BY FOREST FIRES.

Several Towns Destroyed and People Made Destitute.

MILLION FEET OF PINE BURNING.

A Chicago Six-story Building Consumed.—Crossing of Electric Wires Starts the Blaze.

DULUTH, Minn., June 18.—The towns of Virginia and Iron Mountain on the Duluth, Mesaba & Northern road have been destroyed by forest fires. Mesaba and Biwbik, on the Duluth & Iron Range, were also visited by serious fires, and Tower had a like experience. There are 2000 people homeless in Virginia and without food or shelter, every provision depot and their contents in the place being destroyed. Women and children are housed in box cars, but have nothing to eat, and there is no engine there to move them. The situation at Iron Mountain is little better. As soon as the news of these facts reached Duluth arrangements were begun to send relief to the distressed. The Duluth, Mesaba & Northern are getting a special train together to be started as soon as possible. All the restaurants and hotels are preparing food to be sent to the sufferers, and tents are being collected. It is feared that the fatalities will be numerous.

ASHLAND, Wis., June 18.—Iron River, a thriving lumber town of over 2000 population, twenty miles from Ashland, is in flames and is likely to be wiped out. The fire caught in the outskirts of the village from forest fires, destroying a new schoolhouse, Congregational and Catholic churches and Ripsey & Hatton's big warehouse.

Forest fires are raging all through the Northwest. Washburn had a close shave. The fire made heavy sweeps in and about White River. It is likely to burn millions of feet of standing pine. The latest advice from Iron River state that the town is gone.

FIRE IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, June 18.—A six-story building at the corner of Wabash avenue and Congress street was destroyed by fire today. The structure was occupied by a number of firms, whose combined losses aggregate $300,000. The fire was started by the crossing of electric wires and spread with such rapidity that the firemen were unable to check it and confined their efforts to saving adjoining buildings, notably the store of Siegel, Cooper & Co. By desperate efforts the flames were confined to the Adams building.

EULALIA EXPLAINS.

She is not Offended with Anybody, She Says.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The Herald this morning has a three-column, double-headed interview with the members of Eulalia's party, and with Eulalia herself in answer to the recent comments by Western papers upon her conduct in Chicago, Eulalia is quoted as saying:

"Everything the duke said to you can be considered as a personal statement from me. I read the comments of the Chicago press and I was completely surprised. From the beginning I tried to please my hosts and make friends. I want the American people to have as pleasant memories of me as I shall always have of them. It astonished me to read that I had offended anybody. No one offended me. If I had not been pleased with my treatment I should have left the country. I was tired and sleepy and ill when I went to Mrs. Potter Palmer's house. I stayed there until all the presentations were over and my head ached so I could not stay to participate in the supper. It was too bad, but you must remember that I had to wear upon my strength. How could I think of offending Mrs. Palmer? She is a charming woman, indeed. When I heard there was even a suspicion that I had offended Mrs. Palmer, I invited her to take dinner with me at the hotel and placed her at my right hand.

"As for my conduct at Fort Sheridan and the review of the troops, Commander Davis offered to assume the whole responsibility of explaining and ordered us that it was not necessary. I met General Miles and he is an attractive, cultivated gentleman. I would not think of being rude to him.

"Is there any truth in the report that your husband, Prince Antonio, has been offended by the failure of the various committees to pay more attention to him?"

The princess and prince both laughed heartily. "There is not a word of truth in it," said the princess, and the prince nodded his assent.

The Viking Has Come.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Captain Andersen and crew sailed into port today with a counterpart of the viking ship of old. The Viking came down from New London, Conn., in tow. She was met by steam a barge with a committee of reception on board. There was a great blowing of whistles and waving of flags, and the band played the Viking march when the viking passed Uncle Sam's coach monitor Miantonomah. The boom of the ship gun had hardly ceased before a sound like a big firecracker came across the water, the Norseman answering the salute from six little cannons.

