The Frost Did Serious Damage to Crops in Rich County.

Movements of the People in Amusements, Politics, [illegible] and [illegible] Generally.

Correspondence of the DESERET NEWS.

GARDEN CITY, Rich County, Utah, June 19, 1895.—Jack Frost has got in his [illegible] work here again, and has done considerable damage to crops, such as [illegible] and strawberries, [illegible] fruit trees. It has put those crops back at least two weeks under the most favorable circumstances.

Tongue or pen cannot describe the weather we have been [illegible] since the snow disappeared, we won't [illegible] again, as we haven't seen any of that as yet, or very little of it at any rate.

Friday and Saturday, June 21st and 22nd, promises to be a gala day for the people of our burg, as we will be visited by from 100 to 200 persons from [illegible] and Woodruff, who are coming [illegible] way on an excursion on the [illegible] and it is expected that a [illegible] will be had by old and young. [illegible]—baseball between a nine [illegible] from the entire county and the [illegible] nine, the latter having [illegible] the former to play a [illegible] game; also picnicking, and [illegible] will be indulged in.

Next Tuesday night, the 25th inst., the Democratic society will be organized [illegible] preparatory to beginning the [illegible] campaign.

Mr. John M. Allen has returned home from Salt Lake City after an absence of nine months, where he has been attending the Utah University, [illegible] to see him home. He looks [illegible].

[illegible] Tarbet, our genial chair [illegible], has gone to Bluebird, Idaho, where he has filed on a quarter section [illegible] good land under the big canal [illegible] is being constructed from the [illegible] river. This canal when completed will be fifty or sixty miles in length and will water about forty [illegible] acres of land. In a letter to his wife he states that settlers were flocking in from all quarters of the globe, and that land will soon be at a premium.

Others are [illegible] of moving to Bear valley, and still others to [illegible], on the O. S. L. R. R., some [illegible] miles northwest of Montpelier.

Brother J. S. Bramwell, the principal of our district school, has finished his term and moved back to Plain City, where he expects to go into business [illegible]. He says he will retire [illegible] school teaching.

[illegible] all people in this town who are talking about leaving for more [illegible] climes, go away from here, our [illegible] will become almost entirely depopulated in a few years.

Mining is practically at a standstill for lack of capital.

The women are beginning to talk politics, and soon we may look for [illegible] in the political arena. She has promised to qualify if elected [illegible] this fact. V. Ensign.

Teachers at Saltair.

Today was the day set apart by the members of the Salt Lake county teachers' association for an outing at Saltair. The day weather was pleasant and the water is at about seventy-five degrees. The delegation going out this morning was light, but was followed by a much larger delegation on the [illegible] train. No formal program was carried out, but the day was spent in a social way in groups about the [illegible] and beautiful pavilion. In the afternoon quite a number took advantage of the opportunity to take a bath in the briny waters, and were agreeably surprised at finding the water so warm. Those attending express themselves as being delighted with the trip.

Returned From the Southern States

Elder Bryant Copley, of Chalkville, Summit county, made the NEWS a pleasant call today. Elder Copley returned yesterday from a mission to the Southern States. He left for that mission [illegible], 1893, and was assigned to labor in the South Alabama conference. The most of his time having been spent in Florida. Elder Copley reports the mission to be in a prosperous condition. A Sunday school was organized in [illegible] county, Florida, just prior to his release to return home. He [illegible] enjoyed the [illegible] very much and has [illegible] with excellent health during his absence from home. Elder Copley expects to remain in this city until Monday, when he will proceed to his home in Coalville.

Land Office.

The following filings were made in the local land office under date of [illegible]:

Peter Jensen, of Mt. Pleasant, final [illegible] entry [illegible] acres in [illegible] south, range 4 east, San [illegible].

[illegible] F. Larsen, of Castle Dale, [illegible] 31 acres in township 19 [illegible], range [illegible] east, Emery county.

[illegible] final [illegible], of Salt Lake City, mineral entry of the [illegible] mining district, [illegible].

JUDGE NORRELL GOES EAST.

His Health is Very Poor and He May Have to Undergo a Surgical Operation.

Judge Norrell, of the Utah Commission, [illegible] over the [illegible] summer. How long he will stay is by no means certain as his health is very poor. For a considerable time he has been [illegible], with a stomach trouble, a [illegible] disease of which he has been unable to get up to date, though a number of the best physicians have made examinations and consultations concerning it.

The main object of his visit to the East, which may be extended to his old home in the South, is to if possible obtain that relief which he was unable to get here. He was advised before going to consult some eminent medical authority concerning his case and that he will go. It is thought [illegible] be [illegible] to a [illegible] examination before his return.

