EXCURSION VIA SALT LAKE.

Party of Prominent Newspaper and Business People to be Here on Monday.

One of the most unique enterprises ever planned and carried out by a daily newspaper is the Minneapolis Journal's special excursion through old Mexico and California, which not only affords the luxury of making the entire journey from Minneapolis, Minn., through the great Southwest, Mexico, California, Colorado, and back to Minneapolis, a grand trip of 7,000 miles, in its own special Wagner vestibuled train, but also at a rate less than a half of what it would cost the traveler to make it alone. The unique project of this excursion, purely as a stroke of enterprise, and is more than satisfied with the favor with which it has been received.

The Journal's special train of six cars, consisting of one baggage-car, commissary car, dining car and three palace sleepers, San Diego, San Mateo and Tagus, manned by no less than sixteen porters, waiters, cooks, etc., left Minneapolis Saturday evening, Jan. 29, over "The Northern Pacific Line" to Council Bluffs, where the Burlington route took the train to Kansas City, the first city visited.

Texas, Mexico and California have been visited in accordance with the schedule.

Monday, Feb. 21, at 6 p. m., the journey will be resumed to Ogden and Salt Lake City. Sacramento, California's capital, will be passed about 7 p. m., and Ogden reached Wednesday, Feb. 23, at 7 a. m. A trip will be made to Salt Lake City and the entire day until 5 p. m. spent there.

At 8 p. m. the train leaves for Denver, to be reached Thursday, Feb. 24, at 4 p. m. Denver is charming city, and is one of the most beautiful places the Journal train will visit. Friday morning at 10 o'clock the train will be taken up again. Across Nebraska and through the thriving cities of Julesburg, North Platte, Grand Island and Columbus, over the Union Pacific, the train will hurry along.

Omaha, the city of the trans-Mississippi exposition for 1898, will be reached at 5:40 p. m. A chance for a short drive, and at 10 p. m. the train leaves for Minneapolis over "The Northwestern Line," reaching Minneapolis Sunday, Feb. 27, at 11 a. m.

Every day the train receives bulletins from the Minneapolis Journal, giving the world's news in brief so that the party are informed as to what is going on. All told, the Journal's party includes about seventy ladies and gentlemen and they come from all over the Northwest, from Minneapolis, St. Paul, all parts of Minnesota, Iowa, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota and even from as far east as Indianapolis. They include bankers, merchants, capitalists, physicians and other professional people.

Altogether it is one of the most novel and pleasant enterprises ever undertaken by a newspaper.

THE MINING CONGRESS.

Meeting at the Knutsford Last Night Clearly Indicates Success.

SPEECH MADE BY GOVERNOR WELLS.

Addresses by Other Prominent Citizens—Committee Appointed—Purpose of the Congress—Another Meeting Monday.

The meeting of mining men held at the Knutsford last night in accordance with the call of Governor Wells to take action relative to the International Mining congress which is to convene here in July next seemed to assure success. There was a good attendance and marked interest manifest. Among those present were Governor Wells, Hon. Angus M. Cannon and W. D. Johnson, chairman of the executive committee of the International Mining congress; Hon. E. C. Chandler, Richard Mackintosh, L. C. Colbath, John Dern, R. W. Gentry, F. J. Hamilton, Jr., Hon. Thomas Hooper, W. Lawrence, J. E. Bamberger, H. E. Scott, H. M. McKaig, Charles Crane, W. D. Johnson, C. H. Jacobs, W. H. Tibbals, John G. Cannon, William Orr, O. R. Young, James A. Pulloch, Charles Reed, R. P. Rowe, Lewis Shepard, John E. Dooly, James Chipman, Jarvis Morris, C. H. Behan, G. V. Wallace, George Bullen.

Governor Wells called the meeting to order and alluded to the advantages which had accrued to Colorado as the result of the meeting of the then called International Gold congress. The efforts of the executive committee of Salt Lake, he said, would be sure to be beneficial to all the industries of the State and especially to the mining interest. The Governor urged that the people unite in making the congress a great success so that its influence would be fully felt.

John Dern and R. P. Colburn were chosen chairman and secretary unanimously. Mr. Dern made a brief address relating to the work the congress was organized to achieve. At the last congress the delegation from Utah was given an exhibition of the push and enterprise of the Denver people, and they came back greatly stimulated by the example. It was time for Utah mining men, he considered, to assert from their infancy and show to the world the great natural advantages of Utah and the fact that our mines are the best possible lights. The representatives of the mining industry here should save unite, as the people of Colorado, and other states had done, and the result would be that after the congress capital would seek investment here more freely than ever before and the confidence of local mining men would be increased.

On motion of W. D. Johnson, a committee on permanent organization was appointed by the chair as follows: W. D. Johnson, H. W. Lawrence, H. A. Cohen, Charles Reed and James Pollock.

While the committee was out, speeches were made by Chairman Dern, Richard Mackintosh, H. C. Chandler, Judge Colburn, John E. Dooly and Chas. Crane. When speech-making had been concluded, the committee presented the following report, which was adopted:

Your committee beg leave to report the following plan of organization: It is proposed that a general committee of 100 be appointed and that all those present be invited to enroll themselves as members of this committee, the number of which may be further extended by the chairman of this meeting, and an executive committee, consisting of Heber M. Wells, governor; Hon. John Dern, Angus M. Cannon, O. J. Salisbury, O. W. Powers, W. H. Dickson, James T. Hammond, George H. Robinson, W. D. Johnson, Reed Smoot of Provo and Thomas R. Cutler of Lehi be and is hereby appointed, which shall have general supervision of all matters relating to the preliminary work of the congress, with power to authorize expenditures and designate such special clerical assistance as may be required.

That a finance committee, consisting of Hon. Richard Mackintosh, John J. Daly, Thomas Kearns, Seward H. Fields, W. G. Sharp, W. S. McCornick, James Chipman, George M. Cannon, Henry W. Lawrence, L. S. Hills, Frank Knox, J. E. Dooly, George M. Downey, M. H. Walker, H. A. Cohen, P. J. Donohue, Gil R. Peyton, L. F. Holden, C. E. Allen, J. M. Stout, David Eccles, Orson Ogden, Ed Lowe and S. S. Jones of Provo, be and hereby is appointed for the purpose of raising funds and otherwise co-operating with the executive committee. Further, that a press committee, consisting of Judge C. C. Goodwin, Hon. H. C. Chandler, John G. Cannon, W. K. Vigos, F. G. Rogers, the president of the Utah Press association, William Glassmann of Ogden, John C. Graham of Provo, be and is hereby appointed. Further, that the foregoing named committees shall be hereafter chosen by the executive committee at its discretion. A committee on arrangements, a committee on exhibits, committee on transportation, committee on entertainment, committee on subjects and papers to be presented, committee on reception. The first named in each of the committees will be its chairman.

More speech-making followed. W. D. Johnson, H. W. Lawrence and Mr. Donohue spoke, and all favored making the congress a big success. The next meeting of the committee will be held at the office of Governor Wells in the Jenkins building on Monday evening next. The committee which was promoting the affair are:
