HOUSES DEMOLISHED IN PLACES.

Not Too Fatally Injured — Curious Course of the Angel of Destruction.

DALLAS, TEX., Oct. 28.—A special to the News from Sherman says: This afternoon at 1 o'clock a wet-colored tornado formed in Squirrel creek bottom, four miles west of the village of Farmington and about two miles southwest of this city. Parties who saw it at its inception say that out of a cyclonic looking mass of inky clouds a funnel-shaped column descended until it touched the earth, and then it began to move northeastward accompanied by the usual terrific crash and roar as it tore through the bottom, sweeping large trees and demolishing everything in its path, which for the first mile or two was thirty or forty yards in width. The first house it is known to have struck was on the George Duke farm, one mile west of Howe and about five miles from the starting point. No one was hurt at this place. From Duke's it took a westerly course the Jim Farris farm, two miles south of the city, a distance of perhaps two miles, it is known to have risen and descended several times, and what damage is did not yet been ascertained. Several parties have gone to that section, but it will be several hours before definite information can be had.

At the Farris place a tenant hut occupied by a family named Hayes was literally torn to pieces and every member of the family was more or less injured. Hayes is thought to be totally lost.

The path of the storm lay at least a mile and a half southeast of the city, but the cloudburst which accompanied it was felt quite in the eastern suburbs of the city. The houses as far down as Cleveland avenue are more or less scattered, the same as was the case during the great storm of 12 Sept. 1895. After passing down a vacant house east of the Cleveland avenue place, on the Denison road about a mile east of College park school, the cloud rose in the air and went a distance of two miles where it descended again. No further damage can be learned of.

At 5 p. m. a call was received from the vicinity of the Farris place for assistance from the city, asking for searching parties and relief. A large number responded. Great crowds are congregated all over the city anxiously awaiting their return. Physicians have gone to the scene of the Hayes family and a more or more have placed themselves in readiness to answer summons if it is found that any of the persons have been hurt, which at this hour is not improbable, on account of the narrowness of the path and its frequent leaps into the air.

THE BERLIN SENSATION.

Bismarck's Disclosures Believed to Encourage the Sweltoun.

BERLIN, Oct. 28.—Public opinion generally in Germany concerning Prince Bismarck's revelations in the Hamburger Nachrichten regarding the alliance between Russia and Germany which existed during the last years of his chancellorship, was also some wise made to his indirect or quasity which is gradually tantalizing his friends and admirers.

There is little doubt that the prince has divulged important state secrets in his attempt to triumph over his successor, Count Von Caprivi, and the official communique in the Reichsanzeiger yesterday, called exclusively to the Associated Press yesterday afternoon, indirectly admits the truth of the article in the Reichsanzeiger and sharply rebukes Prince Bismarck.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Prince Bismarck's disclosure of the existence of a Home-German entente during the last years of his tenure in office has had a startling and disturbing effect in both Berlin and Vienna, to say nothing of Paris, and is regarded as unsettling the situation. A feeling of distrust has been aroused between the allies, and fears are expressed whether or the alliance will be renewed in 1897.

PALMER AND BUCKNER.

Cheering for the Candidates at the National Democratic Party.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 28.—Amid enthusiasm and the cheering of thousands, the special Palmer and Buckner train drew into this city shortly after one today. An escort of several hundred G. A. R. men and citizens accompanied the party in the hack to the Palmer house, already packed with an enthusiasm of 3,000 people. Great cheering greeted the national Democratic candidates as they reached the stage.

Gen. Buckner spoke for twenty-five minutes, discussing the money question with earnestness and force. An effort on the part of a rebellion to prevent some of his notes was silenced by the question: "Is it not a fact that in 1892 you made a speech in favor of free coinage?" was one of them. It was quite evident that the "No" that was applauded to her end.

In the second the general was asked if he had not sought the Democratic nomination for president in 1892. To this he pronounced the "No" with even greater emphasis, and followed it up with, "The men who say that I sought it after the opposition to him, is a lie."

The meeting closed with great cheering for Palmer and Buckner.

HOME CITIZENS OF MISSOURI.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—"From information we have received from nearly all the county committees in Missouri," said Chairman Hanna today, "we feel confident of electing the governor and a majority of the legislature, and fully believe that we have more than an even chance of carrying the state for McKinley.

England Wants Egypt.

