

TRIAL OF GEORGE GORDAS BEGINS

Greek Arraigned for Assault With Intent to Commit Murder.

ATTACKED MAN IN A SALOON

Three Men Pitch Upon Andron Arranites, Shooting and Stabbing Him—Howe Gets Three Years.

The case of the state of Utah against George Gordas, charged with assault with intent to commit murder upon the person of Andron Arranites at Bingham Junction, on Jan. 1, was called for trial in Judge Armstrong's court this morning. Some lute in the proceedings occurred as defendant had no attorney and the court appointed James F. Smith to act for him. The matter of securing a jury was in progress this morning. The story of the case involves a number of Greek and is only one of many similar stories in the history of the foreign element in this section of the country. Arranites as well as the defendant, were residents of Bingham Junction when the trouble took place. Arranites had had words with Gordas, and with Nick and Peter Papadopolis over the chastisement of a nephew of Arranites was brought to "lay" for Arranites. On the night in question, Arranites was taking lunch in a restaurant adjoining a saloon at Bingham Junction. He was called to the bar by the bartender. Just as he stepped up to the bar, the door opened and one of the Papadopolises, fired a revolver at Arranites and ran, making good his escape. Gordas and the other Papadopolis then came up and attacked Arranites with a knife, stabbing him several times. Arranites was brought to a hospital in this city, and when he recovered sufficiently, swore out complaints charging Gordas and Papadopolis with assault with intent to commit murder. Peter Papadopolis got away, but Nick was held, and Nick will have his trial tomorrow.

SUPREME COURT SESSION.

Two Cases Argued and Submitted and Four Admitted to Bar.

At the session of the supreme court held this morning, two cases were argued and submitted as follows: Cole Banking company, respondent, vs. J. A. Hensel and C. G. Sinclair, appellants, appealed from the fourth district, and F. W. Little, et al., respondents, vs. Agnes G. Herzinger, et al., appellants, on appeal from the Third district, Judge Ritchie's division.

SAYS HUSBAND ABUSED HER.

Mrs. Phoebe Farrar Asks Court to Grant Divorce for Cruelty.

Mrs. Phoebe Farrar yesterday brought suit for divorce in the district court from her husband, William E. Farrar, making sensational charges against the man. She charges that he has treated her in a cruel manner and while she was in delicate health allowed her husband to brutally abuse her and used vile and vulgar language toward her instead of offering to assist her. This was in 1900, and the complaint further specifies that in early February, 1903, he beat her about the face and blackened her eye.

Mrs. Farrar says her husband has a grocery and meat business at 154 West South Temple street, worth $4,000, besides real property valued at $7,500, and in addition to the decree of divorce, she asks for an equitable division of the property, and for the two children and $150 attorneys' fees.

WANTS HIS MONEY.

Dennis Fee Plants Suit Against National Bank of the Republic.

Dennis Fee this morning instituted suit in the Third district court against the National Bank of the Republic of this city, to recover $1,077.62, which plaintiff alleges he deposited in the bank of defendant on April 16, 1903. According to the complaint, Fee says he has made demand for the money, but the bank refuses to pay it over, and plaintiff asks judgment for the money with interest from May 4, and for costs of suit.

HOWET GETS THREE YEARS.

Fred Howet this morning appeared before Judge Armstrong to plead to the charge of second degree burglary preferred against him by the district attorney. Howet entered the American rooming house on the 1st day of April, ransacking the room belonging to John Nichols. He was arrested by Nichols and entered a plea of guilty. Waiving time for sentence, Howet was given three years in the state prison for his crime, and was taken to the state prison to begin his sentence immediately.

WANTS GOODS AND CHATTELS.

AGNES EVANS today filed suit against the partners composing the firm of Uncle Sam's collateral bank for the recovery of goods valued at $225, or that amount in cash. Plaintiff claims defendants are wrongfully withholding possession from her of the goods indicated and will not give them up. The goods consist of diamonds and jewelry and silverware, etc.

DELAY IN LYNCH CASE.

Judge Diehl Not Prepared to Render Decision on Defense's Motion.

Judge Diehl was not prepared this morning to render a decision in the case of the state vs. George W. Lynch and the matter was continued in the afternoon. On a motion made by Atty. Soren X. Christensen for the discharge of the defendant on the grounds that the state had failed utterly to make a case against the defendant, if Judge Diehl overrules the motion a defense will be put on. Lynch, who was a director in the Elk Coal company, is accused of embezzling $3,375. It is alleged that he secured from the president of the company a certain amount with which to purchase stock and that he did not pay the amount named, the difference being the amount he is accused of embezzling. There were several technical points of law involved in the case which has been hard fought for several days in preliminary hearings.

