NEWS OF THE WEST.

$10,000 Claimed for the Alienation of a Husband's Affection.

CHINESE OPIUM DENS RAIDED.

Probably Fatal Case of Sandbagging at Spokane.—A Salvation Army Captain Imprisoned.

Smallpox is prevalent in Vera Cruz, Mexico.

Delta county, Colo., farmers are preparing their land for spring planting.

Ennis, Colo., is agitating the question of establishment of electric light and waterworks in that town.

Colorado coal mines at Newcastle, Wyoming, are to be run to their fullest capacity during the balance of the winter.

A Jefferson county (Colo.) dairyman named Q. T. Felts, reports his cows as yielding a revenue of $30 each during the last year.

Near Hailey, Idaho, the snow on the westerly mountains is five feet deep in the level and forty to fifty feet deep in the gulches.

The Theater Comique, a notorious resort of Tacoma, Wash., has been seized by the Salvation Army and will be used for their religious services.

Kearney, N. M., will manufacture ice and have an electric light in operation in a few weeks hence. The machinery has been shipped from the east.

Idaho live stock men report a splendid winter. On Lost river only eight inches of snow has fallen in the valley and the stock is wintering without feeding.

A coal and metal miners' convention has been called to meet February 20th in Pueblo to organize the miners of Colorado into the group system—nine miners to a group.

Conejos and Costilla counties, Colo., export large quantities of fine potatoes. This year's potato crop had to seek a new market by reason of the frost in the grain, on which it was pending. The potatoes report the case as very serious, but hope for the best.

A case of sandbagging occurred on Wednesday night at Spokane, Wash., and John Lipsom is at the hospital hovering between life and death. One good part upon the head, another upon his right ear and front and temples of his face and mouth show how brave was the attack upon him. Lipsom is a Hungarian farmer living nine miles west of Spokane. He started home about 11 o'clock Wednesday night. He was taken home the sooner there was started him. At 8 o'clock next morning he was found lying by the roadside in the snow, a pool of blood around his head and another thirty feet away.

Mrs. Dell Hogan Herrenfield, the wife of Hunter Aaron Herrenfield, has begun suit for $10,000 against a number of her husband's in-law and sister-in-law, Louis and Mary Herrenfield, of Ironton, Mont. She claims that they have alienated her husband's affections and deprived her of his society, companionship, and assistance, and she asks damages in the sum for the plaintiff and loss the state, in consequence of which her happiness has been destroyed and her health impaired, and she is left without the possession of life. The case is the outcome of the unexpected and rather unusual marriage in Chicago in November of Aaron Herrenfield, a banker worth nearly a million and fifty years of age, to Miss Dell Hogan, a working girl of about twenty. Herrenfield soon after left the state, and is supposed to be waiting for his brother now to effect a settlement of some kind with his wife.

On Wednesday, says the Coeur d'Alene (Idaho) Press, D. V. Dock went up on the old back of his house and cut down a tree for fuel. After shouldering the log of the workshop he started to slide it down towards the house. It soon got beyond his control, however, and shot down with fearful velocity. It was heavier for the house and right through the house it went, demolishing a stove, knocking furniture and dashing other things the last on which their feet had lay was sleeping. For a few moments the sensitive parents gazed upon the wreck, almost afraid to search for the little child, which they had seen "were killed and mangled, no doubt." scream emerging from the mass of broken furniture mingled with some humanity prompted by a vigorous search for the buried infant, which was not only found safe but entirely mingled gently to the surprise and delight of its anxious parents.

TREATED AT HOME,

And Most Successfully By Dr. De Monco,

Child Physician and Surgeon Copeland Medical Institute, in the Progress Building, South Main St. "The Old Reliable Institute."

