Dr. FOOTE, Senior,

Of 120 Lexington Avenue, New York,

Hereby cautions the public NOT to Employ or Communicate With a man styling himself "Dr. Foot, Jr." without making due inquiry.

This man came to Salt Lake City representing himself as the son of Dr. E. B. FOOTE of New York, the well known specialist, as abundantly proved by affidavits. As rumors came into Salt Lake City from Dakota and Montana from an expose made there, he changed his base and represented himself as the son of a more noted specialist in New York City than Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the well known author. Mr. JOHN F TROW, of the well known Trow's Directory, in New York City (forty years in the directory business), Ex-Governor FRANK FULLER, of Utah, and the Hon. ABRAM WAKEMAN, for many years Postmaster in New York City, also Surveyor of the Port, gave their affidavits that there are no other doctors in New York by the name of FOOT or FOOTE, excepting Dr. E. B. FOOTE, the the author of "Medical Common Sense," etc., and his two sons, Dr. E. B. FOOTE, JR., and Dr. HUBERT T. FOOTE. The genuine Dr. FOOTE, Jr., will hereafter always employ the initials, E. B., in designating his name. Heretofore he has been known not only at home but wherever his publications have been circulated, by the name of Dr. FOOTE, Jr. Greater care will be taken hereafter, in view of the fact that an unprincipled person has assumed to profit by his and his father's reputation.

Those desiring further and more detailed information in respect to this matter, will receive it by addressing Box 414, Salt Lake City Utah.

Persons having information of advantage to plaintiffs will kindly communicate the same to J. W. Ivey, with Sutherland & McBride, Salt Lake City.

Those desiring to consult Dr. FOOTE professionally or to order remedies should address either

Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Sr., or Dr. E. B. FOOTE, Jr.,
120 Lexington Ave., New York.

Consultation Free, in person or by letter.

EVENING NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH.

PER WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

FOREIGN.

Special Election in France.

To-night's advices from Paris are to the effect that intense anxiety prevails throughout the whole of France, in regard to the outcome of to-morrow's special elections. There will be a second balloting in no less than 202 places to settle "ties" and other defective ballotings in the general election of Sunday, the 4th inst.

It is feared the Monarchists have prepared to spring some sensation upon the country.

M. Alain Targe, Minister of the Interior, has sent a circular to every Prefect in the Republic, advising him that the adverse results of last Sunday were accomplished through the disloyalty of mayors and other officials, and ordering him to proceed with the utmost rigor, to-night and to-morrow, against all persons found in his department engaged in circulating any false news calculated to discredit the government or affect the ballotings.

M. Henri Rochefort asserts that the Monarchists are plotting to seize the voting tables to-morrow in many election districts with the intention of falsifying the votes. He warns the French Radicals to organize and place themselves on guard against this conspiracy.

The Czar.

From St. Petersburg it is stated that the Czar will to-morrow return to Gotsching. He has issued a ukase at Fridenberg, forbidding the general celebration on March 3d next, the twenty-fifth anniversary of the emancipation of the serfs in Russia. Preparations had already begun for very extensive celebrations of this event in many parts of the Empire. The Czar, it is said, found good reasons to suspect that this celebration was to be made a ruse for a Nihilistic rising to be organized by the students of Kiel, St. Petersburg and Moscow, and on this account issued the extraordinary ukase.

Expelled Poles.

In Berlin the Progressionists in the Reichstag have resolved to make the Government's action, in expelling the Russian Poles from Russia, a leading parliamentary question as soon as the sessions of the Reichtag are resumed. Deputy Professor Meuller proposes to appeal to the German government to withdraw the edict of expulsion on the ground that the operations render it injurious to German interests as much as foreign interests. The municipal authorities at Konigsburg have also resolved to send a strong protest against the expulsions of Prince Bismarck, the author of the edict. This protest will describe the terrible sufferings to which the unjustly exiled Poles are subjected, and will declare them a stain and dishonor upon the German name. Many exiled Poles have to pass through Konigsburg on their way to the frontier, and the great majority of them reach that city in such abject distress, that the town has been compelled from motives of charity to maintain a public relief committee for their assistance. As many as six penniless and starving Polish exiles have been in custody of the committee at one time. The German newspapers are becoming thoroughly aroused on the subject, and the most of them without regard to party affiliations, at present, protest against the barbarity and inhumanity of the expulsions, and describe it as an outrage that must evoke the indignation of the entire world.

SUNDAY'S DISPATCHES.

Servians Occupy Turkish Territory.

LONDON, 18.—The Servians have occupied Kosiak Pass, which is on the Gerna River and partly in Turkish territory, being on the Bulgarian and Macedonian frontier.

Bismarck will Have Peace if He Has to Fight for It.

LONDON, 18.—The Standard, this morning, says: Russia and Austria are unable to come to an agreement in regard to the Balkan difficulty. Prince Bismarck is determined to prevent war. Three powers have agreed to restore outwardly the status quo ante bellum. Bulgaria, Servia and Greece will probably be choked off.

