IMPORTANT LAWS

Passed at the Recent Session of the State Legislature.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE STATE, STATE SUPPLIES, ETC. AND STATE EXAMINERS.

An act to carry into effect section 13 of article 7 of the Constitution, and providing for the organization of the State board of examiners, and prescribing its duties and powers.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Utah:

SECTION 1. The Governor, the secretary of State and the attorney general, constitute a board of examiners, with power to examine all claims against the State, except salaries or compensation of officers, fixed by law, and they shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by law. No claim against the State, except salaries and compensation of officers fixed by law, shall be passed upon by the Legislature without having been considered and acted upon by said board of examiners.

SEC. 2. The meetings of said board shall be held at the seat of government, or at such other place in the State as the said board may determine, on the third Monday in each month, and at such other times as the president may call it together; and the Governor is the president, and the secretary of state is the secretary of said board, and in the absence of either, an officer pro tempore may be chosen from their number.

SEC. 3. The board must keep a record of all its proceedings, and any member may cause his dissent to the action of a majority, upon any matter, to be entered upon such record. And an abstract of all claims must be entered upon the minutes of the board before the same are acted upon.

SEC. 4. The board may, in writing, establish rules and regulations not inconsistent with law, for its government.

SEC. 5. The president may issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses before the board, or any member thereof, in the same manner that any court may; and whenever the testimony of any witness against a claimant pending before it, is material, the president must cause the attendance [illegible]

[illegible] the board must report to the Legislature an account of the supplies, expenditures for the same, and the stock in hand.

SEC. 31. The board may hire the necessary rooms for the State officers, and the halls and rooms for the Legislature and its committees, without advertising as provided in this act, if the board so decide.

SEC. 32. No member or officer of any department of the government shall be in any way interested in any contract made under the provisions of this article.

SEC. 33. The board of examiners may at any time, when necessary, employ clerical help for any State officer or board, and no clerk shall be employed by such officers or boards, without the authority of the board of examiners, and no such clerk shall be employed by the board of examiners, except when all the duties of the office cannot be performed by the officer himself.

SEC. 34. This act shall take effect upon approval.

Approved March 4, 1896.