Mrs. Isabel Sewell, for many years a resident of Provo, Utah, and who has been a nurse by occupation in Salt Lake, writes:

I had been troubled for many years previous to taking myself under the personal care of Dr. DeMonco, after visiting and support of the Copeland Medical Institute of Salt Lake City. I have been assured for years with the milder symptoms of catarrh, such as spitting, hawking, sore throat, with occasionally of tough mucus every morning, tendency to catch cold at every little exposure, but like many others I just went along as I could with these symptoms.

MRS. ISABEL SEWELL, PROVO, UTAH.

Several years ago I had an attack of what is known as the "grip," my stomach then began to cause alarm, severe HEADACHES from stomach settled in side. It then towards the house. It soon got beyond his control, however, and shot down with fearful velocity. It was heavier for the house and right through the house it went, demolishing a stove, knocking furniture and dashing other things the last on which their feet had lay was sleeping. For a few moments the sensitive parents gazed upon the wreck, almost afraid to search for the little child, which they had seen "were killed and mangled, no doubt." scream emerging from the mass of broken furniture mingled with some humanity prompted by a vigorous search for the buried infant, which was not only found safe but entirely mingled gently to the surprise and delight of its anxious parents.

I think so sending praise to the Dr. De Monco, as he has been kind and attentive to my home treatment, and will cheerfully verify this statement to all who will write me or call in person.

MAIL.

Unrivalled treatment by mail. Dyspepsia diagnosed by symptom blank. Questions about all chronic diseases cheerfully answered. Write for symptom blank.

THE

COPELAND MEDICAL INSTITUTE,

Located Permanently (Since 1891) 30 and 32 in the Progress Building, South Main Street, Salt Lake City.

Dr. A. DeMonco,

Consulting Physician.

For Colds,

Coughs, Croup, Influenza, and Bronchitis, use

AYER'S

CHERRY PECTORAL

the best of all anodyne expectorants. Prompt to act,

Sure to Cure

COAL

Use Old Allen Coal,

THE most economical and satisfactory in the market. It takes the place of hard coal in grates, furnaces and kitchen ranges. ☞ Also have the Wyoming and Black Hills Coal.

The following are the prices:

LUMP, ... $5.50.
STOVE, ... $5.50.
NUT, ... $4.50.

☞ Office and Yard at MASON & CO.'S

LUMBER YARD,

459 W. FIRST SOUTH ST., SALT LAKE CITY.

TELEPHONE 567.

H. P. MASON, Agent.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE stockholders of the Salt Lake and Alta Gulch Lake Company will be held at the office of the company, No. 4 West Second South street, Salt Lake City, on Wednesday, February 14th, 1894, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors to serve for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

JAMES MOFFAT,
Assistant Secretary.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH, February 3rd, 1894.

NOTICE

To the stockholders of the Opalite Consolidated Mining Company.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT a meeting of the stockholders of said company will be held at the Commercial Building, Salt Lake City, Utah, on Saturday, the 10th day of February, 1894, at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing a board of directors to serve for the ensuing year, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

OSKAR H. CRONQUIST,
President.

Salt Lake City, Jan. 20th, 1894.

LEGAL NOTICE.

In the Probate Court of and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

In the Matter of the Estate of Cordelia Van Dyke, Deceased.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT William Van Dyke, executor of the last will and testament of the estate of Cordelia Van Dyke, deceased, has rendered his account of said estate to the Probate Court of said County, and that the hearing thereof has been fixed by said Court for the 10th day of February, 1894, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the Court House in said County, when and where all persons interested in said estate may appear and show cause why said account should not be allowed and the executor thereof be discharged from his trust.

Witness my hand and the seal of said Court this 7th day of January, A. D. 1894.

(SEAL.) E. M. ELLIOT,
Clerk of the Probate Court.

By J. P. Jacobs, Deputy.

W. M. King, Attorney for estate.

Are contained smuggled silks and opium.

