WEATHER AND CROPS.

Observer Smith's Report for the Week Ending April 16.

Farmers Busy Putting in Crops—Wheat Where Looking Fine in All Parts of the Territory.

Observer J. H. Smith, of the weather bureau has issued the following bulletin for the week ending April 16:

Weather.—The temperature during the past week has averaged about the normal and the moisture has been abundant. The rain is clearly shown which prevailed during the latter part of the week had a refreshing effect upon the growth of vegetation and the germination of seeds. The rainfall on the 15th, which was quite general in the southern half of the Territory, was of great benefit to the growing crops, pastures and meadows. Frost was quite general on the 10th and 11th, but owing lightly, or at most no damage was done to the fruit trees.

Upon the whole, the weather during the week has been remarkably favorable for farm work.

Crops.—The very fine weather enabled farmers to make great progress with their work of putting in crops during the week. Except in the extreme northern counties, the seeding is about finished, and in several districts the spring wheat and early vegetables are showing above the ground. Sugar beets are nearly all planted and some are well up. Gardening and preparations for planting corn and potatoes are being pushed with vigor. All correspondents report that the winter wheat looks fine. Apricots, peaches and plums are in bloom, and the currant and gooseberry bushes have commenced to leaf.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

August Kjellin Slashes His Throat With a Case-Knife.

August Kjellin attempted to commit suicide yesterday by cutting his throat with a case-knife. A physician was summoned, however, and prevented his bleeding to death.

Kjellin, who is about 47 years of age, lives with his brother-in-law, Andrew Sangren. For some months past he has been in ill-health and despondent, and showed signs of a much worse. Kjellin came here from Wisconsin two years ago. Recently he informed his sister that he intended to leave this world, but little was thought of his statement until Saturday when he began to arrange his affairs quite freely and intimated that the time was come when the Master called him to sacrifice himself for the good of his relatives.

That night, Mr. and Mrs. Sangren removed everything with which he might take his life out of the house. Yesterday he managed to smuggle a knife from the dining room, procuring a file, with which he sharpened it, retired to the barn and cut two gashes in his throat. A neighbor heard his groans and hastening to the barn found the unfortunate man bleeding from two of his jugular veins. Across the throat, extending from ear to ear, were two ugly wounds, one of which pierced the water pipe from him to drink. The wounds were sewed up, and it is thought he will recover.

He will most likely be sent to the asylum for the insane as soon as his condition will permit. Kjellin is a bachelor, and his uncle is his guardian.
