FOURTH DISTRICT COURT.

And So the Street Paving has to go Over Once More.

When the street railway case was called in the Fourth district court yesterday, Mr. Henderson for the plaintiff, said: I can very readily understand that as three blocks of track have already been torn up on Twenty-fifth street, a restraining order at this stage of the proceedings would be of no earthly use, and that that part of the case might as well be abandoned first as last. I desire, therefore, further time in which to decide upon the course my company intends taking.

A continuance was granted until Wednesday.

Judge Miner occupied the bench the whole morning. The following matters were disposed of:

Thomas Ashby asked to be released from paying further alimony to his divorced wife Emily, claiming that recently she had married a Mr. Peterson, whom he thought fully capable of supporting her without any assistance from the Ashby side. The request was granted.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Emerich vs the City of Ogden in which the plaintiff was awarded damages, was denied and the recent judgment ordered to stand.

Held to the Grand Jury.

E. G. Alford is the name of the man arrested at Pleasant View last Thursday, charged with having opened a letter sent by a lady to a young man in his employ. The matter came before Commissioner Holamtell yesterday, and occupied the whole afternoon. The complainant, Miss Sophrona Love, testified that she addressed the letter in care of defendant, but learned subsequently from the young man himself that it never reached him. She had heard from different parties upon various occasions, that the defendant had talked of the contents of the letter and had jestingly referred to matters which were intended to be strictly confidential between himself and the person to whom it was addressed. Defendant admitted having opened the letter, but claimed it was by mistake and with no intention of prying into other people's affairs. The other allegations he denied in toto and asserted that immediately he discovered the letter was not intended for him he sealed it up and addressed it to Miss Love, without even having looked at the contents. The commissioner held the defendant to await the action of the grand jury in bonds of $500.

City Council.

The regular meeting of the City Council was held last night, President Bestall in the chair.

The special committee recently appointed to investigate certain charges preferred against Poundkeeper Peterson, reported them groundless.

Committee on claims recommended that the claim of Dr. Conroy against the city for $20.00 be not allowed.

Upon recommendation of committee an electric light was ordered placed at the intersection of Washington avenue and Canyon road.

R. M. Robinson, of Five Points, asked for a rebate on unused part of liquor license. Referred to committee.

W. A. G. McGan and others asked that Washington Avenue between Thirty-third and Thirty-sixth streets be graded, graveled and sprinkled. Referred.

Councilman Gill called attention to the encroachments made by owners of buildings upon the city property. He cited instances in support of what he charged. The committee on streets were empowered to act in conjunction with the city engineer and report.

The following communication was read:

OGDEN CITY, June 26th, 1893.
To the common council of Ogden City.

Gentlemen—Your communication of the 23rd inst. received in reference to the paving of Twenty-fifth street by the Ogden Electric Railway company. We have had an agent in the east for the past two weeks making arrangements for it. How the action of the city during the last week towards our company will affect those arrangements remains to be seen. As soon as we can hear from the east we will communicate with you further.

Respectfully,
E. R. RIDGLEY.

Referred to committee on paving.

County Assessor Dix sent in a communication giving the aggregate valuation of all taxable property of Ogden city for the present year, excluding telegraph and telephone. Assessments amount to $13,000,100.

The committee on finance introduced an ordinance fixing the amount of taxes for 1893, which is as follows: Five mills for contingent fund, five mills for street and sidewalks, and three mills for sewers and drains. Added to this thirteen mills to the school, county and territorial levy, would make a total of twenty-four mills. Some debate was held on the amount of taxes, considering dull times, which was finally tabled until the next meeting.

Council adjourned to meet again on Wednesday night.

Probate Court.

Judge Bishop held court yesterday and disposed of the following cases:

In the matter of the estate of H. F. Rawson, deceased, the administratrix petitioned court for permission to sell certain real estate, said to belong to the Rawson estate. The petition is contested by several heirs of the deceased on the ground that the property was only held under a deed of trust from their mother, therefore they claim an equal share of the property. The case was taken under advisement.

In the matter of the estate of James Burrup, deceased, a hearing was held on the petition of the widow Mary Burrup, for an admeasurement of her dower in all the real estate, property of the estate valued at $60,000. The other heirs are opposed to the granting of petition, on the ground that the widow was a beneficiary already according to the will of deceased and therefore not entitled to an admeasurement of dower. This matter, the court also took under advisement.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Applications Considered and Forty Teachers Appointed.

