APPEAL FOR CUBA.

Business Men Send a Memorial to the Secretary of State.

AMERICAN COMMERCE SUFFERING.

Means Should Therefore be Adopted to End the Struggle in the Island.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Firms and individuals in this country who are interested in trade with Cuba and who desire peace in the island as soon as possible sent today to the secretary of state a memorial setting forth how their business interests are suffering and giving facts about the struggle in Cuba. The petition says:

"The subscribers to this memorial, citizens of the United States, doing business as bankers, merchants, manufacturers, steamship owners and agents, finding that their several interests are suffering severely from the long continuance of the struggle now going on in the island of Cuba, desire to present for your careful consideration the following facts, in the hope that you may find in them a sufficient justification of this memorial and not as able to devise measures whereby the termination of the struggle between the armed forces in the island of Cuba may be hastened.

"The magnitude of the American commerce with the island of Cuba is readily shown by citing the volume of our trade with that island for the years 1893, 1894 and 1895, in each of which years the value of our imports from Cuba exceeded $75,000,000. Our exports to Cuba ranged in value from $25,000,000 to $30,000,000 a year during these years, and have been even greater in previous years during the reciprocity treaty of the United States with Spain. The struggle in the island has continued for more than two years, to the serious detangement of our commerce with the island, our imports from Cuba shrinking in value of some $30,000,000 in 1896, and our exports to Cuba in 1896 amounting to only $7,000,000, so far as ascertainable.

"Many of our subscribers have large interests in Cuba, as property owners or holders of mortgages, or in the shape of business credit advances, and your subscribers see these interests, already seriously injured, now threatened with annihilation by the continuance of a state of affairs under which we can neither operate any business in the island nor take the precautions possible in ordinary times to protect our interests.

"The third rainy season since the commencement of the insurrection is now at hand in Cuba, and so military operations of any magnitude are made virtually impossible for the next five months by reason of the tropical climate and rains, the relative position of the two contending parties cannot be greatly altered during the summer months.

"It appears to your subscribers that for the reasons above cited they may venture to lay these facts before you most appropriately at this time, and they sincerely hope that you may be inclined, in view of the magnitude and importance of the American commercial interests that are involved, to give careful consideration to the serious blow inflicted upon our commerce and trade by the present disturbances in Cuba, and to determine upon the expediency of taking measures which may facilitate an honorable termination between the contending parties. The restoration of peace in Cuba now, or with the coming rainy season, would not only probably rescue from destruction the fruits of the labor of Americans there at stake and serve to re-establish an important branch of our nation's commerce, but would prevent further loss of life, destruction of property, widespread distress, hunger and suffering that are inevitably increasing accompaniments of an armed conflict such as has existed for over two years now in Cuba."

Lee and Weyler Great Friends.

HAVANA, May 17.—In view of the statement published in New York that Consul General Lee had made a report to the state department in the course of which he had attacked Captain General Weyler savagely and declared that the insurgents would be successful in driving the Spaniards from the island, a representative of La Lucha has interviewed General Lee on the subject. La Lucha says today on the express authority of Consul General Lee, that no attack was made by him on Captain General Weyler in any report to the American government, nor has he ever asserted in any report or orally that the insurgents could expel Spanish troops from the island under the conditions now existing.

Upon General Lee's desk is a portrait of Captain General Weyler with the following inscription: "To Gen. Lee as a token of friendship and with best wishes.

VARELINA WEYLER."

MRS. LANGTRY'S DIVORCE.

Her Husband Vows the Whole Matter with Contempt.

LONDON, May 17.—Edward Langtry is quoted here today as saying that the only information which he has received of the decree of divorce to his wife, Lily Langtry, by a California court, is that which has appeared the news dispatches. He indorses the power of the California court, and says:

"Mrs. Langtry cannot remarry without committing bigamy, and if she does do so and comes to England, it will be within the power of the public prosecutor to indict her. I myself would not contemplate such a step, but he might. I cannot conceive what the woman means. As for the charge of desertion upon which the decree is said to be based, the only desertion I have been guilty of was in 1881, when I was packed off to America on some business which kept me dodging about Chicago and New York. I have been kindly and fair to her all along, commencing with the marriage settlement, which is very good, whereby I willed her my property in Ireland."

When Mr. Langtry was asked if there was anyone Mrs. Langtry was likely to marry, he said significantly: "Yes; but I do not intend to take any action whatever in regard to a decree. I treat it with the same contempt as I did the citation."

Monument to Soldiers.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 18.—The Illinois Battlefield monument commission has decided to erect nine monuments, each at Lookout mountain and at the north end of Mission Ridge to the Illinois regiments which participated in those battles. They have also solved plans for a granite monument 100 feet high, which it is proposed to erect on the top of Mission Ridge on the spot where the Confederate general, Bragg, had his headquarters.

OWED RUSSELL SAGE MONEY.

The Thought Was Unbearable to Mrs. Elizar Sage.

