STAKE CONFERENCES.

Members of the First Presidency and Council of the Apostles are expected to be in attendance at the next ensuing Stake Quarterly Conferences, as follows:

Sanpete, Saturday and Sunday, February 15th and 16th—Elders Francis M. Lyman and John W. Taylor.

San Luis, Sunday and Monday, February 16th and 17th—Elders John Henry Smith and Heber J. Grant.

Morgan, Sunday and Monday, February 16th and 17th—Presidents Geo. Q. Cannon and Joseph F. Smith.

O'MEARA ASSAULTED.

Archie McKay, Mayor's Clerk, Vigorously Attacks the Councilman From the Fifth.

There was a lively sequel to the NEWS interview with Councilman O'Meara, in the joint building last evening. Archie McKay, Mayor Glendinning's clerk, felt that he had a personal grievance against the councilman on account of some of the statements he made with reference to the McKay family, and invited him into the corridor outside of the committee rooms, where several of the city fathers were discussing municipal affairs.

Archie inquired of Mr. O'Meara as to whether he had been correctly quoted in his interview with this paper.

"Yes, sir; I was correctly quoted" was the prompt response.

"Well, I want you to retract," said Archie, supplemented by the query, "Will you do it?"

"No, sir; I will not," rejoined Mr. O'Meara.

Word parleying ceased and like a flash the strong arm of the Mayor's amanuensis shot out from the shoulder, striking the councilman in the face. Other blows were also showered upon him. The latter retreated towards the commissioner's rooms, Archie following closely behind until intercepted by other councilmen. In his effort to seek peace and quiet Mr. O'Meara came face to face with the irate father of the aggressive young man by whom he had just been assaulted. Then there was another scene. But friends of both sides began peace negotiations and finally they succeeded in their efforts, after which the consideration of committee business was again proceeded with.

DR. A. C. YOUNG NAMED.

Prison Commissioners Appoint Him Penitentiary Physician to Succeed Dr. Witcher.

Dr. A. C. Young, at a late hour yesterday afternoon was appointed penitentiary physician to succeed Dr. Witcher, at a salary of $50 per month. He is also allowed $25 per month for medicines and under the rules of the board must visit the penitentiary at least once each alternate day.

The appointee is well and favorably known in this city, where he was born in 1859 and where he was raised. He is a son of the late President Young and a graduate of the Dartmouth college medical school. He also took a post graduate course in a leading New York institution and is in all respects equipped to successfully discharge the duties of his new trust.

Funeral Services.

The funeral services over the remains of the late Bertrand L. Chamberlain were held at the family residence yesterday afternoon, under the direction of Elder D. R. Gill. The house was overcrowded with sympathizing friends. Consoling remarks were made by Elder Baily, Mr. Hallock and Elders Joseph B. Forbes and Willard Done, the last three being former teachers of the deceased. The young man was sixteen years of age and exceptionally bright and promising.

NEWS OF THE STATE.

Ephraim Enterprise, Feb. 13: Just as we go to press a dispatch from Fairview brings the intelligence that N. L. Larson, formerly a resident of this city, had been killed this morning while unloading logs.

The Sanpete Stake conference will be held on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 15 and 16.

Manti Sentinel, Feb. 12: While hauling grain to the depot yesterday, James Tooth had the misfortune to be seriously injured. Some of the sacks slipped and he fell on the double tree, when one of the horses kicked him in the head.

From East Tennessee.

Elder J. R. Halliday returned on the 7th of this month from a two years' mission to East Tennessee. Elder Halliday has been laboring in the field during his whole stay with the exception of one month, when he was in the office at Chattanooga, and for the last eight months presided over the conference. Brother Halliday has none but words of praise for the people of East Tennessee, and reports that their kindness was beyond all expectation. The conference is in a flourishing condition and it is expected that during this year there will be more baptisms than ever before. The better classes of the people are being labored with by the Elders, and they are taking great interest in the work.

Elder Halliday's home is at Pleasant Grove and the illness of his mother at that place brought his release a little sooner than would otherwise been the case.

Emery Stake Conference.

The quarterly conference of the Emery Stake convened February 9th and 10th, 1896, in the new meeting house at Huntington, which through the tireless labors of the good people of Huntington had been partially finished for the occasion. As usual the local priesthood was well represented, and to the great pleasure of all the Saints, Elders Brigham Young and John W. Taylor were in attendance. After the usual opening exercises at 10 a.m. Elder B. Young made a few opening remarks explaining that in order to gain the most possible good from this conference all should offer up a silent prayer for what they wish to receive. He gave the keynote to most of the instructions given throughout the conference: "Latter-day Saints who are living their religion are never taken unawares." Three Bishops then reported their respective wards; had had much sickness during the last quarter; ward organizations complete, meetings well attended and an increase in the payment of tithes. Elder J. W. Taylor explained that the object of our meeting in conference was to increase the power of the Holy Ghost in our hearts. Referred to the text of the former speakers and proved from the Scriptures that Noah, Joseph in Egypt, Daniel and all the prophets were warned, through the power of the Holy Ghost of the great events that should come upon the world long before they happened. This gift comes direct from God.