LONDON, Oct. 29.—Lord Charles Beresford in a speech at the Constitutional club yesterday declared that the time had arrived for England to boldly announce her intention to annex Egypt.

The Morning Post (conservative) approaches the policy and says the opportunity is in Europe would be purely pleasure.

The Graphic, on the other hand, declares "we have pledged ourselves to evacuate Egypt, and the course Lord Charles Beresford advocates would be an act of perfidy."

CONFESSED TO BOB THROWING.

Two Students Arrested and Again Released.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Chauncey Foster and A. J. Hamblett, two of the four students of the Commerce college accused of having thrown eggs at Mr. and Mrs. Bryan during the parade yesterday, were arrested tonight and by Detectives McCady and Fay. They are sons of well-to-do South side families. They confessed to Chief of Police Badenoch that they threw eggs.

Thomas Gahan, chairman of the Democratic county committee, has received the following letter from Mr. Bryan regarding the matter:

AUDITORIUM HOTEL,
CHICAGO, Oct. 28th.

Dear Mr. Gahan:—I wish you would ask for the release of the boys arrested for throwing eggs. I am sure it was an act of thoughtlessness and their relatives have sufficient means to them and others.

Yours truly,
W. J. BRYAN.

Late in the afternoon the chief of police was compelled to release the two young offenders, at after Mr. Bryan had written his letter asking for their release. It was evident there would be no prosecution if the prisoners were arraigned.

Before the prisoners had been released, word was received from each of their families saying that the law could take its course, as no pull in the direction would be taken by any of the families.

CHEER BRYAN A HOME AND LOT.

CHICAGO, O., 28.—Without M. H. Ely of this city, W. Gunn Hugh & Co., importers and wholesale grocers, presented to Mr. Bryan today a house and two lots in Lincoln, Neb., in lieu of a cash contribution to the campaign fund. In his letter Mr. Hugh stated the gift contained, and declared that although he is rich in real estate, he is poor in cash.

Mr. Bryan turned the deed over to Chairman Jones, who will sell it and put the proceeds into the Democratic campaign fund. The property is worth about $10,000.

CARLISLE'S ADMIRERS.

Vast Crowds Turn Out to Hear Him Speak at Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 28.—This afternoon at 4 o'clock Kentucky gold standard Democrats fairly outdid itself tonight. No larger crowd has turned out here during the campaign and no more brilliant gathering has greeted any speaker in Louisville. The extent of the demonstration was a surprise to even the most enthusiastic admirers of the great Kentuckian. The meeting was set for 8 p. m., but by 6 p. m. not every one of the 4,000 seats had in it occupant and by 7 the aisles, foyers and wings were all filled. The interest in the great statesman's speech and the appearance of a grand open night than of a political demonstration. The secretary has been in this city for the past two days preparing his address, and while in the main it followed the representative line of his previous speeches in this state during the present campaign, he presented some new points and forcible arguments that elicited round after round of applause. He made no mention of any candidate or a national ticket by name.

The secretary was escorted from the hall house to the Auditorium by the Young Men's Democratic Sound Money club. He was greeted by prolonged cheering when introduced. The appearance was almost equaled when he the center of his address he mentioned sharply the name of President Cleveland.

Mr. Carlisle began by stating that it was not the Democratic party that those who believe as he does are fighting, but the most monstrous and indefensible p. Just combination that ever raided in this country. It began, he said, by the betrayal of Democracy at Chicago, culminated in the nomination of Populism at St. Louis, and then he object the election of a candidate who represents none of the parties to the compact and believes in the Chicago platform. There is now a shadow of conflict between them, the secretary said. They are parts for a scheme for concerted legislative action and must be considered together as a Democratic, no-Republican and no-American.

"If they shall triumph," he added, "we may expect to see the low day when faith and economy shall be punished by confiscation and indolence rewarded by the distribution of spoliation from private estates and the United States treasury."

After discussing at some length the free coinage theory and that part of the Chicago platform relating to the courts, Secretary Carlisle concluded with an appeal to his Kentucky friends to work earnestly for the defeat of the Chicago ticket.

There were prominent calls for John B. Fellows, who was on the stage, and, despite that great orator's indisposition, which caused him today to cancel part of his engagements to speak, he made a few remarks.