JOLIET, Ills., May 18.—Mrs. Elizar Sage, the wife of the man who obtained a $50 loan from his uncle, Russell Sage of New York, last February, has attempted to commit suicide from worrying over the debt. Elizar Sage had saved $45 toward lifting the mortgage on his homestead and his wife had $5. Brooding over the affair caused Mrs. Sage to lose her mind and last Saturday she was found hanging from a rafter in the shanty upon which New York's millionaire Sage had a mortgage for $50.

She was found in time to save her life. The money to cancel the mortgage was sent last night to Mr. Sage.

GREEKS AGAIN DEFEATED.

Smolenski Probably Cut off from the Main Army.

LONDON, May 18.—The Daily Telegraph's special correspondent with the Turkish forces in Thessaly, telegraphing late last night, says: Edhem Pasha has moved his forces to a point and finally occupied Domokos. The Greeks have sustained a crushing defeat.

The Chronicle's correspondent at Athens sends the following official account of the fighting yesterday: "Over 50,000 Turks simultaneously and continually attacked our whole line. Our artillery and infantry did splendid work. Twice all the regiments of the enemy wavered and fled, though their attack was soon renewed with fresh forces, which in turn we were able to rout back.

"The stubborn resistance and splendid vigor of our troops finally compelled the enemy to give way altogether. All the attacks on our left were similarly repulsed.

"On our right we did not fare so well. The first attack of the enemy was repulsed, but they massed in immense force for the final attack. Our first line wavered and was broken, and the wing would have been turned but for the timely arrival of the reserves.

"Still the enemy had gained ground which it was then impossible to regain, and we therefore fell back on Rotat.

"The Turks had 50,000 troops, with 20,000 reserves. Our force was only 25,000. We have lost heavily, to the enemy must have lost thousands."

Headquarters Greek Army, Domokos, May 17 (4 p. m.)—The Turkish attack on the Greek right wing began at 2 o'clock this afternoon, but the Turkish attacks are considered to be feints and it is believed the main attacks of the Turks will be made upon the Greek centre, where Crown Prince Constantine is in command.

The Greek cannon are doing great execution on the principal Turkish column, which is advancing through the hills. The Turkish infantry at several points is in contact with the Greeks.

It is believed here that the attack on General Smolenski near Almyros is only a strategic operation and that the Turks will endeavor to cut between the two Greek armies, concentrating and leading to the Omrys mountains, and thus cut off the rear of the crown prince.

SMOLENSKI CUT OFF.

LONDON, May 18 (1 a.m.)—The latest news from the seat of hostilities by way of Athens shows that the battle yesterday ceased about 8 o'clock in the evening, but will probably be resumed this morning. Thus far no account of the fighting has been received from the Turkish side. It is evident from the Greek account that the Greeks have suffered a serious defeat, and if the left wing has given way, as appears probable, Edhem Pasha may be able to cut off the Greek retreat and separate General Smolenski's board from the main army.

This is Edhem Pasha's reply to the foolish attempt of Col. Manos to attach a victory in Epirus. If Greece had prevented Manos from playing this last card of a gambler, Turkey might perhaps have caused her hostilities. As it is now, she is in full possession of Thessaly, and the powers will find the task of protecting Greece a more difficult one than ever.

The dispatches from Athens represent the populace as astounded when the news of the fighting came. They had hoped to the last that the powers would prevent Turkey from going further. One report represents the Greek government as threatening to take extreme and desperate steps unless Europe arrests the progress of the invaders.

The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph at Athens says: This afternoon (Monday) has been one of great excitement. The whole city turned out to discuss the news of the fighting and the newspapers issued special editions. The impatient crowds gathered around the offices of the ministry of marine, questioned everything coming out, and finally invaded the building.

CHAPMAN IN JAIL.

But He Does Not Suffer Many Hardships There.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17.—Elverton R. Chapman, the recalcitrant sugar trust witness who refused to answer a Senate committee's questions as to whether he had acted as broker for any senators in speculations in sugar trust, occupies a cell at the district jail tonight and will continue therein for thirty-five days. Chapman surrendered himself to United States Marshal Wilson at 4 o'clock today. Two cells have been assigned him, one for sleeping purposes and the other as a sitting and office room. Rugs cover the floor, and a table, brass bedstead, chiffonier and several chairs adorn the cells. The jail will furnish him his ordinary fare, while soups and fancy dishes, served by a private waiter, will be sent to him from a hotel.

King George in Danger.

LONDON, May 17.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Berlin says it is reported there that a plot to murder King George has been discovered at Athens and that many arrests have been made.

A Prince and Explorer.

ROME, May 17.—Prince Luigi Amedeo of Savoy, duke of Abruzzi and nephew of King Humbert, started for Liverpool yesterday with his suite on his way to New York and San Francisco and Alaska, whence the Prince will make an attempt to ascend Mount St. Elias.

Prince Luigi will also make an attempt to ascend Logan's peak, on the boundary line between Utah and Wyoming. Logan's peak is over 13,000 feet above the level of the sea and its top is covered with perpetual snow. The prince expects to return to Italy at the beginning of October.

Bank Dividends.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—The comptroller of the currency has declared dividends in favor of the creditors of insolvent national banks as follows:

Ten per cent, the Moscow National bank of Moscow, Ida.