Minnie, daughter of M. Hirsch, living near Grandale, Nevada, was thrown so violently the other day, when her horse became unmanageable, as to throw the young lady from a pile of rocks. She suffered a severe fracture of the skull, the blow being struck just above the eye. Drs. Phillips and Lewis were at once summoned and performed the delicate operation of raising the fractured bone from the brain, on which it was pressing. The sufferer report the case as very serious, but hope for the best.

A case of sandbagging occurred on Wednesday night at Spokane, Wash., and John Lipsom is at the hospital hovering between life and death. One good part upon the head, another upon his right ear and front and temples of his face and mouth show how brave was the attack upon him. Lipsom is a Hungarian farmer living nine miles west of Spokane. He started home about 11 o'clock Wednesday night. He was taken home the sooner there was started him. At 8 o'clock next morning he was found lying by the roadside in the snow, a pool of blood around his head and another thirty feet away.

Mrs. Dell Hogan Herrenfield, the wife of Hunter Aaron Herrenfield, has begun suit for $10,000 against a number of her husband's in-law and sister-in-law, Louis and Mary Herrenfield, of Ironton, Mont. She claims that they have alienated her husband's affections and deprived her of his society, companionship, and assistance, and she asks damages in the sum for the plaintiff and loss the state, in consequence of which her happiness has been destroyed and her health impaired, and she is left without the possession of life. The case is the outcome of the unexpected and rather unusual marriage in Chicago in November of Aaron Herrenfield, a banker worth nearly a million and fifty years of age, to Miss Dell Hogan, a working girl of about twenty. Herrenfield soon after left the state, and is supposed to be waiting for his brother now to effect a settlement of some kind with his wife.

On Wednesday, says the Coeur d'Alene (Idaho) Press, D. V. Dock went up on the old back of his house and cut down a tree for fuel. After shouldering the log of the workshop he started to slide it down towards the house. It soon got beyond his control, however, and shot down with fearful velocity. It was heavier for the house and right through the house it went, demolishing a stove, knocking furniture and dashing other things the last on which their feet had lay was sleeping. For a few moments the sensitive parents gazed upon the wreck, almost afraid to search for the little child, which they had seen "were killed and mangled, no doubt." scream emerging from the mass of broken furniture mingled with some humanity prompted by a vigorous search for the buried infant, which was not only found safe but entirely mingled gently to the surprise and delight of its anxious parents.

Minnie, daughter of M. Hirsch, living near Grandale, Nevada, was thrown so violently the other day, when her horse became unmanageable, as to throw the young lady from a pile of rocks. She suffered a severe fracture of the skull, the blow being struck just above the eye. Drs. Phillips and Lewis were at once summoned and performed the delicate operation of raising the fractured bone from the brain, on which it was pressing. The sufferer report the case as very serious, but hope for the best.

A case of sandbagging occurred on Wednesday night at Spokane, Wash., and John Lipsom is at the hospital hovering between life and death. One good part upon the head, another upon his right ear and front and temples of his face and mouth show how brave was the attack upon him. Lipsom is a Hungarian farmer living nine miles west of Spokane. He started home about 11 o'clock Wednesday night. He was taken home the sooner there was started him. At 8 o'clock next morning he was found lying by the roadside in the snow, a pool of blood around his head and another thirty feet away.

Mrs. Dell Hogan Herrenfield, the wife of Hunter Aaron Herrenfield, has begun suit for $10,000 against a number of her husband's in-law and sister-in-law, Louis and Mary Herrenfield, of Ironton, Mont. She claims that they have alienated her husband's affections and deprived her of his society, companionship, and assistance, and she asks damages in the sum for the plaintiff and loss the state, in consequence of which her happiness has been destroyed and her health impaired, and she is left without the possession of life. The case is the outcome of the unexpected and rather unusual marriage in Chicago in November of Aaron Herrenfield, a banker worth nearly a million and fifty years of age, to Miss Dell Hogan, a working girl of about twenty. Herrenfield soon after left the state, and is supposed to be waiting for his brother now to effect a settlement of some kind with his wife.

