Records! Records!

WE ARE NOW PREPARED to receive orders for BRANCH and WARD RECORDS, of a new and improved form, which has been approved by the presiding Bishopric and others.

We shall make them of four, five and six quires each, holding 2,040, 2,560 and 3,090 names each, respectively, and the price will be for four quires, $12.00, five quires, $13.00, six quires, $15.00. Each book will contain a suitable Index, and be well bound in Cloth and Russia Leather, with ornamental lettering pieces for name of the Ward on the side. The book being of a large size, we do not think it advisable to make them over six quires.

Specimens can be seen at the Office, and orders received for size of book required.

Bishops in the Country desiring Records can order by mail, and we will make accordingly and forward to them.

EASTERN.

P. M. General Retires.

WASHINGTON, 30.—Postmaster General Cresswell took a formal leave of his subordinates to-day and, in a short reply to a resolution of respect and affection presented by them, said that although he relinquished his position without a single feeling of pique or resentment, he left official life voluntarily and without any regret. He would never have retired of his own volition, as he had done, while any imputation against him remained unanswered, but this was no longer the case, and he felt that he had effected every reform which he could hope to accomplish by staying in office until the close of the President's term. He could now confidently challenge any banking or railroad corporation to show a proportional amount of business transacted with a proportionately small loss in comparison with the business of the post office department during his administration of its affairs.

Wholesale Discharge of Employes.

The treasury department employes were considerably agitated today, in view of the anticipated reduction of the force; the ladies were particularly disturbed, and collected in groups in various parts of the building discussing the subject. This morning the head of all the bureaus handed Secretary Bristow lists of those to be dismissed. The heaviest discharge was in the bureau of engraving and printing, the services of 375 female employes being dispensed with, leaving twelve hundred persons still employed in that bureau. The scene at dismissal was a sad one, fourteen of those discharged fainted when the announcement was made to them, and physicians were called to their assistance. Forty clerks were dismissed from the second auditor's office, and other discharges will be made to-morrow. It was recommended by the officers of the Bureau that only one of a family be retained, and this recommendation was generally followed. This wholesale discharge will cause much suffering, which, however, will be somewhat alleviated by the payment of two months' extra salary to every victim of congressional economy. About twenty-five permanent and the same number of temporary clerks were discharged from the interior department, including the patent office, the appropriation for that bureau having been reduced $20,000. The commissioner has accommodated his business to the circumstances, although he shows that the government will lose largely by the curtailment of expenditure.

Tilton and Beecher Again.

NEW YORK, 30.—Theodore Tilton, in an interview to-day, spoke as follows in reference to Mr. Beecher's letter of apology: "The letter was every word of it Mr. Beecher's own composition, it was signed by himself, in his own behalf. I did not demand this apology, and the fact that it was sent to me unasked always added to the reluctance with which I subsequently contemplated making my defense against Beecher. The injurious course by which he permitted his church to indict me before the council, and by which the church and council, together with Dr. Bacon superadded, have fallen upon me, like a mill stone, to crush me to powder. The remainder of his letter bore more heavily upon him than the portion which I quoted; had I printed the whole his friend Tracy would not have said—"I am glad of Tilton's publication."

REPORTER. "Many persons believe that the latter part of the letter would have explained away the first part."

TILTON. "If so, then Mr. Beecher is entitled to have it published; it is in his power to publish it at any moment."

REPORTER. "Has he a copy of it?"

TILTON. "I presume he retained one; but if he did not, he has only to ask me for a copy, and he shall have it."

Fatally Shot.

A special to the Sun reports that James P. Saunders, a prominent lawyer, was fatally shot in the city court room at Yonkers, N. Y., by Sachman, a gardener, who was defendant in a case he was trying; Saunders is a past grand sire of the Odd Fellows. The assassin was arrested.

GREAT BRITAIN.

No Home Rule for Ireland—Sorry will take Bosnia and Wine with Turkey and Persia Intervene.

LONDON, 1.—In the House of Commons last evening, Dr. Butt moved his resolution in favor of home rule for Ireland. He maintained that home rule involved no disturbance of the principles of the Constitution. The imperial parliament, in which Ireland would still be represented, would have power to tax all the resources of Ireland as well as of Great Britain. Since the union Ireland has always been dissatisfied. He acknowledged that efforts had been made to redress her grievances, but he said they had failed, and always would fail, because real liberty was denied. He appealed to the House to adopt his resolve as the only real remedy. By restoring its constitutional rights to Ireland, content and prosperity would be established throughout the country.

The Attorney General for Ireland gave a decided and emphatic negative to all the propositions Dr. Butt advanced. The present proposal was infinitely more dangerous to the peace and prosperity of the country than a demand for a repeal of the union. A collision of the Imperial and Irish parliaments would be inevitable, particularly on matters of commerce and finance. The proposed action would endanger the whole commercial and social fabric, and the political constitutions of both countries. It would be dangerous for England, but practically ruinous for Ireland. He regarded agitation on the subject as mischievous and futile.

Viscount Crichton, member for Enniskillen, said the people of Ulster were of the unanimous opinion that home rule was equivalent to civil war, and would inevitably result in the subjugation of Ireland by some foreign power hostile to England.

The Marquis of Hartington said the great bulk of Irishmen were not desirous of home rule; the question must be regarded from an imperial standpoint, and the House, having charge of the imperial interests, must reject the motion. Whatever might be the effect upon the internal affairs of Ireland, no consideration would ever induce the Liberals to purchase Irish support by sacrificing the slightest interest of the Empire. He felt that any coquetting with the question would immediately result in the complete disorganization of the Liberal party, and he urged the cordial co-operation of Ireland with England instead of the useless agitation of the question of a separate Parliament.

A special dispatch to the Standard says that Marshal Serrano has decided to take command of the republican army immediately.

A dispatch to the Standard from Vienna says, "The British ambassador at Constantinople has tendered his good offices as mediator between Persia and Turkey, in the recently arisen complication. The Porte will send an army to the Persian frontier.

THE ONLY MEDICAL FRIEND,
IN case of Diarrhea, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus and Cholera, is Maguire's Benne Plant, a thirty years' remedy in the Mississippi Valley. The acknowledged specific in 1849 and 1853. Sold by druggists everywhere.
Read the following testimonial from the late Father DeSmet, the great Indian missionary:
ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY, June 9, 1873.
Messrs. J. & C. Maguire:
Long experience in the use of your valuable EXTRACT OF BENNE PLANT justifies me in saying that I believe it to be an excellent remedy for any form of bowel affections for which you recommend it. On every occasion when I have given it, I am happy to inform you that it has been successful in affording relief.
Very truly, your friend,
P. J. DESMET, S. J.
From Rt. Rev. Bishop Ryan:
I fully endorse Father DeSmet's testimonial. P. J. RYAN.