Quorum Notice.

The regular monthly meeting of the [illegible] quorum of Seventies will be held in the Twenty-[illegible] ward meeting house Monday evening, June 24 at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance of the members is requested, as there will be [illegible] of the [illegible] presented. W. [illegible], Secretary.

Foreclosure Suits.

Samuel [illegible] Jones today entered suit in the Third district court against [illegible] J. Smith, administratrix of the estate of [illegible] Smith, et al., for the foreclosure of a mortgage given [illegible] on a promissory note for $1,000. The defendants [illegible] attorney's fees [illegible] costs of suit [illegible].

Wm. Thomas [illegible] suit in the Third district court against Wm. H. [illegible] et al., to foreclose a mortgage given to secure a promissory note for $1,000. The defendants [illegible] of the [illegible] and an order was issued for [illegible] of money of said suit.

Third District Court.

There were two cases argued in the Third district court today.

In the case of [illegible] vs. [illegible], the motion to set aside the decision of the referee was granted and the case placed on the trial calendar.

The case of the [illegible] vs the Salt Lake Pressed Brick company was argued on the motion of the Salt Lake Pressed Brick company to set aside the decision of the referee and grant a new trial. This case was taken up late [illegible] and was still being argued at a late hour this afternoon.

To be Examined.

[illegible] Mrs. Hansen, a resident of the southwestern portion of the city, will probably be examined as to her sanity tomorrow. A complaint was made against her today, and the county physician was called to make a preliminary investigation of her case. She appears to be afflicted with strange hallucinations, and appears to think some one is going to injure her.

Married.

Yesterday in the Salt Lake Temple, Bishop John R. Winder officiating, Mr. John D. Owen and Lucy Helen Whitney were united in the bonds of matrimony. In the evening a quiet wedding reception was tendered the young couple, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Geo. D. Pyper, only the immediate relatives being invited. The NEWS joins the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Owen in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.

Arrested for Assault.

George Gray and George Ferguson were arrested about noon today at Calder's park on the charge of assault and battery.

The cause of the fight, the men Gray claims, was that Ferguson, an old man, took undue liberties with his daughter. Ferguson has a patent [illegible] which he was exhibiting at the park, and when the children came to look at it he would lift them up so they could see it [illegible]. It appears that Gray took offense at his actions and assaulted him, beating him very terribly. Spectators say it was a brutal attack. They were both taken before Commissioner [illegible] and their bonds were placed at $50 each. Gray furnished security but Ferguson being a comparative stranger here was not able to furnish it and was placed in the county jail. Dr. Wright was sent to dress his face and found it necessary to place one stitch in the wound.

First Cavalry Election.

The ballots for the election of a major for the First cavalry, National Guard of Utah, are very slow in reaching their destination. Under the order issued from General Young's office in this city they were to have been at hand yesterday. But inquiry at headquarters today elicited the information that they had not all come to hand yet. The question as to who will be major is therefore still unsettled. It is understood that Lieutenant [illegible], of Troop [illegible], this city, and [illegible] of the [illegible] to [illegible] are the principal if not the only candidates.

Ready for Cholera.

Two years ago there was an outbreak of cholera in France, and instructions were forwarded to the mayor of a certain village to take all necessary precautions, as the epidemic was rapidly spreading.

At first our worthy magistrate did not know what to do. After a while, however, he reported that he was ready to receive the grisly visitor. Upon inquiry being made it was discovered that by his orders a sufficient number of graves had been dug in the local cemetery to hold the entire population if required.—El Mercurio.

EXTRAORDINARY FATALITY.

A FAMILY IN [illegible] LOSES FOUR CHILDREN IN LESS THAN [illegible].

A [illegible] family, living [illegible] has suffered [illegible] extraordinary series of fatalities at [illegible], where, by a [illegible] in the house, [illegible] in the space of a few minutes. Three children had gone [illegible] to their father, a [illegible], who was in the field. The [illegible] put their hands on a [illegible] of the [illegible] to obtain [illegible] ways. In this [illegible] was a [illegible], which killed all three.

The mother [illegible] the house and found the fourth child had fallen in the bath and was drowned.—New York Journal Express.

Little Hope for Him.

The following is a story of an incident that actually took place at the [illegible] of the [illegible] [illegible] party. A soldier was [illegible] brought before the commanding officer, charged with the offense of talking [illegible] to the other officers. After the [illegible] had heard the evidence he said to the culprit:

"Do you know what will happen if [illegible] you tell lies to your officer?"

The soldier quickly replied: "Yes, sir; I shall go to hell."

"Worse than that, sir, worse than that!" said the commanding officer. "You shall be tried by a court martial."—Boston Globe.
