LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Pendant.—The party who lost a gold pendant of a breastpin can get the article by calling at this office.

Return it.—The person who has picked up a stray Chester White pig, weighing a little over a hundred pounds, should return it to Mr. Thomas Aubrey, First South Street. He is the owner.

Injured.—According to the Junction, a little daughter of Mr. Rice, who resides near North Ogden, was knocked down and trod on by a colt on Tuesday. She received a cut two inches long over the left eye, and the skull was fractured.

Dangerously Ill.—Brother Phineas H. Young, brother of the late President Brigham Young, is prostrated with an attack of congestion of the brain. Yesterday his condition was considered somewhat dangerous.

Beautiful.—This morning Brother Laron Pratt placed upon our table an exquisitely beautiful bouquet of choice flowers, raised in his garden. The collection is composed of some of the most admired varieties, showing beauty of form and great brilliancy of color.

Indian Relics.—An Indian bowl, found at Santaquin, Utah County, has been presented to the Museum, by Bishop George Halliday. Also specimens of Indian relics and natural curiosities from Fountain Green, by Rees R. Llewellyn and Lars Neilson, of that settlement.

Handsome.—The new uniform of the 10th Ward bandsmen is one of the handsomest in the country, being equal in appearance and quality to that of Gilmore musicians. This dusty country is severe upon fine uniforms, but the boys intend taking as good care of theirs as is practicable.

Demise.—Judge A. C. Pyper has received a dispatch from Nephi, informing him that Madeline, the wife of his brother, John Pyper, died, this morning, at that place. Deceased leaves a large family of small children. She was the daughter of the late Mrs. Gardner, formerly of Edinburgh, Scotland.

The Utah and Northern Railroad.—The Ogden Junction learns, from Mr. Doddridge, that the Utah and Northern Company purpose completing the line as far as Snake River, its winter terminus, as early as possible in the Fall. The track is now 45 miles from Franklin, near the entrance to Pontneuf Cañon.

The Welsh.—On Friday and Monday last, June 14th and 17th, concerts were given at Nephi, for the benefit of the Welsh aid fund. The attendance on each occasion was fair and the entertainments pronounced successful. Brother J. B. Darton acted as musical director and George Kendall and Mrs. John Andrews were the committee of arrangements.

Benefit.—Manager Harris' benefit will take place on Monday, the 24th inst. The "Octoroon" is an old time favorite with all our theatre-goers, and Mr. Harris will play "Old Pete" as only he can play it. The rest of the characters are in good hands, including the regular dramatic company and others who have consented to assist on the occasion. Workingmen can obtain tickets at the Tithing Office, Cutler's Commission Store, and at the several ward stores.

Cold Reception.—A private letter from Elder B. H. Schettler, written at Amsterdam, May 31st, states that he had traveled considerable lately and conversed with many people in relation to the gospel. Some would listen for a while, tell him they would think the matter over and subsequently inform him flatly they wanted to hear no more on the subject.

A small party of Dutch Saints purposed coming to Utah with the company that left Liverpool on June 15th.

District Court.—Thursday, June 20th.

The People, etc., vs. L. A. Bethune; the defendant arraigned and pleads not guilty.

The People, etc., vs. L. A. Bethune; same order.

The People, etc., vs. E. C. Jacobs; on the affidavit of D. D. Ryan, and good cause appearing therefor, ordered that the indictment be dismissed.

The People of etc. vs Henry Debenham, impleaded with James Goddard, [for larceny; jury trial. Argued by S. H. Lewis for plaintiff, and E. D. Hoge for defendant; verdict of jury, guilty.

The Graded School.—Miss Cook's graded school closed for the summer this afternoon. The concluding exercises were of a pleasing and interesting character, including songs, recitations, dialogues, readings, &c., and though the pupils generally are of the younger classes, their efforts were delivered with a degree of ability that would well become children of more advanced years. The school closes in a fair condition of prosperity, 190 names of pupils having been registered during the year just ended. Miss Cook is ably assisted in the several departments by Misses May Wells, Annie Lynch, Louie Snelgrove, Louie Wells and Maggie Sloan. The school will resume in the early part of September.

A Remarkable Man Departed.—Yesterday evening Brother William V. Morris, painter, of this city, departed this life, from paralysis. In several respects the deceased was an original character, an extraordinary man. When a boy he was run over by a wagon loaded with three tons of coal. His injuries were, however, not very severe, resulting in slight lameness. While working as a mason's tender for his father, he fell three stories, from a large building, escaping with only a cut in his lip, the mark of which remained with him through life. He insisted on going on with his work after the fall, as if nothing had happened,

In 1849 he resided in Liverpool, England, where he was found by his brother Elias, who carried the gospel to him. At this time deceased was addicted to drinking, but he at once ceased this habit, was baptized into the Church, and, for four years devoted all his means, energy and labor to the spread of the gospel. In Liverpool he was famed for his ability as an ornamental painter and grainer, in which branches he had no superior.