At the Board of Education meeting last night it was decided not to continue the training school during the summer months. A large list of applicants for the position of teachers was read and the following are successful candidates:

Fannie Maguire, May Maguire, G. Noel, Tode Riordan, Minnie Hays, Carrie Lewis, Oila Parker, Anna L. Clarkson, Belle Elliot, Minnie Fell, Catherine Gatrell, C. W. Harper, L. L. Irwin, Etta Johnson, Mrs. E. L. King, Miss Kirkpatrick, C. A. Lindt, Mrs. Lamnin, Miss Meade, C. McKnight, Lorena Peterson, Sallie Peterson, Rose Steler, Miss Rogers, Miss West, Cora Williams, Lottie Benson, May Farmer, Mary Littlefield, A. McCarty, Mary Kirwan, Mary Parker, Mrs. Murst, Lou Hulsell, Miss Copeland, Kitty Craig, Margaret Ross and Hattie Johnson.

A bill of $50 from Commissioner Jacob S. Boreman for legal services was allowed. The clerk was instructed to return the applications and photographs of unsuccessful candidates.

Prof. Page stated that he expected to be absent from the city for about one month, and asked to be excused that length of time. Granted.

Adjourned until Friday night.

Police Court Items.

A young man named Henry Allen was arrested yesterday on the charge of petit larceny. Allen and another man named Coleson had been drinking all day Sunday. Coleson had $25 in gold on his person and for safe keeping Allen suggested that he deposit it in an envelope and leave it with the barkeeper at the Silver Club saloon. The money was so placed and the two men left the saloon. Allen returned in a short time and asked for the money, going so far as to sign Coleson's name in order to procure it. The barkeeper with whom the deposit had been made had in the meantime gone home and another man was in his place. Coleson returned next morning for the money but failed to get it. Subsequent events led to the arrest of Allen, who will be tried before Justice Cahoon today.

The six boys named in yesterday's NEWS, were given ten days apiece. Pat McCoy was unable to rustle the $5 fine and was given the alternative of five days with the chain gang.

Notes and Personals.

Judge Bishop married today Miss Minnie Hiller of Winnemucca, Nev., to Herman Carstens of Butte, Mont.

George Gates, the young man who accidentally shot himself in the leg at Five Points last week, died from the effects on Sunday.

The circus is here today. The street parade was a gorgeous affair.

C. E. Langham, representing Silenhart, Heldenberg & Co., of New York, was in Ogden yesterday.

Councilman H. F. Evans, of Salt Lake City, came up last evening.

Alfred Waldron was arraigned before Commissioner Terzes yesterday on the charge of selling liquor in a drug store at North Ogden. The defendant demanded a jury, which was granted him. He was found guilty and fined $10 and costs, which he paid.

O'Dowd's Neighbors opens up at the Grand tomorrow night.

Thirty cars of California green fruit came in over the Southern Pacific again yesterday and was later shipped east.

W. F. Anderson, representing the D. O. Calder Music company of Salt Lake City, came up to stay and will remain a week or so.

Rev. J. H. Young, who went east in search of Taylor, is expected home today. It is supposed by many that Taylor will be induced to accompany him.

PROVO.

PROVO, UTAH, - JUNE 27, 1893.

COUNTY COURT.

Utah County Proposes to Make All Dilatory County Courts Come to Time.

The Utah county court held a session yesterday.

The following resolution was adopted:

Whereas, The governor and legislative assembly of the Territory of Utah did, on the 10th day of March, 1892, pass an act authorizing and requiring the respective county courts of the Territory to lease the school lands within their several counties and to perform certain other acts in relation thereto, and

Whereas, In pursuance of the provisions of such law, the County court of Utah county did, in good faith, proceed to lease to the residents of this county the school lands lying within this county, realizing therefrom a large sum of money, which has been duly paid over to the Territorial treasurer, and has been added to the Territorial school fund, thereby augmenting the same, and

Whereas, We are informed and verily believe such information to be true, that the county courts of Utah Territory, except Utah and Sanpete counties, have wilfully and unlawfully and in violation of their official duties, neglected and refused to take the necessary steps in carrying out the provisions of said act, either in leasing the school lands within their said counties, or to remove the occupants of said counties therefrom, or to collect or recover damages for mesne profits thereof, thereby wilfully and unlawfully depriving the Territorial school fund of a large source of revenue, and thereby unjustly compelling the people of the counties having in good faith complied with the provisions of said law, to contribute to said fund a much larger amount or proportion than is just, and in violation of the intent and provision of said act; therefore be it

Resolved, That the county attorney be and is hereby authorized to take such steps and institute such legal proceedings as shall compel the several delinquent county courts of this Territory to contribute to the said Territorial school fund their just and legal proportion of revenue derived, or which could and legally ought to be derived from a compliance with the provisions of said act.

