Awards for Star Mail Service.

WASHINGTON, 2.—The following additional awards for Star mail service were announced to-day:

Utah—From Kelton to the Dalles, Oregon, O. J. Salisbury, at $84,900 per annum; Richfield to Kanab, F. W. Gilmer, $2,390; New Harmony to Frisco, H. White, $1,343; New Harmony to St. George, H. White, $1,333; St. George to Pine Valley, J. W. Peck, $1,168.

Idaho—Boise City to Winnemucca, Nevada, H. White, $30,000.

Arrested for Robbing the Mail

OMAHA, 2.—Special mail agent Seybolt of this city has arrested at Ottumwa, Ia., Edwards Pierrepont Duffield, mail agent on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad. Duffield is a nephew of Pierrepont, former minister to England, and after whom he was named. He was detected by decoy letters. Registered packages broken open were found secreted in the car. The evidence is pretty conclusive. He was required to give $2,000 bail which he furnished.

Wool Market.

BOSTON, 2.—Wool has been dull for a long time, and prices for all kinds are gradually settling down. This is attributed to dealers in other markets forcing off their stocks at very low prices, some two and three cents under what was considered fair quotation a few weeks ago, and the wool market appears rather demoralized without apparent cause. There is a very indifferent feeling on the part of buyers, and it is doubtful if any considerable sales could be forced except at some concessions on even the present low rates. Combing and delaine fleeces are more inquired for, but the demand is from small manufacturers. Pulled wools are quiet. Ohio and Pennsylvania No 1, XX, and above 42 @ 45. Michigan X and XX, 39 @ 42. New York X, 37½. Vermont X 40, combing and delaine, 44 @ 55, unwashed combing 34, scoured 35½, super and X pulled 32 @ 45. California wool is dull, sales of the week amounting only to 739,000 lbs. at 18 @ 32 for spring, and 15 @ 25 for fall.

Indian Depredations.

RAWLINS, Wyo., 2.—A letter received here from reliable parties on Snake River, says the Ute Indians are acting in a very defiant manner. They have already killed 125 head of cattle, and threaten to go on the war path when grass comes. A letter from Bear River states that the people are greatly excited over the action of the Indians, and are preparing places of safety for their women and children.

Murderer Executed.

HELENA, Montana, 2.—Michael McAndrews was hung at Radersburg, Montana, at 5 p.m., yesterday. He had been tried and found guilty of murdering a man named Maver last Fall, with whom he had traveled from the Black Hills. The evidence was circumstantial. He made no confession.

Counterfeiters Sentenced.

PHILADELPHIA, 2.—Seven persons were sentenced, to-day, for making, passing, and having counterfeit money, to terms of imprisonment ranging from four months to 12 years.

The Count Johannes again in Trouble.

NEW YORK, 2.—Count Johannes has been distinguishing himself in New Haven, where the Yale College students gave him a hearty reception. Their conduct was even worse than that of the New Yorkers. The affair ended in a melee between the students and the police, in which the latter were victorious. Several of the students were arrested, but promptly bailed by the professors. Nearly all the officers engaged in the row were bruised, and several students were also hurt. The Count wrote a characteristic letter to the police enclosing $50 for his "brave defenders." In consequence of this and the New York trouble, the Boston authorities refuse to permit the Count to appear in that city.

The French Republic Gaining Ground.

Paris letters indicate that the French republicans are daily gaining ground. Though both the republican and conservative parties are divided, the greater elements of cohesion in the former give them a decided advantage over the unnatural alliance between the Legitimists, Orleanists and Bonapartists, among whom the latter are the noisiest, and the latter are now intrinsically the strongest.

Gambetta's leadership is considered wise and forceful, and the friends of the wise republic grow daily more assured of its stability.

The Silver Bill—Anxiety in Financial Circles.

There is some difference of opinion, but much anxiety in financial circles here as to the effect of the silver bill, though the prevailing impression is that it will not have much effect for good or ill for perhaps a year to come, except by bringing bonds home for sale, in consequence of weakened faith abroad in American honor, some anticipating an early panic in bonds. One prominent banker points out that the banks have been loaning at par on these bonds, and they will at once require a larger margin, and most of these bonds have been drawn against for the full margin. Sales will be forced. This will be in addition to the immense quantities of bonds that will be thrown on the market by foreign holders, and a serious decline will follow. One of the largest loaning institutions in the city has disposed of most of its government bonds within the past ten days, in anticipation of a decline.

WESTERN.

Bunnan, the Embezzler.

SAN FRANCISCO, 2.—Charles A. Sumner, secretary of the committee of depositors of the Pioneer Bank, has filed a complaint charging J. C. Duncan with embezzlement of 17,000 shares of stock of the Safe Deposit Company.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

War Preparations on a Grand Scale.

