There will be an exhibition during the week at the board of education rooms of the sewing work of the public school girls. The exhibit will be open from 10 to 12 in the morning, and 2 to 4 in the afternoon.

There were 23 candidates for positions as teachers in the public schools examined yesterday in the West Side high school building. If the ventilation had been better a number of those candidates would not have been sick today.

The Salt Lake County Medical society held a rather slimly attended meeting last evening. The feature of the meeting was a very entertaining paper by Dr. Kerr on the transactions of the American Medical association at New Orleans.

J. Leo Fairbanks, instructor in art at the Latter-day Saints' university, will leave Aug. 1 for Paris to enter the Julian academy there. His place in the university will be taken by Lewis A. Ramsey, brother of the singer, Miss Emma Ramsey.

The case of Hetty Green, the woman charged with shop lifting, has been transferred to Justice of the Peace Frank H. Clark. The matter came up before Judge Diehl yesterday but upon motion of her attorney, the court granted a change of venue.

Twenty-five citizens of Porter avenue, Ogden, were serenaded Sunday afternoon over the telphone line from this city by a local musician, who used a horn for the purpose. The wire carried the volume of sound so well that the instrument was heard all over a large room.

The old Stephenson street cars have all been gathered into the west Seventh South street car sheds, and are being sent up two at a time to the construction department on Second East street to be made over into double truck cars after the local standard type.

H. W. Jorgensen of the Galena mine, Mercur, is being treated at the Keogh-Wright hospital for a smashed finger, which has had to be amputated. Christen Nelson of Richmond, Cache county, was operated on successfully yesterday at the same institution, for cataract.

Dr. J. Lewis Brown, the noted organist, was given a reception and banquet at St. Mary's academy last evening by the sisters and girls of the school. There was also an informal musicale, in while the doctor favored his audience with a number of his own compositions.

There was a great turnout Sunday afternoon at Liberty park of citizens and their families to hear Held's band, and Mr. Held had prepared a good program. But "the rains descended and the floods came" as the band were about to begin, and everybody got drenched. The band did not play.

A number of the pickpockets who enjoyed themselves in this city at the time of the president's visit were gathered up by the Denver police on their arrival there, and kept in durance vile until the president had left. Among the gang were Lock, Moe Chon, O. M. Harrington, John Moffet, Charles Fay, Will McCann, Frank Sullivan and Frank Daniels.

Rev. L. H. Koensel folded his tent and stole quietly away some days ago, for his former home in Kansas, where he expects to recenter the ministry via the Presbyterian church, and where he hopes there will be no Lellichs to trouble or make afraid. The New York Sun in mentioning Mr. Koepsel's departure, locates him at San Francisco.

H. L. Stein sent the president a ruby glass mug while the latter was in this city, with the executive's name upon it; and Mr. Stein is in receipt of a written acknowledgment from the president's private secretary. Charles G. Seybolt of this city is also in receipt of an acknowledgement from Secretary Loeb of the president's pleasure for courtesies extended.

It was decided last night at the First Methodist church, that when another Methodist church is started in this city, it shall be known as the McCabe Memorial Methodist church. This is in honor of Bishop McCabe, who was instrumental in raising $35,000 toward the building fund of the present church, and who has always shown great interest in the welfare of the church.

There are no new developments in the death of George H. Littlefield, who was found back of the Eagle Gate saloon on Saturday morning. The police are still working on the case but it appears to be as much a mystery as ever. The coroner's jury is simply waiting now for the report of City Chemist Harms, who is making an analysis on the contents of the man's stomach.

Mrs. Sarah Bell Gray, wife of William A. Gray, died yeserday at her home in this city from dropsy, after an illness extending over a period of several months. The deceased woman was a native of Edinburgh, Scotland, where she was born Jan. 7, 1854. She has been a resident of this city for nearly 20 years. The funeral will be held from the Evans' undertaking parlors, 213 south State street, tomorrow, Wednesday, at 2 p. m. Friends are invited.

Leo Neville of Randolph, aged 11, was brought to St. Mark's hospital yesterday for an operation on his throat. He was placed in front of an X-ray machine, and a two-bite piece that had lodged in his oesophagus for 11 days was removed. The boy had been living on liquid nourishment, and the local doctors were unable to do anything. He was brought on their advice to Evanston, and then brought to this city for treatment. The coin, when removed, was badly discolored.

Two brothers whose lives have been bound up in each other for years have died within 24 hours of each other, and will be buried together tomorrow at 4 p. m. from S. D. Evans' undertaking parlors. The pair were Peter and Alexander Bringans, two Scotchmen who came to this country a number of years ago. They were both single, and lived together on west Third South street. Peter was taken with stonecutters' consumption a week ago, and almost at the same time Alexander was stricken with pneumonia. Peter died Sunday, and the brother followed him yesterday. The men leave a sister in Scotland, but no relatives in this country.

There was an assault committed on east Second South last night about 10 o'clock, and for a moment it looked as though a murder might be done. A man rushed down stairs from a rooming house bearing a big club in his hand. He dashed up the street in pursuit of two men, who were walking leisurely along, and struck one of them a vicious blow on the shoulder with the club. At this moment a drunken man interfered and seized the club. The man who used the club, whose name is said to be Dye, claimed that the man he struck had insulted his family. The latter, who said his name was McCann, denied the allegation. No arrests were made, although McCann was apparently badly injured.

