EVENING NEWS.

Tuesday, Dec. 18, 1883.

PANGUITCH STAKE CONFERENCE.

Convened in Panguitch Dec. 1st and 2nd, 1883, in the First Ward Schoolhouse, and was well attended.

We were favored with the presence of Apostle F. M. Lyman, President John R. Murdock, of Beaver, and Daniel Thompson, of Millard.

Every Ward in the Stake except Escalante, was represented. Reports were tendered showing an excellent state of feeling among the people, with an earnest desire to serve God.

We were edified by addresses from Apostle F. M. Lyman, Counselor David Cameron, David Thompson, John R. Murdock, and President J. W. Crosby.

Reports were rendered by James Houston, Stake President of the Y. M. M. I., and R. G. Clark, Stake Superintendent of Sabbath Schools.

The Priesthood and general and local authorities of the Church were voted upon and unanimously accepted.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered.

There was a Priesthood meeting on Saturday evening, at which much good and wise instructions were given by Apostle F. M. Lyman The light of truth was abundantly manifest. Altogether we had a time of rejoicing, long to be remembered by all who attended.

RILEY G. CLARK,
Stake Clerk.

KANAB STAKE CONFERENCE

The Quarterly Conference of the Kanab Stake of Zion was held at Orderville, Dec. 8th and 9th, Elder John Rider, first member of the High Council, presiding. We were favored with the presence of Apostle F. M. Lyman, Elder Daniel Thompson, of Millard Stake and President Jesse W. Crosby, of Panguitch. All Wards excepting Pahreah were represented, and the reports of the spiritual and temporal condition of the people were good, showing an increase of faith and diligence among the people.

The following brethren addressed the Conference: Apostle F. M. Lyman, Elder Daniel Thompson, President Jesse W. Crosby, John Rider, Elders L. K. Judd, jr., and W. H. Clayton, returned missionaries, Bishops W. D. Johnson, jr., H. B. M. Jolly, Thos. Chamberlain and R. J. Cutler and also Elders Richard Robinson, C. S. Cram and Isaiah Bowers. The subjects mostly dwelt upon were the Word of Wisdom the duties of Presidents, Bishops, Officers and members; of parents towards children, and children towards parents, etc. The speakers were blessed with much of the Holy Spirit, and spoke with great power such things as were appropriate to the occasion. The people felt very thankful and blessed by the presence of Elder Lyman and the brethren that were with him.

The General and Local Authorities were sustained by unanimous vote of the Conference.

Besides the regular Conference meetings a Conference of the Y. M. and Y. L. M. I. Associations was held on Friday evening, December 7th, and the reports showed the Associations throughout the Stake to be in a thriving condition A Priesthood meeting was held on Saturday evening, Dec. 8th, when there were present 109 High Priests, Seventies and Elders, of which 108 expressed a determination to keep the word of wisdom, and observe the laws of the Lord.

The Sunday School Conference met on Sunday morning, December 9th, at 10 a.m, and the different classes in their exercises showed advancement and good training.

Conference adjourned to meet at Kanab, March 8th and 9th, 1884.

L. C. MARIGER,
Stake Recorder.

INDIANA CONFERENCE.

Minutes of a Conference held at Johnsonville, Warren County, Indiana, on Saturday and Sunday, December 8th and 9th, 1883.

Elders present from Utah: Wm. M. Palmer, Prest. of the North-western States Mission; John E. Booth Assistant President of the Mission; D. F. Davis, R. R. Farnsworth, E. L. Stookey, Jos. Lapish, H. H. McConnell, Jas. A. Anderson, E. F. Darfee, Thos. Butler, Mormon Miner, J. G. M. Barnes and John J. Ashley, Traveling Elders in the Indiana Conference.

Saturday, 10.30 a. m.

Singing, What was witnessed in the Heavens? Opening prayer by President John E. Booth. Singing.

President Palmer made opening remarks.

Elders Jos. Lapish, Mormon Miner and R. R. Farnsworth gave reports of their labors since last Conference, and though their fields were not the best they could wish for they had enjoyed their labors, and felt that much good had been done.

Elder D. F. Davis spoke of the blessings of God that have attended the Elders in their labors.

President Palmer spoke on the coming of Christ as being near at hand.

2.30 p. m.

Singing and prayer. Elders E. L. Stookey and D. F. Davis reported their fields of labor at some length. Each found some few who were desirous of learning the truth and left them investigating, while the great majority were either indifferent or strongly opposed to the principles of the Gospel. Difficulty was experienced in obtaining houses in which to preach, because of the great prejudice which exists among the people.

Elder Reuben Farnsworth delivered a Gospel discourse.

Elder Jos. Lapish spoke on the necessity of personal purity to insure the companionship of the Holy Spirit.

President Palmer said, the world has the idea we are very anxious to increase our numbers, from the fact that we send out many missionaries, but in this they are mistaken, for we want no one but the honest in heart, those who repent of their sins and come forth with a broken heart and a contrite spirit. We would receive and baptize no one if we knew he had not sincerely repented of his sins.

Saturday, 7 p. m.

After the usual opening exercises, Elder John G. M. Barnes spoke of the great blessings we, as Latter-day Saints, enjoyed.

President Wm. M. Palmer spoke of the restoration of the Gospel, and gave much scripture in proof of the same.

Prest. John E. Booth made a few remarks upon the same subject that Prest. Palmer had dwelt upon, and gave his own testimony of the truth of the Gospel.

Sunday, 9th, 10.30 a. m.

President John E. Booth did not merely believe the Gospel to be true, but knew it positively. Had proven it for himself. He then gave reasons for his positive position on the subject.

President Palmer bore testimony to the remarks of President Booth. Said he had a great many testimonies of the truth of the Gospel, and related several interesting incidents in his missionary experience.

2:30 p. m.

The sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered by Elders R. R. Farnsworth and J. G. M. Barnes. After which President Booth presented the general authorities of the Church, as they were presented at the last general conference; also, Wm. M. Palmer as President of the North Western States Mission, John E. Booth as assistant to Elder Palmer in the Presidency of the Mission; D. F. Davis as President of the Indiana Conference to succeed Elder S. R. Marks who was recently released to return home. D. F. Davis, R. R. Farnsworth, E. L. Stookey, Jos. Lapish, H. H. McConnell, Jas. A. Anderson, E. F. Darfee, Thos. Butler, Mormon Miner, J. G. M. Barnes and John J. Ashby as traveling Elders in this conference; Wm. R. Newell as Clerk of the Johnsonville Branch, and E. L. Stookey as Clerk of this conference, all of which were unanimously sustained.

President Palmer addressed the meeting, taking for his text Hosea, iv, 1: "Hear the word of the Lord, ye children of Israel: for the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land; because there is no truth, no mercy, nor the knowledge of God in the land," and delivered an able discourse.

6:30 p. m.

Elder Reuben Farnsworth was the first speaker.

President Wm. Palmer said the Spirit constrained him to speak for a short time. Defined the Kingdom of God, and what steps are necessary to be taken, to become a citizen of that kingdom. Dwelt upon the subject of Divine authority. Said if we will be content to follow Jesus instead of trying to find a new way, we will have no trouble in getting into the kingdom.

President Davis showed the necessity of new revelation in this age, and without it we cannot know the mind and will of God concerning us, and therefore would not be able to please him. In order for a man to officiate in the ordinances of the Gospel, he must be called of God as was Aaron.

Conference adjourned sine die.

ENOS L. STOOKEY,
Clerk of Conference.
