BIG TIME AT GARFIELD.

Militiamen, Regulars and Sweethearts Have a Rousing Day's Sport.

All Sorts of Games and Competitions Engaged in—But One Accident to Mar Their Pleasure.

The biggest crowd seen at Garfield for some days was out there yesterday on the occasion of the National Guard field day. There was plenty of fun and but one accident, which was not a very serious though a painful one, to mar the cup's pleasure. Guardsman Frank Foster, competing in the high jump, broke his leg between the knee and ankle. The fracture, say Doctors Wright and Davis, who attended the wounded militiaman, is a simple one, and Mr. Foster can depend upon being out again in a short time.

YOU CAINE WINE.

Ted Caine won the road race, which was the opening event, E. H. Smith coming second and L. C. Dale third. The passengers on the 2:15 train witnessed the race and saw the three cyclists finish with two big gaps between them in the minor names.

RAIN SALE.

The base ball game was won by the regulars from Fort Douglas. The lucky Were Committee and Conroy for the left team and Mr. Farlane and Mathews for the guard boys. Five innings were played and the game ended with a score of 12 to 3. It was a lively game.

JUMPING MATCHES.

Caine, Schroeder and Foster competed in the running high jump, the former winning in five feet nine inches. It was in this competition that Mr. Foster broke his leg.

Schroeder jumped a running broad jump of 17 feet against 15 feet made by Cowell.

"Caldwell" won the 100-yard hot race in 11 seconds. His entry cognomen was a fictitious one, his real name being Morris, and the man is known as a professional sprinter, having won several such events at the Welch's Fair. Kinney was also another professional entry, and against these two the boys in blue stood no show.

The running high jump was won by Caine against Schroeder and Cowell, with a measurement of 4 feet 7 inches.

Schroeder took the running broad jump in 9 feet 8 inches, against Cowell and Caine as competitors.

COMPETITIVE DRILL.

Companies A, B, D, E and H went into the target competition, which was won by Company B with a score of 93 out of a possible 125, while Company A came second in a score of 87 and received second prize. Company H made a score of 84, Company D scored 78 and E was lowest in points. Private Christensen and Sergeant Bevan made a tie of 20 out of a possible 25 on the highest score, and the former scored 19 against 18 of the latter in the trial at first place.

At sunset the companies were very successfully drilled out in the open by Captain Grow.

There were a score of militiamen in the individual competitive drill and they were put through a rapid drill test by Captain Grow. One by one the competitors fell out until there were only Sergeant Rasmussen of Company B, Sergeant Johnson of Company A and Corporal Hulbert of Company D to be seen. Finally Johnson and Hulbert "board tape" and Rasmussen was declared the winner, Lieutenants Woodward, Castle and Simmons being the judges. Captain Grow proved himself a splendid drillmaster.

The ball in the evening was a jolly affair and the pretty girls were proud to be guided through the mazes of the waltz and "Sweetest Dim Star" by the gallant uniforms in blue.

SA TO PASTOR HERMANS.

Self-Evident Duplicity in a Letter to a Ben Hur Lady—The Latter's Account of It.

Preacher Hermans's whereabouts are of course unknown to persons here and perhaps ever will be. Many there are who would regard it as a great boon could all recollections concerning him and his foul deeds be blotted from their memories. But singular developments in the case seem to make that course impossible. The duplicity so exhibited in his promise to make good his pecuniary upon the funds of the church that had been entrusted to his care appears to have been as great as inclination to destroy the lives of helpless and confiding women. When removed from Chicago by the trustees of the Scandinavian M. E. church on account of his immorality he showed them a letter which he had written to a brother-in-law in England whom he said was willing to give him the financial aid required. But it now transpires serious question that that letter was purposely sent to the wrong address in order to give him time to get away. The letter has come back and being made returnable to Rev. Olaus Arveson, acting pastor of the church, in the event it was not taken from the post office, it is now in his possession. The letter reads as follows:

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH,
May 6, 1896.

Mr. Arthur Smith, Highclere, England.

Dear Brother—Your will be surprised to hear from me from Salt Lake City, as when I last wrote you from Detroit, I told you that I would not be home till in the end of summer and therefore asked you not to send the money before you heard from me again. But I have unexpectedly been called home to settle some business difficulties in which I am involved. I therefore need the money immediately, and as you told me you had it, so much and lived to get rid of it, I ask you now to send at once again enough of this bond a draft for two hundred pounds sterling, and this letter and the received draft shall be sufficient receipt for you until you hear further from me.

As I am about to leave home again for the summer I will ask you to make no draft payable to Rev. C. Rev. E. R. Mock of Salt Lake City, as I have given him power of attorney to act for me. Please to address me below so as to care of Rev. Olaus Arveson, Salt Lake City, Utah, U. S. A.

I hope to write you further as soon as I know where I am to be settled for the summer. I heard from my little Samuel not long since and he and all there are well and happy. You ask if I will not come over and see you. I will not come this summer, as circumstances are so such that after next October I will come and spend some time with you, but I will let you know more later on. Will positively love to yourself and all was you.

