A STORY OF SCIENCE.

BY ONE WHO KNOWS NOTHING ABOUT IT.

A philosopher sat in his easy chair,
Looking as grave as Milton,
He wore a solemn and mystic air
As he Canada balsam spread on
A strip of glass, as a slide to prepare
For a mite taken out of his Stilton.

He took the microscope out of his case,
And settled the focus rightly,
The light thrown back from the mirror's face
Came glimmering upward brightly,
He put the slide with the mite in place,
And fixed on the cover tightly.

He turned the instrument up and down,
Till getting a proper sight, he
Exclaimed, as he gazed with a puzzled frown,
"Good gracious!" and highty-tighty!
The sight is enough to alarm the town—
A mite is a monster mighty!"

From t'other end of the tube the mite
Regarded our scientific;
To its naked eye, as you'll guess, the sight
Of a man was most terrific,
But reversing the microscope made him quite
The opposite of magnific.

"One sees the truth through this tube so tall,"
Said the mite, as he squinted through it;
"Man is not so wondrously big, after all,
If the mite-world only knew it!"

Philadelphia Mint Coinage.

NEW YORK, 1.—The World's Philadelphia says the statement of superintendent Pollock, of the mint, covering operations for the year, shows there was coined in 1877, gold, silver and base money, 31,826,149 pieces, of the total value of $18,639,414.50. The recapitulation of coinage is as follows: Gold pieces, 406,699, value $7,679,844; silver pieces 29,566,950, value $10,651,045.50; base money, 852,500 pieces, value $8,525; total, 30,826,149 pieces, value $18,639,414.50.

Walsh to be Suspended.

The Tribune's Washington special says the President gave peremptory orders, to-day, for the suspension of Walsh, superintendent of the St. Louis Custom House building. Numerous accusations were made against him during Grant's administration, but sufficient political influence was always brought to bear to prevent hostile action on the part of the authorities here. When the present district attorney took hold of the matter, and prosecuted the indictment against Walsh, the latter was defended by nearly all the government officials in St. Louis. A majority of the newspapers and his friends boldly asserted that he could not be convicted.

Will Investigate the El Paso County Troubles.

The Tribune's Washington special says: The President, at the request of Representatives Mills and Schleicher, the only members of the Texas delegation now in Washington, has directed that a commission be appointed to investigate and report facts in regard to the El Paso troubles. General Ord has been requested to detail two officers of the army to act with a citizen of Texas, to be appointed by Governor Hubbard, the three to constitute this commission. After an organization these gentlemen will proceed to the scene of the riot, summon witnesses, take testimony, and report all the facts. Among other subjects to which their attention is specially directed is an inquiry whether or not Mexicans from Mexico took part in the attack on the State troops at El Paso, and if they did, the number of them.

The latest dispatches received from El Paso, through military channels, bring information from Colonel Hatch that a considerable portion of the rioters were from the south side of the Rio Grande River, and that many of them were freebooters, whose object was plunder as well as revenge. Before returning to the Mexican side of the river they broke into stores owned by citizens of Texas, and carried off considerable property.

The Old and New Years.

At midnight the streets were crowded with enthusiastic people, mainly Germans, watching the old year out and the new one in. The chimes in the steeples rang popular airs, and there was also a grand chorus of tin horns and general merry-making. The excise law was generally disregarded, though the crowds were generally good natured.

Inauguration.

RICHMOND, Va., 1.—For the first time in the history of Virginia since colonial times, its Governor, Col. F. W. Holliday, was inaugurated, to-day, with all the pomp and display of a grand public demonstration. The Governor in his inaugural address, takes the strongest grounds for the maintainance of the State credit, making the points that the debt was created to provide which the State now possesses and from which it daily derives profit, and that the war effected no change in relations between the State and its creditors.

New Year's Reception.

