In Dr. Price's Unique Perfumes each particular character can find an appropriate odor. For the clergyman and orator, his refreshing and fragrant Floral Riches; for the brilliant and witty, his charming Evening Violets; for the sedate and robust, his persistent Thibet Musk; for the lady of fashion, his captivating Hyacinth; for the young gentleman, his delicate Alista Bouquet; for the young lady, his sweet Pet Rose. LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

High Council.—All the members of the High Council are requested to meet at the Council House at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 6, 1878.

WM. W. TAYLOR, Clerk.

Irrigation.—The people of American Fork, Lehi and Pleasant Grove are considering whether they shall construct a canal from Provo River to run through each of those towns.

Excellent.—We have received No. 8 of the current volume of the Woman's Exponent. An excellent journal of special benefit to the ladies as well as being of much general interest. It is ably edited.

Big Remains.—Thomas Sweeney, who was killed by a snow slide in Bingham Canon, on Friday last, was brought to this city Saturday evening, and will be buried to-morrow (Tuesday) at 1 p.m., from the undertaker's office. Deceased was a native of Ireland and was about 40 years of age.

Information Wanted.—Mrs. Mary Kelsey, of Boulder, Colorado, is anxious to hear from her uncle, Mr. Easton Kelsey, who, when last heard from, was at St. George in this Territory. Any person acquainted with his whereabouts will oblige by sending word to the lady above named or to the office of this paper.

37th Quorum.—The members of the 37th Quorum are respectfully requested to attend a meeting in the Council House on Tuesday, Feb. 5, 1878. A full attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted.

By order of the Council.

ROBERT AVESON, Clerk.

Lecture.—On Thursday evening next, Brother T. R. Lewis will deliver a lecture in the 10th Ward schoolhouse under the auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A. of that ward, subject, "Young Men." Admission free. To commence at 7 o'clock. All are invited by the President of the Association, Brother William Fullmer.

Arrested.—We learn from the Enquirer that Prof. Philippe alias Bilts, who gave a fraudulent entertainment in this city recently, had a cold reception at Provo. His audience was small, and the marshal arrested him the following morning for an infringement of the ordinance against gambling. He left $40 and a watch and chain for his appearance and disappeared.

An Interview.—We learn by letter from Elder John McCarthy that he recently had an interview with Sir William R. R. Narcott, C. B., Governor of the Island of Jersey, to whom he presented a copy of the Book of Mormon and other church works. The Elder was treated courteously by the Governor, and the two had some conversation in relation to the gospel.

Caution.—Most of the glazes upon common pottery ware are produced by lead, which decomposes by the action of vinegar. In consequence of this, care should always be taken never to use lead glazed ware to keep pickles in, the decomposed metal named being in a high degree poisonous. Our home potters should never use lead for glazing their ware.

South Cottonwood.—E. L. Davies writes from South Cottonwood in relation to the Mutual Improvement Association of that Ward, which he states, numbers 65 members. Recently Elder John Morgan visited the society and delivered a very instructive address. The Bishop and other prominent officers of the Ward occasionally attend the meeting and give the society their encouragement.

Painful Accident.—On Saturday two little boys of Mr. Blazzard, of the 7th Ward, were engaged chopping down an old apple tree, in the orchard. The tree gave way, causing the boy who was using the axe to miss his blow and the implement came down upon the hand of the other boy, chopping off two of his fingers. One finger fell to the ground and the other remained suspended merely by a portion of the cuticle. Surgical aid was immediately procured.

Rifle Match.—The monthly medal match of the Amateur Rifle Club came off on Arsenal Hill, on Saturday, Mr. W. Hill winning the trophy. Mr. Hill presented two chromos to be shot for at the same time, off-hand shooting, which was won by Mr. Brim and J. Woodmansee. The following is the score at 200 yards:

W. Hill	43
A. Brim	41
J. Woodmansee	40
R. Hill	39
R. Hawkins	36
C. Hawkins	35

Kicked by a Horse.—About four o'clock on Saturday afternoon, Angus C. Lambert, a youthful son of Brother Charles Lambert, of the 7th Ward, was kicked in the face by one of his father's horses. A severe gash was cut over the eye, splintering the bone. Surgical aid was at once procured, the fractions of detached bone and dirt were removed from the wound, and the lad is likely to soon recover. Yesterday his wound was slightly deranged from the effects of the hurt, but he is in an improved condition to-day.

