BUILDING MUDDLE.

The Special Sub-Committee Refuses to Make Recommendations.

GREATEST OF COMPLICATIONS.

An Admission that there were Big Mistakes to Be Apprehended.

Estimates.

Sub-committeemen Wauchope and Morris, to whom was referred the matter of investigating the latest developments in the joint city and county building muddle, did evening make the following report to the general committee which was expected to report to the Council last night:

GENTLEMEN.—Your sub-committee to whom was referred the communication of Mr. J. H. Bowman and statement of architects would respectfully report that we have examined into the matters referred to us, and, after considering the complications which seemingly exist, think it best to make no recommendations and simply submit our conclusions.

Regarding as a general way in regard to the main charge suggested by Mr. Bowman in his memorial for plastering, and also for roofing, we would say that no intelligent recommendations can be made by the joint committee, but we have carefully examined, repeated or modified estimates.

The series of Mr. Bowman's communications in which he claims that the city owes architects on the architect's June estimate, shows a balance which has either been paid him or is his account for work and materials, to be correct. All of the amount aggregating each estimate have been paid, or are only payable to the labor and the superintendent's account upon the open order of Mr. Bowman, and the only sum that could properly be construed to be due or due is the rebate of 3 per cent for cash allowed by the Union Improvements, amounting to $35.

It is partly necessary to state the conclusions leading up to the revision of the arrangement by which the joint committee became the disbursers of all funds for labor and materials entering into the construction of the joint building. Suffice it to say that certain of the sub-contractors absolutely refused to furnish supply material and allow it per cent of their values to be retained with the naked prospect of receiving the same upon the completion of the building, and even that dependent upon the possibility of Mr. Bowman having a place in the work. Hence it became necessary, in order to continue work, to abrogate such arrangement, so Mr. Bowman to go on with the construction of the building as contract by his contract, which he has failed to do, and thereafter to take steps to terminate his employment. It is needless to state that such was the sole course left to pursue in order to speedily complete the building.

The matter of the variance in the plans on file in the office of the county clerk, and those by which Mr. Bowman has been working, is a question this sub-committee will not venture to report upon, but if there be any substantial variance it is a matter that can only be adjusted upon the final completion of the building, or unless some other plan be devised by the joint committee.

As to the inaccuracies in the architect's statement of the amount paid and the estimated amount necessary to complete, which was supplied for the information of the joint committee, will show that some were mistakes in addition, and when corrected show a greater deficiency than then reported.

We would fairly report that the gross cost of Mr. Bowman's contract is $177,207.10
Add to this the excess in extra, being changes and E. R. area in foundations, gravel, lime, plaster, lath, hair, sand, brass and granite columns 8,478.12
..... $185,685.22
Amount paid to date— On 24 estimates $155,119.19
Paid without estimates— Gravel, sand, lime, plaster 4,000.12
..... $159,119.31
Balance on contract $26,566.91
Add due 3 per cent rebate 11,604.12
Total $38,171.03

This seems to be the condition at this date, and the architect's estimate that to complete the building in strict accordance with the plans and specifications will require $38,171.03, and if the estimate be fairly correct it shows a deficiency of $26,566.91.

Mr. Bowman, however, contends that the building can be completed for a less figure, and in comparing the figures given us by Messrs Freeman and Kerr with those of the architects, we find a difference of $11,418, which still leaves a deficiency of $15,148.91.

However, Mr. Bowman claims credit for the value of additional lumber entering into the building by reason of his alleged variance in plans, to amount of difference in size of posts, additional anchor irons and bridging, and also as damages and expenses consequent by the delay brought about by the foregoing difficulties, of which ever responsible were not charged with the duty of investigating. Nevertheless by letter of Mr. Bowman to the supervising architect, filed by this committee, and dated February 24, 1893, Mr. Bowman stated specifically that he desire to work on the building was solely chargeable to the inclemency of the weather.

Respectfully submitted.
J. H. MORRIS,
C. E. WAUCHOPE.

DR. TALMAGE'S VISIT ABROAD.

Lectures Delivered by the Professor Before Prominent Scientific Organizations.

This morning a NEWS reporter had the pleasure of a short talk with Dr. J. E. Talmage, who has recently returned from a somewhat extended trip to the Eastern states and Europe. In the course of conversation it was learned that the doctor spent considerable time at the great Fair, and his simple comment was that the exhibition in every way deserved its name.