LONDON, 2.—That a proposed extension of the war in the east still exists on paper only is true. War preparations continue on a grand scale, especially in England. But it is less likely that these look to offense than to defence. They probably have a double purpose, of modifying Russia's designs as far as possible, and of readiness to meet Russian aggression upon British interests, if any should be attempted. The British war spirit is up among the multitude, but the minority do not find the casus belli and will not invent one. That tells the whole story. There is but little talk now of the peace conference, because everybody sees if it meets it will do so in the presence of the solemn treaty already concluded between the two belligerents, and surrounded by such practical guarantees as are furnished by the immense Russian army at the back door of Constantinople ready to defend it. The trouble is, that England wants Turkey's continued existence as a power, or to occupy its place herself. These alternatives being already beyond her reach, she has nothing to gain and everything to lose, by making the war now which she failed to make when it might have prolonged the life of the effete Porte. Russia has possession of the means to keep it, and uses her power with exceeding discretion. The conference may meet, but only after its real work is already done. In reply to Russia's demand for the approval of its treaty with Turkey, Germany will assent, because there will be nothing in it to her disadvantage. Austria will follow suit, either with or without some concessionary sop to her pride. This will leave England alone again, and she must be contented with at most another issue of Russian promises not to gobble India or make mouths at her old enemy of the Crimea. What can she present to the civilized world as the casus belli justifying her in the death grapple, singly and alone? Her last bout with Russia cost her one hundred million pounds. What promise of practical good can she hold out as the motive for spending hundreds of millions more in trying singly and alone, vainly to rob Russia of the essential results of this war? The British Government and people are smarting under a sense of humiliation at Russia's hands, but it is inconceivable that they will seek to allay this by laying themselves open to still more grievous wounds, for no better reason than the fear that Russia intends to make war on just British interests. It is because of their evident helplessness to change this situation that English statesmen are so gloomy; they chafe because it is a false position, with no way out that is not repugnant to brave England's stubborn pride.

FRANCE.

A Duel.

PARIS, 2.—In consequence of a recrimination on Friday in the chamber of deputies, about the verification of the election, Paul De Cassagnac and M. Thomson of the Left fought a duel, to-day, at St. Germaine. Cassagnac's sword pierced Thomson's throat, inflicting a probably fatal wound.

ITALY.

A Denial.

ROME, 2.—The Italian government categorically denies that the reason why the Vatican countermanded the public coronation of the Pope was government's inability to prevent disrespectful and hostile manifestations.

HIGHEST HONORS

AT THE

UNITED STATES

Centennial

World Exhibition,

1876.

MASON & HAMLIN

CABINET

ORGANS

Unanimously assigned the

"FIRST RANK

IN THE

"SEVERAL REQUISITES"

of such Instruments!

The MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO. have the honor to announce that the Organs of their manufacture have been unanimously assigned "THE FIRST RANK" in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of Instruments of the century by the Judges at the CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION at Philadelphia, 1876, and are the ONLY INSTRUMENTS OF THIS GENERAL CLASS AWARDED THIS RANK. This is after the keenest competition by the best makers, before one of the most competent juries ever assembled.

They have also received the MEDAL, but, as is well known, medals of equal merit have been "awarded all articles deemed worthy of recognition; so thus it will be easy for many makers to advertise that they have received "first medals."

The differences in competing articles, and their comparative excellence, are recognized in the Reports of the Judges from which the following is an extract:

"THE MASON & HAMLIN ORGAN CO.'S exhibit of Reed Organs and Harmoniums, the instruments of the FIRST RANK IN THE SEVERAL REQUISITES OF INSTRUMENTS OF THE CLASS, was: Smoothness and equal distribution of tone, range of expression, resonance and singing quality, freedom and quickness in action of high and low pitch, with thoroughness of workmanship, combined with simplicity of action."

(Signed by all the Judges.)

The Mason and Hamlin Organs are thus declared to rank first, not in one or two respects only, but in the SEVERAL REQUISITES of such instruments, and they are the Only ones assigned this rank. This triumph was not unexpected, for the Mason & Hamlin Cabinet Organs have uniformly been awarded the highest honors in competitions in America, there having been scarcely six exceptions in hundreds of competitions. They were awarded highest honors and

FIRST MEDALS

PARIS, 1867; VIENNA 1873; SANTIAGO, 1875

PHILADELPHIA, 1876,

and have thus been awarded highest honors at Every World's Exposition!

at which they have been exhibited; being the Only American Organs which have ever obtained Any Award at any competition with best European makers, or in any European World's Exposition!

NEW STYLES, with improvements, exhibited at the CENTENNIAL, all elegant new cases in great variety. Prices may lower somewhat with best materials and workmanship. Organs sold for cash or installments, or rented until paid, rent, allowing payment in full to give entire satisfaction in every reasonable sense, or money refunded. ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUES sent free.
