it was he who first made the people of Los Angeles and vicinity see the possibilities of their city. He makes no will no more than that he will consider as a pleasure trip. In California the party are the guests of leading business men, who do not fail to exhibit the wonderful advantages of the state, so that when the senator and family get home they will be able to tell of some of the state's resources and possibilities and the one the people are making of their opportunities.

Stephen Benton Elkins has not visited Salt Lake in the Pacific coast excursion in this trip, so still has his same association in the West. He drove, as a young in Dodge City, New Mexico, in 1880, and a year later was elected a member of the legislature of that territory. He afterwards returned, but was sent to Congress, for the election to the House being in 1882. His wife is a daughter of ex-Senator H. G. Davis, of West Virginia. They were married in 1875. From Salt Lake City the party anticipate going direct to the East.

CLERKS AND CARRIERS.

Semi-Annual Examination of Applicants on June 15.

The regular semi-annual examination for the grades of clerk and carrier will be held at the postoffice in this city on Saturday, June 15, 1895. Applications received will be accepted up to the hour of closing business on Monday, May 13th. Only citizens of the United States are eligible for the examination, and no person is eligible for the position of letter carrier who is under twenty-one years of age or over forty years, and no person will be employed for any kind of service under the postal service if above eighty years of age.

The civil service commission notes that the examination for appointment of regular clerks will only be held in cities the postal service of which shall exceed in the gross receipts of the last fiscal year the sum of $200,000, and in cities where the population according to the last census shall exceed 50,000. Applications for the position of clerk will be accepted from persons residing in such cities.

Blank forms of application will be furnished on application to the postmaster at Salt Lake City.

Complimentary Concert.

The N. G. W. L. A. of the Tabernacle will tender a complimentary concert to the people of Salt Lake City, on Friday evening next in the place of their regular Friday evening meeting. The concert will be given by the choir, which has a fine reputation for good music, and will be a pleasant entertainment. The program will be published in the morning papers.

VERDICT OF THE JURY.

The Death of Lucas B. Hilpert Due to the Company's Negligence.

The inquest over the remains of Lucas B. Hilpert, who was killed on the West Side Electric Railway on Friday last, was concluded the evening while a verdict was rendered in the case against the officers who have charge of the management of the railway.

L. B. Hilpert was only seven years old and he was crushed to death by the West Side Electric Railway company's car on the 12th inst. The boy was playing with his sister on the sidewalk on Second South street, near the corner of Second West, when the car came along. The boy was knocked down by the car and was dragged a distance of about 100 feet before the car could be stopped. The boy was picked up and taken home, where he died in a few minutes. The jury in the case decided that the death of the boy was due to the negligence of the company in not having a fender on the car, and that the company should be held responsible for the death of the boy.

The following is the verdict:

"We, the jurors, find that Lucas B. Hilpert came to his death on the 12th day of April, 1895, while in the employ of the West Side Electric Railway company, by being run over by a car belonging to said company, while in charge of a reckless and careless driver, and we find that the said company should be held responsible for said death.

"We further find that the said Lucas B. Hilpert came to his death by being run over by a car belonging to the said company, while said car was being operated by a reckless and careless driver, and we find that the said company should be held responsible for said death.

"We further find that the said Lucas B. Hilpert came to his death by being run over by a car belonging to the said company, while said car was being operated by a reckless and careless driver, and we find that the said company should be held responsible for said death."