French Elections Favor the Republicans.

PARIS, 18.—Returns so far received of the second ballots to-day, for members of the Chamber of Deputies, are in favor of the republicans.

M. Papon, republican, has been elected in the Department of Eure agalust the Due De Broglie.

Russia Calling for Another Conference.

LONDON, 18.—M. De Giers, Russian Foreign Minister, made overtures to Lord Salisbury and Prince Bismarck in favor of a conference at Berlin to revise the Berlin treaty.

Lord Salisbury disfavored the proposition.

Prince Bismarck replied that the time was inopportune. The elections in France and England, leaving the foreign policies of those countries uncertain.

M. Bratiano, Roumanian Premier, in an interview with Prince Bismarck, demanded that in the event of an alteration of the frontier of the Balkan provinces, the line of Roumania be extended south of the Danube so as to enclose Silistria, Batdajek and Baltschuk, and that Roumania have the right to fortify these places.

Anarchy in Burmah.

LONDON, 18.—The Times has advices to the effect that complete anarchy prevails in Burmah. It is expected that the Dacoit tribes will storm Mandalay. A very hostile feeling is shown in Burmah toward all foreigners and a general massacre is feared. The Italian consul at Mandalay has been threatened with imprisonment.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

A meeting of the delegates of various Miners' Associations throughout Great Britain was held in Manchester yesterday. A resolution was adopted approving the demand of the miners for an advance of 15 per cent. on the present wages, but it was decided to take a ballot of the whole of the operatives on the question before ordering a general strike. The delegates represented 109,000 men.

The will of the late Cardinal McCloskey was filed for probate this afternoon. The document is brief. He directs his executors to pay all his just debts and funeral and testamentary expenses immediately after his decease. Then he bequeaths to Archbishop Corrigan, Bishop McLaughlin of Brooklyn and Bishop McTierney of Albany the remainder of his estate, appointing them, at the same time, executors of his will.

At a meeting of the tenant farmers at Westport to-day a resolution was adopted demanding government to introduce in Parliament a bill similar to the American homestead laws.

A Berlin correspondent of the London Daily News says that nearly all the Powers have agreed to a conference on the Balkan question, and that the hope that peace will be maintained increases.

A telegram to Constantinople from a well known English house states that the contract to supply the English fleet here with coal was signed on the 16th.

Lord Radolph Churchill, Secretary of State for India, has acceded to the request for a searching inquiry into the affairs of India apart from questions of policy.

The Dungarvon branch of the Irish National League has decided to put a stop to hunting, and has notified the masters of fox hounds to that effect.

Trouble has occurred on the Duke of Devonshire's estate in Callow, County Waterford, in connection with the eviction of certain tenants. The tenants and their friends made a determined resistance and attacked the police with stones. The sheriff's posse finally dispersed the mob at the point of their bayonets. The district is "black flagged."

M. de Lesseps is preparing to leave Paris on his way to Panama, to look after matters connected with the Isthmus Canal.

Friends of Mr. Parnell, the Irish leader, deny the reports recently circulated that he has become a convert to Catholicism.

The Canadian Minister Burbridge is watching the Riel case and the liquor license law appeal cases from Canada.

Hubert Herkimer, A. R. A., has been elected successor to John Ruskin, to fill the Slade professorship of fine arts at Oxford.

In Vienna it is stated that as a result of the pacific attitude of Bulgaria, Servia is disbanding a portion of her reserves.

A Mandalay dispatch says, every available man has been summoned for service.

The Burmese ministers have decided to stop the British Envoy with the Indian government's ultimatum at the frontier.

TO THE CITIZENS OF UTAH.

The undersigned commissioner for Utah to the North, South and Central American Exposition, to open at New Orleans on the 10th day of November next, being desirous of exhibiting samples of:

I.—Agriculture.
II.—Horticulture.
III.—Raw and manufactured products, ores, minerals and woods.
IV.—Furniture and accessories.
V.—Textile fabrics, clothing and accessories.
VI.—The industrial arts.
VII.—Alimentary products.
VIII.—Education and Instruction.
IX.—Works of Art.

And being desirous of displaying an exhibit not to be excelled by any Territory in the Union, I invite the citizens of Utah to forward samples of the above products, at as early a day as possible, by express or otherwise, to the undersigned not later than the 20th inst, and advise me of the shipment.

P. E. CONNOR, Commissioner for Utah.

Salt Lake City, —— day of October, 1885.

The Nuisances and the Remedy.

Foul water, filthy streets, bad sewerage and unpleasant milk, when all crowded together into one city, make as malarious and unwholesome a state of affairs as citizens can stand. But the disgusted citizens need not think themselves all bound for the cemetery on this account. Malaria and every other unclean influence can be fought off with Brown's Iron Bitters. Mr. F. Patterson, Marshalltown, Iowa, writes, "Brown's Iron Bitters has completely cured me of malaria."
