Spofford Elected U. S. Senator.

NEW ORLEANS, 24.—The legislature, to-day, elected Judge Spofford United States senator. Several prominent republican members made speeches, recommending that the republicans vote for Spofford, who was the democratic nominee. The vote stood—Spofford 140, Wiltz 1, Bland 12, necessary to a choice seventy-seven.

General Rejoicing.

This afternoon one hundred guns were fired and flags liberally displayed in honor of the withdrawal of the troops from the vicinity of the State House.

Republican Letter to President Hayes.

The following letter has been forwarded to President Hayes—

New Orleans, April 24th.

The undersigned republicans of Louisiana deem it their duty to assure you that although they had hoped and expected a different result would have been arrived at in the settlement of the Louisiana question, yet they are satisfied you acted for what, in your judgment, was promotive of the best interest of the whole country. We are consequently resolved to carry out in good faith the settlement, and to accord to the Nicholls government our recognition and support, relying on it to carry out in good faith its pledge to the people of this State. We do not understand that you, in the slightest degree in this matter, abandon the republican principles, and your desire to promote the interests of the republican party, the legitimate offspring of the old whig party, through which we cherish the expectation that you will advocate our internal improvement, interest in government and for levees, Southern Pacific Railroads, outlet to the Mississippi River and for such other public works as are necessary to assist in developing the resources of our State, and of the whole country. Relying on your aid in these and all other matters tending to produce peace, concord and prosperity in our State, we will give to your administration our cordial support. We remain, most respectfully,

Yours, etc.

(Signed) JOHN RAY, R. M. SEARCY, ELBERT GAUTT, LOUIS DESMARNIS.

For the Seat of War.

CHICAGO, 24.—The Tribune and Times both start correspondents to Europe, to-day, for the purpose of securing special reports from the scene of the conflict.

A Grand Salute.

MEMPHIS, 24.—A salute of 38 guns for the restored Union was fired at four o'clock this afternoon, followed by a Presidential salute of twenty-one guns, ex-Confederate and ex-Union soldiers participating.

The Hampton Legislature.

COLUMBIA, 24.—The legislature met in session, called by Governor Hampton, and Wallace, of the House, called the roll of members, sixty-nine in number, who adjourned in December. The Mackey members were not acted on. In the Senate Chamberlain's lieutenant governor Gleaves called the body to order, and retired from the chair, though claiming that he was entitled to it. The Senate then resolved to swear in Simpson, the Hampton lieutenant governor, but Simpson peremptorily declined to be sworn again, saying he took the oath in last December. The Senate then reconsidered that motion, and Simpson took the chair and made a conciliatory speech. The Laurens and Edgefield democrats were then, on motion, sworn, Simpson overruling an objection to that proceeding, simply saying the seats were subject to contest. The Senate now stands, democrats fifteen, republicans eighteen, but one of the latter votes with the democrats, and another is in jail awaiting criminal proceedings. The indications are, therefore, that associate justice Willard will be nominated for chief justice by the democrats and elected according to Hampton's wish.

The Tweed Investigation.

NEW YORK, 24.—In the investigation of Tweed, Kelly said Tweed's confession, shown him by Townsend and Fairchild, states positively that Tweed paid Winslow $200,000 for division among Woodin and four other republican Senators, also that he paid Hastings $20,000 for legislative influence, that Winslow told Tweed he had properly distributed the $200,000, and that Tweed has some 300 checks paid by him to legislators. The Attorney-General did not give this information under pledge of secrecy.

Andrew Garvey testified that he was friendly with Tweed; was a politician in 1870; knew of a pool to influence the legislature; contributed $50,000 with the understanding that he would get it back; paid a check of $10,000 to A. E. King, and $40,000 to James Ingersoll, who represented that Tweed needed money, and said that $100,000 was to be raised and taken to Albany. Witness got his money back by gradually adding to his bills against the city. Tweed took the pool money and that was the last ever heard of it. He understood the money was used to levy votes for the charter. He believed all the other parties got their money back in a similar way. Tweed had laughed at the idea of a committee investigating the ring, saying, "Oh, we will put up for them."

J. C. Crookshank, teller of the Brooklyn Bank, testified that Winslow opened an account there in June, 1870, and deposited various checks thereafter.

Destructive Gale.

GALVESTON, 24.—A very severe gale, lasting fifteen minutes, during which the wind blew sixty-three miles per hour, prevailed this morning, and did considerable damage, knocking the shipping about, unroofing houses, etc.

Guilty of Libel.

DETROIT, 24.—James E. Scripps, editor of the Evening News, was found guilty of libel, in charging Judge Reilly of the Circuit Court with being seen in flagrante relicto with a female client, and damages of $5,000 given.

Town Lot Jumping—Fatal Affray.

DEADWOOD, D. T., 24.—This afternoon a dispute arose, in which seven persons were engaged, concerning the title of a town lot in South Deadwood. After some harsh language all hands drew six shooters and commenced firing, which resulted in Dan O'Bradovitch, of Eureka, Nevada, being killed, Steve Dorsych, of the same place, mortally shot, and N. Millich slightly wounded.

Another disturbance, caused by town lot jumping, occurred to-day, during which several shots were fired, but nobody hurt.

Executed.

SPRINGFIELD, Ga., 24.—George Williams, colored, was executed to-day, for killing his stepchild by beating and roasting.

