Last Night's Dispatches.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 18.—Freelinghuysen introduced a bill to secure a more efficient and honest administration of Indian affairs, providing that all records or contracts and other papers relating to or connected with the official duty of any Indian superintendent, agent, or subagent shall be open to public inspection during all reasonable business hours; that distributions of Indian goods and supplies shall be made in public, and, among other things, that no vouchers or receipts shall be signed that are not fully filled up. Referred.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 18.—Eulogies on the late Senator Davis, of Kentucky, were delivered, after which the House adjourned.

EASTERN.

PROVIDENCE.—A freight train from Boston was wrecked at Dodgeville last night. Eighteen cars were completely broken to pieces and an unknown man killed.

NEW YORK.—The second trial of Stokes began this morning, Judge Boardman, of Ithica, presiding. The jury is now being impanelled.

ST. LOUIS.—In the Circuit Court, yesterday, George A. King, conductor, Wm. O'Brien, engineer, and J. W. Hastings, fireman, of the construction train, entered suit against the St. Louis, Kansas City and Northern Railroad, for damages, aggregating thirty thousand dollars, for injuries received in consequence of a collision of their train with a passenger train, resulting from alleged negligence of the company, in not showing signal lights and flags at the station where the accident occurred, to notify them of the approaching train. The Missouri and Pacific recently brought a suit against one of its conductors for the wanton destruction of railroad property by a collision, caused by disobedience to orders. This suit can be sustained under the law of this State, provided the facts, as stated, are proven.

WASHINGTON.—The House bill passed, authorizing the Comptroller of Currency to examine the condition of savings banks in the District of Columbia.

The House resumed the bill of yesterday, concerning the settlement with the States of Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, of five per cent. land claim, under the act of March 3d, 1857. At the close of the debate the bill passed, 103 to 52.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—Charles S. P. Bowles, of the Paris banking house of Bowles Bros., was arrested at Ingleside, six miles from this city, last evening, at the suit of Jno. H. Huber, of this city, for $6 985, funds deposited with the firm of Nathan & Appleton, Boston, special partners of Gordon Bowles Bros. The case will be heard before the Master of Chancery, this p.m.

Chas. S. P. Bowles was arraigned this afternoon. He gave temporary bail to appear within thirty days.

CONCORD. — The New Hampshire State temperance convention, held here to-day, re-nominated Rev. John Blackman for Governor and Asa S. Kendall, R. R. Comissioner; prohibiting resolutions were adopted. The convention subsequently resolved itself into a District convention and nominated candidates to Congress—First district, Rev. A. G. Corning; second, J. M. Fletcher; third, A. C. Hardy.

NEW YORK.—A cable from Liverpool says a steamer had arrived there which spoke with the Adriatic 1500 miles from Sandy Hook, having lost two blades of her propeller, which will probably delay her arrival here three or four days. All on board were well. In consequence of this the White Star line will not dispatch a steamer on Saturday. The officers of the Pacific mail steam ship company state that the steamer Great Republic will be detained in port on the Pacific coast three weeks to repair her broken shaft.

WASHINGTON.—The Secretary of the Treasury gave notice to-day that he would commence payment of interest due January 1, 1873, on Saturday 21st, without rebate.

The President visited the Capitol this afternoon and held a conversation with several Senators on business matters. It is inferred that it was in reference to the Vienna exhibition, as it is known that he had expressed a desire to have American productions largely represented, but he feared that an appropriation of only one hundred thousand dollars, as proposed by the commissioners, would not be sufficient for the purpose. He also spoke on the importance of an early appropriation to enable the commissioners to resume their investigation of the outrages on the Texas border. Though he made no special recommendation, in transmitting to Congress the report of the commissioner, he has personally interested himself on the subject of obtaining additional information, with a view to such action as may protect the border.