2 p. m.—Elder B. Young said we are here to gain individual strength; speaking of education he said he would rather his children were taught the Gospel than all the learning of the world without it; showed the fallacy of letting children grow up to manhood thinking they would then choose the kind of life they would lead; character is almost established at the age of twenty; teachers teach what they are, hence the necessity of having strictly moral teachers; all young men should learn a trade.

10 a. m., Monday—Prim, Orangeville and Castle Dale ward reports were given, showing the saints to be in a fairly prosperous condition. Elder J. W. Taylor then spoke on the fulfillment of prophecies made in our day; contrasted the treatment of the Latter-day Saints today by the world, with that given them before the dedication of the Salt Lake Temple. Zion is beginning to prevail. Elder B. Young testified that the hearts of the people in the world were being softened towards the Latter-day Saints; did not fear trouble from without, but dreaded family and neighbors' differences; however, when difficulties do arise, no one should surrender his individuality and make it necessary for teachers, bishops, high councils, etc., to settle said difficulties; the parties directly concerned can always make better reconciliation between themselves; if we think our leaders are in error, pray for them instead of finding fault. Elder C. G. Larsen expressed great pleasure in seeing so many out to the meetings, and also for the visit of the visiting Apostles; exhorted all to settle their own difficulties.

2 p.m.—Elder Orange Seely, Patriarch Alex. Jameson and Elder Larsen all spoke words of comfort and good cheer, advising the saints to carry out in their lives the good instructions of the conference.

The singing of the juvenile choir at the first meeting and the Huntington ward choir during the balance of the conference, both led by Prof. Thomas Hardee, was the praise of all present. The Huntington brass band rendered sweet music both before and after each meeting. The weather was spring like and the large meeting house was filled to overflowing. Altogether it was the most enjoyable conference ever held in Emery Stake.

A. E. WALL, Clerk.

Labors in Virginia.

To the Editor:

Over fifteen months ago I left my dear friends and home in Utah to bear my testimony of the restoration of the Gospel in this part of the world. After arriving at Chattanooga, Tenn., my lot cast me in the Virginia conference, where I was assigned to labor with Elder James Allred on what is known as the "Northern Neck," in the county of Lancaster. Here we labored for two months with no apparent success than allaying some of the prejudice and making a few friends. We sowed the seed and delivered the message intrusted to our care; but not much interest was taken by the people, for we were not able to secure places to hold meetings except in one instance. All of our warning was therefore done at private houses and wherever we met those who would listen, expounding the scriptures to them. After finishing a house-to-house canvass of Lancaster, we were called to labor in Amelia county, where a better spirit was manifested and many friends were won, but no harvest as yet. Here we labored together a little over two months, when we were separated and Elder John Carlisle and I were called to labor in Prince Edward county. But his labors were cut short on account of illness and he returned home laboring only about three weeks, after which Elder N. W. Kimball Jr. and myself took up the labor where Elder Carlisle and I had left off and finished the county, finding some friendly and many not disposed to be, for they close their eye and ear to the truth. We met the ex-governor of the state of Virginia, Mr. McKinney, with whom we had a talk of about two hours' duration at his home. We found him to be a very nice, broad-minded and liberal man. Elder Kimball and I labored together in Prince Edward county and Rockbridge county until conference. In the latter we visited the Saints and friends and held several meetings all of which were well attended. We performed the ordinance of baptism for five souls, blessed three children.

Conference over, Elder Alex Adams and I were assigned to labor together and revisit amongst friends in the counties of King George, Richmond, Northumberland and Lancaster, casting our lot on the "Northern Neck" again—a poor place for a Mormon Elder, as we found out. The object in revisiting was to feel of the integrity of friends and investigators, to hold meetings or make extra efforts to that effect. But we were unable to secure places to preach at and sometimes were unable to get a place to lay our heads. Whether it was on account of our lack of tact and skill, or because there was no opportunity, am unable to say, but such it was. But while we were unsuccessful in holding meetings we distributed several copies of the Voice of Warning, and did some good, for we have caused some to become earnest investigators for truth. While we were unsuccessful in the accomplishment of the object of revisiting canvassed and closed counties, we were elated to hear that others were successful and that many were added to the cause, the result being a Sunday school and branch organized in one county and they are preparing to build a meeting house. The Elders have donated to assist in the cause. In four other counties additions to our numbers have been made and the prospects for more are very promising; and the prophecy of Elder Kimball at our last conference, that we would be able to hold ten meetings this year to one last, is being literally fulfilled by the energy and zeal of the Elders of the conference.

