CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, 20.—Edmunds had read the twelfth article of the constitution, under which he said eight or ten millions of citizens had endeavored to elect a President, but the contest had been so close that Congress was compelled to decide what means were left for deciding this dispute. A large part of the people would believe themselves wronged should their candidate be excluded. He argued that, no matter what the result might be, all men should be satisfied that legal and honest steps had been taken to reach it. Concerning the first section, he personally believed that where one return only was received and was objected to, it should be referred to the tribunal organized by the bill instead of referring to the affirmative vote of both houses to reject it. This tribunal would decide between two returns from any state, which was constitutional. The tribunal was made so large in order to represent every possible opinion and yet was small enough to act promptly. Concerning the selection of judges he thought a most satisfactory plan had been adopted, and the only difficulty was the constitutional objections which newspaper men wrote so much about, and which he supposed they understood fully. He believed nobody ever criticized the absolute fairness of the judiciary. The bill made Judge Clifford president of the tribunal. After the oath was taken unfairness and partizanship would vanish, and absolute impartiality would prevail. They were simply to decide on what had occurred. If there was any value in our civil institutions this was our final hope. He said it would be a strange country if, according to law, one candidate had been elected and Congress should make another law which would elect another candidate of a different party. There was no change made or to be made in the law since the electoral vote was cast, but simply a provision made for ascertaining what was the law. If both Houses had power to go behind the returns, then this tribunal would have such power, otherwise it would not. He represented the futility of leaving it to Congress who would be long on the current of warm debate. Concerning the section which declares any candidate may retain any right to contest his case in the courts, he said it was the idea of the committee's to curtail nobody's rights in this respect. If, as some gentlemen contended, the constitution committed to one or two persons or bodies the right of deciding who should be President, that was fatal to this bill. If such power was reposed in the President of the Senate he could say nobody would desire any better judge than the present occupant of the chair. If no such power was delegated its exercise would be an invasion of the rights of constitutional government. He argued that if it was intended by the powers of the Constitution to give that officer such power, it was most unfortunate that they did not say so. It staggered human credulity to believe they wished to make him judge on the most critical case that could befall the republic, and should not say so. If his power to open the certificates implied the power to decide which were correct, then he could make a president. Edmunds denied the implied power. The Constitution allowed Congress to pass any law making its provisions effective. He read from supreme court decisions to show that the bill was constitutional. Neither the President of the Senate nor either house of Congress had the right to decide on the returns until a law was passed expressly providing for it. He denied that the President of the Senate had always opened and counted the votes. The bill did not take away from the House or the President of the Senate any powers, and was therefore not unconstitutional. He appealed to the senators to inquire whether it was better, by stimulating doubts in their own minds, to send this republic like mountains tumbling into a shoreless sea, or to settle the matter fairly and equitably.

THE GREEN THREE CENT STAMP.—By about the middle of next May the public will have seen the last of the present three cent stamp and begin to get accustomed to something red or possibly a new tint. The best and the fastest color known, the green three, has proved a placer for stamp washers who take off the oily cancellation with out acid or alkali and set the stamp afloat again. So far the department has found no way out of the difficulty, and the long series of experiments just completed has resulted in nothing more than the assurance that green is the poorest of stamp colors. At the time it was adopted no other nation used it for its unit of letter postage, and with its disuse the common stamps the world over will run to reds and browns. With the change of color, May 1, there will be a change in design. The medallion head of Washington will be retained, but it will be relieved by an open space of white, and the scroll work will have a different pattern. Altogether the new stamp will bear some resemblance to a stamp of sixteen years ago, which most people have forgotten. The white background is adopted in the hope that any attempt to wash the stamp will leave this part irretrievably soiled. Some other general changes in the stamps are likely to follow the making of a new contract. May 1, and a new head is likely to be introduced in the shape of a medallion of Liberty, one step towards bringing more similarity between the designs of coins and stamps. There is some intention of putting this design on the five cent stamp, used for the most part for foreign postage. Conference and correspondence with other postal authorities show that loss from the re-use of stamps is much more frequent here than abroad. It is scarcely known in England, and there the stamps offer the additional temptation of being easy to counterfeit. The practice has recently begun in India, and the frugal folk is giving the Anglo-Indian office serious loss by its skill in dealing with cancelled stamps.—Lancaster (Pa.) Intelligencer.

MEDICAL.

Judgment of the People.