On Wednesday, says the Coeur d'Alene (Idaho) Press, D. V. Dock went up on the old back of his house and cut down a tree for fuel. After shouldering the log of the workshop he started to slide it down towards the house. It soon got beyond his control, however, and shot down with fearful velocity. It was heavier for the house and right through the house it went, demolishing a stove, knocking furniture and dashing other things the last on which their feet had lay was sleeping. For a few moments the sensitive parents gazed upon the wreck, almost afraid to search for the little child, which they had seen "were killed and mangled, no doubt." scream emerging from the mass of broken furniture mingled with some humanity prompted by a vigorous search for the buried infant, which was not only found safe but entirely mingled gently to the surprise and delight of its anxious parents.

Minnie, daughter of M. Hirsch, living near Grandale, Nevada, was thrown so violently the other day, when her horse became unmanageable, as to throw the young lady from a pile of rocks. She suffered a severe fracture of the skull, the blow being struck just above the eye. Drs. Phillips and Lewis were at once summoned and performed the delicate operation of raising the fractured bone from the brain, on which it was pressing. The sufferer report the case as very serious, but hope for the best.

A case of sandbagging occurred on Wednesday night at Spokane, Wash., and John Lipsom is at the hospital hovering between life and death. One good part upon the head, another upon his right ear and front and temples of his face and mouth show how brave was the attack upon him. Lipsom is a Hungarian farmer living nine miles west of Spokane. He started home about 11 o'clock Wednesday night. He was taken home the sooner there was started him. At 8 o'clock next morning he was found lying by the roadside in the snow, a pool of blood around his head and another thirty feet away.

Mrs. Dell Hogan Herrenfield, the wife of Hunter Aaron Herrenfield, has begun suit for $10,000 against a number of her husband's in-law and sister-in-law, Louis and Mary Herrenfield, of Ironton, Mont. She claims that they have alienated her husband's affections and deprived her of his society, companionship, and assistance, and she asks damages in the sum for the plaintiff and loss the state, in consequence of which her happiness has been destroyed and her health impaired, and she is left without the possession of life. The case is the outcome of the unexpected and rather unusual marriage in Chicago in November of Aaron Herrenfield, a banker worth nearly a million and fifty years of age, to Miss Dell Hogan, a working girl of about twenty. Herrenfield soon after left the state, and is supposed to be waiting for his brother now to effect a settlement of some kind with his wife.

On Wednesday, says the Coeur d'Alene (Idaho) Press, D. V. Dock went up on the old back of his house and cut down a tree for fuel. After shouldering the log of the workshop he started to slide it down towards the house. It soon got beyond his control, however, and shot down with fearful velocity. It was heavier for the house and right through the house it went, demolishing a stove, knocking furniture and dashing other things the last on which their feet had lay was sleeping. For a few moments the sensitive parents gazed upon the wreck, almost afraid to search for the little child, which they had seen "were killed and mangled, no doubt." scream emerging from the mass of broken furniture mingled with some humanity prompted by a vigorous search for the buried infant, which was not only found safe but entirely mingled gently to the surprise and delight of its anxious parents.

A Trinidad, Colo., paper advertises for an editor who can read, write and argue politics, and at the same time be religious, funny, scientific and theatrical at will; write to please everybody, know everybody and everything without asking or being told anyone; have something else to say about somebody else; live on what and make more money than anyone.

Mike Mahoney, of Wolf Creek, Or., was out the other evening to coal up a stray heifer. He visited a quarter of a mile of his house and with a pitcher dehorning it and another pitcher coming to him at a variable direction, he flew as the startling beast, and his crowing ribs started up a band of five catamount panthers, which scattered in so many directions. The panthers now number four, and Mike is building a high picket fence around his house.