WASHINGTON, 1.—The New Year's reception at the Executive Mansion was held in the blue parlor, after which the callers passed through into the east room, where promenading and exchanges of compliments of the season were indulged in. The President and Mrs. Hayes were assisted by Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Platt, Mrs. Breckenridge, Judge and Mrs. Force, Miss Foote, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Herron. The marine band was stationed in the ante chamber, and as the foreign ambassadors, in full costume, with ladies of their respective households, and cabinet officers with their wives, entered the wide hall strains of enlivening music filled the air.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

The Peace Negotiations.

LONDON, 1.—A Vienna correspondent, referring to Russia's reply to the English note concerning the opening of negotiations for peace with Turkey, which reply, as reported last night, is to the effect that Turkey should apply direct to the Russian commander-in-chief for an armistice, says: This intelligence was not altogether unexpected. Ever since the idea of a possible mediation was mooted, feelers have been thrown out from Berlin and St. Petersburg indicating that Russia regarded an armistice as a preliminary step to any pacific overtures, the additional hint that the Czar would require the cession of the Danubian fortresses as the preliminary condition of an armistice, but owing to the weather it seems almost impossible for the Russians to think of leading a large army across the Balkans. It may be expected that they will not exact too hard terms for an armistice, but will content themselves with Erzeroum and one or two fortresses on the Danube.

The Pall Mall Gazette, in a leading article commenting on the reported Russian answer to England's note, says: It is what most people expected, and it will be more profitable to consider what is likely to follow than fling angry words at what was well foreseen. We may now expect the strongest pressure to be put on Turkey to make peace outright with her foe. We suppose a re-settlement of the eastern question by Russia and Turkey is not thought desirable by any Englishman who understands the tenure on which our empire is held; nor is it conceivable that England, with safety, can allow the acquisition of the Black Sea ports and the rectification of the Asian frontiers to be made while she remains mute.

Eastern War News.

The troops, under Fuad Pasha, defending Ikhtiman Defile, have been reinforced, and it is believed the defile is now impregnable.

A junction between Generals Melikoff and Tergukassoff's corps, south of Erzeroum, is believed to be imminent.

The Russians are advancing on Balburt, where the Turks are concentrated in force, and a battle is expected shortly.

Gen. Loris Melikoff has gone to Tiflis; Gen. Heymann has succeeded him. It is thought the attack on Erzeroum will be delayed until Melikoff's return, which cannot be before the end of January.

Gen. Beliugarkevitch has left the garrison at Pirot, and is marching to the defile of Czarokybrod.

The Servian corps at Kursumlje marches to Prischtina.

The Turks in Bosnia intend crossing the Drina into Servia.

The "Times" on Russia's Answer.

The Times, in a leader, says: Russia has, in her answer, entered into controversy with England. Her answer is really addressed to Turkey. To suppose that England should feel herself rebuffed because the Porte has been invited to send an envoy to the Russian commander-in-chief, would be to raise suspicions that our government has gone out of its way to provoke a quarrel; yet it would be useless to hide the existence of influences which, if unchecked, would involve us in a quarrel. A section of society with some advantages of position, is using all its power to array England on the side of Turkey.

FRANCE.

Ex-Queen Isabella's Letter.

PARIS, 1.—Isabella, ex-Queen of Spain, in her letter to Figaro, protesting against the vagabond from France of Don Carlos and repudiating the accusation that she was conspiring with him against King Alfonso, her son, says: "My good and cordial relations with my nephew Don Carlos, and my niece Donna Marguerite de Bourbon, are secret to no one, I have never forfeited their esteem, nor have they mine, and I will not, moreover, disregard the bonds of kinship which unite us and which misfortune has cemented. Donna Marguerite de Bourbon is godmother of my daughter Infanta Eulalie, and it is no wonder that public politics, aside from the members of the same family, preserve such natural relations. The Compte de Chambord thought so."

Order for Locomotives.

Russia has ordered of an establishment here a large number of locomotives. The same concern was asked to furnish three iron bridges, deliverable on the Danube in April, but declined on account of the scarcity of time. The same establishment is founding heavy guns for an unknown purchaser.