In 1853 4 he emigrated to Utah, located in this city and worked at his business. When Johnson's army was on the way here, he went south to Cedar City, where his brother Elias then lived. There he took charge of a cow-herd, attending to that post with great fidelity, living mostly upon dry bread, it being a time of scarcity.

He returned to this city afterwards and resumed business as a painter, in which he was a great enthusiast. Some time before the Centennial Exhibition, at Philadelphia, he sold his paint shop in Martin's Lane, for $1,000, and, extraordinary as it may appear, he spent the whole of that sum in getting up a specimen sign to be exhibited at the great fair. It was a wonderful specimen of artistic ornamentation, and has probably never been supassed in the world, its line. In this he was greatly disappointed, being unable to procure means to pay the freight of the article to the Exhibition. He let the ladies have it to exhibit at their fair, held in Old Constitution Building, and the splendid piece of artistic work was accidentally broken, causing him great grief.

He was very peculiar in several particulars. When he undertook to accomplish anything he worked with great fidelity and determination until it was attained. He was honest in his dealings and had a most striking aversion to running in debt. He was apparently of an unsociable turn, but was a man of great integrity to the work of God, never turning against it in his weakest moments.

He was acknowledged everywhere to be a workman of great ability. In some particulars, especially in the imitation of woods and marbles, it would be difficult to imagine how he could be surpassed.

Deceased was born at Lanfair, Talhavin, County of Denbigh, North Wales.

The funeral services will be conducted at 1 p. m. to-morrow, at the 15th Ward Hall.

From Alabama.—Elders Russell, Rogers and Ara W. Sabin, who are laboring in the mission in the Southern States, under date of the 12th inst., send us an interesting account of their travels and experience during the past few months. The letter was written from Saint Store, Colbert County, Alabama. Brother Rogers informs us that he left Mississippi, where he, in company with Elder L. M. Booth, spent last winter, about the 1st of April, and proceeded to Rome, Georgia, to join Elder J. Morgan, preaching on the way wherever opportunities were presented.

Since that time, the latter part of April, he has been in company with Elder Sabin, and the two have had a most eventful experience. In one place, from which they had just departed, about thirty of the Klu Klux combination came to drive them away, and on returning to the same neighborhood a similar mob collected at four a. m., and, waking the Elders from their sleep, ordered them to leave the place by ten o'clock. The mob then went into ambush along the road which they expected the Elders to take, but the latter avoided meeting them by taking another route. The mob hunted them unsuccessfully all day, their number increasing to fifty meanwhile, and on the brethren returning to the house they had left in the morning, again collected and commanded them to leave by eight o'clock next morning. The Elders reasoned with them, and with such success, that the mobbers agreed to let them remain as long as they wished, and some even offered to assist them on their way.

In Marshall County, they were not so fortunate. A mob collected at a church, passed resolutions to expel the "Mormons," and, waiting on the Elders at midnight, insisted, despite of all attempts at reasoning, on their leaving in the morning. Before leaving, however, the Elders found time to ordain two other brethren, and set them to work among the people, some of whom are favorably inclined to the principles of the gospel.

The brethren then proceeded to their present field of labor where the spirit of persecution is not so rampant, and the people are more willing to listen to them, manifesting it by such courtesies as the opening of school-houses for preaching and other acts of liberality, which are appreciated and utilized for the promulgation of the gospel.

New Bank.—Dooley & Co's bank, in course of erection on the former site of the Ogden House, in that city, is progressing nicely: It will be a handsome building when finished.

Several other improvements are in progress in the "Junction city."

Theatre.—The Ogden Theatre has been leased by Manager Harris. He purposes making great improvements in the interior of the building, and preparing it for dramatic entertainments at the earliest practicable date.

Notice to the Bishops of Salt Lake City.—The Bishops or Counsellors of each settlement in Salt Lake Stake, south of the City, are requested to call at Bishop Hunter's office on Saturday, without fail.

Tabernacle Committee.

A New Hand.—A young brakeman, U. C., weighing, eleven and a half pounds, presented himself for inspection at the residence of Mr. John Chugg, in this city, yesterday morning. Mrs. Kate Chugg is doing finely, and John runs as usual on the U. C., as proud as a peacock.

The Painters of Salt Lake City.—The painters of Salt Lake City are requested to meet at the paint shop of Midgley & Sons, Second South Street, at 8 o'clock this evening, for the purpose of putting in form an expression of esteem and respect for the late William V. Morris.

JOSHUA MIDGLEY,
JOHN TULLIDGE,
THOMAS AUBREY,
WILLIAM EVANS,
O. F. STENBERG.

Verdict of Guilty.—Yesterday, in the case of the people vs. William G. Williams, indicted for robbing Wells Fargo & Co. of $17,200, in September, 1876, after the argument were made, his honor Judge Emerson charged the jury, clearly, comprehensively, yet briefly. The jury retired and, after an absence of less than half an hour, returned into court with a verdict of guilty.

Defendant's counsel gave notice of a motion for a stay of judgment, as a preliminary step to a motion for a new trial.
