RICH DISCOVERIES OF GOLD IN SOUTH AUSTRALIA.

The German Elections—Prince Luitpold, Etc.

Big Nuggets of Gold.

LONDON, 7.—Dispatches from Adelaide state that large findings of gold have been made in the South Australian diggings in the region of Teeluipa. Five thousand men have already congregated in that locality. The largest nugget yet found is said to weigh 30 ounces.

Prince Luitpold.

BERLIN, 7.—Prince Luitpold, Regent of Bavaria, has arrived. He was met at the railway station by Emperor William, accompanied by Crown Prince Frederick William, other Royal Princes and court officials. The Emperor and Crown Prince embraced Prince Luitpold, kissing him repeatedly. Cheering crowds lined the route to the palace.

German Election.

In the election at Aschaffenburg, Germany, for member of the Reichstag, the Clerican candidate, Adamshans, was successful, receiving 8,870 votes; Krest, National Liberal, 3,204; Grillenburg, Socialist, 287.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

The French Chamber of Deputies yesterday voted in favor of disposing of the Crown diamonds.

A Pittsburg dispatch says: James G. Blaine, Jr., began work on the Pittsburg Times as a reporter this evening.

The President will transmit to Congress to-morrow a report from the secretary of State in regard to the fisheries in the waters adjacent to British North America, and copies of the correspondence which has taken place during the present year on that subject.

The Treasury Department has decided that Canadian postal cards imported into the United States are dutiable at the rate of 25 per cent. ad valorem, as printed matter not specially provided for.

A San Francisco dispatch says: Kulman & Co., stock brokers, who suspended last week, resumed business to-day.

A Virginia City (Nev.) dispatch says: The Bank of Gold Hill has suspended until an examination of its affairs can be made. There has been a heavy run on the bank by holders of certificates of deposit and by those having stock transactions. The liabilities are not ascertained.

A San Francisco dispatch says: It is learned to-night that R. C. Tobin, a stock broker at 314 Montgomery Street, made an assignment late this afternoon to T. J. L. Smiley. The liabilities are stated to be $25,000.

To-night the jury in the rist and conspiracy case against Carl Ekkau and Albert Moessinger, reported that they could not agree, after balloting for 24 hours, and were discharged. The final ballot stood six to six. It is said the jury had decided to acquit Moessinger, but as the latter had been jointly indicted with Grotkau, an acquittal for one and a disagreement as to the other could not be rendered.

A Corruna, Mich., dispatch says: At Henderson this morning Fred Josyln a school teacher, shot and killed Thomas Morrison. The teacher had punished young Morrison, as his father thought, too severely and Morrison visited the school to investigate. He entered the school room, and walked up to Josyln, told him he was about to give him the same treatment, whereupon Josyln drew his revolver and shot Morrison dead.

The estate of the late Samuel J. Tilden, it is claimed under the laws of 1885, regarding taxes upon estates, is subject to a tax of five per cent on all bequests to relatives beyond the second generation; that is, beyond nephews and nieces. Inasmuch as the bulk of the estate is bequeathed to persons outside this limit and for public benefit, the Treasurer of Westchester County, whose duty it is to collect those taxes, has begun an investigation, and if he finds that a tax is due, he will take legal means, he says, to collect it, unless it is paid forthwith.

A New York dispatch says: A conference was held this afternoon between representatives of the East Tennessee and Norfolk & Western Railroads. President Kimball and Calvin S. Price represented the East Tennessee and Robert Fleming the Norfolk & Western. Mr. Price said afterward that they were at work on a plan for the amalgamation of the two companies, but has reached no result that could be made public as yet. Negotiations with the Richmond & West Point Terminal Company are being carried on at the same time.

DAVIS STAKE CONFERENCE.

FARMING TON,
Dec. 5th, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

The regular quarterly conference of Davis Stake was held at Kaysville on the 4th and 5th inst. The attendance was very large and the people showed by their attention that they were interested in the subjects laid before them.

