TWO ROBBERS ARRESTED.

They Confess to the Theft of $14,000 from an Express Company.

Most of the Stolen Gold and Silver Recovered—A Bad Gang Broken Up.

THE DALLES, OR., Oct. 28.—After two weeks' unremitting endeavor on the part of detectives and local officers, the parties who robbed the Pacific Express company in the city of $14,000 on October 12th, have at last been apprehended and placed under arrest and all but $200 of the money recovered. Frank Keets and Otis Savage, young men of respectable parentage living here, are in jail, having made a complete confession of the theft. It is said the only clew to the robbers was a bar of a set sharpened at one end and fashioned into a hook at the other, which was found beside the empty treasure box on the floor of the express office, on the morning of the robbery. Following the suggestion of Sheriff T. J. Driver, Detective Sam Simmons, of Portland, and Lord, of the Pinkerton company of Kansas City, visited the jump and living room of Keets and Savage which is a barn in Keets's yard. The walls of the room studded with pins of every description and the room also contained an anvil and tools for doing light blacksmithing work. Sheriff Driver learning this took the steel tools to Salem, where Keets, one of the gang, is confined in the penitentiary, and from him learned that it was fashioned in his shop by members of the Hawthorne gang from a file stolen from a Union Pacific locomotive at the time they contemplated their robbery. Keets also stated that Keets, who is by trade an expert locksmith, possessed a key to the express office. Armed with this information, Mr. Driver, accompanied by Detective Simmons, returned to The Dalles and caused the arrest of Keets and Savage. They were captured without resistance at their room and confined in separate apartments at the hotel where Deputy District Attorney Payne and Mr. Simmons attempted to get a confession from them. They volunteered all advance for a time. Finally Keets broke down and sobbing confessed the whole matter, telling where the money was hidden. Search was instituted for the money, which bag containing $7,500 in gold was found in a cesspool under a Chinese wash house within once belonging to the Hawthorne gang, and $1,500 in silver were found under an old building near the Cosmopolitan hotel, and the bag which had contained $5,000 in gold, and from which $200 had been extracted, was discovered buried in Keets's back yard, during all this time the officers had never ceased their efforts to get a confession from Keets, who at first maintained stoutly his innocence in the matter, but when confronted by the jail he had nothing more to say. Keets also confessed that they had robbed the passenger train on the night of September sixth. These arrests break up one of the most daring gangs of robbers in this section and relieves the express messenger, Hill, of the suspicion which suspicion cast upon him when the stolen bar erroneously claimed to has been stressed for committing the crime.

PIRATES IN CHINA.

Outlaws Establish a Regular Reign of Terror.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—Chinese papers received by steamer contain accounts of numerous outrages by bandits and pirates in the Orient. A band of men made desperate by the loss of crops and homes in the recent overflow of the Yellow River, have established a reign of terror. This band comprises about 200 men. By their piratical raids they have secured several boats, on which they carried on operations on the water.

During three weeks of the raids of this lawless band, twenty men were killed and more than three times that number were wounded. Their operations covered nearly 150 miles along the Lian River. For protection, boats now travel in batches, but so daring and powerful are the outlaws become, that they do not hesitate to attack numbers of boats at the same time, even in day light. Foot boats were attacked by one of the pirates craft having a crew of forty armed men on September 5th, near New Chang. All valuables and crew were taken, two sailors were killed and two others wounded. The cargo boats are arming their crews and preparing to resist the pirates.

News from Singapore tells of the robbery of a Chinese coasting vessel bound from Singapore for the island of Liuggi, by Malay pirates. A number of these boys escape on the coaster and at night attacked the ship's crew and robbed him of about $600. The mate wounded a member of the crew and he hastened to the aid of his client, but was stabbed by the Malays and thrown overboard. The Malays jumped into the water and escaped.

INDIAN FIGHT.

Sceptics with Intoxicants They Become Furious.