Supposed Robber Killed.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 28.—The Pacific Northwest was startled last August by the news that treasurer George McAuley of the Cariboo mine had been held up by a lone Skowyman and robbed of $11,000 in gold bullion. Not long a suspicion will be spring tomorrow morning when the Puget Intelligencer announces that Matthew Broderick, a reputed respectable citizen of Seattle, is accused of the crime, and was killed yesterday at the hands of a posse near the Cariboo mine by the officers.

Broderick was working in the mine, but was ill there, at the time of the hold-up. Soon after the robbery he returned to Seattle, and since then has been shadowed by detectives. A month ago last night Broderick left the city secretly on business. Detectives between the lines and a posse was called to could not early away, so they left in active tors, two big and one small. The small one contained $1,000, and it was believed Broderick took that one out and hid the other two. Nothing more was heard of the case until today, when a telegram announced the killing at Broderick.

Detectives have two officials from men who live in the Cariboo mining country singing that Broderick tried to get them to go in with him on the hold-up.

Broderick leaves a wife and two children in Seattle. She first heard of his death tonight, when officers went to her home armed with a search warrant. In a small box $200 in gold was found, in addition to papers showing that Broderick had been interested or at one time returning to Seattle. When Broderick left the mine just after the hold-up he was so poor that the miners made up a subscription of $25 to help him out.

GOLD ON A TRAIN.

A Treasure in Transit Well Guarded by Soldiers.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.—Retired employes of the Grand Central express division thought the advance guard of an army had arrived in Chicago when the R. & O. fast express train pulled into the station last night. The C. R. express company had a special car attached to the train, and all except one little nutter of the car was filled with men who carried revolvers and guns instead of traveling bag cases. In the center, however, was sufficient wealth to satisfy a dozen gangs of train robbers. If they had secured it, the wealth consisted of gold amounting to a local money value of $2,000,000. It had been shipped from the mint in Denver in New York to the sub-treasury in this city and it will be transferred from the express car to the Rock Island building this morning. The treasure was due to the fact that the Chicago sub-treasury was found to be low on gold, and it was sent to the sub-treasury in San Francisco.

ROCK PEDIMENT.

MONMOUTH, Ill., Oct. 28.—Monmouth township, Warren county, has completed three thousand feet of brick pavement, the first and only good road in this county west of the Illinois river. The brick is single course, laid on six inches of sand, supported on each side by two and one half feet of crushed limestone. The cost will be less than $2,000 a mile.

INSURANCE SUIT.

Decision of Interest to Members of Fraternal Companies.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 28.—An insurance suit of much interest to fraternal companies has been decided in Judge Johnson's court. August Rois and Cecelia Rois, through their guardian, sued the Legion of Honor to recover on an insurance policy of $2,000 which their father, Christian Rois, had at the time of his death, and which was to go to his children. Nine days before his death he was dropped from the order for nonpayment of an assessment levied previously. It was shown in the testimony that a tender of the assessment was made to the officers of the order within the sixty days which is allowed a policy holder to be reinstated. Judge Johnson directed a verdict for the plaintiffs on this ground.

The case will be taken to the Supreme Court, as the point raised never been decided by the higher court.

Mr. J. E. Fowler, secretary and treasurer of the Carbon Mill Canal Company, of Carbon, Utah, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy says: "I consider it the best in the market. I have used many bottles in my family and find it the most prompt and effectual in giving relief, and now keep no other in my home." When troubled with a cough or cold give this remedy a trial and we assure you that you will be more than pleased with the result. For sale by druggists.

There is one medicine which every family should be provided with. We refer to Chamberlain's Pain Balm. When it is kept at hand the severest pain of a burn or scald may be promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A quick way to promptly treated burns is Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which insures a cure in about one-third the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate attention, before the parts become swollen, and when Chamberlain's Pain Balm is applied it will heal them without matter being formed, and without leaving a scar. A sore throat may be cured in one night. A piece of flannel dampened with this liniment and bound on over the seat of pain, will cure lame back or pain in the side or chest in twenty-four hours. It is the most valuable known, for lameness. Persons afflicted with this disease will be delighted with the relief this remedy gives. For sale by all druggists.

"While down in the southwestern part of the state some time ago," says Mr. W. Omsbee, editor of the Clinton (Ga.) Enterprise, "I had an attack of dysentery. Having heard of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy I bought a bottle. A couple of doses of it completely cured me. Now I am a champion of that remedy for all stomach and bowel complaints." For sale by druggists.