The viking dropped anchor alongside the Miantonomah. Captain Howard of the Miantonomah paid an official visit. Then the crew were taken on board the Laura M. Starin, where they were welcomed to America by a committee and many of their own countrymen who live here. After an elaborate luncheon was served Consul Bayard delivered an address of welcome, to which Captain Andersen replied in behalf of the Norwegian citizens who had the reproduction of the old Viking ship built. Joseph H. Choate spoke briefly, as did Seth Low, Captain Sicard and ex-Commander Kain.

The Borden Sensation.

NEW YORK, June 18.—The World's Baltimore special says that Mrs. Ramsey, who keeps a boarding house, relates a story that previous to the Borden murders a New England boy, who represented himself as Felix Borden, an adopted son of Lizzie Borden's uncle, lived with her. He did not pay his board bill and left, saying he was going to his home in Massachusetts to get money to settle with. A few days after he left the Borden murders were committed. He returned to Baltimore and Mrs Ramsey spoke about the murders. He replied, "Oh, Lizzie did it." His description, it is said, tallies with that given by the witnesses who testified that they saw a strange young man at the gate of the Borden house the morning of the murder. Young Borden left Baltimore last fall and has not been heard of since.

Sunday Fair Settled.

WASHINGTON, June 17.—The opinion of the court of appeals in deciding that the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago shall remain open Sunday was received here by a press bulletin early in the afternoon. Attorney General Olney told his department that a great record in the case, and had exhausted every legal means to enforce the mandate of Congress in the matter. It is generally acknowledged that the act of Congress is couched in language sufficiently dubious to make its intent doubtful. It seemed to him that the end was now reached.

Matters of a complicated character, he said, would undoubtedly grow out of the decision. It was certain, he intimated, that the government could not now give to the World's Fair authorities the $600,000 still retained in the treasury, but which had been appropriated upon certain conditions. Doubtless he would be confronted with a proposition to take steps to recover $1,900,000 already paid out.

Another question affected by the decision was the government exhibits. It was entirely clear that the government exhibits could not be open on Sunday, but the conditions imposed might prevent the government exhibits from being open on any day. Its hardly thought, however, that the law would bear this construction.

Yesterday's Fair.

CHICAGO, June 18.—There was no wild rush to the White city today and the sun imitated almost the moon before the crowd began to pour in at the gates. In make-up it differed a little from those of previous Sundays. Workingmen, many with their wives, families or sweethearts, took solid comfort in the wondrous sights before them.

The Exposition buildings themselves were not the only places patronized, for the wonders of Midway Plaisance drew even a larger crowd.

Sutelli Starts.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Monsignor Satolli and party left Washington today for an extended tour through the west. After leaving Helena, Yellowstone Park will be visited. Leaving Yellowstone they will proceed to Spokane and continue further west they will make short stops at Seattle, Tacoma and Puget Sound. Thus far it has not been determined whether they will visit the cities of California, but it is probable that the journey will be extended to San Francisco.

A Bandit Scalded.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., June 17.—Last night near Pacific Junction an attempt was made to hold up a passenger train on the Kansas City, St. Joe and Council Bluffs road. The train was under way and the fireman was engaged in throwing a stream of hot water on the coal in the tender when a man crawled over the coal and shoving a revolver in his face told him to throw up his hands. Instead of doing so Fireman Hemingway turned the hot water on the bandit, thoroughly soaking him. The man fired two shots at Hemingway and then fled.

The Ford's Theater Horror.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—Contractor George W. Dant was severely condemned by the evidence given today at the coroner's inquest over the remains of the Ford's theater victims. The United States government also came in for a share of the condemnation, for its methods of doing the work. Thomas J. Kane, a contractor, said the government would not pay fair prices for good work.

The jurors made inquiries of witnesses as to the state of Dant's mind. One contractor said he was not in good health.

The Childs-Drexel Home.

CHICAGO, June 17.—The International Typographical Union today decided to make public the report of the investigation of the Childs-Drexel home at Colorado Springs. It was found, it is said, that the funds had been grossly mismanaged. The home was not built according to specifications and at present is in danger of collapsing. The board of trustees were found guilty of violation of trust, and J. D. Vaughn of Colorado Springs and August Donath of Washington were found especially responsible for the state of affairs. It was decided not to prosecute, but to remove the offending trustees. Fifty-five hundred dollars was appropriated to put the home in proper condition.

