UNIVERSITY BOAT RACE.

Yale Easily Defeats Harvard.

NEW LONDON, 1.—The fifth annual eight-oared race over the four mile course between the crews from Harvard and Yale was won by Yale in 24 min. 27 sec. The Harvard time being 25 min. 9 sec. The race was pluckily rowed and hotly contested up to the third mile. At that point the Yale drew ahead and steadily increased the lead until the finish when they were 10 lengths ahead.

Yale broke the row lock at the end of 60 yards. Harvard being then far ahead, but the referee caused both crews to return under an agreement by which the matter was left to his discretion as to recalling them in case of accident. The final start was not made until 7.06 and Yale forged ahead with a terrific spurt while Harvard rowed badly, allowing their opponents to increase the lead every minute. Nothing has ever been seen on the Thames River that excelled the splendid rowing done by the Yales. Upon their approach to the third mile flag with strokes that rarely dropped to less than 39, their boat rushed through the water at a terrific pace and with every minute was putting the prow of the Harvard shell farther and farther behind. The third mile was thus completed with Yale six lengths ahead.

The story of the last mile is easily told: Yale still kept up her powerful stroke, apparently as fresh as at the start. Harvard was showing surprising weakness. Thus in the procession the two crews went down the long line of yachts and steamers amid the screeching of whistles and cannonading, and in a few moments Yale shot past the finish ten lengths ahead and winner of the race.

The only sad occurrence of the regatta day was a painful accident that happened on the Northern railroad, and which resulted in the death of President F. W. Lincoln, of the Boston and Albany railroad, and Mrs. Dr. William Appleton, of Boston. Lincoln and Mrs. Appleton were seated on the rear platform of the private car of Mr. Lincoln, which was attached to the moving grand stand, watching the race. The car was next to the forward engine of the train. Soon after the train started, when the first race was begun, the coupling pin connecting the private car with the platform car in the rear, broke in twain. The forward engine, released of the heavy weight it was dragging, shot rapidly ahead. The shock threw Mr. Lincoln and Mrs. Appleton upon the rails forward and the wheels of the platform car passed over the lady and gentleman, crushing them terribly. The rear wheels of the car left the track and the train then came to a standstill. Mrs. Appleton died within 15 or 20 minutes after the accident. Mr. Lincoln lived nearly an hour.

Hayes Speaks to the Students.

NEW HAVEN, 1.—Prest. Hayes made a speech at the Yale alumni meeting this afternoon, in the course of which he said: "You will perhaps recall the exciting events of four years ago, during the embarrassing period which intervened between the election and the decision as to who should be the incumbent of the presidential chair. I was much embarrassed, for it was plain if the trust and responsibility of the station was to devolve upon me, it wouldn't be a voyage over a smooth sea or under halcyon skies, therefore, when I thought the responsibility might devolve upon my shoulders, I say the first thought was what is the paramount duty I shall have to perform, and how can it be done? It seemed to me the pacification of the country was the first duty. (Applause.) I know there were good and true people who failed to see it as I did, but I saw the necessity of doing something to restore the confidence of the whole people and bring the country the rest and repose it so sadly needed. Seeing this as my first duty, I asked what can I do to assure it all? It had been done in party platforms and in letters of acceptance framed in high-sounding words, and see what was required by the people. However there was some distinct, unmistakable and palpable act. (Applause.) I thought I might find in the South some man of high character who had been against me through a long and bitter struggle, and who therefore had the entire confidence of the Southern people. I found no great political leader suggesting that this course might possibly lead to a solution of the difficulty. While I was pondering what to do and what course to pursue, there came to me light as a flash from a clear sky, the thought of Yale and the venerable President whom we almost worship. (Applause.) Without drifting into a speech, I will say I wrote him and then followed implicitly President Woolsey's advice. All may not have followed and resulted as I or anyone else had hoped, but in following his advice I think I found a true key to the situation.

The Flood.

HANNIBAL, Mo., 1.—It was hoped the waters had done their worst on the bottom, opposite here, but contrary to expectation the river rose two inches to-day. It is stationary above, however, and a decline is looked for at once. No new break in the levee, and the weak place at the west end of the bridge here is strengthened. Dispatches state much of the land in the vicinity of the crevasses is still above water and a considerable portion of the wheat will be saved undamaged. Reports of loss of life and sweeping away of houses are untrue.

