EDITORIAL NOTES.

——An exchange indulges this way—"When Uncle Samuel is alone, he often smites his breast and frankly asks himself, 'Oh, why am I such a fearful fraud?' But some how or other he has never been able to muster courage enough to answer the conundrum."

——The following preventive of drunkenness is credited to one of the judges of the supreme court of South Carolina—"Allow every person to sell as much liquor as he wishes, without tax or license, but require those who drink to apply for license, and to give notice of such application by publishing it for one month in the official newspaper of the city or county, and then, if there be no objection, to enter into a bond for good behavior before the authority to drink is granted."

——A New York letter says Fanny Davenport is passionately fond of the ocean, is an expert swimmer, courageous in the water to the last degree, and this Summer, when a boy was carried beyond his depth at Far Rockaway, she fearlessly dashed through the breakers, and, at the risk of her own life, saved him.

——A common question just now—"Where shall a parboiled mortal find relief?"

——A Washington paper says, "Mormonism has successfully defied the advance of civilization, the Rev. John P. Newman and the legislative ingenuity of Congress."

——Mrs. Dom Pedro is reported not to have been struck with admiration over President Grant's social qualities. The President is certainly a very different sort of a man to her mercurial husband. The Chicago Times remarks that on the occasion of a recent dedication the President did her the honor to escort her through the grounds, of which occasion she is represented as remarking in this way, "General Grant is a very silent gentleman. He walked with me at the dedication. I wanted to talk as we went along. I was not a doll baby to be carried an hour or two and say nothing. But he would not say anything to me at all. So I said to him something, and he replied yes or no, and did not even look at me. At last I gave it up, and he did not say any more words to me. Oh! I was so glad when it was over; he was so very silent."

GOOD CROPS.

PERSONS who knew this city a few years ago and have been away from it for that time, are surprised, when they revisit it, at the increase in its growth and development. Constant residents notice the same facts, if they are not quite so striking to them because of every day familiarity.

But it is not the city alone that has grown and prospered. The country has been settled, improved, and developed in a corresponding degree. Large stretches of land have been taken up and cultivated and made to produce grain and grass and fruit and vegetables to a surprising extent. Indeed people who knew the country settlements and their surroundings years ago, and have not seen them for years, would be surprised to see them now, and to note, as they instinctively would do, the marked enlargement of the settlements and the spreading out of farms where formerly it was deemed impracticable to make farms and successfully cultivate them.

Take a trip on the Utah Southern, or the Utah Central, or the Utah Northern, those of our citizens who have kept close to the city for five to ten years, and they will hardly be prepared to find such extensive stretches of the country taken up and put under cultivation.

There does seem to be this year a more than ordinary breadth of land in grain, and a very large amount of it is white already to harvest. Much of it has been cut, and much more ought to be immediately, judging by a casual look at it from a distance. Most of the wheat is too far advanced for the thunder showers to do any harm, except to lay it.

There is not only a large amount of land in grain, but the general report seems to be that there is an abundant harvest of small grain, corn, hay, potatoes, etc., particularly of wheat and hay, in some settlements perhaps twenty-five per cent. above the usual yield. While the complaint is in the city that there are more hands than there is work for them to do, the complaint is revered in many of the settlements, where there is a lack of hands to get in the harvest at the time it should be got in and made secure.

The fruit prospects are not so good as the grain prospects, for what with codling moth, grubs of various kinds, and other pests of that description, combined with late frosts, the crops of several sorts of fruit will be very light. The ravages of the codling moth among the apples extend every year into new fields, while the old fields do not improve, so that the apple crop, as a dependence for profit, is rapidly becoming a thing of the past. The peas and the native currants are badly affected with bugs, or worms, so as to very materially reduce the yield for table consumption.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 31.—The resolution prohibiting the supply of special metallic cartridges to hostile Indians passed.

Ingalls said the man who would sell ammunition to the Indians now should be hanged to the nearest telegraph pole or shot by a drumhead court martial.

The chair laid before the Senate a communication from the Secretary of War transmitting a dispatch from Lieut. General Sheridan recommending an increase in the cavalry, and recommending an appropriation to defray the additional expense. The dispatch was accompanied by a bill authorizing the increase, and making the appropriation $1,634,700. The bill passed by a vote of yeas 24, nays 32. It provides that not more than 2,500 men shall be enlisted under the act.

The Senate refused to consider the amendment to the rules for government impeachment trials so as to have deliberations in open session, and the doors were closed for the discussion of the final question on the Belknap impeachment.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, 31.—Imediately after the reading of the journal consideration was resumed of the reports of the committee on naval affairs, and Whitthorne advocated the majority report.

The resolution reported by the majority of the naval committee referring the case of the Secretary of the Navy to the judiciary committee was adopted.

EASTERN.

The Chinese Investigating Committee—Governor Axtell Going to Stump Ohio, etc.

WASHINGTON, 31.—The committee on the part of the Senate to investigate the Chinese question on the Pacific Coast will be composed of Senators Morton, Sargent and Cooper. Morton will leave for California in October, immediately after the Indiana State election.

Gov. Axtell, of New Mexico, will take part in the campaign in Ohio, by invitation of the Ohio Republicans.