SHEPARD APPEALS CASE.

R. B. Shepard, convicted of using threats to obtain where charges were made, has now appealed to the supreme court of the United States. The president and all other officers to which he has appealed have denied any claim. Shepard must serve 13 months in the state prison if the last move fails.

SODERBERG'S CASE.

Judge Marshall, this morning hearing the case of Nels Soderberg vs. the Lagoon resort, Soderberg fell from a ladder while painting the dance pavilion. In the fall he broke both of his legs. He is suing for $25,000.

YAMPA WINS SUIT.

A jury in the federal court has found in favor of the defendant in the case of the Lime King company vs. the Yampa Smelting company. The Lime King was suing for $25,000 said to be due on lime rock. With the case resulting as it has it is doubtful that cases against the Utah Iron and U. S. companies will be pushed.

CONTINUE WOMAN'S CASE.

Irene Hall, a negro woman arrested several weeks ago on the charge of second degree burglary, was brought for arraignment, but the matter was continued until Saturday morning for pleading.

TRESPASSERS SENTENCED.

B. Hurt and William Devine, the two men arrested a few days ago for trespassing upon a passenger car of the Rio Grande Western road, with $400, besides real property valued at $7,500, and in addition to the decree of divorce, she asks for an equitable division of the property, and for the two children and $150 attorneys' fees.

COLORED FORGER ARRAIGNED.

W. A. Pledger, the colored man arrested yesterday morning on the charge of forgery and uttering a forged instrument, was arraigned this morning before Judge C. B. Diehl, pleaded guilty, and the case will be heard on Monday next in default of the county jail for safe keeping. It is alleged that he forged the name of Mrs. D. Carey, colored, to orders for money to the amount of $4.50.

KOREAN SENT TO ASYLUM.

W. S. Kinn, a Korean, was yesterday adjudged insane before Judge Armstrong and committed to the asylum at Provo. When Kinn was taken from jail to be removed to the county room, it required five strong deputies to put the muffs on him, so vigorously did he resist the officers. He was taken during the examination, however, Kinn is under the delusion that some one is trying to hold him up all the time.

L. D. S. U. NOTES.

A French program was given at the L. D. S. University this morning. The classes are under the instruction of Mrs. Lang, and include first, second, and third years. Following is the program: "Prayer in the Soul's Sincere Desire," by the class, concert recitation of the Lord's prayer, chorus (Barely) by the ladies of the class recitation by Miss Florence Robinson. This was followed by a short play, entitled "Dead-Beat," a comedy, given by five of the girls. Everything was in French, and was very creditably done.

The university is introducing the N. Y. Opera company to the Salt Lake public next Monday evening in "Boccaccio," a comic opera, at the Salt Lake theater. The opera is given under the direction of Prof. C. Lund, and has been given to large audiences at Provo, Logan, and Ogden, receiving high praise.

FUNERAL OF L. L. DOWNING.

Impressive Service Held at Masonic Temple Yesterday.

Impressive funeral services were held yesterday afternoon over the body of L. L. Downing, the well known railroad man who died last Saturday after a very short illness. The obsequies were conducted at the Masonic Temple, under the auspices of Argenta Lodge No. 2, A. F. M., and the funeral oration at the temple was delivered by Rev. Elmer L. Goshen, W. E. Howard, worshipful master of Argenta, conducted the services at the grave. Many railroad men and Commercial club members were present, showing the high esteem in which the deceased was held. Utah commandery No. 1 acted as escort, and the following were pallbearers: D. C. Jackling, C. I. Tuttle, J. A. Reeves, K. O. Keene, L. E. Cunningham and H. H. Harding. The honorary pallbearers from the Commercial club were Ira H. Lewis, C. C. Bolton, R. E. Miller, S. H. Love, J. H. Johnson and C. S. Williams. Interment was in the Masonic lot Mt. Olivet cemetery.

ALLEGED BUNCO MEN.

Two Sure Thing Artists Finally Appeared Before Judge Diehl.