The Postmaster General has made a very important decision in relation to the responsibility of postmasters under their bonds for the loss of registered letters. He has decided that postmasters are responsible, and he will hold them accountable. This construction has never been made before. It is contrary to the opinion of many eminent jurists, and greatly increases the responsibilities under postmasters' bonds.

The House committee on post offices this morning overruled the ruling of the Postmaster General relative to the collection of double postage on unprepaid papers.

The committee to-morrow will report a bill specifically constructing the new code, and declaring the present railway strained construction.

OMAHA, Neb.—Ira Turner, receiver of public lands at Grand Island, Nebraska, accidentally shot and killed himself to-day while cleaning his gun.

A public meeting is to be held at Cheyenne, Wyoming, to-night, in opposition to the proposal to divide that Territory among adjoining Territories. Reports from Laramie City and other points represent public sentiment as pretty equally divided.

PORTLAND. — Wm. Wirt, Virginia, has been appointed to fill the vacancy in the Maine Supreme Court.

BOSTON, 19.—Sumner's oblivion resolution was condemned by resolutions in the Senate by 29 to 9, 14 in the House by 104 to 76.

NEW ORLEANS, 19.—The building on Dryades street, occupied by the Shakespeare Club, has been burned, loss $50,000.

CINCINNATI, O., 19—Geo. G. Mullaly, Postoffice clerk, charged with abstracting money from letters sent to the agent of the Louisville public library concert, was to-day held in $2,500 bonds.

LEAVENWORTH, 19.—The epizootic prevails here to a great extent. In 18 livery stables 500 animals are sick. Half of the private horses of the city are affected. The street cars are withdrawn from the Fort Leavenworth road.

NEW YORK.—In the surrogate's court, Westchester Co., proceedings were resumed in proving Greeley's last will. Origin Hart was the first witness. He went to Dr. Choate's on the afternoon of Nov. 29, at the request of his witness, father to ascertain if the will had been executed, accompanied by Mr. Haines. On reaching the house he saw Ida Greeley and Mr. Stuart. Witness and they went into Greeley's room. Greeley recognized witness. Stuart had in his hands the last will of Greeley, written Nov. 9. Showing it to Greeley, he asked if it was his last will. Greeley answered, "No." Hart spoke to Greeley, calling his close attention to the will. Greeley raised his head from the pillow, looked at the will and said, "Yes." Greeley requested that Hart and aunty Lemson should be subscribing witnesses.

Counsel for contestant asked for the modification of the deed, which had been made by Ida Greeley, in favor of her sister Gabrielle. It was produced. It deeds half the property to Gabrielle.

Wm. E. Robinson examined. He produced the will written by Greeley in Sept., 1867.

A letter from Francis P. Blair, jun., will appear in the Chronicle to-morrow, correcting the statement in that journal to-day that Gen. Blair was so seriously ill as to leave little hope of his resuming his seat in the Senate. Blair says the report is circulated to affect Gen. Blair's election, and he gives extracts from late letters of Col. Gault, General Blair's neighbor, and friend, saying, the Gen. is so much better that his cure is steadily and rapidly advancing.

A number of members of Congress intend leaving for their homes to-morrow.

The funeral of John F. Rensett to-day, from the First Presbyterian church, was numerously attended by friends and associate artists.

Vice-President Colfax has accepted the editorship of the Tribune. His valetatory may be looked for in a few days. It is said Orton has offered the position of managing editor to Hazard, and he will probably accept.

Three jurors have been obtained in the Stokes case. Judge Ingraham to-day denied a stay of proceedings in the case of King, the murderer of O'Neil, but granted a commission to procure testimony in England. King's trial follows that of Stokes.

The defence of Simmons for the murder of Duryea will be that he was in a paroxism of insanity when he committed the act, having been excited to frenzy by Duryea's taunts and his knowledge of his straitened money condition. It is said the quarrel grew out of Duryea's refusal to pay a debt which he owed Simmons.

PROVIDENCE.—Rhode Island Medical Society has admitted the first female member, Adelia B. Tyng.
