TO CONFERENCE VISITORS.

I BELIEVE that the Citizens of this Territory could afford to pay a committee $10 per day to examine into the merit of machines offered, thus preventing the introduction of inferior articles on the market, and the consequent loss of thousands of dollars, to be repeated semi-occasionally by making a new election, and cause to sell machines. When the time comes the Beacon Knitter and New American Sewing Machine will take a front rank for simplicity of parts, durability, ease of learning, speed, &c.

You are respectfully invited to call at the Idaho Store, see them work, buy one on a journey to need no longer to operate them for lack of charge of buying one.

JOHN WM. SNELL, General Agent.

EVENING NEWS.

Monday - - April 1, 1878.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH LINE.

EASTERN.

WASHINGTON, 30.—The following scene occurred in the House yesterday, on the bill to appropriate money to pay the Bartholomew County, Indiana, Agricultural Society, for the use of its fair grounds for military purposes from September, 1863, to June, 1865:

Conger said that almost every fair ground in the north had been used for military purposes, yet he believed that this was the only society that had claimed any compensation. The grounds must have been owned by the Knights of the Golden Circle.

Luttrell said the gentleman must have belonged to that order, because he knew so much about it. Would he point out some of the members?

Conger replied that he had too much respect for Luttrell to refer to him in that connection, and besides, he did not like to hurt the feelings of some gentlemen on the other side of the house. (Laughter.)

Luttrell said he had been as loyal as the gentleman from Michigan during the war. They had both belonged to the same army, namely, the Army of State at home. The gentleman had never responded to the call of his country, yet he never let an opportunity pass to hurl anathemas at the democratic party. He (Luttrell) would compare the Morrisons, McMahons and Rices on that side of the House to the brave men on the republican side, who had not stayed at home as Conger and himself had done, (laughter) and he would take the old confederate soldiers in the House and place them beside the republican carpet baggers. (Laughter.)

Townsend (N. Y.)—You're a carpet bagger yourself. (Laughter.)

Luttrell—No, sir, I am not a carpet bagger.

Townsend—Didn't you emigrate from the south to the north?

Luttrell—I emigrated from the south to the west.

Townsend — Then you are as much a carpet bagger as any of them.

Luttrell—I find that the gentleman emigrated from Massachusetts to New York. I worked my way to California.

Townsend—I am for encouraging such men.

Luttrell said he was tired of that kind of discussion. He believed it to be the duty of the members to do the work the people sent them to do, and not to enter into political discussion.

Finally the enacting clause of the the bill was stricken out and the House adjourned.

Full Supply of Silver Bullion.

NEW YORK, 30.—The Herald's Washington special states that Sherman says he has made all arrangements necessary for a full supply of what silver bullion he may need in carrying out the provisions of the silver bill, and that he has also secured the lowest going rates without being obliged to have recourse to the Pacific slope. He also says he takes special pleasure in having been able to do this, because the owners of silver in Nevada, immediately on the passage of the silver bill, put up the price of bullion higher than they were willing previously to sell it for shipment to Asia, even with the freight excluded from the full cost.

Still Submerged.

The Tribune says: The sectional dock which gave way on Thursday while attempting to raise the Pacific mail steamer Crescent City for repairs, was still submerged yesterday, and workmen were employed endeavoring to pump the water from the sections. It is asserted that the accident was caused through carelessness on the part of those who had charge of placing the shores under the vessel. The Crescent City was floated out early yesterday morning and towed to another pier. She will go into the large dry dock at the foot of Pike Street to-day. Clyde said yesterday that the steamer had not sustained any damage.

The Presidential Term of Office.

CHICAGO, 30.—The Times' Washington special says: The House committee on the electoral count has agreed to report in favor of a constitutional amendment fixing the tenure of the Presidential office at six years and declaring the President ineligible for re-election. The committee also voted upon the proposition to abolish the electoral college and substitute for it the pro rating of the popular vote, based upon the number of Senators and Representatives, with a view to secure majority legislation. The proposition failed by a tie vote, but it is thought an absent member of the committee would favor this proposition. The general features of the report agreed on constitute what is known as the Buckalew plan, originated by Representative Buckalew of Pennsylvania.

Murderer Sentenced.

WAUKEGAN, Ills., 30.—The jury, to-day, found Peter Davidson guilty of the murder of John Robertson, highway commissioner, and fixed the punishment at 14 years in the penitentiary. The affair grew out of a dispute as to the line of a public road, which Robertson was changing so as to stretch on Davidson's land.

A Fatal Religious Quarrel.

LOUISVILLE, 30.—A special from Versailles says: "A religious quarrel took place four miles from here, to-day, between Will Seay and Simon Boswell, which resulted in Seay's killing Boswell with a club. Seay has fled and has not yet been captured.

$30,000 Fire.

MEMPHIS, 30.—Walker Bros. & Co's wholesale dry goods establishment was damaged by fire, and water to-night, about $50,000; insured.

Bank Robbery.

PUEBLO, Col., 30.—The bank of South Pueblo was entered, last night, by masked robbers, and the cashier was gagged and obliged to open the safe. They took $5,000. No clue to the thieves.

A Dull Season.

