BRITISH SAILORS ARE ENTERTAINED

Those of Battenberg's Fleet Are Guests of American Sailors at Dinner at Coney Island.

A COMPLETE FRATERNIZATION

"Blood is Thicker than Water" Was the Spirit that Pervaded the Whole Affair.

New York, Nov. 13.—The famous saying that "Blood is thicker than water" never found more impressive expression than it did tonight at the dinner on the Bowery at Coney Island which the enlisted men of the first squadron of the United States Atlantic fleet gave to the enlisted men of the second cruiser squadron of his Britannic majesty's navy, commanded by Rear-Admiral Prince Louis of Battenberg. It was the keynote of the cheering with which 2,500 British and American sailors made the great pavilion ring to the echo. It was the toast to which they drank across the long tables which stretched down the great hall beneath the overhanging British and American flags. It was the theme of the speeches that accompanied the cigars and beer of this mammoth feast, unique in the history of all navies and which will long furnish the theme of yarns on many a British and American berth-deck.

Coney Island, in the vicinity of the Bowery pavilion, looked as if midsummer had returned. The fakirs were about the enclosure long before the sailors, and the all-the-year-round residents packed the approaches to the hall. Inside the picture was one which surprised even the men themselves, who had worked all night in its construction. Overhead a frieze of British and American flags stretched around the hall. From each of the 12 chandeliers swinging from the ceiling down the center of the hall waved four American and four British flags. The balcony railing was intertwined with the colors of the two nations. Festoons of bunting were draped across from one balcony to the other, caught up in the center by great globes of electric lights.

Across the lower end of the main hall was a long table with four smaller tables adjoining at right angles. These were for the two commanders-in-chief, their staffs, the flag officers and their staffs and the commanding and executive officers from each of the 21 British and American warships in the North river and other officers especially invited by the men. At the center of the long table looking down the hall sat Rear Admiral Evans and Rear Admiral Prince Louis.

To the right of Admiral Evans besides the prince were Rear Admiral Dickens, Rear Admiral Brownson, Capt. Peirce, Col. R. M. Thompson, Capt. Dare and Capt. Arnold. To the left of Admiral Evans sat Sir Percy Sanderson, the British consul-general at New York; Rear Admiral Davis, Capt. Farquhar, Commissioner of Police McAdoo, Capt. Emory, Capt. King-Hall, Capt. Tilley and Capt. Ryan. The other officers were at the adjoining tables, which were prettily decorated with pink and white carnations. Champagne was the only "extra" not served at the six rows of tables which stretched from the officers' tables to the door on the main floor and for nearly the entire length of the balcony.

The British and American sailors were assembled on board the flagships Maine and Alabama early this afternoon. There they boarded three steamers, which landed them at Steeplechase pier between 5:30 and 6 o'clock. From there, escorted by 130 special police, they marched to Stauchs pavilion, on the Bowery, and received a noisy welcome along the route.

The band played a medley of popular sailor songs while the 2,500 sailors were being assigned their seats, which was done without the slightest confusion. Another evidence of their discipline came when, for nearly an hour, they sat patiently in their seats awaiting the arrival of the prince and Admiral Evans, with the other officers, who came in six special cars.

The party reached the hall about 7 and entered amid a storm of cheers. Before the prince had finished the first course he said he wanted to get the view from the gallery. When the two commanders left their seats and started for the balcony the sailors seemed to forget all about the beer and other good things before them, and jumping to their feet, they cheered for four minutes. Then the other admirals took a look from the balcony and then captains in each group, getting a rousing cheer. When the bumpers were filled the health of the British navy was drunk. Then came three cheers for Prince Louis, three for Admiral Evans and three for the British navy.

By 10 o'clock the 15 rounds of beer which each sailor received had been disposed of and the men started out to do Coney Island. Many of the amusement places opened up in honor of the visitors. At midnight the shooting galleries, the beer gardens and other attractions were doing a midsummer business, and the 2,500 sailors were having the time of their lives.

The boats will come alongside Steeplechase pier at 6 o'clock tomorrow morning to take the banqueters to their respective ships.

The dinner tonight was a return courtesy for the entertainment which the men of the American squadron received when in England saveral years ago.

The front of the menu cards bore a picture of the American and British sailors clasping hands over the flags of their two countries. The guests were seated first a Britisher and then an American.

While the men made merry at Coney Island the warrant officers of the British squadron entertained the watrant officers of the American ships at a ball on the Drake.

FENCES ON PUBLIC LANDS.

Men Guilty of it in Nebraska Plead Guilty.

Omaha, Nov. 13.—Bartlett Richards and James G. Comstock appeared before Judge Munger in the federal court today and pleaded guilty to having illegally fenced 212,000 acres of government land in Sheridan and Cherry counties, Neb. They were fined $300 each, and assessed the costs of the case, amounting to about $500. They were also sentenced to remain in the custody of the United States marshal for six hours. This latter part of the sentence was merely a formality to meet the requirements of the law and both men were permitted to go to their hotel without escort.

The Comstock and Richards ranches were the largest in the country and the case has been before the court for two years. The defendants filed affidavits and other evidence, several months ago, signifying their intention to fight the case. This decision, however, was changed.

Counsel for Richards and Comstock stated that the defendants had been occupied for nearly two months, with three large crews of men, in removing the fences, and the district attorney stated that he had reason to believe they were acting in good faith.

SAFE BLOWER IDENTIFIED.

Bridgeport, Conn., Nov. 13.—The man giving his name as James Rooney, who was arrested last Saturday at Danbury and later brought to the county jail in this city awaiting trial for stealing a ride on a railroad car, was identified tonight as "Denver Harris," a safe-blower, who is alleged to have murdered a policeman in the west.

