KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

The most Successful Remedy ever discovered, as it is certain in its effects and does not blister.

READ PROOF BELOW from

Rev. P. N. GRANGER,

Presiding Elder of the St. Albans District.

St. Albans, Vt., Jan. 20th, 1880.

Dr. B. J. KENDALL & Co.: Gents—In reply to your letter I will say that my experience with Kendall's Spavin Cure has been very satisfactory indeed. Three years ago I procured a bottle of your agent, and with its contents a horse of lameness caused by spavin. Last season my horse was lame and Iticked it with your Cure, and it soon had no trouble better, but when I drove on the road he grew worse, and I concluded that a flying visit to Fredericksburg would be the best thing I could do. I procured a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and with less than a bottle cured him so that he is sound as ever, neither can the bunch be found.

Gratefully yours, P. N. GRANGER.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE is sold by druggists, or will be sent by the proprietors, at 1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. It is adapted to every species of lameness, and is the best known remedy for the disease it is intended to cure. Please read the following testimonial from a well known and reliable druggist:

Mr. B. J. KENDALL & Co.: Gentlemen—I think it only just to you that I should inform you of the great success I have had with your Spavin Cure. I have been in the drug business for over twenty years, and have never met with such uniform satisfaction from any one preparation as I have with your Spavin Cure. I can recommend it to my customers as a reliable article, and one that will do what it is advertised to do. Yours truly, C. H. MOSHER, Druggist, Lowell, Mass.

Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. Of all druggists, or address DR. B. J. KENDALL & CO., Enosburgh Falls, Vt.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE.

MORGANTON,
Burke County, N. C.,
July 3rd, 1882.

The North Carolina Conference was held in Burke County, commencing June 30, 1882.

Present on the stand: Prest. John Morgan, Prest. Geo. Passey, Elders J. M. Barlow, W. H. Baker, C. J. Brain, J. S. Carpenter, O. M. Fullmer, James Jenkins, W. H. Clayton, J. H. Barlow, W. H. White, E. M. Dalton and R. A. Robinson. Prest. Burton and Elder Easton, of South Carolina Conference.

11 a.m.

Meeting opened by singing and prayer.

Prest. Passey was the first speaker. Spoke of the position of a servant of God being very important; desired to hear from the Elders present. Closed with a sincere prayer for the advancement of truth.

Elder Dalton spoke of the penalties attending the preaching of any other than the true Gospel; dwelt at some length upon the principle of faith.

Elder White showed the necessity of proving all things and of the poor being rich in faith. Exhorted the Saints to be diligent and faithful.

President Morgan spoke of the good resulting from our meeting together. Said the work of the Lord is progressing and the Elders feel well. Made a few remarks on prayer. Referred to the prayer taught by our Savior. Said the kingdom spoken of had come, and would progress till it filled the whole earth. Wished the Elders to magnify their calling, but give all the glory to God.

Elder Easton considered it a privilege to preach and administer in the ordinances of the gospel. Thanked the Lord for the knowledge of the same, and was satisfied that the work would increase despite the actions of the governments. Singing. Benediction by Elder Perkins.

5 p. m.

After singing and prayer Elder Clayton spoke of the apostacy and restoration of the Gospel; desired to all his attention in honor.

Elder Fullmer bore a strong testimony to the truthfulness of the Gospel. Spoke of the blessings resulting through obedience to the commandments of God.

Elder John Barlow related his experience in preaching the Gospel. Expressed his thankfulness for the privilege of meeting with the Elders in conference.

Elder Jenkins spoke of the responsibility resting upon the servants of God. Bore his testimony that the Gospel was restored to the earth.

Elder Carpenter referred to the Gospel as being a perfect law of liberty. Dwelt a few moments on the Saints having something more than mere feelings concerning God.

Elder Brown testified that he was thankful for the privilege of being in the kingdom of God. Spoke of the goodness of God to him. Exhorted the Saints to be faithful. Testified that God was with his servants.

Elder Barlow spoke of the goodness of God to him. Singing. Benediction by Elder J. M. Barlow.

Saturday, July 1st, 11 a. m.

After singing and prayer, Elder Burton addressed the congregation. Said the spirit of God was the only infallible guide; spoke of the unity that should characterize the Saints; referred to the Gospel of the kingdom being preached for a witness, and illustrated the results of obedience.

President Pasey spoke of the blessings attended by continued faithfulness; cited the condition of the Jews as being the effects of disobedience; showed the necessity of having a perfect organization to teach and administer the laws of the Gospel.

Singing. Benediction by Elder Clayton.

3 p. m.

After the usual service, Elder Baker gave some useful instructions concerning seeking after the spirit which guides into all truth, portraying its superiority to the learning of the world; exhorted the congregation to diligence in seeking after truth.

President Morgan read 1 Cor. 1, 10, and commented with power upon the unity that exists among the Elders of the Church of Jesus Christ, making many illustrations, ane compared the divided state of the Christian world with the unity existing among the Latter-day Saints.. Quoted from the the Revelations of John predictions concerning the universal apostacy, and represented its fulfillment in the present state of Christendom.

Singing. Benediction by Elder Fullmer.

Sunday, 11 a. m.

After singing and prayer the general Church authorities were presented by President George Passey, and sustained as at the last general conference.

The following Elders were sustained; John Morgan as President of the Southern States Mission; George Passey, President of the North Carolina Conference; J. M. Barlow, W. H. Baker, C. J. Brain, J. S. Carpenter, O. M. Fullmer, James Jenkins, W. H. Clayton, J. H. Barlow, E. M. Dalton, R. A. Robinson Traveling Elders in said conference. William Hill, President of Pilot Mountain Branch; C. J. Brain, clerk of Conference.

The following are the statistics of the Conference:

Total number of officers and members, 90; baptisms since last conference, 49; children blessed since last conference, 12.

President Morgan addressed the congregation. Read 1 Cor. 12 chap. 28 to 30 verses. Spoke of the two-fold nature of the declarations made by the servants of God. Explained the organization and the first principles of the Gospel, its power gifts and blessings. Bore a faithful testimony to the divinity of the Gospel, and concluded by asking God's blessing to abide with all.

Singing. Benediction by Elder Easton.

3 p. m.

After the opening exercises the Sacrament was administered, Prest. Passey making some appropriate remarks concerning the same.

Elder J. M. Barlow made some very interesting remarks concerning the gathering of Israel in the the last days. Bore his testimony to the truthfulness of the latter-day work. Concluded with a short address upon new revelation and its necessity.

Elder Brain spoke of the judgements of God upon the children of disobedience and bore testimony to the truth as revealed in these last days.

Singing.

President Morgan, in behalf of the Elders expressed his thanks for the kindness manifested towards Elders and Saints. Made some remarks of commendation on the good actions of the people.

Conference adjourned. Benediction by Prest. Passey.