After being in jail since March 9, F. M. Walsh and George Morgan, two alleged grafters and bunco artists, have finally been given a preliminary hearing before Judge Diehl of the criminal division of the city court on the charges of grand larceny and embezzlement. It is alleged that on the date mentioned, they swindled a young man named John Johnson, of a case out of $120 by matching nickels. The old trick of a pseudo officer "butting in" and pretending to be a gambler, was worked in this case, and Lee soon found himself $120. He reported the matter to the police and later assisted them in locating Walsh and Morgan whom he identified as the swindlers.

Several times the case was called up for hearing but each time was delayed for one reason or another. The accused hired first one counsel and then another. Now they are represented by Atty. J. M. Hamilton.

Walsh and Morgan were placed on the stand today by Asst. County Atty. Aaron Myers and told his story of how he met Walsh and Morgan in front of the city hall and how they engaged him in engaging in the "match" game. He said he came here from North Carolina and was on his way to Los Angeles when he fell in with them. He received him of his hard earned money.

STOLE A PAY PHONE.

A Bell telephone stolen recently from a State street saloon was found this morning near the place where the theft was committed. The phone was a money changer and was broken open for the coins it contained. The property was returned and the police are now anxiously trying to locate the thieves.

FIELD DAY POSTPONED.

Field day for the city schools, which was to have been held tomorrow, has been postponed until next Tuesday. A committee visited the grounds at Wadsworth this morning, and found it impossible to hold the exercises tomorrow as contemplated on account of the dangerous condition of the grounds following yesterday's storm.

BURNS PROVE FATAL.

After nearly 30 hours of suffering from burns received Tuesday morning, little Doty Janney, the 3-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Janney, died at St. Mark's hospital last evening. The child was playing about the house in her night clothes when she suddenly became enveloped in flames. A domestic, Miss Latham, was severely burned in the rescue, and the fire was extinguished by the fire department. The funeral will be held at the residence of Joseph William Taylor, tomorrow commencing at 12 o'clock.

PYTHIANS ELECT OFFICERS.

The annual meeting of the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias of this city was held last evening, when the following officers were chosen: Grand chancellor James A. Harrison, Helper; grand vice chancellor, W. P. Cooper, Salt Lake City; grand scribe, E. O. Leithwood, Salt Lake City; grand keeper of records and seal, H. C. Ward, Ogden; grand master of exchequer, H. C. Blumenthal, Provo; grand master of arms, C. E. Nicholas, Murray; grand inner guard, John Strang, Eureka; grand outer guard, M. A. Vay, Helper; grand trustee Joseph Sands, Salt Lake City; grand trustee, Edward P. Eureka. Retiring Grand Chancellor, W. R. Radon of Park City presided. Twenty-five lodges were represented. The next annual session will be held at Ogden.

GIRL MAY GO FREE.

Handsome Domestic Who Stole Finery Comes from a Good Family.

Alice Thompson, the young woman arrested on the charge of stealing about $300 worth of clothing from Mrs. Alonzo E. Hyde and forging the latter's name to checks for $19, will, in all probability, escape prosecution. At first Mrs. Hyde was determined to prosecute her, but because of her family, and because Mrs. Hyde wished to show mercy to the handsome young woman who had been taken from her family, she will not return to her family in southern Utah.

Thompson is not the true name of the young woman, but she is stealing the name. She would rather die or stay in jail all her life than to tell her true name. Her father is a well-to-do sheep man and knows nothing of his daughter's predicament. The young woman was employed as a domestic at Mrs. Hyde's home and purloined a number of gowns and other finery because she wanted to "dress

NOT A CASE OF SUICIDE.

An attempt to commit suicide was reported to the police this afternoon from No. 1 Mortensen's court, the home of Mrs. Arda De Witt. Upon investigation the police found that suicide was not evident, but that it was a case of over-indulgence. The young woman, who was received Detective Fred Schulze and Police Surgeon S. G. Paul

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—The first presentation of the big scenic production entitled "The Crystal Slipper" takes place at the theater described in Tuesday's "News," drawing immense applause each night.

Grand—The advance sale for the Saturday matinee of "Confessions of a Wife" indicates a record breaker. The next attraction of the Burgess company will be "Chinatown Charlie."

Bowman Johnson in Vaudeville—Bowman Johnson, an old member of the tubercular choir, now leading tenor singer and proprietor of a vaudeville act, known as the "Musical Hawaiians," is passing through Salt Lake and will visit the tubercular choir rehearsal tonight. Johnson has been studying diligently since he left Salt Lake and his quartet is always in demand by vaudeville managers. He played with Henry Swann, a well known singer, and is now on his way to Denver. The act, which includes a Hawaiian dancing girl, and two native singers, with the appropriate scenery, is said to be a most beautiful one. Mr. Johnson expects to place it in New York next fall.