CALLISTOGA, Cal., Oct. 28.—A message from Middletown, Lake county, gives information of a serious affair among the Indians at the Cloverdale Valley rancheria. Some of the aged Indians were visiting the Cloverdale and celebrated too soon and by getting drunk on whiskey. They became involved in a row with knives, which resulted in the killing of one man, and the probably fatal stabbing of another, while six others, including two squaws, were seriously wounded. These Indians have long been peaceable and expected to various kinds of labor for support, and are quite an quite national employers. The supplying of intoxicants to them by unscrupulous persons is severely condemned.

Criminals Leaves.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28.—John Thompson, the young thousands of general Antonio Lopez, who was released from the Alameda county jail on Saturday on an order from Secretary of State Gresham, has taken passage on the steamer San Jose, which sails this afternoon for Acapulco.

Caught the Bad Pickpocket.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—After months of over a month, high and low, Inspector McLaughlin's men have at last caught the pinky and plausible young woman who has been swindling so many milliners in the two cities. The girl is Minie Harrowby, and she lives in Harlem. She was identified by several of her victims at police headquarters last night after she broke down and confessed. Her plan was simple. She drove to a hotel, engaged a room for herself and grandmother, saying grandma would soon appear with the cash and luggage. Hurriedly taking possession of the room, which she stipulated should adjoin, and swell with open on the hall, she would drive to a milliner, select one or more hats and order them sent to the hotel, together with change for a $100 bill. She would receive the hats in her room, go into the other with the change, pretending she was going to get a big bill from the mythical grandma, then slip out into the hall and leave the hotel, never to return.

Causing Instant Death.

WINE CITY, ORE., Oct. 29.—J. D. Ross, Dan Newman and Sam Bird fired shots at Ed. McAlister here, mortally wounding him in the neck, a ball passing through the head, causing instant death. He was to have been married to a Miss Martin Fort today but became intensely jealous of McAlister. The shooting took place in the presence of Miss Fort, who is now prostrated.

IS WOMAN'S CLOTHES.

An Escaped Convict Recognized and Arrested.

WINFIELD, KS., Oct. 28.—Peter Cline, son of Farmer Cline, near here, was arrested in an Iowa town three years ago for robbery. The boy he was charged with was the taking of goods out of the store where he was employed as clerk. He made his escape before he was taken to prison and never recaptured, until last night and then under peculiar circumstances. After his escape $50 was offered as a reward for his arrest and conviction in getting it. Two weeks after his escape three years ago a woman came into Winfield at Farmer Cline's and was introduced as a sister. Miss Cline was good-natured enough and everything went well. An officer from Iowa, however, put in an appearance and arrested the supposed woman, who proved to be Peter Cline, and who, for three years has worn female garments and has made his home here until arrested. Cline was taken to Iowa.

Congressman Hall Injured.

HARTSON, MINN., Oct. 28.—Congressman Hall was very seriously injured by falling from a trestle after a political conference last night. In carrying for his train at Red Wing he stepped off the trestle and fell backward twenty feet. His face, head and hip were injured and it is feared he has received internal injuries.

Anniversary of a Dog's Death.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 28.—The third anniversary of a dog's death will be observed with high honors tomorrow. Bella will be called, and tributes of the deceased will be received and authorities will be hung in praise of his deeds. Poets, talented, are among will be contributed assuming the part, and a special service at the grave over which the silly mourn rises. The dog was Jumbo, a magnificent specimen of the St. Bernard breed. The contributed tomorrow, Darwinly, was positive that Jumbo was raising at a sing through some misfortune not that he had a previous existence as one of the mightiest men.

The person who is at the head of the arrangements for the celebration is R. L. Dorey. As a complete tribute will be paid to the dog's memory, a tribute of respect to him will be served in a dozen different styles. The guests will be Corte R. the mother of years Jumbo lived as a dog. On this occasion Mr. Dorey will assume the dimensions to be upwards score of money to the founding of a retreat or poorhouse dogs to be named "The Jumbo Refuge."

A Japanese Russian Treaty.

ST. PETERSBURG, OCT. 28.—Negotiations have been opened for a Russian-Japanese treaty of commerce.

Their Last Deeds.