Resolved, That we invite the co-operation of Sanpete and such other counties in this Territory as may have complied with the provisions of said act in the furthering the objects of this resolution and that justice may be done in the premises.

Judge Jones reported having negotiated two loans, one of $2,500 for four months at the rate of 10 per cent per annum discount, and another for the same time for $1,100 at the rate of 10 per cent interest. This makes the total indebtedness of the county $8600.

The Highland school district and precinct were created, comprising the northern part of American Fork and the southern part of Alpine. The school trustees appointed are George Myers, Stephen Maple and William Wilcox. The precinct officers are: Justice of the peace, H. Haikner; constable, G. C. Hunne; road supervisor, Samuel Groff.

The bond of Miss Rose Moore as deputy recorder was approved.

The assessment roll of the county was submitted, showing the assessed property, exclusive of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, to be $7,312,760. The time for hearing complaints of errors in assessment and petitions for remittances and abatements was set for August 8th.

The compensation of the assessor for the year was established at $2200.

The rate per cent of county tax was fixed at 2 mills on the dollar, and of county school tax 1½ mills on the dollar.

City Council.

The following items of business were transacted at last night's session of the city council:

Attorney Warner appeared in behalf of the retail liquor dealers and asked a reconsideration of the action of the council in refusing to grant a reduction of the saloon license temporarily. The matter was reconsidered and referred to the committee on license.

The limits of the fire department were extended, and now include the two tiers of blocks between Fifth and Eighth streets from E to K streets.

Agent Craig called the attention of the blockading of what he called a public road, as referred to in yesterday's NEWS, by the R. G. W. and asked that some action be taken in the matter so judiciary.

FIRST DISTRICT COURT.

An Important Water Suit in Progress. —Other Legal Business.

First district court was convened yesterday morning by Judge Smith. He made the statement to the bar that the entire calendar for the September term of court would be called at Nephi but only such cases would be tried there, as the attorneys insisted on trying there.

The case called for trial was a water suit—Lake Shore Irrigation company vs Spanish Fork et al. Plaintiff alleges that in 1874 a large portion of the water of Spanish Fork river remained unappropriated, and was then appropriated by plaintiff. In 1879 there was a scarcity of water, and as a result a controversy as to right arose between the several irrigation companies. By common consent the matter was referred to the Utah Stake High Council, and a decision was rendered, making an apportionment of the waters of the river, all the companies agreeing to be bound by the decision, which gave to plaintiff one twenty-fourth of the waters of the river, and of which amount plaintiff has now been deprived by defendants.

Defendants do not admit the validity of the decision of the High Council as a board of arbitration, but claim all the waters of the river by reason of priority of appropriation. It is further contended, should the court deem the High Council decree valid, that plaintiff is receiving one twenty-fourth of the stream, not through the dam, but by seepage. The case will occupy several days.

Neils Frederickson, a native of Denmark, was admitted to citizenship, his honor in examining him as to qualifications refraining from asking any questions as to his religious views, not even feeling concerned as to whether he was a Mormon or not. The happy departure was generally and favorably commented upon.

The Provo Commercial and Savings Bank foreclosed the mortgage of $4,400 on Elizabeth Snoble, with $400 as attorney fee.

Sad News to a Mother.

The death of Royal Hyde in Denver, a statement of which was published in last night's NEWS, was a very painful shock to his mother, who has been residing in this city. She received the first intimation of his death from the NEWS, and sank down in sorrow—such sorrow as only a mother can feel. She had just received a kind, loving letter from her absent son, stating that he had obtained work and would probably remain a little longer in Denver.

Notes and Personals.

B. Bachman, Jr., and wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Hines and daughter and Mr. Ben Schwab have returned from the World's Fair, with "lots to tell."