Everything Amicably Arranged at New Orleans.

WASHINGTON, 24.—Hon. Wayne McVeigh, a member of the Louisiana commission, now in this city, has received the following—

New Orleans, 24.

The national colors are displayed profusely in our streets and from the shipping. A salute of 100 guns has been fired. Twenty thousand people are on the streets. The police force will disappear from the St. Louis Hotel to-night, except a small force to protect the property of the State. The private secretary of Governor Nicholls, with the sergeants-at-arms of the Senate and House, will take possession of the buildings at nine o'clock to-morrow morning. Everything is amicably arranged.

Stephens Interviewed.

Alex. H. Stephens, in an interview to-night, expressed the opinion that as the policy of President Hayes is enforced, one by one, of those clamoring against him will hush their noise, abandon their opposition, and fall into the line of the advancing columns. For myself, for the first time in twenty years, I see a hopeful future for our common country. Black men and white men stand equal before the law. The affairs of state are to be governed by local authority; federal action is to be confined within its constitutional restrictions. There is dawning a most glorious future.

The Indian Renegades.

The commissioner of Indian affairs, to-day, received a telegram from Indian agent Clum, who was recently instructed to go to the southern Apache agency in New Mexico, with his force of Indian ponies to bring certain renegade Indians back to the San Carlos agency, in Arizona. Agent Clum reports that he arrived at the Hot Springs agency on the evening of the 20th, and arrested Heronoma and two other prominent renegades. He counted all the Indians at that agency, and found they numbered 434. He thinks as many as forty are now raiding in Sonora and Arizona. The military was expected on the 22nd inst. Clum added that he will proceed with the removal, and that the Indian police were very efficient.

WESTERN.

The Quarantined Steamer—Defaulters—Military Preparations.

SAN FRANCISCO, 24.—The cabin passengers of the quarantined steamer Alaska were allowed to land, to-day. The steerage and Chinese passengers will be quarantined on the hulk for ten or fifteen days. The mails were fumigated and landed to-day.

S. F. Schwartz, chief clerk to Pension Agent Mosley, has absconded a defaulter to a small amount, which has not yet been ascertained.

Myron R. Beaumont, of the firm of George & Beaumont, military claim brokers, who has had intimate relations with the pension office, is also missing with several thousand dollars of the funds of the firm. He is supposed to have gone to China on the last steamer.

A San Diego press dispatch says Governor Safford, of Arizona, has organized two more companies of militia to operate against the Apaches, who continue their stock-stealing operations. Two more companies will be organized within a week.

The Chico Incendiary Trials.

An Oroville press dispatch says John Mahoney, another of the Chico incendiaries, was on trial yesterday, and to-day, the two slaughter boys, his companions in crime, who had made confessions implicating the defendant, denied their sworn statements, and the jury found a verdict of not guilty. James Fay was then placed on trial, and convicted of arson in the second degree. This closes the trials for arson, six in number, all either being convicted or pleading guilty, with the above exception. The murder cases will follow.

FOREIGN.

SPAIN.

The Tax Question.

MADRID, 24.—In Cuba all that Germany has obtained is the suspension of the execution against its subjects for non-payment of arrears of industrial taxes. Spain reserves the right to exact from foreigners all imposts, territorial and industrial, since the extraordinary war contribution was nominally abolished and assimilated to the ordinary taxation by Captain General Jovellar.

TURKEY.

Relations Broken Off.

CONSTANTINOPLE, 24. — Salvet Pasha has sent a dispatch to the representatives of the Porte abroad informing them that the Russian Charge d' Affairs had left with his whole staff, and that the Porte, while regretting the turn of affairs brought about by Russia, had followed the example of that power and instructed its representatives in Russia to break off relations with the Imperial Government. The members of the Turkish embassy at St. Petersburg accordingly leave to-day. It is stated that Layard informed the Porte that England had guaranteed the integrity and independence of the Ottoman Empire only under the conditions laid down by the parties stipulating for the exercise of control by the powers. The Porte having contested this right, has forfeited the benefits guaranteed by these treaties, and England could not intervene with arms in its behalf.

RUSSIA.

The Advanced Corps.

KISCHENEFF, 24.—The advanced corps for crossing the Pruth will be 25,000 strong.

The Montenegrin War Delayed.

ST. PETERSBURG, 24.—The government Gazette states that the beginning of the Montenegrin war is delayed by Petersvitch, the Montenegrin envoy at Constantinople, who has been appointed commander-in-chief, having chosen for his return home a circuitous route.

Prince Gortschakoff's Note.

Prince Gortschakoff sent the following note, dated April 24, to the Turkish Charge d'Affairs here:

"Earnest negotiations by the Imperial Government and the Porte for a durable pacification not having led to the desired accord, my august master sees himself compelled, to his regret, to have recourse to force of arms. Be, therefore, so kind as to inform your government that from to-day Russia considers herself in a state of war with the Porte; the first consequence of this is the rupture of diplomatic relations. I request you to kindly inform me of the number of persons composing the Ottoman Embassy here in order that you may be furnished with the necessary passports. Ottoman subjects residing in Russia are at liberty, if they desire, to leave the country unmolested; those who should prefer to remain may consider themselves assured of the full protection of the laws.

Write Only On One Side.—In writing for the press, write on one side of the paper only. It is very inconvenient to the printer to have "copy" written on both sides of the paper. Write legibly, especially names and dates.