The reports of the Bishops were encouraging. The subjects mainly spoken on were persecution, what brings it, and what will cause it to leave us, the proper education of children and the power and responsibility of parents in moulding the character of their offspring. The necessity of being united, and the rationality of a belief in God and the Savior clearly explained.

Very Respectfully,
J. H. WILCOX, Clerk.

SEVIER STAKE CONFERENCE.

AURORA, Sevier County,
December 3d, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

The Sevier Stake conference convened in the new and well finished meeting house at Monroe on Saturday, the 20th ult., at 10 a.m. It was presided over by Counselors A. K. Thurber and Wm. H. Seegmiller, and attended by a numerous assembly from the various wards and settlements of the Stake.

A Priesthood meeting was held on Saturday evening. Much valuable instruction appropriate to the times and situation of affairs was given by inspiration from the various speakers, tending to more effectual unity, harmony and integrity in the cause of truthful development of the great and marvelous latter-day work of God, against which, nothing can be devised to militate successfully.

The kind and hospitable entertainment extended by the people of Monroe to the many visitors demands cordial recognition by the recipients; not alone in a bare acknowledgement, but by a reciprocity of the same, Circumstances have hindered this brief report. The occasion, however, was one worthy of record in your widely circulated columns and must have proved exceedingly comforting to both speakers and hearers.

Trusting that all will excuse both the brevity and delay of this passing notice, I remain your brother in the Gospel.

WM. MORRISON,
Stake Clerk.

A MELANGE FROM GOOSE CREEK.

OAKLEY, Idaho,
Nov. 29th, 1886.

Editor Deseret News:

The Goose Creek country is still flourishing and the people in it very busy. I could have made such a statement quite awhile ago, but I waited for some event to chronicle and it came a few days ago—a genuine good or bad storm—and then I waited for the event to clear up, and it has done so. We had snow on the ground nearly a week, which is unusual in this part of the valley. There are other events that have occurred in connection with the change of weather—marriages—but not like the weather altogether, by their being premature, at least on the male side of the house, they having changed the condition of a few decidedly old bachelors, all of which have given quite as much satisfaction as will other improvements when accomplished.

Our schools are about to commence, after a long lapse of forgetfulness. The majority of children are very successful in forgetting in nine months of play and work, what they had commenced to learn during the school quarter, but, it is the utmost importance to our future liberty that we must have public schools under the most approved public school system. That system, in its workings out here, provides from the taxes collected enough money to keep a teacher paid, at low rates, about three months of the year. If school keeps any longer the parents or somebody else have to make up the deficit. It is not a very economical mode of education but it is a common one and is likely to obtain until people can see that they are placing themselves in the position of paupers in school matters by depending upon general taxation for the maintenance of their schools.

We had visits from some public benefactors last spring who left with us some nice winter clothing, bedspreads, and table covers—a large quantity—in fact a whole pack—all paid for by the recipient merely signing his note for $150 some time in the future. Quite a few signed, and no doubt felt much easier to think that debt was paid. If one of those Mutual Life and Accident Insurance agents would drop in now he might do a driving business with some of the pack owners, for a real good talker could show them how, when they wanted to make a raise, the best way to do would be to take out a policy and then chop off a toe or break a nose, something liable to occur any day.

We hear that Dubois is to represent this Territory in Congress, and perhaps he is as good a representative of the majority of the voters as could have been selected. At our polling booth the oath was posted up in a conspicuous place and a notice written and posted by or on it, that a member of the "Mormon" church would commit, and be liable to prosecution for perjury if he voted. I understand that in Hailey, Bellevue and elsewhere north, the oath was not presented to applicants at the polls and transient visitors deposited their votes unquestioned.

Our gold mines have not paused out very extensively of late, and the coal mine is still in the dark, but in the Spring, when hope is buoyant and our muscles are eager for employment, we will be better able to make a showing.

Dancing has commenced, and of course, if anything should happen, we will be able to commemorate the event in the most proper manner.