The Allotment System.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 17.—Information has just reached the war department of the decision by the United States district court at Seattle in the case of Contractor Rose, who is constructing a railroad across the Puyallup reservation. If sustained the decision will have an important bearing on the Indian policy of the government and threaten to invalidate the allotment system. The military authorities sought to prevent the construction of the road, but the contractor secured the consent of the Indians by hiring them as laborers, and finally appealing to the court for an injunction to prevent the military from interference with the work. The decision sustains the injunction in the pending suit and declares that the government has lost entirely the power of control and use of the lands allotted to the Indians.

President Carnot was reported as decidedly better yesterday.

The departures for Europe today by the large fleet of transatlantic steamers was fully as large as those on the previous Saturday, and will exceed 2,000. The eastward trade seems to be in excess of the west, and so far the so-called World's Fair rush has failed to materialize.

At 2 p. m. yesterday Gillespie arrived at Wahoo, Neb., and registered, closely followed by Stevens and Doc Middleton, all arriving within five minutes of each other. Neither horse nor riders showed any sign of fatigue, and all were in splendid condition. They remained in town about ten minutes to water their horses.

THE GERMAN ARMY BILL.

Result of the Election as Far as Known at Present.

All Probability that the Government Will Secure a Majority for the Measure.

BERLIN, June 18.—The election returns are virtually complete this afternoon. A report from only one district is lacking. The revision of the returns may necessitate a few alterations, but they will be trivial. The candidates elected number 215. Of these 101 will vote for the army bill and 114 are against it. In the following list, by parties, the anti-Semitic conservatives are included with the conservatives and Independents and are treated as members of the parties with which they affiliated: Pfleter clericals, 58; social democrats, 23; conservatives and agrarians, 44; national liberals, 19; radicals, 26; Poles, 19; free conservatives, 10; clericals who favor the bill, 11; Alsatians, 7; south German democrats, 4; anti-Semites, 3 (two favoring the bill); Bavarian agrarians, 2; Guelphs, 4; Danes, 1; Bavarian separatists, 1; Hanoverians, 5.

While victorious the social democrats are regarded with alarm. Their immediate effect upon the fate of the army bill will be more than offset by the 1 man of the Richter radicals. After a four hours' conference yesterday the Richters who met the chancellor to discuss the results of the election, decided that in view of the recent returns it would be superfluous and inexpedient to issue an appeal to the country before the second ballot. A great majority of the adherents are confident they can secure a large number of seats at the second ballots from the Richters and clericals. They depend upon the general alarm excited by the social democratic victories to drive the clericals and opposition clericals into the government camp in constituencies where there are contests between the conservatives or national liberal candidates and socialists.

Speculators on the bourse took a sanguine view of the government prospects on the second ballot. Imperial and Russian stocks which weakened Friday were strong yesterday in consequence of reports that the government would have a small majority at the opening of the Reichstag.

LONDON, June 18.—The Berlin correspondent of the Daily News says there cannot be the slightest doubt that the army bill will be passed with a good majority. The Standard's Berlin correspondent expresses the same opinion somewhat less emphatically.

Visited Bismarck.

BERLIN, June 18.—Thirty-five hundred Mecklenburgers and 500 Hamburgers went to Friedrichsruhe today to pay homage to Prince Bismarck. The prince made a long speech, alluding to the battle of Waterloo and the part Germany took in it. He appeared hale and hearty and was enthusiastically cheered.

In Defiance of the Police.

VIENNA, June 18.—Five thousand workingmen, in defiance of police prohibition, held a meeting in favor of universal suffrage at Weissenberge today. When the police attempted to disperse the meeting they were received with a volley from revolvers and stones. A commissary of police were killed and five policemen critically injured. On the other side twenty-six workingmen were wounded.

IN HAWAII.