Having finished our labors on the "neck" were assigned to labor in Nansemond county, where we labored for one and one-half months, making warm friends and causing some to earnestly investigate, when we were called by our president, M. Thomas, to labor in the city of Manchester and leave the partly canvassed county of Nansemond to other Elders who entered soon after we left.

Since we came to Manchester Utah has received the boon of statehood. May her people ever honor the title and ever be an example unto others! May unfaithful and dishonest officials never disgrace her nor find their way to her seats of honor, to put a blot on her fair name and history! This long-looked-for blessing makes our bosoms swell with gladness. It has changed the feeling of the people towards us, making it more favorable. We have held several meetings in this city and have received excellent treatment; were granted the privilege of preaching in the Leader hall (used for theatrical performances, etc.) yesterday. We heard it rumored that two other meetings were appointed at the same hour to draw the people away from hearing us; but nevertheless we had an audience of about 200 souls to whom we explained the first principles of the Gospel and the means of becoming a member of the Church of Christ. After the services were over several invitations to call on the people were given us, and several compliments were paid us, for which we thanked them. We had a splendid time and a time of rejoicing; the Spirit of God was with us and we spoke by the same. Many books and tracts were distributed and other books bargained for. The closest of attention was paid and the best of order prevailed.

Other appointments are out, and we expect a time of rejoicing for we sow in the hope that the harvest will come by and by.

Manchester is situated just across the James river from Richmond, the capital of the state, and is composed principally of poor working people, who live in rented houses. But Christ says: "The poor hath the Gospel preached to them," while Paul says, "The word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it." So faith and obedience are necessary as well as hearing.

Your valuable paper is ever welcome, longed for and much prized by friends and Saints. Hoping we may continue to find its comforting pages with our other mail, I am your brother in the Gospel,

Any tendency to premature baldness may be promptly checked by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. Don't delay till the scalp is bare and the hair-roots destroyed. If you would realize the best results, begin at once with this invaluable preparation.

A young man in Lowell, Mass., troubled for years with a constant succession of boils on his neck, was completely cured by taking only three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Another result of the treatment was greatly improved digestion with increased avoirdupois.

To make the hair grow a natural color, prevent baldness, and keep the scalp healthy, Hall's Hair Renewer was invented and has proved itself successful.

A Recommendation from Los Angeles

682 Castelar St., LOS ANGELES, Cal.—After having suffered for a long time from acute rheumatism without obtaining relief, I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was almost immediately relieved. I highly recommend this as the best medicine known. D. M. HAMILTON. For sale by druggists.

In a recent editorial the Salem, Oregon Independent says: "Time and again have we seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy tried and never without the most satisfactory results. Whenever we see a person afflicted with hoarseness, with a cough or cold, we invariably advise them to get Chamberlain's Cough Remedy; and when they do, they never regret it. It always does the work, and does it well." For sale by druggists.

The exposure to all sorts and conditions of weather that a lumberman is called upon to endure in the camps often produces severe colds which, if not promptly checked, result in congestion or pneumonia. Mr. J. O. Davenport, ex-manager of the Fort Bragg Redwood Co., an immense institution at Fort Bragg, Cal., says they sell large quantities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy at the company's store and that he has himself used this remedy for a severe cold and obtained immediate relief. This medicine prevents any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia and insures a prompt recovery. For sale by druggists.

Important Facts.

If you have dull and heavy pains across forehead and about the eyes; if the nostrils are frequently stopped up and followed by a disagreeable discharge; if soreness in the nose and bleeding from the nostrils is often experienced; if you are very sensitive to cold in the head accompanied with headache; then you may be sure you have catarrh; and should (immediately) resort to Ely's Cream Balm for a cure. The remedy will give instant relief.

ANOTHER RAMBLER DAY.

The Rambler boys made a great showing in the Ogden races. The first event of the day was the ten mile road race, in which McConahay finished third, taking third prize and third time prize. Then came the track race, Joe Beck taking second in the novice, Fowler first, Weller second, and Thatcher third in the mile scratch, class B, all "Rambler" you will note. In the half mile class A, May took second, Corten third. Half mile, class B, Thatcher second, Fowler third. Five mile, class B, Fowler second. In this race a man in a yellow suit cut his head and fell. Connibear and Weller being immediately behind him, the result was a spill for these parties and the race left to Evans. The five mile, class A, was another Rambler event, May taking first, Joe Beck second and McConahay third. Fourteen prizes in one day is glory enough for any one.

People may laugh and people may cry,
And dogs may howl if they please,
But Rambler's win races wherever they go,