Catarrh.

Called an American disease, is cured by an American medicine, originated and prepared in the most catarrhal of American countries.

That medicine is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cures radically and permanently, in that it removes the cause, cleansing the blood of scrofulous and all other impurities. It overcomes all the effects of catarrh, too, and builds up the whole system. 3

INCREASING ITS OFFICE FORCE

Salt Lake Route Getting Ready for Active Work.

TWO APPOINTMENTS TODAY

H. H. Tracy Named as Private Secretary to Manager Wells and J. G. Fariss as Rate Clerk.

The Salt Lake Route is daily increasing its office force with indications that by the time appointed for the transfer there will be enough employes to fill the second floor of the Deseret News Annex, which has been secured for the headquarters of the company. Announcements were made this morning of the appointment of H. H. Tracy as private secretary to General Manager Wells, and also J. G. Fariss, who today entered upon his duties as rate clerk under General Freight and Passenger Agent Gillett. Mr. Tracy was formerly stenographer to Trainmaster Williams of the Rio Grande Western, and prior to that time was in the office of the superintendent of the Utah division of the Oregon Short Line. Mr. Fariss is also well known here. Both are capable young men who will undoubtedly be heard from later.

BURLINGTON APPOINTMENTS.

Assistant Treasurer at Omaha Resigns and Creates Promotions.

Word was received at the local agency of the Burlington this morning of the resignation of J. G. Taylor, the veteran assistant treasurer of the system at Omaha. Mr. Taylor is to be succeeded by C. J. Ernst. Other appointments are announced which include W. P. Durkee as auditor, who in turn is succeeded as assistant auditor by H. D. Allee. R. E. Wheeler has also been appointed traveling passenger agent for the Burlington at Philadelphia, vice W. D. Cornell, who has been transferred in a similar capacity to the new office at Buffalo, N. Y.

BIGGEST WOOL SHIPMENT.

Union Pacific and C. & M. & St. P. Secure the J. D. Wood Clip.

Claud Williams, commercial agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, returned this morning from Spencer, Ida., where he has been looking after the J. D. Wood shipment of wool.

This consignment is the biggest wool shipment of the season and consists of 600,000 pounds. It was routed via Oregon Short Line, Union Pacific and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul. The last car out will probably leave Spencer on Thursday. This shipment is the annual occasion of much joy or grief, as the case may be, among local railroad men.

Burlington O. K.

General Agent Neslen received a dispatch from headquarters of the Burlington this morning notifying him that the flood situation on the system in Kansas was on the improve and that trains were now going right through on schedule time.

Scandinavian Conference.

The Oregon Short Line announces that it will put on three special trains on Sunday next on the occasion of the Scandinavian conference at Logan. People have signified their desire to be present on this occasion from all over the state and indications are that there will be a big crowd that will tax the resources of the railroad company. A rate of $2 for the round trip from Salt Lake will be put in for the occasion.

AFTER COAL LANDS.

Utah Fuel Company Locators Are Busy in Emery County.

Representatives of the Utah Fuel company are reported to be busy taking up coal lands in Emery county. Especially does this hold good in connection with the south end of the county. Some twenty years ago the Union Pacific railway, through its agents, secured title to some 10 sections of coal land near Emery. This land has been sold several times for taxes, but has lately been redeemed. As the projected Salina cut-off passes through a portion of this property the lands are becoming valuable, it is stated in Huntington that providing the Utah Fuel company can get hold of this property active work will again be inaugurated upon the cut-off project.

SPIKE AND RAIL.

The Oregon Short Line will run an excursion to Boise on Saturday week.

A heavy excursion from Butte will come in over the Short Line on Sunday.

The Denver Northwestern & Pacific has ordered 50 flat cars from Barney & Smith.

The San Pedro, Los Angeles & Salt Lake is in the market for 300 flat cars, 100 box cars and three cabooses.

The Denver & Rio Grande is in the market for 250 narrow-gauge side-dump cars of 50,000 pounds capacity, 600 narrow-gauge coal cars of 50,000 pounds capacity, 750 box cars of 50,000 pounds capacity, and 350 stock cars of 50,000 pounds capacity.—Railway Age.

General Solicitor W. R. Kelly of the Union Pacific was expected to arrive in Salt Lake today in order to be present at the turning over of the Short Line holdings to the Salt Lake Route.

C. F. Annett, formerly superintendent of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company here, has resigned as assistant superintendent of the Illinois Central.

The steamer Stanley Dollar, belonging to the Dollar Steamship company, is at Port Los Angeles unloading a cargo from the orient. Announcement was made yesterday that with the completion of the inner harbor at San Pedro that port would be made port of call by the company's steamers, and that a regular service would be maintained between San Francisco and the orient.

The work of laying heavy rails between Manti and Salina has come to a standstill some four or five miles north of this place. It appears that the railroad company desired only enough of the light rails on the Sanpete branch to lay a track on its new grade through Salina canyon. Dear, dear! So near and yet so far. This is another fly in our marmalade. Already we hear it rumored that the end of the division is to be at Axtell and that great shops are to be erected in that bustling town. It's enough to give a man delirium tremens.—Salina Sun.
