OGDEN.

OGDEN, UTAH, DECEMBER 28, 1893.

Drowned While Skating.

Twenty miles north Ogden and Tracey Hingham, son of Bishop Hingham, of Riverdale, and John Ashlander, of the same place, went skating on the Weber river, which is now covered with a thick layer of ice. The boys enjoyed the exhilarating and pleasant sport for some little time, when one of them observed that the ice was cracking. In vain did the boys try to get off, and down went Tracey Hingham and John Ashlander. Owen, seeing the danger in which his brother and playmates were, made a heroic effort to rescue them, when he also went into the chilling waters and shared the fate of those whom he would have saved.

A small, crippled boy stood on the bank and witnessed the last struggles of his playmates, but was powerless to render any assistance. He, however, gave the alarm and soon many willing hands appeared. The bodies were recovered within a few minutes after they had went under the ice. Dr. Gordon was hastily summoned from Ogden, but when he arrived death had claimed them. The ages of the boys was not 15 years old, while the youngest was 9. The parents and other relatives feel very keenly their sad bereavement, and in their grief they have the sympathy of a host of friends.

The funeral was held at 11 o'clock today from the Riverdale meeting house.

City Council Meets.

At last night's session of the city council a lively time was had, the main object of interest being the old question of opening Thirteenth street, which has vexed the souls of the city fathers for the past three or four years. An arbitrating committee had been appointed to appraise the abutting property and make the necessary assessments for opening the street. It appears that the committee had reported to Mayor Lundy, and that the recorder had issued warrants in payment for the property without the sanction of the council. As may be expected, this made some of the city fathers wax warm. "Collusion" and "fraud" were among the milder terms used. Mayor Lundy and Recorder Sapp denied that any fraud had been committed, and said something about the "pot calling the kettle black," etc. The discussion was very bitter, and at one time it looked like a series of black eyes would follow as a result. Some other business of minor importance was transacted and the council adjourned.

Shoplifters Examined.

Commissioner Tetzes was occupied this afternoon in hearing the case of Robert, George and Armin Storey and Robert Smith, who, it was charged, had rifled Brunson's grocery store of a number of valuables. Arthur Storey plead guilty to the offense named and was bound over in the sum of $500 to await the action of the grand jury; while the remaining once plead not guilty. In their examination the testimony was found insufficient to hold them and they were discharged.

Notes and Personals.

A runaway occurred last evening on south Washington. The team was one owned by Corey Bros. and was being driven by a rather timid gentleman who became frightened and let it go. The horses went leisurely down Washington avenue until overtaken by a horseman. The only harm done was to the sleigh, which was slightly damaged.

A marriage license was given yesterday to Thos. F. Childs, of Ogden, and Miss Arminda Pell, of Brigham City; and also to John Unsworth and Miss Annie Hancock, both of this city.

J. Ford Cramer, of Ogden, succeeded in winning the second prize at the pansy exhibition held at Jessamine, Florida. The flowers were grown at Mr. Cramer's residence, this city.

The Southern Pacific shops of this city are practically completed and within ten days 150 to 200 men will be put to work in and about them.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, DEC. 28, 1893.

Sheriff's Sale.

Five acres of land adjacent of the city, the property of Duke & Gray, were sold by Deputy Sheriff Hall at the suit of the Utah County National bank, for $375. The property was bought in by the bank. Debt of the bank at suit was $1,001.

Lot 3, block 26, plat L, Provo City, the property of W. M. Rapp, was sold at the suit of Mr. Newsom to satisfy the judgment of the court.

The sale of the South A Craft adjoining commenced was postponed until today.

Aged Veterans Ill.

Alex Wilson has received a telegram that John Sylvester Bell, brother-in-law, Eaton and John Barnes, uncle of the latter, both very ill. Mrs. Barnes been recently expected to recover. Resided former in one of the oldest families in the Church, being member of the Church. The boys enlisted in 1861. May 13, 1861. He is 52 years of age and his wife is 48 years. Brother Bell was promoted by the Prophet Joseph that he should live to be 52 years of age, and a short time after he wrote to his children that his term of life had expired, and he did not expect to be more on earth much longer.

Notes.

Henry Ginger, of Lake View, was arrested for unlawful cohabitation, placed not guilty to the charge by Commissioner Dudley's court, waived preliminary examination and was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $500.

The Laughing Girl gave entertainment to the playgoers at this city. The Black Flag is to be repeated on Monday evening for the benefit of the Opera house.

A marriage license has been issued to George Kidan, 22, and Hattie Brown 18, both of Salem.

Supt. of Waterworks Sally Jenson in his annual report, gives the number of water takers at 1,787, an increase of 11 over last year. The mains and pipes now give fairly good satisfaction, but not having been spent for repairs during the last year.

Chief L. S. Glover of the fire department reports 14 fires in the city during the past year, loss, $10,525; insurance, $8,425.

I TUMBLED.

It took me a long time, but at last I tumbled to the fact that the biggest, brightest and best shoes that I ever saw in my life are being given away week at the Wonderland. Everybody who goes once becomes a regular patron. Why shouldn't they?

The performances are always bright, clean and amusing, and both floors are seated.