Our meetings and Sabbath schools are well attended, and while the interest in them is great, there is also a strong opposing current. Altogether, however, the people are doing well, having good health, good tempers and plenty to eat, drink and wear, quite good enough for SNOOKS.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SUPPLEMENTAL LAND PROOFS.

A LOCAL CORRESPONDENT AFTER SPARKS' SCALP.

Editor Deseret News:

There is much complaint by the people, all over the country, on account of being called upon to make supplemental proofs or affidavits in support of their entries already made, and many claimants may, and possibly do, think that this is caused by the fault or negligence of the attorneys who make out their entry papers. This may be the case with those attorneys who do not make the land business a specialty, but it is not the fault of those who do; and in justice to them, and for the purpose of enlightening the people on this matter, we deem it proper and just to inform your patrons where the trouble lies, and by doing so, to give the d—l his due.

The fault most always lies at the door of Mr. Wm. A. J. Sparks, the Commissioner of the General Land Office, who has spent most of his time, since he got into office, in hunting up "frauds," suspending the issuance of patents; raising technicalities; making ex post facto rulings; calling on entry men for things that were not required when their proofs were made; calling for them to state the times and duration of their few days' temporary absence from their claims, for five years or more, long since past; adding useless expense on final entries; requiring about one hundred and forty nonsensical cross-questions to be written out and answered by the claimant at his expense; causing claimants to multiply their lies, if any are told, for if an entry man and his witnesses perjure themselves in their direct testimony, they will be generally sharp enough to repeat it time and again on cross examination—therefore the longer the proof the more lies, the shorter the proof the less lies.

Mr. Sparks has now succeeded in mixing up the land laws and rulings to such an extent as never known before in any administration since the foundation of the republic. When a person makes an entry of his claim, he don't know whether he will ever get a patent or not, don't know whether the entry, as made, will suit the delicate, technical taste of Mr. Sparks or not, don't know but the Commissioner will put him or his heirs to the expense of furnishing "supplemental affidavits" and "proofs" in future years.

Thus your patrons will readily see where the fault lies, and the reason why claimants are so frequently called upon to furnish additional "proofs" at their own expense. Their attorneys cannot be expected to spend their time and skill in answering the technical and ex post facto requirements of this Commissioner for nothing. They cannot afford it; and so the entry man must foot the bill.

We are informed and believe that any reliable attorney who makes a specialty of the land practice, who should make, by his own fault, any errors or omissions in land or mineral entries, will correct them without cost to his clients' therefore, do not blame the land agents for such a state of things, but blame Mr. Sparks. And further, he has so crippled and delayed the progress of the public surveys, that settlers on unsurveyed lands find it all but impossible to get their lands surveyed, so they can make their entries. There are returns of surveys which have been in the General Land Office for over a year, which have been specially examined, the examiner's report made and his account paid, and yet Mr. Sparks wilfully neglects the approval of the surveys themselves, to the great detriment of the settlers and damage to the surveyor by keeping him out of his hard-earned money so long.

We advise the people all over the great west to petition the President to remove Mr. Sparks from his office, for he is certainly the hardest customer this country has ever known. ***

—The total vote of Montana at the recent election is estimated at 34,000.

—The silver product of Montana Territory for the current year is estimated at $12,000,000.

—Among the novel sights along the Union Pacific through Wyoming is that of great herds of antelope. One band which has been about Rock Springs for the past ten days, is supposed to number over 10,000. A party went out from that town one day and returned in two hours with 17, which were all they wanted, but they could have killed many more. So it is all along the road, from Laramie to Carter. Old railway men say that the bunching of antelope is a good indication that the winter is to be a severe one.

The people of Yellowstone Park are very much alarmed over the threatened eruption of Excelsior Geyser in the Park. Telegrams from Norris report the vibrations so strong that windows were broken, and houses shaken so that the inhabitants were afraid to remain in them. Norris is twenty-three miles from the geyser and the shaking there shows that the convulsion is very strong. Fears are entertained that great damage will result to the surrounding country. Many people believe that it is an earthquake, and the Indians are said to be terror-stricken.
