NEWS OF THE WEST.

Serious Accident to J. U. Stuckle in Bear Lake County, Idaho.

WILL BE DISFIGURED FOR LIFE.

Thurston's Resignation as Union Pacific Solicitor—Sun Down in a Train —General Notes.

The city council of Pocatello, Idaho, has decided to pass a curfew ordinance, and has directed the appropriate committee to draft the measure.

Rev. Anna Howe spoke to a large audience at Hanford, Cal., Friday night. Just before opening her lecture she received news of the death of her father in Michigan.

Corn in Nebraska can be bought for 12 cents a bushel and hay in Dawson can be had at $2 per ton, consequently a great many sheep are being shipped in Nebraska for winter feeding.

Thomas Mellowan, a laborer, aged about 40 years, was run over by a freight train Wednesday morning near Ground to stone, at Bakersfield, Cal. No one knows how the accident occurred. He had been drinking heavily for several days past.

Senator John M. Thurston, now in California in connection with the Union Pacific suits there, has announced that in two months he will resign as solicitor general for that road. He takes his seat in the U. S. Senate on March 4, 1896.

M. M. Halpin, flagman at the Oakland Mole of the Southern Pacific railway, was killed Thursday by being struck by a train. The train was ten minutes late, and the flagman became confused with the various trains, resulting in his getting on the wrong track.

Lottie Goodelr, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Dr. Goodelr of Navarro, Cal., was fatally injured Saturday, having both legs cut off. She was visiting of the locomotive, and saw a tree that had fallen across the track. She jumped from the cab and was thrown beneath the wheels.

Mayor Sutro, of San Francisco is in receipt of a letter from William H. Hale, of New York, the president of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, calling attention to the fact that the British association of the same character will meet in Toronto, Canada, in 1897, and that if a proper effort is made a joint meeting can be held in San Francisco after the Canada meeting.

Fred Cook, of Uinta county, Wyoming, was ordered by the district court to desist from interfering with his divorced wife, but ignored the order of the court and raised a rumpus at the woman's house. Deputy Sheriff Ellis was sent to arrest him, but Cook refused to recognize Ellis's authority and started off. At this Ellis fired a load of buckshot which lodged in Cook's back and brought him to time.

Evanston, Wyo., Herald: Mr. Dave Rees, of Castle Rock, Utah, was in town on Thursday. He is one of the fine examples of what a man with pluck, energy and intelligence can do in the far West. Dave started in with one cow, a span of horses and a half interest in a mowing machine. He is now one of the cattle kings of the Wasatch, owns about 7,000 acres of land, has cattle on a thousand hills and lives in one of the prettiest ranch houses in the West.

Montpelier, Idaho, Post: A most unfortunate accident happened to Elder J. U. Stuckl last Saturday evening, through which he will be disfigured for life. In company with Elder Wm. L. Rich he was going from Soda to John Day's lake, to organize a branch of the church. In descending a deep gully both brethren got out of the buggy, and while Elder Rich drove the team, Elder Stuckl got seated to call back on the buggy. Suddenly the buggy lurched and a piece of iron struck him between the left eye and the bridge of the nose, breaking the latter, and inflicting a deep gash in the right cheek, requiring seven stitches. At present Elder Stuckl is in a serious condition, for while it is most fortunate that his left eye was not destroyed, it is sad to reflect that the injury he received will disfigure him for life.

Walking.

For walking with pleasure and advantage I should give a few simple rules. The application of these rules for himself every man must make with due allowance for his own peculiarities. Take plenty of time at meals. Do not walk right after a meal. Rest well before the noon and evening meals. Drink all you desire of good water during the tramp, but sparingly at meals or just before eating. Good digestion is as important to good walking as it is necessary for good work of any kind. As to foods, a man has to take on his tramp what is set before him. It will generally be nourishing enough if he will be careful to eat it when not tired and to eat it slowly. At the end of each day take a sponge or towel bath or a dry rub down. At least wash your feet and change socks, and shoes, too, if possible. A change of all my clothing next to the skin at the end of each day is imperative with me.—Chicago News.

An Honest Sergeant.

A military story comes from Ireland. A noncommissioned officer, entering a barrack gate in Dublin, was mistaken by the "fresh one" on sentry go, who immediately called him. The noncommissioned officer, unaware that his colonel was just behind, returned the salute, a thing not permissible under the circumstances. Arrived at his quarters, he was surprised to find an order for him to attend before the colonel. On presenting himself he was asked how he came to return the salute, knowing full well he was not entitled to it. Not in the least embarrassed, he promptly answered, "Sir, I always return everything I am not entitled to." The colonel, taken aback by his ready wit, laughingly dismissed him.
