CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

Bill Increasing Army Paymasters Passed.

WASHINGTON, 30.—Logan called up the Senate bill to increase the pay department of the army, and fixing the number of paymasters at fifty, with the rank, pay and emoluments of a major of cavalry. Several amendments were offered providing for the manner of appointments and the class from which they were to be made. Logan opposed any provision which would direct the President whom to appoint; he said the President was a military man, and knew as well how to select good paymasters as any Senator. Some Senators seemed to have lost faith in the President the last few days, but he, Logan, hadn't. All the amendments were rejected, and the bill passed, 21 to 18. The bill provides for six new paymasters.

HOUSE.

Canal Bill Passed—The Utah Contested Election Case.

WASHINGTON, 30.—The Senate amendments to the House bill in relation to the Louisville and Portland canal were taken up, and discussed for three hours, Wheeler closing the debate in support of an amendment submitted by him, prohibiting the payment of any money by the United States until the State of Kentucky cedes to the United States the entire jurisdiction over the canal; the amendment was rejected, and the bill passed without division. It now goes to the President.

Hazleton, from the election committee, submitted a report in the Utah contested case, that Cannon, the sitting member, is entitled to his seat, and gave notice that he would call it up for action hereafter, and would, at the same time, offer a resolution, reciting that Cannon is openly living and cohabiting with a woman as his wife, under the pretended sanction of the system of polygamy, to the great scandal and disgrace of the people and government of the United States, and providing for the appointment of a committee to inquire into the matter, and recommend such action as shall seem meet and proper.

Fighting in Arkansas.

WASHINGTON, 30.—A Little Rock dispatch states that a sharp contest occurred between a depredating party of Brooks' men, and a detachment of the Baxter forces under Col. White, in which the Brooks party had nine killed and twenty wounded, and the rest captured; seven of the Baxter men were wounded.

Damaged by Frost.

SAVANNAH, Ga., 30.—There was a heavy frost last night, and the fruit and vegetables are damaged.

$10,000 for Louisiana.

PHILADELPHIA, 30.—The mayor of New Orleans has been authorized to draw ten thousand from the treasury for the Louisiana relief fund.

A Wretch to be Hanged.

HUDSON, N. Y., 30.—Waltz, the murderer, has been sentenced to be hanged to-morrow, he killed officer Ernst in his cell this morning, smashing his skull with a piece of iron. The deed was not discovered until several hours later, when excited crowds gathered around the jail, and threatened to lynch Waltz. The governor ordered two companies of militia from Albany. Ernst was stationed in the cell to prevent Waltz committing suicide.

A Munificent Gift.

NASHVILLE, 30.—Commodore Vanderbilt has given another hundred thousand to the Vanderbilt University.

Joint Resolution Passed.

AUSTIN, Texas, 30.—Both houses of the Texas legislature have passed a joint resolution instructing their Senators and Representatives in Congress to support Col. Tom Scott's Texas Pacific Railroad bill.

SAN FRANCISCO, 30.—To-night, two boys, named Messinger, fought with a boy named Abraham Solomon, who drew a pistol and threatened to shoot them; their mother interfered and caught hold of the pistol, and during the struggle the weapon was discharged, shooting off one of Mrs. Messinger's fingers, and hitting Solomon in the head, killing him instantly.

The jury in the libel case of Mrs. James Howden, vs. the Chronicle, returned a verdict, to-night, of three thousand dollars for the plaintiff; the libel consisted in publishing a report of Mr. Howden's sudden death, intimating that his wife had murdered him.

Ogden Junction, April 30—

This morning's U. P. train carried away the body of Vinyard the suicide.

Sheriff Brown is out on the line of the U. P. R. R. in search of a Chinawoman, reported to be kidnapped from her lawful t'other half.

There will be a meeting of all the male members of the Church in the Weber Stake of Zion, on Saturday, May 2d, at 10 a.m., and 2 p.m.

On Sunday, May 3rd, a general meeting of both sexes will be held at the same place and the same hours.

Members of the First Presidency and several of the Twelve Apostles will be present at all of these meetings, and a general attendance is specially requested.

The following is a condensed account of the laying of the corner stone of the new Episcopal Church at Ogden, on Wednesday last:

At 2 p.m., a procession was formed, consisting of the children of the day and Sunday Schools, the members of the Committee of the Church, the Right Rev. D. S. Tuttle, Bishop of the Diocese, and other Episcopal clergymen of the Territory. After singing and prayer the master mason placed the stone in position, when the Bishop with three strokes of the hammer, "consecrated the work to the glory of God." Addresses were delivered by the Revs. J. L. Gillogly, W. H. Stoy, and Bishop Tuttle, the latter, with great earnestness, pointing out that while men and women were the steeples that drew the attention of all men, children were the real corner stones and on them rested the upbuilding of the church.
