THEATRE.—On Saturday night "Neck and Neck" was presented for the last time at the Theatre, and was well played throughout.

To-night Mr. E. T. Stetson will have a benefit, when he will appear as "Richard Hamilton," alias "Daring Dick," in "McClure's" four-act sensation drama, "Daring Dick the Detective," or "High, Low, Jack and the Game," a piece that has never been presented before in this city, and which is said to be a truthful exposure of certain phases of life in New York.

Miss Jeanette Walters will appear as "Serpentine." Other support by Misses Thorne, Marden, Graham, Harris, Wilton, Paul, Misses Delle and Edith Clawson, Miss Jones, etc.

The drama has been received elsewhere with great applause, and is considered one of the best sensation pieces that has yet been produced.

IN TOWN.—H. P. Merrill, Esq., of the firm of H. P. Merrill & Co., importers of queensware and manufacturers' agents, 30 and 32 Canal street, is in town. He represents one of the most reliable western houses in his line, and has done considerable business with Salt Lake merchants.

DANGEROUS.—On Saturday night a woman living on East Temple street, between Second and Third south, placed a coal oil lamp on a stove, the consequence of which was the burning of the lamp, and the lighting of the woman's clothing. By the efforts of a gentleman who rushed to the spot, the flames were extinguished.

KANAB.—A letter from Bishop Levi Stewart, Kanab, Aug. 9th, says: "Our wheat crops came out light. The worms are making great havoc among the grain. A general time of health prevails. We have had three light shocks of earthquake. We need more men here to assist in the work before us."

ANOTHER CIRCUS.—Another show will shortly visit this city. It is a combination of three different establishments—Conklin Brothers' Circus, Samwell's Educated Animals, and "Yankee" Robinson's Big Show. The press of Michigan, where this consolidated establishment has been performing, speaks in commendable terms of the entertainment.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Spanish Fork City, August 25th, 1872. I wish to ascertain the whereabouts of my brother George Babcock, as he would find it to his advantage to communicate to me at Spanish Fork City. The last I knew of him he was running the Green River Ferry along with Lewis Robinson, some twenty-one or two years ago. Please ask the Nebraska papers to copy. ALBEN BABCOCK.

BEAVER CO.—W. L. H. Dotson writes,—"MINERSVILLE, Aug. 23, 1872.—There is a good deal of sickness in this place and several deaths have occurred. William Wood's child died yesterday, and another died last night. Several others are very sick."

[Per Deseret Telegraph.]

LOOKING FOR.—The Cache County wards on Bear River will put on the Cotoawood drill, U. N. R. R., early next week, some fifty teams and scrapers, with many barrow men. It is expected that within one month tracklaying can be resumed and prosecuted to Franklin, without further interruption.

A telegraph office has been opened at Hampton station, at the end of the U. N. R. R., Charles Nibley operator. A. M. M.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.—Among the guests at the Townsends house are General and Mrs. McClelland, who, with General and Miss Marcy, and Miss Russell of New York, arrived in this city on Saturday night. We understand that the party were met at Farmington by a number of citizens from Salt Lake, and informally welcomed. They came to this city on the same train with President Young and company, and on the way down the General and his party were introduced to and had a pleasant interview with the President and Twelve.

The party leave this city for the west this afternoon. They are expected in San Francisco by the 1st of September, where the General is to be honored with a public reception by his companions in arms while he was commander of the army of the Potomac.

CURE FOR CANCER.—Charles Yardley of Pittsburgh, Pa., sends the following:—"I wish to tell how I cured my cancer without pain or money. Eight years ago a cancer came on my nose. It grew and grew for several years. The last two it grew very fast. It became frightful and began to eat out my left eye. I had paid hundreds of dollars and tried doctors from far and near, without finding relief. Finally I began to drink wild tea, putting the tea grounds on my cancer every night as a poultice. In six weeks my cancer was cured. I am 62 years old. I gave this remedy to several that had cancer, and I know of two that have been cured. I believe that wild tea grows over the country generally on high lands."

We are not aware that "wild tea," or "prairie tea" grows west of the Missouri River.

FILLMORE CITY, Aug. 22nd, 1872.

Editor Deseret News: On the 8th inst. I handed to the operator here a concise abstract of the election returns of Millard, which did not appear in the News. I asked the operator how it was, and he said that it was so stale that the News would not receive it. I have noticed the election returns from other counties published as late as the 15th. The reason I wished the returns published was because what was sent and published was incorrect and did not do us justice. Who was at fault in this matter, if any one?

Respectfully,
F. M. LYMAN,
County Clerk.

The public wishes fresh news, in the matter of elections, as well as other matters. But in regard to elections we wait for information till we get it.

MEETINGS AT FARMINGTON.—On Saturday morning, a few minutes after 8 o'clock, the First Presidency, accompanied by several members of the quorum of the Twelve and a few other elders, left this city for Farmington, to hold meetings there on Saturday and Sunday. They reached the Farmington station about 9 o'clock, and were conveyed there in carriages to the city, and at 10 o'clock assembled in Miller's grove, where a stand for the speakers had been erected, under an awning, and seats had been provided for the public.