Ten per cent, the Kittitas Valley National bank of Ellensburg, Wash.

Ten per cent, the Baker City National bank of Baker City, Or.

Calhoun Not Yet Heard From.

WASHINGTON, May 17.—No word has come to the department from Commissioner Calhoun, who went to Cuba as special counsel for the United States in the Ruiz case. It is learned from Consul-General Lee's dispatch that he arrived safely, but from Mr. Calhoun himself not a word has been received. This is no matter of surprise to the officials, because it is hardly to be expected that Mr. Calhoun, in the short period so time that has elapsed since his arrival in Havana could be in a position to report upon so difficult a subject as the actual conditions in Cuba.

Novel Use for Homing Pigeons.

BUFFALO, May 17. — A homing pigeon came on board the steamer Parnell while in the middle of Lake Erie in her trip down from Chicago. Not knowing that the bird was a homing pigeon, Capt. Griffin shot it. There he found concealed on the pigeon a diamond stud and a silver leg band bearing the number "143,800." It is believed that carrier pigeons are being used in this way for the smuggling of diamonds into this country from Canada.

Removal of Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 17.—The advisability of inquiry into the removal of postmasters by the executive was raised in the executive session of the Senate today in connection with the confirmation of F. E. Benjamin as postmaster at Terre Haute, Ind.

Senator Turpie brought forward the subject and there was a brief exchange of ideas on the part of Senators Turpie, Fairbanks, Chandler and Hoar. The general opinion seemed to be that since the repeal of the tenure of office act it was competent for the executive to make removals.

King of Siam in Europe.

NEW YORK, May 18.—A special to the Herald from Lucerne says:

The king of Siam, Paramindar Maha Chonlalongkorn, passed through here recently. His majesty was delighted with the St. Gothard tunnel. He was received at the railway station by Mons. Minnie Hauser and her husband who were the king's guests in Siam in 1895.

As to Forest Reservations.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Following the recommendation of Commissioner Herman of the general land office, the attorney general has instructed the United States district attorney for Oregon to suspend for the present the legal proceedings in that district growing out of the sheep pasturing within the limits of the Cascade range forest reserve. The commissioner of the land office has submitted to the secretary of the interior an elaborate statement showing the facts regarding the Cascade forest reserve in Oregon, reciting its history, from its inception to the present and the legislation in Congress as to all forest reservations. In this statement the commissioner recommends that the former order of the department forbidding pasturage on the reserve be revoked entirely, or be modified so to permit pasturing under regulations to be described by the department.

A BICYCLE TEST CASE.

James Neill Proposes to Ride Without a Lamp.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 18.—James Neill, the wellknown actor, is the principal in a test case of the new bicycle ordinance in this city. He is charged with riding after dark without a lighted lamp on the forks or axle of his wheel. The case went over till tomorrow and will be carried to the higher courts as Mr. Neill holds that such a provision of the ordinance is unreasonable and therefore void, and it is beyond the power of the council to enact such a provision. The case will be watched from elsewhere as similar ordinances are very general in cities throughout the country.

Who is the Generous Donor?

NEW YORK, May 18.—A special to the Journal from London says:

It is reported that the anonymous philanthropist who contributed £20,000 to the fund proposed by the Princess of Wales to feed the starving on the occasion of the queen's jubilee is William Waldorf Astor. The report cannot be absolutely confirmed.

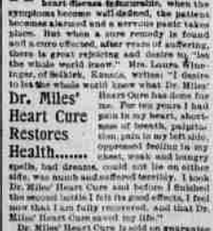
In Honor of Logan.

CHICAGO, May 18.—The memory of John A. Logan, soldier and statesman, will be honored by Chicagoans July 22. This date has been selected by the commissioners in charge of the Logan monument for the unveiling of the statue of the great soldier. The site for this monument, selected by Mrs. Logan, is at the foot of Eldridge court on the lake front and the masterpiece of St. Gaudens, the sculptor, will be shipped from New York as soon as the foundation is ready.

Winter in Chile.

NEW YORK, May 18.—A special to the Herald from Valparaiso, Chile, says: Heavy rains and northerly winds show that winter has set in. The Cupiso, which was saved from wreck in Smith's channel only by the timely help of the Gulf of Suez, is now safe in port at Talcahuano.

Let The Whole World Know The Good Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Does



HEART DISEASE, has its victim at a disadvantage. Always taught that heart disease is incurable, when the symptoms become well defined, the patient becomes alarmed and a nervous panic takes place. But when a sure remedy is found and a cure effected, after years of suffering, there is good reason for publishing to "let the whole world know." Mrs. Laura Bittinger, of Bellfont, Kansas, writes: "I desire to let the whole world know what Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has done for me. For ten years I had pain in my heart, shortness of breath, palpitation, pain in my left side, oppressed feeling in my chest, weak and hungry spells, bad dreams, could not lie on either side, was much and suffered terribly. I took Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and before I finished the second bottle I felt its good effects. I feel now that I am fully recovered, and that Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved my life."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee that first bottle benefits, or money refunded.