LOWELL, 30.—The printing machines of the Lowell Print Works were stopped to-night, throwing 300 persons out of employment, and the entire establishment, next week, will shut down for a month, owing to the large supply of goods on hand and the dull market.

$37,000 Fire.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., 30.—Section No. 5 of the Wason Car Company's buildings was burned; loss $37,000, of which the Connecticut Valley Chromo Lithograph Company lose $30,000; insured $34,000.

WESTERN.

Chinaman's Shallow Subterfuge Revealed.

SAN FRANCISCO, 30.—Regarding Secretary Sherman's statement that the silver owners of the Pacific Coast have made a corner in that commodity and put up the price of bullion to a figure higher than that at which they were previously willing to sell for shipment to Asia, even with the freight excluded, the Nevada bank authorities say such is not the proper statement of the case. They hold they are as a matter of business entitled to whatever profit would fall to them by their nearness to the market. In offering silver for coinage at the San Francisco mint, they estimate what it will cost government to buy silver in London and land it here and regulate their prices accordingly.

The subscriptions to the United States four per cent. loan at the office of the sub-treasurer in San Francisco, during the past month, aggregated only $21,250.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Peace or War Question.

LONDON, 30. — All the Vienna correspondents of the London journals concur in the statement that General Ignatieff's mission has failed.

The Times' Vienna correspondent doubts whether General Ignatieff has power, and will so alter his map of Bulgaria as to suit the views there, but should some kind of an agreement be come to about the map, there will still be a good deal to be said as to the organization of the principalities by Russia and its occupation by 50,000 men for two years. The desire for an understanding may be sincere, but the views are so widely divergent that it may be doubted whether this will be easy of accomplishment.

It is learned, on fair authority, that from the positions near the Bosphorus nothing can prevent the Russians from marching to the coast, and seizing a fort commanding the entrance to the Black Sea.

It is stated that the Russian quartermaster's department in Roumania has been ordered to engage 10,000 carts.

The Russians have forbidden the export of cereals from the lower Danube.

The Journal de St. Petersburg says: "The balance in the Mediterranean is only threatened by the presence of the British fleet in the Sea of Marmora and England's possession of Gibraltar and Malta." The article continues: "The calling out of the reserve, notwithstanding the statement that it does not imply war, is another step in the path of provocation. Russia has fulfilled all her promises. She did not insert in the treaty of San Stefano a single stipulation clashing with the interests of others or injuriously affecting them by its reservation. Russia is conscious of having neglected nothing which could secure to the east an era of prosperity and to Europe long years of peace. She will deeply deplore the abberations which may counteract her pacific work, but at the same time she will await, arms in hand, any attempt to dispute the fruits of her sacrifice, which no threats will induce her to relinquish."

Correspondents of the provincial journals say they believe that some steps for safeguarding British interests, like the entry of the fleet into the Black Sea or occupation of Gallipoli, have been determined upon.

The correspondence concerning the conference is published to-day. The facts are substantially the same as previously communicated in previous dispatches. Austria is the only government which expressed an opinion about England's demand for the submission of all the articles of the treaty or San Stefano to the congress. Austria thought the restoration of full liberty of action by the powers a sufficient guarantee, and that it was not to the interest of England or Austria to raise difficulties. On this the joint preliminary conference of ambassadors at Berlin was suggested by Bismarck, and immediately declined by England, because it was useless.

In conversation with the British ambassador at St. Petersburg, Gortschakoff said that if the congress made any modifications in the treaty, they would be subject to further arrangements between Russia and Turkey. Russia could only accept the discussion of those points of the treaty affecting European interests.

The British ambassador at Vienna telegraphed Lord Derby on the 23d inst., that he was informed that Prince Gortschakoff told the Roumanian agent at St. Petersburg that Russia would not allow the question of Bessarabia to be discussed by the congress.

Army Reserve Ordered Out

The following notice has been prepared for issuance to the officers of the districts throughout the kingdom:

Her Majesty having been graciously pleased to direct, by proclamation, that the first class of the army reserve force be ordered out for permanent service, all men belonging to said reserve are required to report at headquarters on or before ——— for the purpose of rejoining the army.

GREECE.

Insurgents and Turks Fighting.

ATHENS, 30.—Fierce fighting has occurred at Macrintza between the insurgents and the Turks. Several Turkish vessels are bombarding the villages. The British iron turret ship Depastation and the corvette Ruby are cruising along the coast of Macedonia for the purpose of rescuing refugee women and children.

ITALY.

Reception of Gen. Grant and Family by the Pope.

ROME, 30.—The Pope received ex-President Grant, his wife and son, to-day. Chatard, rector of the American College, awaited Gen. Grant in the hall of the Swiss Guard, and accompanied him to the Pope's apartments, where Cardinal McCloskey presented him to the Pope, who received him with every mark of distinction.

Each book is divided into four forms.

The first form is that of a

Family Record,

With ruled and painted spaces for births, marriages, and deaths, in each family, also for names, date and places, one page accommodating one family.

The second form is a

Church Record,

With spaces for blessings, baptisms, confirmations, ordinations, endowments, and patriarchal blessings and various particulars of the same.

The third form is a

Sealing Record,