The services were opened in the usual manner, by singing and prayer, when short address was delivered by President George A. Smith, which was followed by addresses and testimonies from Elders B. H. Hildre, Henry Maiben, S. H. E. Smith, and Levi Hancock, the last speaker being President Smith. The remarks of Elder Hancock were upon his early experience in the church, his intimacy with the Prophet Joseph Smith, a visit paid the latter by President Young, and the many of Joseph's latter-day disciples that he (Brigham) would yet preside over the kingdom of God upon the earth. Elder Hancock's remarks were listened to with great interest by the congregation.

A sermon for two hours.

In the afternoon the speakers were Elder Zebulon Coltrin, and President D. H. Wells and Brigham Young.

The President and company returned to this city on Saturday evening.

The meetings on Saturday were not very numerously attended, the visitors from neighboring settlements being scarce, which was accounted for by the pressing necessity for labor in the harvest field. Yesterday morning the Presidency and a more numerous company than on Saturday left for this city for Farmington. When they reached Bountiful a considerable number of the residents of that place got on board the train for the purpose of attending the meetings at Farmington. The party reached the meeting place by ten o'clock, the attendance being much larger than on Saturday. Bountiful and Kayaville as well as Farmington being well represented.

The speakers in the morning were Elders Brigham Young, Jr., and George Q. Cannon. In the afternoon the large congregation was addressed by Elders W. Woodruff, John Taylor and C. W. Penner, and President George A. Smith. The instructions given at the several meetings were very excellent, and the meetings were enjoyed with power and evidently enjoying to a large extent the influence of the Holy Spirit. One feature, which rendered the meetings especially enjoyable, was the excellent singing of the Farmington choir, which is one of the best we have had the pleasure of hearing outside Salt Lake City.

FUNERAL OBSEQUIES.—The funeral of Thomas Harrington, who died of old age, on the 22nd inst, was numerously attended, at his residence in the 7th Ward, at 10 a. m. on the 24th inst. The services were conducted under the direction of Bishop Wm. Thorne, and remarks were made by Elder John Taylor and others, eulogists of his faithful and upright course as a Latter-day Saint during a period of thirty-two years. Brother Harrington was one of the first who embraced the gospel in the town of Liverpool, England; he gathered with the Saints in 1824, to Nauvoo, Illinois, from whence he was driven with his brethren and sisters, for the testimony of Jesus, and has continued ready with his life and substance to advance the cause of God. The exact age of deceased is known, although it is believed by those most familiar with him that it exceeded ninety years. He was very patriotic in his manners, and although liberal in making those around him comfortable, would relate nothing pertaining to his own life, nor of his acquaintances, unless it reflected to their good. Six years ago he was thrown from his horse, upon his head, which deprived him of his memory and affected his mind up to the time of his death. He left three daughters and a son to record their interest in an honorable father. [CON.]

ELECTION RETURNS.
St. George, August 16th, 1872.

Editor Deseret News: The vote of Washington County is as follows, to wit:

Delegate to Congress, George Q. Cannon, 720 votes; Commissioners to locate University Lands, John Van Cott, 720; Lewis A. Hills, 720; John Rowberry, 720; Representative to the Legislative Assembly from Washington and Kane counties, Joseph W. Young, 720; County Surveyor, John H. McFarlane, 719; County Superintendent of Common schools, Joseph E. Johnson, 719; County Recorder, Alden A. M. Jackson, 719; Sheriff, Daniel S. Miller, 719; Coroner, Richard Bentley, 719; Selectman, Robert D. Covington, 719. Respectfully,
ALDEN A. M. JACKSON,
County Clerk.

P. S.—The last precinct returns were not received until yesterday.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Col. John Wilson, the "veteran" California manager, and proprietor of the "San Francisco Circus" that had so successful a run in this city a short time since, and now traveling throughout the State in the Valley—along the immense pavilion being unable to hold them. The Circus is a Richmond today and to-morrow; Wellsville, Wednesday 28; Corvallis, 29, 30 and 31; Ogden, 3rd, 4th and 5th of September, when the biggest, stock, harness, coaches and wagons will be sold at auction on the 4th, the circus proprietors reserving only the canvas, band and ticket wagon and ring stock, and will be in this city with the New Organization, September 24th, 25th and 26th, on Col. Little's lot, corner of 1st South and 2nd East Streets. Dr. Haskell, the popular and efficient General Agent of the Circus is in the city and informs us that Col. Wilson has succeeded in securing a corps of the most celebrated and wonderful equestrians, acrobats, athletes, clowns, valeters, gymnasts, male and female, with a splendid stud of horses, forming an aggregation of talent never before presented in one combination to the public. In fact, four distinct shows in one. The public may anticipate a good thing. 2231