Chief Postoffice Inspector Jacobs, accompanied by Inspector Thomas Myers of the postoffice service came to this city today with photographs for the purpose of assisting in the identification of the prisoner. As soon as Inspector Jacobs saw the man he said he was "Denver Harris" and produced photographs of the alleged safe-blower which fully identified him. His right name is Thomas O'Dowd.

The United States postoffice inspectors then attempted to identify the two men who were arrested with "Denver Harris" last Saturday, but failed. Sheriff Hawley will keep the prisoner until he hears from the west.

NOTED CRIMINAL IDENTIFIED.

Man Killed in West Berkeley Was Matthew Kennedy, Alias Kid McMunn.

Berkeley, Cal., Nov. 14.—Four separate police and detective departments in America have now identified the picture and description of the thug, killed late in September at West Berkeley by a policeman, as that of Matthew Kennedy, alias Kid McMunn, the noted criminal, wanted for various charges throughout the United States. The local marshal has just received the latest corroboration of this identification from the Pinkerton detective agency and the information accompanying it has dispelled any doubt about it being the correct solution of the mystery.

A TOUGH KILLED.

L. D. Hedges Shot by Cook at Logging Camp.

Salem, Or., Nov. 13.—At Detroit, in this county, Sunday evening, L. D. Hedges was shot and killed by William Edler, a cook at a logging camp. Hedges was a tough character and had been the terror of the neighborhood for some time. He was drunk and raising a disturbance. He shamefully beat several men and two women and when remonstrated with by the foreman, Hedges jumped on the latter with spike boots and beat him up severely. He had also knocked down Edler's wife. Hedges then went to his quarters for a gun and returned, renewing the disturbance and firing several shots, when Edler shot him dead. Edler sent word to the sheriff he was ready to answer for his deed. The sheriff has gone to the scene.

COUP IN CUBA FEARED.

Havana, Nov. 14.—It is believed that the government fears a coup d'etat, as the number of police at the palace has recently been trebled and for the last two nights the policemen have been compelled to sleep on the palace floor.

Statements which could not be verified were made tonight regarding an alleged plot against the life of General Andrade, secretary of the interior. The would-be assassins, according to the story, intended to waylay the secretary on his farm, but their plans miscarried.

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNED.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—The United States circuit court of appeals has adjourned until the first Monday in February, 1906.

CUBA WILL HAVE SURPLUS.

Havana, Nov. 13.—The budget of the year beginning July 1 next has been submitted by President Palma to congress. It estimates the receipts at about $23,000,000 and the expenses at $21,500,000.

MONEY FOR RELIEF OF JEWS.

San Francisco, Nov. 13.—P. N. Lilienthal, chairman of the Russian relief fund, wired $10,000 early today to Jacob B. Schiff of New York. He had at that time less than $7,500 on hand, but the additional subscriptions swelled the fund to over $12,000 during the day. An additional $10,000 is to be wired within a day or two and San Francisco will again lead all of the cities of her size and some of the larger ones in generosity. Many non-Jews are among the contributors, thus manifesting that the object is too broad to be limited to one creed. Small contributions are so numerous that the committee is unable to make prompt acknowledgement to each individual. A number of public meetings have been arranged for the next few days to further appeal to the public. San Francisco will probably send $25,000 before the end of the present week.

M. WITTE'S CABINET.

Considers Question of Basis of Council Of the Empire.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.—The second session of Count Witte's cabinet was held this afternoon. One of the matters under consideration was the project for placing the council of the empire, the upper house of the national assembly, to a certain extent on an elective basis, which Count Witte insisted upon before accepting the premiership, and which was one of the principal causes of the long delay in issuing the imperial manifesto of Oct. 30. The project, as elaborated, provides for the representation of landowners, orthodox, non-conformists, and non-Christian clergy, and bourse committees. The representatives each are to be chosen for five years by owners of over 5,000 acres, the orthodox and the non-conformist clergy and six by the bourse committees. The number to be chosen by the non-Christian clergy has not yet been decided.

Thus about one-quarter of the membership of the council of the empire, which hitherto has been entirely appointive, will be chosen on an elective basis. The orthodox clergy will be named by the holy synod.

BAD BLOOD WEAKENS THE SYSTEM AND INVITES DISEASE

Every part of the body is dependent on the blood for nourishment and strength, and when from any cause this vital stream of life becomes impoverished or run-down, it invites disease to enter. No one can be well when the blood is impure; they lack the energy that is natural with health, the complexion becomes pale and sallow, the vital energies are at a low ebb, and they suffer from a general broken-down condition of health. The system is weakened and unable to resist the diseases and disorders that are constantly assailing it. The Liver and Kidneys, failing to receive the proper stimulation and nourishment from the blood, grow inactive and dull, and the waste matters and bodily impurities that should pass off through these channels of nature are left in the system to produce Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases or some other blood disorder. When the blood is in this weakened and diseased condition it should be treated with a remedy that is not only thorough, but gentle in its action. S. S. S., a purely vegetable remedy, made of roots, herbs and barks, is just what is needed. It not only cleanses the blood of all impurities and poisons, and enriches and strengthens it, but gently builds up the entire system by its fine tonic effect. S. S. S. reinvigorates every member of the body, gives tone and vigor to the blood, and as it goes to the different parts, carries robust health and strength. S. S. S. acts more promptly and gives better results than any other medicine. It cures Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases and all other blood disorders, and cures them permanently. Our Medical Department will be glad to give advice without charge to all suffering with blood or skin diseases. Address