HIGH SCHOOL ORATORS.

Marie Ross and Morris Rosenblatt Win E. B. Stephens Medals.

An oratorical contest for the Frank B. Stephens medals, one for a boy and one for a girl, was held at the High school yesterday. There were a number of competitors, but the honors went to Miss Marie Ross and Morris Rosenblatt, with special mention of Gertrude Stephens and Harry Swann. Miss Ross spoke on "America's Sins of Omission and Commission," and Mr. Rosenblatt discussed "The Child Labor Question." An interesting program was carried out as follows: Piano solo, Joseph Adams; "The American Fleet," Mercedes Gilson; "Forestry," Cleo Cranny; "The Bulwarks of Peace," Jake Sigel; "Occupations Open to Girls," Laura Loveland; "American Sins of Omission and Commission," Marie Ross; "The American Ideal of Patriotism," Gertrude Stephens; "Southern Question," Gertrude Stephens; "Abraham Lincoln," Edna Hill; "The Galveston Plan," Harry Swann; "Heroes and Heroines," Evelyn Johnson; "Child Labor in the United States," Ada Blank; "The Need of Fireproof Construction," Georgus Cannon; "The American First," Evelyn Gurtis; "Smoke Abatement in Large Cities," Walter Gaby.

FAKE OPTICIANS.

Old Game Being Worked in the Country Districts as of Yore.

The old-eye-glass game of fakery seems to have been played in Tooele county this week. In a letter to the "News," W. C. Brown, who has just returned from a trip through western Utah towns gives many details of purchases from the eye-glass man at extravagant prices but does not mention his name. The parents were made to understand that the child was blind, and that their children's eyes had been examined by a man in the schoolhouse, and that they needed glasses. The so-called doctor sold many people the glasses at from $12 to $15 a pair. One father refused to pay $15 for a pair when his child was refused to need them, and finally the father loved the price to $5. Just west of Grantsville B. A. McBride bought a pair for $5, after he had refused to pay $12, while his wife at home bought a pair for $15. The father doing the selling roped in many other victims. I think he should be exposed. Who the so-called doctor is has not been learned.

LATE LOCALS.

To Address Oregon Teachers—A. C. Nelson, superintendent of public instruction, has accepted an invitation to address the Oregon State Teachers' convention at Eugene, Or., on June 25 and 27.

Portland Rose Festival—The state executive office is in receipt of an invitation from the Rex Orogonus committee of Portland, requesting the presence of Gov. Cutler at the annual rose festival to be held at Portland June 5.

Seventh Ward—A program will be rendered Wednesday evening in the Seventh ward meetinghouse at a farewell entertainment to be tendered Elder J. S. Nielsen, who leaves shortly for Denmark, where he will labor as a missionary.

Will Submit Teachers' List—The board of education met in the city and county building. It is expected Sup. D. H. Christensen will submit the list of teachers for the city schools for the ensuing year.

Insanity Board Meets Today—The state insanity board, comprising the governor, state auditor and state treasurer, will hold its regular monthly meeting at Provo this afternoon. Acting Gov. Taggart, Auditor Edwards and Treasurer Christensen are making preparations to attend.

WORD COMES FROM STANFORD'S TEAM

Will Be Here May 29 and Meet University of Utah Memorial Day.

Stanford's 10-men track team will arrive here Friday May 29, to take part in the field and track meet on Cummings field the following day, Memorial day. This word was contained in a letter to Dean Cummings, received at the University today, from manager of athletics, the Guy Knapp, of Stanford University. The only objection to the University is raised to the stipulation for a two-mile run, but this will not be permitted to stand in the way to mar the success of the meet. Only firsts and seconds will be counted, the points being scored for a first and three for a second.

Stanford will meet the University of Utah boys at Boulder, June 2, and the team will continue to Chicago after the meet at Boulder for the conference meet and will thereby have an opportunity to scan the results and compute its standing in a table of 1000 yards, 2000 yards, 5000 yards, 10,000 yards, 15,000 yards, 20,000 yards, 25,000 yards, 30,000 yards, 35,000 yards, 40,000 yards, 45,000 yards,
