EVENING NEWS.

Saturday, - - December 14, 1878.

ANOTHER LADIES' MASS MEETING.

MOUNT PLEASANT, Sanpete Co., Utah, Dec. 16, '78.

Editors Deseret News:

A mass meeting was held in the meeting house, by the ladies of this place on the 9th inst., which was numerously attended.

Mrs. M. F. C. Morrison was elected President, and stated the object of the meeting to be, to protest against the anti-polygamy crusade, and the petition of the anti-polygamists of Salt Lake City sent all over the nation for signatures, asking Congress to put down polygamy. Said no doubt some of those ladies were honest in their convictions, thinking that in trying to put down polygamy they were doing God service and ridding Utah of a great evil. Felt to pity and pray for them, for they are like the blind leading the blind. She knew God had revealed the principle of Celestial Marriage for the exaltation of all those who would receive and carry out the same in the spirit of the gospel; had lived in it for 20 years, and would not live out of it for anything. What had our Christian friends to offer us in exchange for this holy heaven-born principle, unless it is the hundred and one social evils which exist among them, but were not known among us until they brought them. God is at the helm of the good ship Zion, and he will guide her safely through every storm of persecution into a haven of rest.

Many of the sisters spoke their sentiments in relation to celestial marriage, testifying they knew it to be from God.

The preamble and resolutions adopted by the sisters of Salt Lake City were read and unanimously adopted.

Respectfully, E. CLIFF.

A Clerical Nimrod.

It was the last evening in camp. I picked up my rifle and walked down toward the river. As I reached a high point I looked down the ravine and saw a monster bear quietly browsing on the growing clover. I crawled down as noiselessly as possible on my hands and knees; got within about 100 yards of him, and interrupted his evening repast by putting a ball behind his fore-shoulder. He was a ponderous fellow, and he raised his head and looked at his side and began turning round and round, as though he didn't know what in the world was the matter with him. Finally he lifted his head and saw me. There was a steep, rocky gulch of 40 or 50 feet between us. He could not cross opposite, but about a hundred yards below there was a break in the gorge, with old logs fallen across, down which led the bear trail. I saw in a moment he was making for that. To run was impossible, the brush was so thick behind me. There was nothing but my nerve and my rifle to depend on, so I walked to the edge of the gulch and put another bullet full in his side. At this he howled and bellowed with rage. I flung in another cartridge, and planted the third ball near his shoulder. At this he stopped, and roaring fearfully, tore up the ground in his rage, sat down on his great haunches, took up his hind feet with his fore paws, and with his tusks tore it and gashed it like a knife. He had reached the edge of the gulch, and was clambering the last ledge of rock to descend. As he straightened up his neck I aimed full at it, and gave him my fourth round. In a moment he loosened his clutch, and came tumbling like a young avalanche to the bottom of the gulch, bellowing seemingly in the agonies of death. I thought I had broken his neck, and after a while walked down near him, but when within eight or ten feet, to my utter consternation, I saw him rise to his feet, and I think Providence guided the bullet that went crashing through his brain, and he dropped dead at my very feet. He was a giant of the forest in size, over eight feet in length, of the big brown species, as large and ferocious as the grizzlies. He would weigh about eight hundred pounds. His hind feet were ten inches in length by five in width. To our astonishment, when we skinned him we found none of the balls had gone an inch beneath the thick skin. The one in the neck had only paralyzed the nerves. Of course it was a trophy, but I do not believe I care about being present when there's another scrape like that a bruin, where your bullets flatten out like wafers, for it certainly was a bear escape from a fate similar to that of the hoodlums in Elijah's day, who cried, "Go up, thou bald head."—Rev. W. J. Smith's California letter in Presbyterian Banner.

Exposure of Children to Cold.

We should say that no child, too young to walk or run, should be taken out when the external temperature is below fifty degrees; that the rooms in which they live and sleep should never be below fifty-eight degrees; and the day room should be three or four degrees warmer. The practice of wheeling children about in perambulators, sitting or reclining in one position without exercise, is particularly harmful. We would earnestly appeal to mothers to put aside all feelings of vanity, or what is sometimes miscalled natural pride, and cover the arms, neck, and legs of their children as a simple, sanitary precaution. High frocks, long sleeves and warm stockings should be worn out of doors; hats which cover the head; and boots which keep the feet as dry and warm as possible. On coming in from our streets, nearly always damp, both boots and stockings should be changed; and, if the feet be cold, a warm foot bath should be used for a few minutes. The exquisite pain of chilblains could be saved to many children by this use of hot water for hands and feet. We see that flannel has yielded to merino, chiefly on account of the greater convenience of ready-made underclothing; but there is nothing equal to flannel in the property of preserving warmth.—British Medical Journal.