Representative Page is preparing an elaborate speech reviewing the course of the democrats during the last six months, and comparing the attitude of the present administration, concerning investigations, with the attitude assumed by Prest. Buchanan in 1860, when he refused to approve of the appropriation to defray the expenses of similar investigations.

The Dalles Military Reservation.

The Senate military affair committee have reported very emphatically on the petitions asking Congress to grant the Dalles military reservation and buildings to the State of Oregon for the purpose of an insane asylum, endorsed by Gen. O. O. Howard, with a statement that he thinks that no better disposition can be made of them.

The committee, after referring to the recommendation of the War Department, made to Congress in 1864, that the property should be sold, and after quoting the report from Secretary Cameron that grain can be raised to perfection on the reservation and that the buildings are of value, say they see no special reason why this portion of the public domain should be granted to Oregon, or why that State should receive such a donation. Any other State might, with equal propriety, expect any other portion of the public land within its boundaries. They, therefore, report a bill providing that the reservation be sold by the Internal Department for cash at not less than the appraised value.

Resignation Requested—The Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill.

The President has requested the resignation of Supervising Architect Potter.

The President will, to-day, sign the sundry civil appropriation bill, and accompany the approval with a message explanatory of his views unfavorable to certain portions of the bill.

Grant and Bluford Wilson.

A personal friend of the President is authority for the statement that Grant has said that he does not intend to rely upon the efforts of his friends to defend him against the Bluford-Wilson history, but will himself prepare a statement, to be submitted to the committee, which he claims will be able to controvert all that has been brought to his disfavor.

Heavy Rain and Thunder Storm.

NEW YORK, 31.—A heavy northeast rain and thunder storm has prevailed for the last twenty hours along the Atlantic coast, which is of incalculable benefit to the country.

Meeting of Unemployed Workmen—Strike.

About one thousand working men met in Tompkins square to-day. They declare that 30,000 men are out of employment in this city, daily searching for work without success, and are living on the charity of friends and neighbors. They formed a procession, and headed by fifteen policemen, marched to the Mayor's office in the City Hall.

The long-shore men struck to-day for an increase of wages. Police reserves are out to preserve peace.

Excitement Among the Stockbrokers.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., 31.—The excitement among the stockbrokers in consequence of the collapse of the Hestonville Passenger Railway stock on Saturday afternoon continues to-day without abatement. At a meeting of the board this morning six firms of brokers announced their inability to meet the demands on them, and the Hestonville stock which, on Saturday afternoon stood at 41, to-day stands at 27. There will be very heavy losses by the result of the collapse, but nothing definite can be known for two or three days.

Bristow Going to Speak for Hayes and Wheeler.

BOSTON, 31.—Ex-Secretary Bristow leaves to-day for Vermont where he will speak for Hayes and Wheeler at some of the larger places, then pass a few days in the White Mountains, and finish his trip in this section by a brief stay at East Hampton.

Jury Verdict and Suicide.

DENVER, Col., 31.—The jury in the Yankee murder trial at Boulder, brought in a verdict of guilty of premeditated murder in the first degree, at 8 25 o'clock this morning, and at 9.50 the prisoner suicided by hanging himself with a curtain cord in his cell.

Violations and Massacres by the Turks—Herzegovina Defenceless—Intervention.

CHICAGO, 31.—The Courier's special telegram gives details of a massacre by the Turks in Bosnia. Three hundred Christians were tortured and drowned in the villages of Pernan and Lemar, twelve women were cut to pieces at Pavica, sixty children were stened to death at Rathlovo, one hundred and eighty girls violated and murdered at Sackalove, and three thousand Christians were massacred at Pridor.

The Times' special says the Turks at Wibitza, after two hours' fighting, fled in uncontrollable panic; the greater part of the army was lost. Bilek is surrounded. There is a panic at Trebinje. This leaves Herzegovina practically defenceless.

The Telegraph's Vienna special, speaking of intervention, says the initiative will be taken by England at Belgrade and Constantinople, with the approval of the Powers. The belligerents are favorable to peace negotiations.

Troops for Terry or Crook.

ST. LOUIS, 31.—All the cavalry now on duty in southern Kansas, Texas and the Indian Territory have been ordered to join General Terry or Crook, and will leave for their destination at once.

LONDON, 31.—The News' Rome special says the Khedhive, in reply to the demands made by Italy, declines any responsibility in the Antinia expedition beyond Zerla. The fate of the expedition is unknown.

Parliament to be Prorogued in August—The Lord Lieutenancy of Ireland—Silver Risen—Troops Annihilated—Intense Feeling in Greece.

Baron Wharncliffe is said to have accepted the Lord Lieutenancy of Ireland.

The Duke of Marlborough is declining.

Silver at Amsterdam has risen to 95 guilders per kilogram.

The Turks engaged on Friday near Medum, numbering 12,000. They were driven to Podoritza, and lost two guns. The supporting battalions were annihilated.

The atrocities of Bashi Bazouks cause an intense feeling throughout Greece, and her relations with Turkey are becoming alarmingly serious. The opposition newspaper of Greece demands that the country be placed in a position to command the respect of her neighbors.