Lecture.—Elder Moses Thatcher will deliver a lecture to-morrow evening, at the Twelfth Ward Assembly Rooms. The gentleman is an able and fluent speaker, and those who attend the lecture may safely anticipate a rare treat.

A Brilliant Idea.—Some people have a faculty for picking wealth from the ground while others less thoughtful and observing, pass it by and remain in comparative indigence. This fact was illustrated recently when some gentlemen asked and received permission to take the surface earth a few inches deep, from the ground around the smelting works and dumps in the vicinity of West Jordan. The dirt was impregnated with precious metals and on being manipulated, yielded the parties who conceived the novel idea the neat little sum of $6,000.

Benefit.—A big bill is prepared for the benefit of Mr. W. T. Harris. In addition to the play of "The Hidden Hand," in which Mr. Harris will perform the part of "Wool," for which he is eminently adapted, as he is "immense" in negro specialties, an olio will be presented, embracing many attractions. "True to the Last" will be sung by Mr. B. Carrington; "Magnetic Waltz," by Mrs. L. S. Crandall; "Poor, but a Gentleman Still," by Mr. J. P. Meakin; "Comrades in Arms" and "Call John," by the Union Glee Club; Mr. James X. Ferguson will recite "Fare ye Well, Brother Watkins"; Miss Lena Tobes will play a pianoforte solo with the left hand, and an enlarged orchestra will play the "Harris Medley," arranged especially by Prof. Thomas. Those who intend patronizing Manager Harris and enjoying this huge bill should get their tickets early.

News From Arizona.

The following letter to Brother George Crismon will be interesting to a great portion of the readers of the NEWS, so we publish it entire:

UTAHVILLE on Salt River,
January 16, 1878.

After a long and tedious journey we arrived at Beaver Head, a fork of the Rio Verde, on the 20th day of December, our stock very much jaded. We concluded that this would be a good place to stop and recruit our stock and prospect this country. We fitted out a scouting party and started for the Rio Verde. Found a very fine stream of water about the size of the Weber, but the facilities for farming are very limited and what there is is all taken up. We went to Camp Verde, a military post, and met Mr. Head, a merchant, and Mr. Brayton, commander of the post. They are very sociable and agreeable gentlemen. They gave us some very profitable information in regard to the country and its facilities. Not finding anything in this vicinity that we wanted we returned to our camp. After resting ourselves for two days we concluded to still let our teams rest and start a company for Salt River. On the 8th inst. your father, George Brinks, Francis Pomeroy, and yours truly, started, and arrived here on the evening of the 14th and met Brothers D. Jones, Hiner and Rose Rogers, Briggs and others who gave us a welcome such as is only known among our people.

We found all well and doing well. We were very much surprised to find things in such a prosperous condition, after the reports we had heard. They have done a large amount of labor to take out the water but now they have got it out they have a lovely place. They have in over 80 acres of grain, most of it up and looking well. As the season is getting too late to prospect much more this season, they offered us all the land we wanted to farm with the water all ready out, for the small compensation of a few days labor on the ditch to widen it which we cheerfully accepted.

Yesterday Bro. Jones took us out for a ride; we visited what is known here as one of the old Montezuma ditches which is as large and as well defined as the Cottonwood canal from Mill Creek to Salt Lake City. We traveled along it for six miles. There are a great many of those ditches which have watered a district of country capable of sustaining 100,000 people; and with these ditches repaired or others made will still do it. This land is of the best quality, and lays the best for irrigation purposes of any we have seen. There is a good feeling in the country towards our people. Those of our brethren that have been here the past season have earned themselves a reputation that is worthy. On our road here we met a Mr. Hayden of this place who appears to be a very nice man, on our enquiring about the country he referred us to Mr. Jones, a Mormon, up the river, who was a man of good judgment, and thought he could give us all the information we needed.

We will start back this morning to our camp which is about one hundred and thirty miles, and will move right down here. Your father will stay here while the rest of us go and assist the company. Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience.

I remain yours, etc.,

CHAS. I. ROBSON.