The Clipper-Herald this afternoon says: The break in the levee below here proved very destructive, the damage amounting to several hundred thousand dollars. It is estimated one-sixth of the crops on the bottom are a total loss. The lowland farmers have lost all their crops and considerable fencing. Little or no lives are lost.

ANOTHER DISASTER.

A Steamer Bursts her Boiler.

MINNEAPOLIS, 1.—At 6.25 this morning the Lake Minnetonka pleasure steamer Mary, owned and run by Capt. Halstead, while lying at the wharf at the St. Louis Hotel, exploded her boiler with terrible effect, completely wrecking the boat which sunk immediately. The following is a list of the killed and wounded: Wm. Chadwick, engineer, instantly killed; John Steward, pilot, fatally injured and dying; Edwin F. Perkins, fireman, scalded about the face and neck; Frank Adams, chief clerk of the St. Louis Hotel, was scalded and hurt in the eyes; A.S. Diamond, of Minneapolis, shocked and prostrated; Colored Jim, porter of the St. Louis Hotel, scalded and bruised; Lang, porter at the hotel, scalded and bruised; Harry, a colored boy, very badly hurt—arm dislocated and badly scalded; English George, scalded and bruised. The boat was on her way to Wayseata to take on board 100 excursionists, and had stopped at the St. Louis Hotel en route. The Mary has for a long time been considered an unsafe boat. Her boilers are the third of the same make that have exploded in the same lake in the last three years with fatal results. It is claimed there was but sixty pounds of steam on at the time of the explosion and plenty of water.

Immigrants at Castle Garden.

NEW YORK, 1.—Five steamships landed 1,806 immigrants at Castle Garden yesterday, making the total for June 12,026 against 15,330 in 1879 and 3,057 less than during last month. About one-quarter of the emigrants have come from Germany. As a class they are superior to those who have ever arrived before, and with the exception of the Russians, who are entirely destitute, have been provided with more or less money to start new homes in America.

Explaining Sherman's Action.

WASHINGTON, 1.—Secretary Sherman's action in relieving Commissioner Raum of the privilege of making appointments, causes some remarks, but it is learned it has no personal significance, and Raum himself imputes no secondary motive to the Secretary. It is simply the desire of the latter to have close acquaintance with the details of the business.

Railroad Mortgage Foreclosed.

PHILADELPHIA, 1.—A bill of foreclosure against the Reading Railroad company was filed to-day on behalf of the holders of the general mortgage loan of 1874, in the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The bill was filed by John C. Ballitt, solicitor for the English and other bondholders.

Thirteenth Infantry Coming West.

ST. LOUIS, 1.—Companies A, D, H and I, Thirteenth United States Infantry, with band and regimental headquarters, arrived here this morning from New Orleans, en route to Fort Leavenworth, whence they will be sent to different points in Colorado and New Mexico.

A Prison Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, 1.—A dispatch from Carson, Nevada, says W. R. Chamberlain, a convict, was killed at the State prison to-day by John R. Darling, alias Rattlesnake Dick, his pal in a robbery case four years ago. He was killed with a pick axe.

Colored Jurors.

LOUISVILLE, 1.—The court of appeals holds that so much of our statute as excludes all persons other than white men from service on juries is unconstitutional, and that no person can be lawfully excluded from any jury on account of his race or color.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Foreign Miscellany.

LONDON, 1.—A Paris dispatch says: Up to the present time, 49 magistrates have resigned rather than execute the religious decrees. The proprietor of a house occupied by Jesuits on the Rue de Devres made a preliminary application to the president of the tribune of the Seine, asking that the house may be restored to the possession of the owner, and Rieux, prefect of police, authorized the removal of the sacrament from the Jesuit chapel in the Rue de Devres to the church of St. Sulpice. A large crowd having assembled, including several senators and deputies of the Right, the commissary of police ordered that the sacrament only be removed to the small chapel in the same house. The Legitimist section of the Right, Chamber of Deputies, decided to interpellate the government concerning the application of decrees.

