Sickness.—A correspondent writes from Tooele City that there has been considerable sickness there during the Winter thus far, mostly in the form of throat complaints.

Near Runaway.—This afternoon a team attached to a wagon on South Temple Street, while the driver was on the road, started on a runaway. But the teamster held on to the hind part of the wagon, mounted upon it, seized the lines, and brought the animals to a standstill before any damage was done. The teamster showed a great deal of dexterity.

Departed.—Yesterday the wife of Judge S. Burke, died at the Walker House of heart disease. The lady had been ailing for a long time, and her husband who came to this city a few weeks since, from Cleveland, Ohio, having been retained as counsel for the plaintiff in the Fort Golden mining suit, brought her with him in the hope that a change of scene and air would be of benefit to the patient. The remains, in care of the husband of the deceased, were taken eastward, to-day, for interment.

Stopping the Devices.

The jubilation at Odessa over the capture of Kars was cut short in a very unexpected manner. Admiral Tchekatcheff had collected all the officers and functionaries connected with Odessa in the cathedral and the Te Deum was being chanted with all the energy for which Russian priests are remarkable, when suddenly a courier rushed into the building and handed the commander of the port a telegram, in which it was tersely stated that five of the enemy's ironclads were steaming into the harbor. At this intelligence an extraordinary scene of confusion ensued. Tchekatcheff hurried off to get the Popoffkas and war steamers under weigh, the officers raced in droskies to the batteries to put the garrison under arms, and the affrighted functionaries, by their noise and clatter, set the entire town in a fright. When everything had been got ready for the reception of Hobart Pasha it was discovered that the whole affair was a false alarm; the five Ottoman ironclads turning out to be simply five peaceful sailing vessels which had been running the blockade from Ackerman to Odessa.

Some—A Horse Fair. Aristocrat: "Ya-as, he may be a jewel, a—but you want too much for him. He's got such an ugly head and legs." Irish Dealer: "An' faith, sor, if the horse could only spake, he'd be afther saying as much iv your honor."—Punch.

Mr. Sutton, a well-known professional base-ball player, was converted at a revival meeting in Philadelphia not long ago. He came to address the meeting and said, "I have made the first-base, and by the help of the Lord will make a home-run." Too many think they have made a home-run when they have reached the first-base.