RUSSIA.

England's Mediatory Action.

ST. PETERSBURG, 1.—The prevalent conviction here is the success of England's mediatory action will depend upon the spirit in which it may have been made. It is thought in official circles that any pacific effort should proceed from the standpoint that peace conditions must be consonant with Russia's dignity and sacrifices, and it is believed England cannot overlook this consideration.

AUSTRIA.

Will Resume Overtures.

VIENNA, 1.—Instructions were telegraphed from St Petersburg on Sunday to the Russian commanders in Europe and Asia to receive any overtures for a truce that the Turks might make.

ITALY.

The Catholic Hierarchy in Scotland.

ROME, 1.—The Pope has authorized Cardinal Manning to negotiate with Great Britain for the removal of certain difficulties which delay the re-establishment of the Roman Catholic hierarchy in Scotland.

BIBLE TERMS.—Readers of the Bible will be interested in the following explanation of expressions frequently met with in the Holy Scriptures. They are believed to be entirely correct:

A day's journey was 33 and 1-3 miles. A Sabbath day's journey was about one English mile. Ezekiel's reed was 11 feet, nearly. A cubit is 22 inches, nearly. A finger's breadth is equal to one inch. A shekel of silver was about 60 cents. A shekel of gold was $8.09. A talent of silver was $1,518.22. A talent of gold was $23,309. A piece of silver, or a penny, was 13 cents. A farthing was 3 cents. A gerah was 2 cents. A mile was 1½ cents. A homer contained 76 gallons and 5 pints. An ephah, or bath, contained 7 gallons and 4 pints. A hin was 1 gallon, 2 pints. A firkin was 7 pints. An omer was 6 pints. A cab was 3 pints. A log was one-half pint.

AN ORDINANCE

Relating to Houses of Ill-Fame and Prostitution.

SECTION 1.—Be it ordained by the City Council of Salt Lake City: That any person in this city,

First, Who either keeps a house of ill fame resorted to for the purpose of prostitution or lewdness; or wilfully resides in such house; or resorts thereto for lewdness;

Second, Who is the owner of any building or tenement, the whole or any part of which is used for any of the purposes mentioned in the first subdivision of this section; or has control of such building or tenement as agent, guardian, or lessee of such owner, or as the agent of such guardian or lessee, and after notice of such improper use of such building or tenement shall fail to suppress the same by removing therefrom the occupants thereof; or

Third, Who lets any building or tenement knowing that the lessee intends using the same, or any part thereof, for any of the purposes mentioned in the first subdivision of this section; or harbors or keeps about his or her private premises any whoremaster, strumpet or whore, knowing the same to be guilty of following a lewd course of life therein;

Shall be liable, for such offence, to a fine in any sum not exceeding ninety-nine dollars, or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding one hundred days; or to both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 2.—It shall be lawful, on the trial of any person charged with either of the offences named in the preceding section, for the prosecution to introduce in support of such charge, testimony of the general character and reputation of the person or place, touching the offence or charge set forth in the complaint, and the defendant may likewise resort to testimony of a like nature for the purpose of disproving such charge.

SEC. 3.—In prosecutions under the second subdivision of Section one of this ordinance it shall be a sufficient defense if the defendant shows at the trial that he has diligently used the power which the law gives him to suppress the improper use of the building or tenement concerning which the charge is made.

SEC. 4.—That Chapter forty-four of the Revised Ordinances of Salt Lake City, passed July 20th, 1875, "Relating to Houses of Ill-fame and Prostitution," be, and the same is hereby repealed; Provided, that all offences heretofore committed in violation of any of the provisions of said Chapter forty-four of the Revised Ordinances of Salt Lake City hereby repealed, may be enquired into, prosecuted and punished the same as if this ordinance had not been passed.

Passed Dec. 18th, 1877.
