Resolved, That it is the sense of the First precinct Republicans assembled that the delegates to be elected from this precinct should be men who are in favor of the free coinage of silver and gold at the present ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for the co-operation of any other nation, and who are in favor of the free coinage of silver.

Kenyon offered the following substitute which was adopted:

MISSING MAN MYSTERY.

Citizens of Nephi Aroused Over the Disappearance of a Resident of that Place.

About the middle of January, says a Nephi special to the Tribune under date of the 2nd inst, one Fred Farmer hired to William May and went to the Colorado river on a gold prospecting tour. They reached the Colorado on the 10th of February; there the two had a falling out, and as Mr. May claims, Farmer went one way and he another. Mr. May returned to Nephi on the 17th of March, and concerning their separation has told several stories. Mrs. Farmer is almost frantic on the mysterious disappearance of her husband; for two weeks citizens of Nephi have been much worked up over the affair, but hoping that word might be received from Mr. Farmer. In the meantime, a party from St. George has been looking for the missing man, but have failed to find any trace. Word has been received of him. The citizens are becoming desperate, and more so since about two days ago May disappeared, and a couple days later Tuesday a committee was formed to take action to send out a searching party.

A meeting was called by the mayor to meet at the opera house tonight. The house was crowded; the mayor was appointed chairman of the meeting; speeches were made advocating sending out an exploring party. Judge Smith moved to take up a collection for the purpose and started it with $5. A committee was appointed to canvass the house; in a short time $132.45 was subscribed.

A committee of five was appointed to make arrangements to send out the party, with George O. Willmore as chairman. Description and photograph of the man will be sent to all the dailies for publication. The party will start as soon as possible.

BREACH OF PROMISE SUIT.

Miss Elizabeth Redden, a Salt Lake Girl, Sues a Montana Man for $15,000 for Her Alleged Ruin.

According to a Herald dispatch a sensational breach of promise suit was filed in the district court at Butte yesterday. The plaintiff is Miss Elizabeth Redden of Salt Lake and the defendant is William L. Ledford, a mining prospector who has not very well to do. Ledford at one time was arrested as a vagrant here. Four years ago he got possession of a secret by which old iron and tin thrown in highly charged with iron copper ores was changed to copper. He owned the waters flowing from the Anaconda and St. Lawrence mines, and since then has been cleaning up from $3,000 to $8,000 a month. Ledford is a cousin of the Ledford twins, who are famous in this city. He met Miss Redden in Salt Lake last summer, and on the statement that he was free to marry he asked her to accompany him on his rounds in July. She says $15,000 damages.

In a statement over his own signature, Ledford last night said: Miss Redden is nothing but an adventuress, and that her suit is the result of his refusal to permit her to blackmail him. Ledford says Miss Redden's father lived a long time had been in his employ and lived in his family (before he (Ledford) went to Salt Lake last summer), and he (Ledford) thought he was married. He does not deny being intimate with her at Salt Lake, and says he did pay her some money on his return home. She assigned him constantly for money but he refused to answer her letters. Last Friday she arrived in Butte and sent a messenger three times to his house, asking him to meet her at a house of ill-repute. Ledford says he met her and then she demanded money and that she would have gone away for $500. Ledford, according to the statement left her and immediately informed a policeman. I went had [illegible] officers have been watching her movements since.

Ledford also denies that he went to Salt Lake to visit the Redden, he says he had a room down town where he met the girl.
