Got Even With the Preacher.

A lawyer of this city tells a story of how he got even with a preacher. It was on the occasion of his second marriage. After marrying the couple the minister took advantage of the privilege accorded him by custom of kissing the bride. While he engaged the young gentleman conducted a [illegible] from the church of the bride's father's with, and was [illegible] immediately behind the unwilling party.

The bride was embarrassed, and the minister asked for an explanation. Young [illegible] said to the minister, "Sir, I have married the bride, and I think I have a good right to kiss the groom's wife as the bridegroom had to kiss the bride."—Chicago Post.

Weak and Weary Women will find strength, vigor and ambition in C. L. Comfort's Ladies' Spiced Bitters; a delicious tonic of the greatest efficacy. It really relieves all the strength giving complaints peculiar to women, and confers the same glow of health to the pale and sallow cheeks. Headache, nervousness, hysteria and weakness disappear like magic, and good health follows.

BEFORE CONGRESS.

--Working for the West.--

After a stay of several years at Washington, D.C., during which he has become familiar with the workings of Congress and the departments, Judge Chas. W. Warren, as Attorney and Counselor of the Supreme Court of the United States, is prepared to promote proper legislation by appearing before Committees and informing influential Congressmen as to the needs of clients and communities represented by him.

He also continues his practice in the General Land Office, prepares appeals, makes affidavits and signatures before the Commissioner and Secretary, analyzes and reports on cases to attorneys at a distance, and attends to general land business. Terms reasonable. Service prompt and reliable. P.O. Address, Box 473, Washington, D. C.

DR. SCHENCK'S

Mandrake Pills have a value as a household remedy far beyond the power of language to describe. The family can hardly be true to itself that does not keep them on hand for use in emergencies.

MANDRAKE

is the only vegetable substitute for that dangerous mineral, Mercury, and while its action as a cathartic is fully equal, it possesses none of its perilous effects.

In Constipation, Mandrake acts upon the bowels without disposing them to subsequent costiveness.

No remedy acts so directly on the liver, nothing so speedily cures Sick Headache, Sour Stomach and Biliousness as these PILLS.

For sale by all Druggists. Price 25c. per box; 5 boxes for $1; or sent by mail, postage free, on receipt of price. Dr. J. H. Schenck & Son, Phila.