In London Dr. Talmage met with the Royal Microscopical society, of which he is a fellow; he attended also a meeting of the Royal Society of Edinburgh, and before each of these men guished organizations he delivered lectures. In Paris he attended a session of the institute. Dr. Talmage took with him a great number of Utah specimens, particularly minerals, and the praise accorded these products about is almost unlimited. The mammoth crystals of selenite for which the Deseret museum has created such an enviable reputation, were universally pronounced by scientists as unique in their perfection and beauty. Splendid specimens were presented by the Deseret museum to the collections of the societies already named, as also to the British Museum, Kew's Museum of Natural History, and Oxford and Cambridge universities. Through its worthy curator our museum has been enrolled as a member of the Museum's Association of the World.

Great and permanent good will continue to result from this visit. The doctor is pleased to be home again and is already at work relocating the mass of information in his journal.

Held for Binding.

The man wanted and arrested yesterday across Washington from Ogden and last night as he is holding an adjustment session was concerned. At 8:45, forty minutes after commencement from early Harry, Jack, Hank, Steve and Bobby were present the matter of Rock Bone took the floor and stated the case. The complaint was lodged against the defendant that there was no quorum present and an adjournment was taken until Tuesday evening next at 7:30.

Coal Razes Burned.

Shortly after last midnight a frame coal house, standing near the sidewalk of the premises of Paul C. Heid, at No. 327 Sixth street caught fire in some manner wholly unknown to parties in the neighborhood. Mr. and Mrs. Heid were away from home at the time and are also completely in the dark as to the origin of the blaze.

The coal house was completely destroyed so was another portion of the house next to it. Fortunately there was no wind at the time. Had there been even an ordinary breeze a couple of frame residences would have been consigned. The loss will not exceed $25.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral services over the remains of Sister Magdalena S. Rose, wife of Henry Reiser, will be held tomorrow (Sunday) morning, at eleven o'clock, at the Sixth ward meeting house. Friends of the family are invited.

The Excursion Sixth.

The arrangement for the annual excursion north from this city was agreed upon, over the Union Pacific, leaving this city on Tuesday, August 15, to that in or for Brigham City, Logan and all Cache Valley points, and Soda Springs and Montpelier, will go by special train from this city at 7:30 a. m., and Ogden at 9:15 a. m., passing through Logan at 11:45 a. m., and on to Bear Lake that day. The excursion for Idaho Falls, Market Lake and the Snake River Valley points and Yellowstone Park, leave Salt Lake by the regular 4 p. m. train on the 15th, and they included by the special they would have to wait at Pocatello or some station this side for the regular train to carry them farther north. The train will reach Snake River stations early on the morning of the 16th.

UTAH MEN CREDITORS,

They are Out $166.25 by an Idaho Man's Failure.

There are several Utah firms affected by the failure, in Boise, Idaho, yesterday, of F. H. Mussel, cigar dealer, who went down for $667.74, with assets valued at only $344.60. The only Boise house affected secured an attachment on the property a few minutes before the petition in bankruptcy was filed. The Utah firms who are losers by this failure are:

F. J. Kaiser & Co., Ogden	$50 [illegible]
E. G. Hines & Co., Salt Lake	50 [illegible]
Salt Lake Brewing Co., Salt Lake	25 [illegible]
Total	$166 25

A Pleasant Surprise.

Elder J. D. Cummings of Mill Creek left his home on the 1st inst for San Francisco, having been called on a mission to California. The evening previous to his departure a host of friends and neighbors gathered at his home and spent the evening very pleasantly. Short speeches were delivered by Bishop Hamilton, Counselor Hansen and others.

Notes.

The Big Horn country is about to be explored by a party of men from Omaha, with a view to ascertaining how many acres of land can be put under water in that region.

The directors of the Minneapolis exhibit have come to the conclusion that it would be novel to give a new meeting in Minneapolis this year owing to the financial disturbances that are prevailing all over the country and the Baptist Ministers' Conference and the twenty-fourth annual meeting set for August 19 to 29 is therefore declared off. The directors decide that the state of affairs did not warrant the expectation that the attendance of the meeting would be large enough to justify undertaking such an expense as would be entailed.

While driving from the ridge Misses Evelyn Bixler and Annie Sessions met with an accident which fortunately did not prove to be a very serious one. While descending a small hill in Farmington their horse became unmanageable, so Miss Bixler jumped from the buggy. The frightened animal then took a bee line for home, and when the buggy came in contact with the barn it was found that a prisoner still the buggy and liberated her. A man living close by came and on finding the horse and rig all in order he took the unfortunate passengers. It was found that the collapsing had resulted in a couple of bruised passengers, one of whom had her ankle badly sprained, while the driver was bruised from her car. A pretty badly demolished buggy and a half shaved horse were the rest.—Davis County Clipper.
