"Kid" White, a Cowboy, Killed by his Horse Falling on Him.

UTAH CATTLE SHIPPED TO OMAHA.

An Unknown Man Mangled Beneath the Wheels of an Excursion Train.

An old joke, but one that affords more or less amusement to the perpetrators, was practiced upon a new messenger boy last night. He was given a loaf as large as he could carry and told to take it to Dell Dick's. He was informed that the mysterious package was intended for some one down the street, and thus was the youth kept going from pillar to post until he was tired out. It was a severe lesson but may be useful to him in the future.—Helena Journal.

The Trans-Missouri association has made a round trip rate of $41.50 from the Missouri river to Utah common points. Commissioner Flynn, of the Colorado and Utah association, said yesterday that the rate between Denver and Utah common points, where there are 100 people, would be $25, and when the minimum was 200 the rate would be $23.—Denver News.

The freight train going east, that passes in the afternoon, carried several cars of fat cattle from Utah, consigned to Omaha. They were a nice lot. When they reached Evanston two cars had to be partially unloaded to release several of them that were down. They were not seriously hurt but had been trampled for some distance.—Evanston Register.

A horse driven by Mrs. M. A. Smith took fright at a switch engine Tuesday afternoon and shied. Mrs. Smith was thrown violently to the ground and was picked up in an unconscious condition. Tuesday evening her physician stated that she was badly bruised but that the extent of her injuries would not be known for twenty-four hours. The buggy in which she was riding was a complete wreck, but the horse was caught by W. S. Benningholf before he could break loose from the tangle.—Anaconda Star.

Yesterday Brown Parker rode in from his ranch on Powder river, seventy miles distant, to obtain a coffin in which to bury "Kid" White, a cowboy in his employ, who was killed the day before by his horse falling on him. White was well known in the cattlemen of this section, and a daring rider.—Buffalo Echo.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spence have gone to Wellsville, Utah, taking with them the motherless child of Peter MacMahon, to whom they are very attentive and kind. Mr. MacMahon is much pleased at his child being with such kind hearted people and desires to express his appreciation of their solicitude for its welfare.—Idaho Enterprise.

Roy Durell, a trackman, was thrown from a freight train on Monday at the second bridge east of Green River on the curve and had his skull crushed. He was twisting the brake when something gave way and he fell. His injuries are liable to result fatally. —Evanston Register.

It is reported from Green River that the Union Pacific officials have discovered a mare's coal and the discharge of several employes is likely to follow. It appears that a large amount of freight has been disappearing from cars and a detective and deputy sheriff located some of the stolen property in possession of some of the employes of the company. Several arrests will be made soon.—Evanston News.

A cow buffalo, which has been running on the range with Ab Lemon's cattle for about a year was yesterday morning shipped by express in a wooden cage to California. The animal was taken and brought to town with some cattle and driven into a corral at No. 6 mine, where most of our citizens went out to see her. She was a fair specimen of the native buffalo and in good condition, weighing about 1200 pounds. Geo. Thompson, of the Golden State, bought the animal from Wm. Gutman, paying $400 for her. She was caught a yearling along with two others which, however, died shortly after their capture.—Coal Springs Miner.

As the train bearing the Amazon guards excursionists was returning homeward early Tuesday morning a stranger was run over by the cars. Both of the unfortunate man's arms and legs were completely severed from his body. This shocking accident occurred near New Castle. He was picked up in a perfectly conscious condition and upon being asked his name he replied "What is it to you? Find a place to lay me down and let me die." He was taken to Glenwood Springs. The latest news as to his condition was received in this city at 4 p. m. yesterday. At that time he was barely alive. No further particulars could be learned.—Anaconda Star.

A curious discovery has been made on Cedros island, Mexico, in the form of a bed of white sand, extending along the top of the mountain. It is believed to be the remains of an ancient quartz ledge, pulverized by intense heat, and it is said to be so fine as though it had been run through a battery of stamps. It varies from three to eight feet in thickness and is asserted to be rich in gold.—Ex.

A few months ago there were fourteen persons in Carroll, Mo., who lived on friendly terms. Then an unknown relative in California died and left $30,000 to be divided between them. Now there are fourteen persons in Carroll who do not speak, and there are five lawyers who are investing in real estate.—Denver News.
