Horses Kick

is self-defense. It is their most vigorous form of protest against the abuse they receive. Nails that are driven into their feet to hold on their shoes are responsible for much of the such nails is ignorance of the danger that it is liable to follow.

This is what happens: One part comes out when it should for clinching, the other goes into the tender foot. Such cases are the result of the Cold-Rolled and by which the fibres of metal are separated and can adhere to the point part with the finger-nail. This kind of a nail can be easily distinguished by the rough edge along the sides near the point.

Putnam Nails

are exclusively Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed, precisely like the old-fashioned hand-made nail. The process welds all particles of iron closely together into a compact form that will not cause lame feet, Silver or Break and is Absolutely Safe.

Examine the nails in your smith's pouch. If they edge are smooth, and the heads round, then you are the Horseman's Friend. Insist on having the kind of the shoers near the point, which there are no serious and costly mishaps.

NOTICE OF MORTGAGE SALES

OF THE

SALT LAKE & PORT DOUGLAS RAILWAY, SALT LAKE & EASTERN RAILWAY, AND UTAH CENTRAL RAILWAY.

FIRST—SALT LAKE & PORT DOUGLAS RAILWAY.

NOTICE IS GIVEN THAT UNDER and by virtue of a judgment and decree of foreclosure in the District Court for the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, in the County of Salt Lake, rendered on the 6th day of March, 1897, in an action in said court wherein Thomas Marshall, Samuel P. Teasdel and Louis Fox are plaintiffs, and the Salt Lake & Port Douglas Railway Company, the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway Company, the Utah Central Railway Company and others are defendants, as Special Master of said court, I shall sell in one parcel to the highest bidder, at public auction, at the west front door of the City and County Building, in Salt Lake City and County of Salt Lake, State of Utah, on Saturday, the 8th day of May, 1897, at 11 o'clock a. m., all and singular the property and premises hereinafter described.

Terms of sale—No bid will be received for less than the sum required to pay liens and expenses adjudged superior to the claims of bondholders, which sum is estimated at Twenty-two Thousand Seven Hundred ($22,700) Dollars, and this amount must be paid in cash, except that Receivers' Certificates to the amount of eleven thousand one hundred ($11,100) dollars principal and the interest thereon, being proximately the interest from February 12, 1896, at 7 per cent per annum) will be received as cash. On the balance of a bid above the minimum sum aforesaid, the purchaser may apply in or toward payment bonds and interest coupons of the Salt Lake & Port Douglas Railway company for the pro rata of the bid which the holder of the bonds and coupons would be entitled to receive from the proceeds of sale, the bonds and coupons so receivable being the whole or part of an issue by said Railway Company, of 400 bonds for the principal sum of $1,000 each dated January 1st, 1890, and the interest coupons thereon unpaid, and secured by the mortgage foreclosed in said action. Any party may bid at the sale. When the premises are struck off, a payment of $5,000 by certified check or cash will be required and the balance as soon as a certificate of sale is made. The sale will be subject to redemption upon sales under execution. The sale will be stayed in case said Railway Company shall, before sale, pay or cause to be paid, the amount of charges prior to the bonds mentioned at Twenty-two Thousand Seven Hundred Dollars ($22,700) and the unpaid interest on 400 bonds of the said Railway Company, dated 1890, at 6 per cent per annum until and including the semi-annual interest which matured January 1st, 1897.

The premises ordered sold are situated in the County of Salt Lake, State of Utah, and are described as follows:

The line of railway of the Salt Lake & Port Douglas Railway company, commencing at a point connecting with the Rio Grande Western Railway on Eighth South street, in Salt Lake City, thence east to seventh East street, thence south to Ninth South street, thence east to Tenth East, thence south on Tenth East street across the Jordan & Salt Lake canal, thence in a general northeasterly direction to the intersection of First South and Thirteenth East street, thence northerly to First street, and thence east to the line of the Fort Douglas Military Reservation, thence easterly across said reservation to the stone quarries, brick fields and lime stone deposits of the Salt Lake Rock company in Red Butte canyon, with a branch from some point on the line in the Military Reservation to the Salt Lake Rock company's lands and the Wagner Brewery at the mouth of Emigration canyon, and with another branch line running from said company's line in Salt Lake City to the south side of Big Cottonwood canyon, and also all other roads and branches acquired by amendment to the articles of said railroad company or otherwise, together with all superstructures, depot grounds, station houses, roundhouses, shops, machinery, stales, rolling stock, fixtures, and all property whatsoever used or connected therewith, and all the property franchises and privileges acquired by said company with the betterments and appurtenances.

Dated March 10, 1897.

GEO. D. LOOMIS,
Special Master.

SECOND—SALT LAKE AND EASTERN RAILWAY.

Notice is given that, under and by virtue of a judgment and decree of foreclosure of the District Court for the Third Judicial District of the State of Utah, in the County of Salt Lake, rendered on the 6th day of March, 1897, in an action in said court, wherein the Knickerbocker Trust company, as Trustee, is plaintiff, and the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway company, the Utah Central Railway company, the Central Trust Company of New York, and others, are defendants, as Special Master of said Court, I shall sell in one parcel to the highest bidder, at public auction at the west front door of the City and County Building in Salt Lake City and County, State of Utah, on the 8th day of May, 1897, at 11 o'clock a. m., all and singular the railroad property and premises hereinafter described.

Terms of sale—No bid will be received of less than the amount required to pay liens and expenses adjudged superior to the claims of bond-holders, which sum is estimated at one hundred and eighteen thousand ($118,000) dollars, and this amount must be paid in cash, except that Receivers Certificates to the amount of $68,900 dollars of principal and the unpaid interest thereon being proximately interest from February 12, 1896, at 7 per cent per annum) will be received as cash. On the balance of a bid above the minimum sum aforesaid, the purchaser may apply in or toward payment, bonds and unpaid interest coupons of the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway Company, of the issue of 1,200 bonds of $1,000 each and interest, dated July 1st, 1890, for the pro rata of the bid which the holder thereof would be entitled to receive from the proceeds of sale. Any party may bid at the sale. When the premises are struck off the purchaser will be required to pay in cash $5,000 and the balance of the bid as soon as a certificate of sale is made, and the sale will be subject to redemption upon sales under execution. The sale will be stayed if the Salt Lake & Eastern Railway Company pays or causes to be paid before sale, the amount of liens and expenses superior to the claims of bondholders, estimated at $118,000, and the interest on said 1,200 bonds at 6 per cent per annum up to and including that which matured January 1st, 1897.