Deputy Marshal Shankard has just recovered several Chinese dens at Florence, Ariz., and at each place secured opium. At one place thirty cans of the thing was found. Some days ago eighteen trunks from Portland, Ore., were received at Gardner City certain, and from there the drug was distributed among the dive-keepers. The collector of customs at Dogalez has been at Fronda investigating the matter. The trunks are supposed to

SUMMONS.

In the District Court, in and for the Third Judicial District, in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah.

Wasatch Reservoir, Plaintiff, vs.
J. H. Anderson and Vista N. Anderson, defendants.

The People of the Territory of Utah send greeting to C. H. Anderson and Vista N. Anderson, defendants.

YOU ARE HEREBY REQUIRED TO appear in an action brought against you by the above named plaintiff, in the District Court of the Third Judicial District, in and for Salt Lake County, Territory of Utah, and to answer the complaint filed therein, within twenty days after the service of this summons, if served within this county, and if served out of this county but in the Third Judicial District, then within thirty days, and if served out of said District, then within forty days, or judgment will be taken against you by default, for the sum of $1,000 and costs of suit, for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage made by the defendants, J. H. Anderson and Vista N. Anderson, to secure the payment of said sum, and for the foreclosure of said mortgage and the sale of the premises described therein, to satisfy said judgment, and for a decree of this court that the defendants herein have no right, title or interest in said premises, or any part thereof, and that the defendants be forever barred and foreclosed from all right, title and interest in said premises, or any part thereof, and for costs of suit herein.

The said action is brought to foreclose a certain mortgage made by the defendants, J. H. Anderson and Vista N. Anderson, to secure the payment of said sum, and for the foreclosure of said mortgage and the sale of the premises described therein, to satisfy said judgment, and for a decree of this court that the defendants herein have no right, title or interest in said premises, or any part thereof, and that the defendants be forever barred and foreclosed from all right, title and interest in said premises, or any part thereof, and for costs of suit herein.

Given under my hand and seal of said court this 3rd day of February, A. D. 1894.

(SEAL.) HENRY G. SCHILLAR,
Clerk.

By Geo. H. Lowry, Deputy Clerk.

Lewis & Lewis, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

WHEREAS, DENIS TOBIAS BURKE and Anna Jane Burke, his wife, on the 3rd day of November, 1890, at Salt Lake City, Utah Territory, executed to Joseph Scott, Trustee, a mortgage on lots 3 and 4 in block 50, in Salt Lake City, Utah Territory, according to the official plat and survey of said city, to secure the payment of one promissory note of said date, payable to the order of said Joseph Scott, Trustee, for the sum of $1,000 with interest thereon at the rate of 1 per cent per month, payable monthly, and said mortgage was duly recorded in the office of the County Recorder of said County of Salt Lake, in Book 4 of Mortgages, page 1, and said note and mortgage were duly assigned to the undersigned, Thomas Marshall, by said Joseph Scott, Trustee, by assignment dated the 3rd day of November, 1890, and said assignment was duly recorded in said Recorder's office in said County of Salt Lake, in Book 4 of Mortgages, page 2, and said Denis Tobias Burke and Anna Jane Burke, his wife, have failed to pay said note and interest thereon, and default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and posting copies of said notice in three public places in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas the trustee named in said mortgage has refused to act in said trust, and whereas the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly appointed the undersigned trustee in said mortgage in place of said trustee, and has given notice of such appointment in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has duly recorded such appointment in said Salt Lake County, Utah, and whereas the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of said premises by publication of such notice for three consecutive weeks in the Deseret Evening News, a daily newspaper published in said Salt Lake City, Utah, and has given such other notice of said sale as he has deemed proper and advisable, and whereas default has been made in the payment of said note and interest for more than three months, and said note and mortgage have been duly declared to be due and payable, and the undersigned, the legal owner and holder of said note and mortgage, has duly elected to foreclose said mortgage, and has given notice of such election to the trustee in said mortgage, and has given notice of such election and of the time and place of sale of