AN ORDINANCE IN RELATION TO SIGNS AND AWNINGS.

SECTION 1.—Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City: That no Awnings shall be constructed on or over any of the sidewalks within the limits of this city except as hereinafter provided: All canvas awnings shall be affixed to, and suspended from the buildings, and where the sidewalks are not less than twenty feet wide they shall not project over the sidewalk to exceed ten feet, no part of which shall be less than eight feet above the grade of the same. And where the sidewalks are less than twenty feet in width said awnings shall not project from the building to which they are suspended more than eight feet, and no part thereof shall be less than eight feet above the grade of the sidewalk.

SECTION 2.—All permanent awnings shall be constructed the entire width of the sidewalk, the outside line of the posts or supports of said awnings on sidewalks of twenty feet in width shall be uniformly nineteen feet from the line of the lots, and where the sidewalks are less than twenty feet in width, said posts or supports shall be uniformly within six inches of, and on a line with, the outer edge of the sidewalk. All such posts or supports shall be placed on substantial stone footings. The deck or roof of said awnings shall be water-tight, and within the fire limits shall be covered with metal or other incombustible material, no part of which on sidewalks twenty feet wide shall be less than twelve feet above the grade, and on sidewalks less than twenty feet wide, not less than ten feet above the grade. The whole to be thoroughly braced and constructed in a safe and substantial manner, to the acceptance of the Inspector of buildings.

SECTION 3.—All persons, before erecting permanent awnings within the fire limits shall submit plans and specifications, including the kinds of material to be used, to the inspector of buildings, for his approval.

SECTION 4.—No sign or sign post of any design or description shall hereafter be erected on any sidewalk or project over, across or along the outer edge of any sidewalk, or across any water ditch, or on or over any street; and no sign shall project from any building to which it is attached more than twelve inches.

SEC. 5.—All awnings and all signposts or sign boards, of any design or description, now standing on the sidewalks, projecting over or across the sidewalks or water ditches, or on the streets outside the water ditches, within this city, except such awnings as have been permanently constructed according to law or by permission of the City Council, or which are in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance, are hereby declared obstructions, and shall be removed within one month from the publication of this ordinance.

SEC. 6.—Any person violating or failing to comply with any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be liable to a fine of not to exceed ninety-nine dollars, or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days, or both. Any person failing to remove any of the obstructions named in this ordinance within the time specified therein, shall be liable to a further fine of five dollars for each and every day that such obstruction so remains.

SEC. 7.—An ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance Relating to Signs and Awnings," passed May 21st, 1878, and all other ordinances and parts of ordinances in conflict with this ordinance, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Passed December 13th, 1878.

CULTIVATE YOUR HAIR.—For by no other means can it be saved and beautified.

LYON'S KATHAIRON,

Discovered thirty-five years ago by Prof. Lyon, of Yale, is the most perfect preparation in the world for preserving and beautifying the hair.

Besides being the best hair dressing ever produced, Lyon's Kathairon will positively prevent grayness, and will restore new hair to bald heads, if the roots and follicles are not destroyed.

It actually performs those seeming miracles, of which the following is

A FAIR SPECIMEN

I had been entirely bald for several years, constitutional, I suppose. I used a few bottles of Kathairon, and, to my great surprise, I have a thick growth of young hair.

COL. JOHN L. DORRANCE, U. S. A.

In every important respect the Kathairon is absolutely incomparable. It is unequaled.

1. To Cure Baldness.
2. To Restore Gray Hair.
3. To Remove Dandruff.
4. To Dress and Beautify the Hair.

BEAR IN MIND.—The Kathairon is no sticky paste of sulphur and sugar-of-lead, to paint and damb the hair and paralyze the brain. It is a pure and limpid vegetable lotion, intended to restore the hair by natural growth and reinvigoration. It is splendidly perfumed, and the most delightful toilet dressing known. No lady's or gentleman's toilet outfit is complete without Lyon's Kathairon.

SOLD EVERYWHERE.
