DESERET EVENING NEWS

TO-DAY'S WEATHER REPORT.

Observation taken at 8 a. m. at Salt Lake City (Sugerhouse), 29.97 inches; current temperature, 72; maximum temperature, 85; wind, northwest, 4 miles per hour; weather, clear.

SYNOPSIS.

This morning an area of high barometric pressure lies over the upper Mississippi and lower Missouri valleys, and it is cooler in the Rocky Mountains. Temperatures in these Eastern Provinces are now decreasing over the northwest. A storm is now central off the Washington coast, and it will probably move eastward and northeastward to western South Dakota. It was a hot day in Salt Lake City, Ogden, Eureka, Milford and Modena, and it was cooler in Cedar City, Durango, Grand, El Paso, Oklahoma, St. Louis and Memphis.

Fresh winds will be made in the Plateaus for 36 hours ending 8 p. m. Monday, then fresh.

Fair tonight and Sunday, stationary temperature.

Local Forecast for Salt Lake City and vicinity:

Fair tonight and Sunday; stationary temperature.

E. H. MURDOCH, Section Director.

To-day's Metals.

SILVER, Bar, 60 5-8
LEAD, $4.30
CASTING COPPER 16 3-8 cents a lb.

SEMI-WEEKLY NEWS

The actual, bona fide circulation of the Semi-Weekly edition of the News, (separate and apart from the daily) was, on the last issue,

12,600 COPIES

The largest circulation of any paper between Denver and the coast. Books open to advertisers.

The following figures give the number of the Semi-Weekly News printed on the first and fifteenth of each month since the paper changed hands on January 1, 1899:

January 1, 1899	10,250
January 15, 1899	10,500
February 1, 1899	10,625
February 15, 1899	10,600
March 1, 1899	10,750
March 15, 1899	11,500
April 1, 1899	11,625
April 15, 1899	11,850
May 1, 1899	11,850
May 15, 1899	12,050
June 1, 1899	12,300
June 15, 1899	12,400
July 1, 1899	12,600

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Only nine marriage licenses were issued the past week.

A marriage license was issued last evening to Peter Christensen, of Salt Lake, and Bertha M. Mortensen, of San Jose, California.

The annual excursion of the Utah Press association to the Castle Valley and Grand for the 19th inst. has been postponed to Saturday, July 22nd.

Beginning with the evening and Sunday morning trains, the Saltair will be opened each evening and so increase the popularity of that place.

The new Boys' school building on Douglas street, which was formerly occupied by the Deseret Hospital, has been fitted for Apprentices for Christ and George H. Garland is placing it in order.

John S. Lindsay, the money man and his three daughters, Edith, Louise and Ruth, are back home from their European tour. Mr. Lindsay said he didn't know how he survived the trip, but he says it was fairly successful.

The organist of the Tabernacle, Mr. Dwyer, is expected home from Paris on Tuesday. The afternoon's organ recital program was rendered and this evening the program will be rendered for the last time and some every 10 the organ recitals of the year.

Joe Barr, recently appointed by Chief Bonney as a special officer in Fourteenth ward, has resigned in favor of Mr. Hendricks, who is an old veteran in the service of the city. Joseph A. Anderson, of the 3rd ward, is defeated at the next meeting of the city council, which will be the last meeting of the present council.

The Council committee on the city police hold a special meeting last evening, including a number of citizens, and now William F. O'Connor's petition for a new 8th ward police station, in the absence of two members of the committee and of Mr. O'Connor, the matter could not.

The report of the board of health for the week shows the number of births at 19, deaths at 9, as follows: Male, 10; female, 8; total, 18. Deaths, 9; under 5 years, 3; born from other places than Salt Lake, 1; contagious, 1; consumption, 1; inflammation, 1; cancer, 1; cause of death not given, 1.

The roadway along the Third ward street car line would be very pretty for the Fourth Ward Sunday School jubilee if they would have a few wheels put on the Ro. Of the poor souls who have to walk to and from work a great deal of dust when it rains.

Why Bishop Preston is not enjoying the best of health is another case for the Herald's pity to take a exercise and rest. At the rate he is going he will be Crowded to rest and he is more of a man than he is now. Brother A. Shaw, one of the walking bishops, is taking his place in the office work while he rides it about.

Friday next, the 14th inst., will be the twenty-first anniversary of the ordination of the Twelfth quorum of Seventies, which quorum was composed of Brigham H. Roberts, Joseph Fielding, Jesse Ellis, Thomas Hull, Rudger Clawson, Seymour B. Young, Jesse Gates, Charles Ora Card, Brigham Y. Card, Jesse Nelson, Jesse Tenney and Joseph Bentley.

Samuel R. Sallmond, the man carbon who has been confined at home in the Holy Cross hospital from which he has been paralyzed, is a prisoner in his own home from the hospital. He had been accommodated in a through car ride with Dr. Murphy the last time he was taken home, and the Doc. is now supposed to be completely well. Sallmond will not have to be confined to the house entire at Provo.

The attention of homeseekers is invited to the entertainment at the Wheat House, Cedar City, on Monday evening, the 10th inst., when a social will be tendered to visitors, and with the 24th of July celebration of that town. A fine time may be looked for. Lost Spur Peninsula and Nevada offices and Thomas Leaders are expecting invited to attend.

Rev. Father Lambin of the All Hallows college has written to the city authorities that he is not responsible for the Estates' hospital at Butte, from the injury of a horse to one of his horses under the ambulance belonging to the hospital last week. Father Lambin has passed the All Hallows Immediately consequent on the accident, and he is likely to lead to be endorsed to the hospital and address matters continued in the injury occurred in the Butte.

Mr. Alvin Smith is in receipt of a statement from County Auditor Woods giving the number of warrants issued and the money allowed from the county treasury and assessor and assessor paid by Salt Lake county in July and August, 1898, and January and February, 1899. The total of June and August lists, the last of which is said by the auditor to be the largest ever issued, amounted to $1,000. The treasury has amounted to $1,000, making a total of $2,000.

The convention auditors had their annual fifty excursion to Garfield yesterday and it was a pleasant and enjoyable affair. There was no program other than the usual attractions, but many enjoyable features were added to the day's sports. Dancing occupied the hall, and a crowd of half a dozen of the Salt Lake Boating club gave a clever exhibition of the art of the lake. Refreshments were served in the dancing