----SUNDAY SERVICES.

Religious services of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints were held in the Tabernacle, Sunday, June 21st, 1885, commencing at 2 p.m., Elder going west on the Central Pacific and returning over the Northern Pacific, Wm. Eddington presiding. Thomas Hazard, the engineer of the The choir sang: ffice, accompanied by Accountant T

Come all ye sons of Zion,

And let us praise the Lord. Prayer by Elder Arthur Stayner. The chair sang: O Lord of Hosts, we now invoke, Thy Spirit most divine.

The Priesthood of the Eighteenth Ward officiated in the administration of the Sacrament. Bishop O. F. Whitney addressed the congregation. He read from Revela-tion, xiv; 1-8. The Latter-day Saints had been wrongfully charged with having set too little store upon the Christian Bible and endeavoring to belittle the importance of that holy Book. The text read contained a prophecy made by one of the Apostles of the Lord Jesus, to whom He had given power to preach the Gospel to all nations, and themselves. The speaking was ani-nad promised to confirm the word with mated and to the point. A good spirit signs following. On one occasion the Lord told His disciples that this gospel of the kingdom should be preached in all the world for a witnes, and then should the end come. The Apostles had gone forth, preaching the truth, realizing the responsibility they were under, and knowing that to do His will they would have to suffer persecution, and some would even think they were doing God's service in killing them; but they went forth prepared to lay down their lives for the truth, and al-though they did many wonderful works, few believed on their words, and the great majority despised and persecuted them. They built up churches among the nations, and planted the tree of life on the earth; but it seemed that the time had not arrived for that tree to bear fruit, and it was torn up to be replanted at a futre period. These things were prophesied of by the Apostles, and the Lord had permitted them for a wise purpose. Nearly every one of the disciples of Jesus met with a tragic death, so that by the end of the second ceptury the Church of Christ second century the Church of Carist ceased to exist among men, the faithful having been slain, and in their stead had grown up a class of compromisers who, not having the courage to maintain the truth, had permitted it to be supplanted with Paganism. More attention was paid to dead forms than to the simple truths of the Gospel, and the man-child of the apocalypse, the Priesthood, was taken to the heavens, to be nourished until a more auspicito be nourished until a more auspicious time. One of the original Twelve had, however, received permission to tarry on the earth until the Lord should come in His giory. The attempts against the life of this Apostle had failed, and he was banished to the Isle by water power, very busy through the seven periods of 1000 years each. In the fifth period he had seen the great apostasy of the Christian Church, when was engrated upon the

of Patmos, where he was shown not only what should come to pass, but all that had occurred from the creation lug Gospel to restore to the earth;

the population, without money and without friends. In this condition they are compelled to do the hardest and most menial labor, and from this position they can seldom rise. If they go West," continued the Bishop "their prospects are scarcely any better. In the West there is, of course, land in abundance, but this land must now be purchased, and the Irish emigrant has no money." In commenting on the surprising declaration made in this interview, Freeman's Journal expresses the hope that the Bishop's statement may save many Irishmen and women from misery and ruin beyond the Atlantic.

The Apostre John saw the the time when an angel would come with the everlasting Gospel, one and unchangeable, to preach to all nations, in fulfillment of the words of the Son of God, as a witness to all nations be fore the end should come. The earth had almost fulfilled the sixth day or thousand years, of its temporal probation, and was yet to have its Sabbath, or Millennial reign of peace, the dawn of which was at hand, and the Lord would celebrate it by coming upon the earth to reign over all nations. It was this that the Latter-day Saints were preparing for; this was why the Gospel was being preached, as a warning to all the world, sent by God before the inhabitants of the earth might be prepared for the sent no judgments in the Lord would celebrate it by coming upon the carries to all nations. In tais day, if the message was rejected, God would bring judgments upon the world until they were humble enough to reand that the influx of such aliens tends ceive it. The Saints desired as much as any people could, the salvation of mankind, but if men rejected the light, they could only blame themselves. The ancients destroyed the body of the Church, and the spirit returned to God. Light had burst forth in the darkness in this age, but the darkness comprehended it not, and men love darkness rather than light, because their deeds are evil. The heathen would receive salvation before those who rejected the light, for God was merciful to those who were ignorant of the law. There are comparatively few people who know where Cedar Fort is, and we had begun to believe that our nearest eighbors had forgotten us. Our Bishop, Brother Eli Bennett naving business over at Lehl, chanced to meet the leader of the choir of that place. Brother J. S. Gibbs, and extended an invitation to him and the members of the choir to pay us a visit, which was cordially accepted.

Accordingly on the 14th inst., they arrived. We were somewhat surprised at the number, there being between 50 and 75 persons, all members of the choir, a large majority of whom were young ladies. Under the direction of the leader of the Cedar Fort choir, Brother Jas. Clark, they were all provided with suitable accommodations. After partaking of a bountiful repast, provided by the good Sisters of this place, all hands repaired to the meeting house, where we were entertained until a late hour. The programme consisted of songs, recitations, stump and impromptu specches, violin exer-cises, etc., also singing by the choirs. We had a tv-ry enjoyable time. They remained over night and joined us in our Sunday exercises. Quite a number of the brethren and sisters of Fairfield vere also present. We also have a fine prospect for fruit, of all kinds, in abundance, the late frost not having affected us, as it did in other places. The worms are not so plentiful here as n some other places in Utah County. We ascribe it partly to the diligence of the people and partly to the seclusion of the settlement.