If you go over to Samuel before I write again please kiss him for me.

Yours very affectionately,
FRANCIS HERMANS.

On the envelope of the returned letter are the words: "Not known at Highclere." Yesterday the preserved exemplar of Hermans was consulted by seven women when the church people received the following letter of serious inquiry from the brother-in-law:

BRIER WOOD, Wash Common, Newbury, Berks, England, Aug. 4, 1896.

Sir—I am writing to ask you if you can give me any information regarding the person of your church, Francis Hermans, who a short time back I sent by the papers was under arrest for deceitful crimes. I should not grieve or whisper if you could let me know anything about him, and if dead, could you send me a certificate of his death. It would be of great importance to me and I would feel greatly relieved and would pay you that the certificate could.

I and all the family are greatly grieved with the sad tidings of him. I am sorry to say he is my brother-in-law. My first story was a worker in a Miss H. C. Pierson's home, London, when she became acquainted with Hermans. He was then a fine gentleman and we all thought a great man.

He left London for Boulogne, France, where I heard from him, but then went on to Havre, removing thence to Glasgow, Scotland. My first sister came to London and left us as far as I could see well as ever. We are but a young healthy young woman.

Shortly after we heard she was ill, not seriously, but on the 15th of November, 1895, I had a letter from Frank saying she was very ill, consumption had set in, the doctor told him the day before. At 4 o'clock the same day came a telegram saying she was gone.

My dear sister was abright, sweet Christian, only 22 years of age. She left two dear boys. Another sister sent a good middle-aged woman to look after him and the dear children, and between November and the following April the sister-in-law and the woman both died, after which Hermans left Glasgow for Minneapolis then went on to Wisconsin and then to Utah, another sister taking the other little boy, who is still alive—dear little fellow!

I wrote to Hermans, but seldom got a reply, and we all felt grieved because he did not write often or send his own little boy to spend his time with us. We never a testimonial since he were to me, and you know imagine our feelings when I saw the photo that was sent to the seconds in the papers.

A letter will greatly relieve yours respectfully, ARTHUR SMITH.

A Pleasant Ride Disturbed.

A young man giving the name of Steele, and his lady girl, were enjoying a pleasant ride through Liberty Park last evening, when their tranquility was suddenly disturbed by the appearance of two men who emerged from the shadows of the trees and brought the women to a halt. The men ordered Mr. Steele to "pony up," but the gentleman could not see it that way and brought his buggy whip into requisition. The result was that the horse jumped, the boy screamed and the buggy tipped over, throwing the occupants out, while the hinge made off, firing a shot as they went. Aside from the scare the lady got, the couple were none the worse off for their thrilling bit of experience.

From Chicago.

The NEWS had a call last evening from Elder Christian Larsen of Hoquiam, Washington county, who has just returned from his labors as a missionary in Chicago, a part of the Northern States mission field. Elder Larsen has been absent about a year, having left home September 10, 1895. He was accompanied by his wife, who was also a missionary and who returned home last spring, and this latter and the returned man shall be sufficient reason for you until you hear further from me.

As I am about to leave home again for the summer I will ask you to make no draft payable to Rev. C. Rev. E. R. Mock of Salt Lake City, as I have given him power of attorney to act for me. Please to address me below so as to care of Rev. Olaus Arveson, Salt Lake City, Utah, U. S. A.

TESTIMONIALS FROM E. F. MARTIN

22 South West Temple.

"I know that Wolcott's 'Pain Paint' Remedy is good. Your advertisements are true. If you desire, I can get you dozens of testimonials from people I have cured with 'Pain Paint.' I have used it for years and can testify to all you state. In one instance, I saved a bad case of sun stroke. One was being at death's door. It's true."

All druggists sell Wolcott's "Pain Paint" Remedy. Try a 25c bottle.

One night when Mr. Isaac Rowe was sleeping with his son, says St. P. Batch, a prominent merchant of Spartanburg, Washington, I heard him groaning. On going to his room I found him suffering from cramp colic. He was in such agony I feared he would die. I hastily gave him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. He was soon relieved, and the first words he uttered were, "what was that stuff you gave me?" I informed him. A few days ago we were taking about his attack and he said he was never without that remedy. I have used it in my family for several years. I know its worth and do not hesitate to recommend it to my friends and customers. For sale by Druggists.

Mr. C. G. Strong, principal of the public schools at Anderson, Cal., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and have found it an excellent remedy for lameness and slight wounds."

Lameness usually results from a sprain or other injury, or from rheumatism, for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm is extensively prescribed and unequaled. It affords almost immediate relief and in a short time effects a permanent cure. For sale by Druggists.

"It is the best patent medicine in the world" is what Mr. E. M. Hortman of Marquam, Oregon, says of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. "Not only do we use it ourselves but we have sold more of it than any other medicine in our town, and it gives universal satisfaction. We can truthfully say it is the best medicine we have in our house, and we would not be without it if it cost $5 a bottle." For sale by Druggists.