The National Flag Floats Over the Palace.

HONOLULU, June 16, via San Francisco per steamer City of Peking.—For the first time in the history of the Hawaiian Islands the Hawaiian national flag floated over the palace June 2nd. The formal occupation of the palace by the provisional government and the raising of the national emblem over it is regarded by annexationists generally and by many natives as a final blow to the monarchy.

The government officials claim to be making progress in the investigation of the alleged dynamite outrage. There is an impression current that no harm to the government was intended.

The royalists claim to have received reliable information that the provisional government had decided to deport the ex-queen on the steamer City of Peking, due from China June 7. She prepared to resist any such attempt and men were placed on guard at the ex-queen's residence to give the deputers a warm reception. It was stated that Sam Parker requested the British minister to move his legation to the ex-queen's residence, thus placing Lilinokalani under the protection of the British flag, but the minister refused.

Major Wadmopose says that there is not a word of truth in the story, that the provisional government played a trump card June 9 by publishing the text of the power of attorney given by Liliuokalani to Paul Neumann when he went to the United States to work against annexation. The annexationists claim that the execution of that power of attorney destroys the chief argument of the queen, that she yields to the superior force of the United States, as in it she acknowledges that she made an unconditional surrender to the provisional government.

W. G. Smith, editor of the Hawaiian Star, has been arrested on the charge of criminal libel at the instance of Claus Spreckels. The Star intimated that Spreckels ought to be deported and his possessions confiscated.

Waterspout in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 17.—The town of Uriangato was last night visited by a waterspout that did great damage. It burst unexpectedly over the town at midnight and the flood covered the entire town, the water rising to the height of four feet. The people were panic-stricken, and many men, women and children were drowned. A great many families are homeless. The city council has issued an appeal, asking other towns to come to their relief.

Armenians Sentenced.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 18.—The trial of the Armenians accused of being concerned in the rioting at Cesarea and Marzovan last spring has just been concluded at Angora and seventeen of the prisoners, including Professor Theumaian and Professor Kayayan, were condemned to death; six, including a Protestant pastor, A. T. Ginorie, were sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment. Eighteen were sentenced to imprisonment for terms ranging from seven to ten years and fifteen were acquitted.

Policeman Smith in Chicago yesterday accidentally shot and instantly killed Joseph Harwick, aged 14. The officer was pursuing a pickpocket and fired at him. The bullet struck the boy in the head.

Baron De Bin Barneo of Basel, on every seat to ask President Cleveland to act as arbitrator in the dispute between Brazil and Argentine over the possession of the state of Panama, is in New York. President Cleveland has consented to serve as arbitrator.

Joseph Jefferson is yet confined to his room at Fall River, Mass., and kept utterly quiet, though his son says his condition is not alarming.

SUNOL!

ROBERT BONNER
Superintending the shoeing of Sunol with the Putnam Nail.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 8, 1892.
PROVIDENCE HIGH SCHOOL FAIR,
MILLER & BUSLEY,
FRANKLIN VEHICLE CO., Cor. Pine St. and Fountain St.
PUTNAM NAIL CO., Boston, Mass.
GENTLEMEN:—Regarding the question of the little horse, which I bought of you, and for which I paid you $400 and which, had he been sound, would have been worth $1,500 to me, I will say that I have had the horse shod with your shoes. I will not allow any other nail to be used than the Putnam Hot-Forged Nail. I am pleased to say that the horse has not offered to go lame. I have driven him some, and expect shortly to make a trial of his speed.
Very respectfully yours,
Chas. H. Warren

The Putnam Nail is the only exclusively Hot-Forged and Hammer-Pointed nail.

Look in your smith's shoeing box. If the nails have smooth edges for the whole length they are the PUTNAM, for they are Hammer-Pointed and are not sheared.

The above picture, from a photo specially taken for Robert Bonner by the great horse photographer, A. Parker, with the exclusive shoeing of the famous Sunol, will be used in the form of a half tone, size, 8x10, on thick, white paper, with wide margin, on receipt of 6 cent mailing for postage.