NEW YORK, OCT. 28.—A special to the Herald from Lebanon, Ind., says:

A wagon containing a party returning from a dance was stuck by a Big Four train this morning and five of the merry-makers were killed. The dead are Gertrude Dunn, Grace Davis, Lena George, Carl Gowens and May McDaniel.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

Adolph Schuter Asks $20,000 of Faithless Sweetheart.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., Oct. 28.—Adolph Schuter wants $20,000 for breach of promise from Katherine Pilger, the daughter of a Galena street merchant. In his complaint it is stated that on August 1, 1893, the plaintiff was engaged to the seeking lovelorn in Berlin, Germany. He claims that he met Miss Pilger, proposed marriage and was accepted. Acting on her advice, Mr. Schuter sets up that he disposed of his business interests in Germany and when he had cut his connections with Kee, wrote to her and asked her to marry Miss Pilger. He arrived in 1893, but Miss Pilger refused to marry him. Schuter sues for $15,000 for the alleged breach of promise and an additional $15,000 for his loss of business.

Beer Meet's Fate Stopped.

NEW YORK, Oct. 28.—Herr Meet and his company were to have presented the play Die Weber in Phoenix Park Hall, Newark, tonight, but they were refused permission by the police. For two or three days circulars, printed in German, have been circulated, announcing the production of the socialistic play.

Attempted Jailbreak.

TUCSON, ARIZ., Oct. 28.—Oscar Rogers, one of the men charged with holding up a Southern Pacific eastbound overland train some weeks ago near Maricopa station, and now confined in jail here pending a hearing on indictments found by the grand jury of Pima county, made a daring and almost successful attempt to escape today.

He had removed all but one layer of brick from the wall, and his operations were detected by the jailers.

Rogers would have made his escape if he had had ten minutes more. Once outside the walls, his capture would have been a very difficult matter, for it is positively known that other robbers connected with the Maricopa train robbery are near at hand to help him. Officer Thompson, whom the Southern Pacific detectives are working day and night to capture, is thought to be in this vicinity.

It is not that arrangements had been made for Thompson and others to have a mounted force and a rifle ready for Rogers in the Tucson penitentiary hour this city. The opinion of officers here is that the men that helped hold up the overland at Maricopa station are those who committed the Rocose robbery.

Blown Up by Dynamiters.

WILKESBARRE, PA., Oct. 28.—A large Hungarian boarding-house at Laurel Run, this county, was blown to atoms by dynamiters at 3 o'clock this morning and three of the inmates were killed outright, four badly injured and half a dozen seriously hurt.

The Bonds who planned the explosion of their work well, despite the fact that part of the gang failed. They placed about twenty-four sticks of dynamite under the building, each being about nine inches long and weighing about half a pound. A wire connected the sticks with a battery about fifty yards away. When the wires were given only about a half dozen of the sticks exploded. They were sufficient, however, to completely wreck the building, not a room of place of which was left standing.

GOV. WAITE IN CHICAGO.

Colorado's Governor Receives an Ovation.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Governor David H. Waite, of Colorado, addressed a large audience at a special meeting on the lake front, and in the evening he spoke to a large audience in Tattersall's pavilion.

Colonel Copeland, chairman of the county committee, introduced the governor, who was received with cheers. He spoke for half an hour. He assured his auditors that Colorado was aroused and the Populists would be triumphant.

"This country is passing through a period of depression worse than any in its history," he said. "Five million men and women are out of employment. Those who are at work are receiving less wages than ever before. At the close of the war and the years succeeding we enjoyed unexampled prosperity. We then had in circulation nearly twenty hundred millions of money. The Republican party and its leaders in the Congress, at the dictation of Wall street, are responsible for —ing the money from circulation. They contracted the currency until depression followed. Last year is the worst of national suffering and closed in ruin, due to the contraction of the currency. President Cleveland convened Congress for the purpose of having it repeal the silver law, which plunged the country into still deeper distress. All the legislation of the past twenty-four years of Republican rule and that of the present administration has been for the corporation, the capitalist, the money class.

"There has been but one piece of legislation in favor of and for the benefit of the people, and that was the pension bill, and Congress was called upon at night for six months to pass that bill and pension bills. Wall street controls both the Republican and Democratic parties, and is in fact the financial power in alliance by Wall street and Great Britain.