In the House of Commons the Marquis of Hartington stated that the question of the renewal of relations with Burmah, is now under consideration by the Indian Government. A renewal, he said, depends upon obtaining guarantees for the safety of the mission.

The House is crowded in anticipation of the debate in the Bradlaugh case. Bradlaugh is seated under the gallery.

John E. Gorst, Conservative member for Chatham, raised a point that Gladstone's motion relative to Bradlaugh, was out of order, as it referred to a point which had already been decided this session. He maintained that Sir Stafford Northcote had hitherto endeavored to prevent the House from breaking the law and prevent Bradlaugh from being smuggled into the House.

There were cries of "order" in consequence of Gorst applying the epithet disorderly, to Gladstone's motion.

Gladstone said the legislation was not opportune. The course now pursued was intended to preserve the dignity of the House. He added that he was not aware a duly elected member should be questioned as to his belief.

Gladstone's speech was good tempered.

The Abercorn competition, open to all comers for a prize of the value of £35, for the selection of the Irish eight to compete at Wimbledon, opened to-day and will continue two days. Fifteen shots will be fired each day at 800, 900 and 1,000 yards' range. Thirty entered, including a number of the Irish and American teams. The result of the shooting at 800 yards was as follows: Jackson 75, Laird 74, Scott 82, Brown 72, Fenton 72, Farrow 71, Milner 71, Wm. Rigby 70, John Rigby 69, Fisher 65, Rockwell 63 and Hyde 34. Johnson made 73 at 900 yards; Jackson 77, Laird 73, Joynt 72, Scott 80, Brown 61, Fenton 72, Farrow 68, Milner 74, Wm. Rigby 70, Fisher 59, Rockwell 74, Hyde 63, and Johnson 71.

At 1,000 yards, 20 shots each were allowed. Jackson headed the score with 96, Laird 83, Joynt 83, Scott 94, Brown 94, Fenton 90, Farrow 93, Milner 80, Wm. Rigby 92, John Rigby 86, Fisher 89, Rockwell 86, Hyde 85, Johnson 87, Young 93, Murphy 82, Warren 90, Coghlan 91, Thynoe 81 and McKenna 83. The following made the best aggregates: Joynt 239, Jackson 238, Scott 236, Fenton 234, Farrow 232, Laird 230, Johnson 231, John Rigby 228, Wm. Rigby 228, Young 228, Brown 226, Coghlan 226, Milner 239 and Fisher 223.

Panama dispatches of the 22d ult. state that Arica was attacked by a Chilian force of 6,000 strong about the 4th or 5th inst. Before the fight began the Chilian commander summoned the Peruvian garrison to surrender. He received for reply, "We will resist until our last cartridge is exhausted." The demand was renewed on the following day, with the observation that Gen. Baquedano, indifferent to the energetic defense of the city, and with a desire to avoid the useless shedding of blood, begged the Peruvian officers to accept conditions. The reply was the same as before. On the 8th all communication between Arica and other points in Peru were cut off, and it was believed in Lima that Arica had fallen. Kango Capac, it was understood, would be blown up before allowing it to fall into the hands of the enemy. The attack on Arica was made from both land and sea.

The Envoy of Morocco to Spain has annexed to the protocol of the Morocco Conference a letter from the Sultan, commanding him to denounce and punish all natives, officers, judges and other authorities, who may have refused justice and protection to Hebrews. The Sultan severely blames, and intends to chastise all who are guilty of outrages against non-Mohammedans. He says he wishes all subjects to be equal before the tribunals.

Subscriptions to the Cuban loan were opened to-day in Madrid and Barcelona, and have been so liberal that the loan is already twice covered.

The French religious orders affected by the anti-Jesuite decrees have telegraphed the Vatican their intention to submit to the law. This probably means orders not yet expelled. The Pope has decided to accept the Prussian Church law. He intends at the next consistory to nominate bishops to fill the vacant seats.

The volunteer Russian cruiser, Russia, which sailed from Cronstadt for the Vladivostock, took four generals, seventy-one officers and a number of engineers and artillerymen.

The direct damage caused by the Lachine, Canada, canal accident is about $50,000. The indirect damage is likely to exceed $1,000,000.
