CATARRH

Catarrh of the Nasal Cavities, Acute, Chronic, or Ulcerative, Hay Fever, or Rose Catarrh, Catarrh of the Eye and Ear, and Catarrh of the Throat.

SUCCESSFULLY TREATED WITH

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE.

CATARRH is a disease of the mucous membrane. Temperaments and constitutions vary in severity in individual cases. Catarrh may arise from a cold, or a succession of colds, from sudden change of atmosphere, wearing wet clothing, or exposure to inclement weather, and becoming thoroughly chilled when the digestive organs are in a morbid or inactive condition, and the strength and vital forces exhausted. The disease may arise from a scrofulous condition of the blood, from Scarlet Fever, Measles, and Diphtheria, in which cases the eye and ear are generally involved and discharge quantities of pus. The discharge from the nose, the distinctive feature in all catarrhal cases from whatever cause they arise, may be thin and watery, and so acid as to cause redness and excoriation of the skin of the nostrils, or may be thick, or thick and yellowish, emitting a foul odor, or clear and white like the white of an egg. There may be an entire lack of secretion, the surfaces being dry and feverish, the face, front and upper part of the head feeling heavy, stupefied, and the voice restricted by a thick, unyielding band. This latter phase is called Dry Catarrh. The free mucous discharges cause the passages to swell and become thickened, rendering breathing through the nose difficult or impossible, and the sufferer finds it necessary to breathe through the mouth, thereby permitting dust and other irritants to enter the bronchial tubes and lungs. The matter passing down the throat creates a constant desire to hawk and expectorate to throw it off; but when the membranes is dry and feverish, instead of passing freely down from the nose and throat, the mucus becomes hard and forms into scales, accumulates in the air passages, which adhere so firmly to the nasal passages and throat as to require very persistent efforts to dislodge them. The eyes in severe cases become inflamed, red, weak, and watery, or in the morning the lids may be found glued together, and matter is secreted in more or less quantity. The ear also becomes seriously affected, discharging quantities of matter, besides being visited by the most violent neuralgic pains, ending frequently in inflammation, ulceration, and finally deafness. The throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs are in many cases affected by catarrh, and when prostration of the nervous system is superadded, such affections become alarming.

A brief survey of this most serious disease warns all who are afflicted with it to make speedy preparation for its treatment before it becomes chronic. The advantages offered by SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE we confidently believe are to be found in no other remedy. Every step in its preparation, every line in the directions, mark it as a scientific remedy, adapted to meet every phase of this disease. The numerous testimonials from the best people in the United States attest the esteem in which it is held by those who have been freed from the most destructive and dangerous disease with which mankind is to-day afflicted.

WESTERN.

The Australian Cricketers.

SAN FRANCISCO, 24.—The Australian eleven began their game against the California 22, to-day, at the Recreation Grounds. The Australians went to the bat first, and when the game was called, at five o'clock, had 197, with six wickets down. C. Bannerman made 78, including three sixes; Spofforth made 45. The Californians made a poor show as fielders. The Australians had matters their own way.

A British Columbia Sensation.

A Victoria, B. C., dispatch says: The Standard caused a sensation, yesterday, by asserting that Sir John McDonald, the new Canadian premier, who was elected on Monday to represent this district in parliament, is pledged to commence the railway construction before the first of May next, or advocate the separation of the province from the Dominion. The Colonist denies this assertion, and says that Sir John went in unpledged on his national reputation, and that he will never consent to the withdrawal of British Columbia from the Dominion.

Dewdney has been elected to the Ottawa parliament by acclamation. He is a supporter of the present Canadian government.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Constantinople Affairs—Repairing Earthworks—Russian Troops Returning.

LONDON, 24.—A Vienna correspondent says: That if the latest news be true, the affairs near Constantinople are more and more assuming the same semi-hostile phase as before the meeting of the Berlin Congress.

The Turkish troops have been moved into the positions vacated by the Russians, and the earthworks are being repaired and armed before Constantinople and Gallipoli.

The Turks are arranging to increase their forces, and are summoning half pay officers to active duty. A special committee for the defence of the capital has been formed at the Seraskierate.

A Berlin dispatch says: The return of the Russians towards Constantinople was only commenced after the Porte had rejected the draft demanded by Russia.

The Inundation Advancing.

A dispatch from Alexandria says: The inundation from the Damietta branch of the Nile is advancing. It now covers 120 square miles. Twenty villages have been submerged, and from 600 to 1,000 lives lost.

The Afghanistan Difficulty.

A Bombay dispatch says: The organization of Quetlah column is approaching completion. It will have six months' supplies by the 31st inst.

The Journal de St. Petersburg strongly recommended that Russia assist the Ameer of Afghanistan with officers, arms and money, to fortify the passes on which Russia's position in Asia depends. It states that the Ameer has written to Gen. Kauffman, declaring that his hope is in him alone. The Russian press unanimously endorse that indirect aid be given to the Ameer.

FRANCE.

Trial of Socialists, Etc.

PARIS, 24.—The persons on trial for connection with the socialist congress have been condemned to various penalties of fine and imprisonment for six months or more, except two women who were acquitted.

There were 4,000 persons present at the grand Masonic fete given at Trocadero to-day.

TURKEY.

Bulgarian Insurrection.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 24.—The council of ministers, at which Baker Pasha was present, has been held to consider the Bulgarian insurrectionary movement near Salonica. The Bulgarian militia from Sofia have destroyed Yenikoi, in Roumelia, and six surrounding Mussulman villages and have blockaded the roads. Samakoo forms the centre of the movement.

GERMANY.

A Remonstrance—Newspaper Confiscated.

BERLIN, 24.—It is reported that the Prussian finance minister, Hobrecht, is about to resign in consequence of differences between himself and Prince Bismarck.

A serious remonstrance has been sent to the Vatican against the attitude of the ultramontanes in the reichstag. It is reported the Pope will endeavor to induce the deputies to modify their conduct.

The Tagespost, which appeared to-day in place of the Berliner Freie Presse, has been confiscated and its further publication prohibited.