During the past eight years the public have carefully observed the wonderful cures accomplished by Allen's Strengthening Cordial. From its use many an afflicted sufferer has been restored to perfect health after having expended a small fortune in procuring medical advice and obtaining poisonous mineral medicines.

Its medical properties are alterative, tonic, solvent and diuretic. There is no disease of the human system for which Allen's Strengthening Cordial cannot be used with perfect safety.

Allen's Strengthening Cordial

WILL CURE

SCROFULA!

SCROFULOUS HUMOR.

It will eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula and Scrofulous Humor. It has permanently cured thousands of helpless case where all other known remedies failed.

ALLEN'S STRENGTHENING CORDIAL

Is the great blood purifier, cures Syphilis and removes Pimples and Humors on the face.

Reason should teach us that a blotchy, rough or pimpled skin depends entirely upon an internal cause, and no outward application can ever cure the defect.

Tumors, Ulcers, or Old Sores

Are caused by an impure state of the blood; cleanse the blood thoroughly with Allen's Strengthening Cordial and the complaints will disappear.

Allen's Strengthening Cordial cures Constipation, Dyspepsia, Faintness of Stomach. It is not a stimulating Bitters which creates a fictitious appetite, but a gentle Tonic, which assists nature to restore the stomach to a healthy action. No person suffering with Sour Stomach, Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Low Spirits, &c, can take three doses without relief.

Allen's Strengthening Cordial cures Female Weakness; it acts directly upon the causes of those complaints, invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs and allays inflammation.

Allen's Strengthening Cordial has never failed to cure mercurial diseases, pain in the bones, as it removes from the system the producing cause. Salt Rheum and Scald Head readily yield to the great alterative effects of this medicine.

Allen's Strengthening Cordial has never been known to fail in giving immediate relief in all diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary organs. This medicine challenges the most profound attention of the medical faculty, many of whom are prescribing it to their patients.

Allen's Strengthening Cordial acts as delightfully on the tender babe, the most delicate lady, and hoary old age, as on the strong man; imparting health and vigor to the nerves and brain, blood vessels, heart and liver. When taken you can feel its life-giving power course through every artery, destroying all diseases in the blood and giving health, elasticity and strength to the whole organization.

Allen's Strengthening Cordial is acknowledged by all classes of people to be the best and most reliable blood purifier in the world. It is a never failing remedy and can be relied upon. How many thousands upon thousands have been snatched as it were from the brink of the grave by its miraculous power. Who will suffer from Liver Complaints, Dyspepsia, Disease of the Stomach, Kidneys, Bowels or Bladder when such a great remedy is within reach?

Volumes might be filled with proof from all parts of the civilized world to prove that no remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine that acts so promptly. Even in the worst cases of scrofula a good appetite, complete digestion, strength and a disposition for exercise are sure to follow its use. If the bowels are costive, or headache accompanies the disease, the use of Allen's Liver Pills will remove them. Over eight years experience and the increasing popularity of Allen's medicines are conclusive proof.

Price $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00. If your druggist or store-keeper does not have it, we will forward half a dozen to any address on receipt of the price.

Distress after eating, Inward Weakness, Languor, Want of Appetite, are at once removed by a dose or two of these Pills. Thousands of persons have used these Pills, we have yet to hear the first complaint from one who has tried them. They always give relief.

ALLEN'S LIVER PILLS

Regulate the organs of the system, restoring functional harmony and securing the secretion of the proper quantities of each organ. By their action the liver secretes its allotted portion of bile—the lungs carbon, the skin sweat, the kidneys urine, etc., and are always reliable as a purgative.

The aged, and persons subjected to Constipation, Paralysis, and Weakness of the Bowels, Kidneys and Bladder, etc., that have to resort to injections, by taking two or three of Allen's Liver Pills, will enjoy natural discharges, and by the occasional use of them have regular operations. In these cases their strengthening and nutritious principles are exhibited; every dose will add new strength to the Bowels, Liver, Kidneys, etc., that may be worn or depleted by age.

In these Pills, a want that science has ever fitted to supply is supplied, and this is a thorough purgative that can be given in safety in cases of eruptive fevers, as Smallpox, Erysipelas, Yellow Fever, Scarlet and Typhoid Fevers. When the Mucous Membrane becomes ulcerated, these Pills act thoroughly, yet heal ulcerated and excoriated parts. They are made from extracts of a new ingredient entirely vegetable, superior in every respect to the ordinary powders and substances of the common advertised Pills, and have a safe, certain, and uniform action.
