Vigorous Crusade Against Land Grabbers in Idaho—Accident to a Blast.—Wilson Cattle Case.

Dan Hardy, accused of unlawfully betting the president's cut at the time of the Attica, Colo., gambling, has been discharged.

Jared Taylor, of Pangulich, had a pig covered up to a depth since the three weeks and five days before it was liberated, when it came out in good condition, says the Rexburg Journal.

The merchant tailoring firms of Oakland, Cal., are making a war on the anti clubs. The proposition is to put a stop to them on the ground that they come within the scope of the lottery law. A test case will be made.

Judge H. D. Mobley, one of the best known and most respected citizens of western Colorado and a pioneer in Grand Junction, died recently, was killed on the railroad at Grand Junction city Tuesday to-day.

The Wilson cattle case came up in the United States circuit court at Denver on Wednesday on an order from Judge Thomas, of Dakota, granting a new trial. The case will go to the United States court of appeals.

A miner named Charles Vivian fell the last to Leo La Fever Rubsell mine at Central City, Colorado, a few days ago. Both arms and five of six ribs were broken, as well as sustaining other injuries. He is not expected to recover.

What is known as the Stearns Bourbon is one of the largest and most valuable tracts of land in the state of California. It comprises thousands and thousands of acres of the richest land in Southern California, and not even its owners possess a definite idea of its value.

Chief of Police Redmen, of Sacramento, Cal., has arrested Louis C. Fry, of San Francisco, on a charge of embezzlement preferred by Secretary Joyce of the Brotherhood of Labor, who accuses Fry of embezzling $120 of the funds donated to the free soup-house.

The bear hunters, Hosier Franklin, John Marrack, James Wilson and J. W. Wilkie, returned from a three weeks' hunt Friday night, with the Wasatch Range. They brought down nine bears, and of which was a large silver tip, [illegible]. The also picked out a farm for the Bee editor which he will [illegible] as the reservation is thrown open.

Among the new ordinances that have been introduced into the city council of Oakland, Cal., is one making it a misdemeanor to stop a street car in a crossing of sidewalk, and another is an ordinance to give the city council authority to reduce the wharfage and dockage fees of the Davis Ferry company. Both ordinances are now in the hands of the ordinance and judiciary committees of the city council.

The lighthouse on Admiralty head, opposite Port Townsend, Wash., during the absence of Keeper J. E. Evans on Tuesday night, was robbed by unknown persons and Harry E. Evans, aged sixteen years, son of the keeper, was shot dead. The lighthouse boat and numerous household articles and three guns were stolen. It is supposed that Indians returning from the Puyallup hop fields to British Columbia committed the deed.

The Farmers' Loan and Trust company must give its bond of $750,000 by October 20 or the supersedeas granted by the court of appeals will not be of effect, says the Denver News. The supersedeas is to prevent the sale of the American Water Works company's plant in Denver to satisfy the claim of the Central Trust company and now being advertised. The bond on the supersedeas has not been given and the court insists upon it at once.

Socorro (N. M.) advises say that the naked body of a man was discovered floating down the Rio Grande on Sunday last about three miles south of that place. The hands and feet were tied with bands of cloth torn from the man's shirt and the head was missing. The head was not found and the body is yet unidentified. The body was taken to Socorro, where an investigation will take place.

Several of our readers have asked us where the increased valuation in property in this county comes to, writes the Toledo county Times. On investigation we find that it is in the increased number of sheep, there being 65,000 more this year than last. This number will more than cover the increase in valuation over last year. Assessor Johnson and his deputies should receive the credit for this [illegible], as they were out and caught all the sheep as they passed through the county.

C. A. Gilbert, of San Francisco, a representative of the Pacific Coast Insurance union, having been in Boise City several days investigating the contest between the city and the water company in order to ascertain to what extent the insurance companies doing business in that city are affected, sends in his report to the union. It is to the effect that the water system for fire purposes is impaired by reason of the cutting off of the supply from the upper reservoir.

Four men, McCulloch, Cavanagh, McDonald and Parrott, stole a trunk containing about $300 in money, $150 in Pike's Peak shares, five watches and other jewelry from the Bradley hotel saloon at Alamo, Colo., Monday Tuesday morning. The men played cards for the drinks all night in the room and then started a fight. One of them knocked the barkeeper down with a gun and another disarmed the fake dealer. The trunk was then taken a few hundred feet from the saloon and broken up and the money and jewelry appropriated. Parrott is under arrest, but no trace of the others obtained.

The state officials have commenced a vigorous crusade against land grabbers and all their relations released, says the Boise (Idaho) Statesman. Among the Boise of numbers of "[illegible]" [illegible] have been filed upon by open [illegible]. Neither [illegible] with the land, but it shows on the land. The house as [illegible] and the average homeseeker [illegible] the time his money in [illegible] whether or not it is [illegible] divided, with a view to instituting a contest. Nearly two hundred employees have been added to the Cripple Creek and the company's pay roll during the past few days, says a special from Santa Fe, N. M., but the end job of the Santa Fe's history display unprecedented activity at this time. The great steam shovel that is to remove the obtrusive rock immediately adjacent to the mouth of the tunnel, was set in motion yesterday, and is running patiently. The total number of employes is now about 650 which is something the owners of the mines expected to have engaged there during the winter months. After this week it is said the number of these mines will be fifty carloads daily.

The lawless conduct of the Indians in the western part of the state in slaughtering game and cutting down the timber has led the people to an outbreak against the redskins, says the Laramie (Wyo.) Boomerang. S. H. Wright, E. Harris Parks and E. D. Swan of Piney are the members of a committee selected by the people in their section of the state to call upon them, interview and make a statement of the infamous thing are going on at their home. The Bannock and Shoshone Indians, they say, have come into the valley in large numbers and are killing a complete slaughter of the game. In order to get the game from the mountains they have set fire to the timber. They state that something must be done at once to protect the game or its complete destruction will result.