"The Democratic party has done something that no political party ever did before, and that was the issuing of $50,000,000 of gold bonds. That was done to benefit the money-makers of Wall street."

In the evening Governor Waite was escorted by a team home to the hall where he was to speak. About 6,000 people had gathered to hear him, and there were loud cries of "Waite, Waite, Waite, for 1896!"

The governor was given a rousing reception as he advanced to begin his address, and it was some time before he was allowed to proceed. His speech, which was an elaboration of his talk to the afternoon, consisted chiefly in criticism of the Democratic and Republican parties, and argument to show that the welfare of the people demanded that the government be restored to the Populists.

At the conclusion of his speech, which was greeted with great applause, Governor Waite was escorted back to his hotel by a cheering crowd of fully 1,000 people.

TAMMANY'S RECORD.

A Long List of Charges by the Committee of Seventy.

NEW YORK, OCT. 28.—The committee of seventy today issued a statement in reply to Mayor Gilroy's defense of Tammany, in which they charge Tammany Hall for malfeasance in the administration of municipal affairs. It is signed by Joseph Larocque, chairman, and John R. Faure, secretary. Briefly the manifesto contains:

First—That the organization of Tammany is despotic and is not, in a proper sense, a political body, but constituted for individual gain.

Second—That Tammany Hall has committed to important and responsible offices of the city men who are base and criminal.

Third—That under this administration by systematic blackmail and extortion there are wrong from the citizens many millions, and that the officers of the city government have constantly increased, without any corresponding benefit to the community.

Fourth—That it has wasted public money by extravagant expenditure of the funds raised by taxation.

Fifth—That much of the increase of the expenditure is due to dishonesty, supplies being bought wasefully and extravagantly and names placed on the payroll and money paid for services never rendered.

Sixth—That the dock department, to which the head of Tammany Hall points with satisfaction, is an ever-increasing burden to the taxpayers, while it should be a source of large revenue.

Seventh—That also, since the year 1884, the taxpayers have paid of $84,000,000 of the city debt, yet, at the present time that debt is $9,000,000 more than in 1884.

Eighth—That the taxpayers have been called upon to bear greater burdens than are shown by the taxes and the statement of the public debt.

Ninth—That because of the extravagance in expenditure, in the comparison of London and Paris with New York it is cited to the fact that the three New York is an unknown side right.

Tenth—That because of Tammany Hall's ignorance and inefficiency in municipal, we are left far behind in the race by large cities of the world in honest business methods and economy, which all citizens have a right to expect, further charging that those in control of municipal affairs have allowed private greed and avarice a combination, piecing pieces which are in opposition, paths in the crowded dockers of the city and other necessities.

POISON IN THE BLOOD

Another Case That Was Incurable Under the Old Methods of Treatment.

And Another Case in Point Showing the Absolute Mastery of Drs. Shores & Shores New Treatment Over all Chronic and Deep-Seated Diseases.

Mr. Hicks is one of Utah's oldest pioneers. He came into the territory with an ox team in 1850. In an interview with the writer Mr. Hicks says:

"In '91 while working on the Walker Opera House I fell from an elevator of about forty feet and broke my right foot which became of the condition of my life it resulted in a running sore. I have suffered terrible pain night and day for years. All my friends and acquaintances know the condition I was in. The very best doctors in Utah did all in their power for me from time to time during the past thirteen years, but they all failed to cure me. Sometimes I was so bad I had to quit work entirely.

MR. JOS N. HICKS, 252 FIRST, NORTH SOUTH STREET, CITY.

"When I was induced to go to Drs. Shores I was in such terrible pain night and day that I was not myself at all and was unable to do anything.

"I have been under Drs. Shores & Shores' treatment and have been using their vegetable medicine for one month now and the sores seem almost miraculous. My trouble is all cured and I feel like a different man entirely as I haven't felt before in years. Anyone reading this can realize how grateful I am to Drs. Shores & Shores and I shall be glad to tell any one, in person, of the good they have done for me."

TREATMENT BY MAIL.
